WHITE FRIEND OF NEGROES DEFENDS WITH GUN

Jailed, But Unrelenting!

The segregation case which was reported both generally and editorially in these columns June 25th, in which it was stated that a body of white men of the neighborhood had formed a restrictive organization, came to a climax Wednesday in a shooting affray.

The organization, known as the South-west C. of C. had repeatedly asked and ordered Mr. Mentis Carrere living at 721 W. 85th Street to move. They were led by F. C. Finkle, a deputy sheriff, assisted by Z. Fitzgerald and Jerry Kern.

Carrere staunchly refused to move or sell and was championed in the meetings by a white friend, Mr. Harry Grund. Yesterday, perhaps fearing for his friend's safety, or thinking by the threatening attitude of some of the agitators that they meant to attack the home, Mr. Grund is said to have fired several shots, one of which went through a mail carrier's window across the street. A gun was found on him when arrested but he declares he is still ready to fight against the bars raised in some sections of the city against Negroes. It has been rumored today that Carrere is now considering a sale to the members of the committee.

The Wanderer's Many Sweethearts

Now the sailor who sails the 'Seven Seas"
Can't always choose his girl—
Since my wandering feet will not appease,
But seek strange lands and shores without surcease;
I meet French, and Spanish and Singalese,
In the wake of the twin-screw's whirl.

For a man must find the flashing smile;
Soft hands, sweet lips, to taste,
Finn, Malay or "Jap," time to beguile
Love at equator, or iceberg's pile
But I yearn for my own Brown Girls meanwhile
In my own United States.

Mrs. Ethel Robinson and Mrs. Minnie Radford of Kansas City, Mo., passed through the city Monday, August 2nd en route to Oakland where they will attend the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs.

Miss Marcia Pruitt Called Perfect Type By Able Critic

SIGNAL HONOR CONFERRED UPON LEADING LADY OF DRAMA, "EASY MONEY," TO BE SHOWN AT GAMUT AUD., MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 23RD.

--A radiant vision of blushes and dimples, little Miss Marcia Pruitt of 2224 Hooper avenue, gracefully accepted the appellation, "Perfect," from the lips of A. J. Smith, a critic of sufficient experience for his word to carry real weight in Los Angeles. But Mr. Smith, was speaking of the Marcel waves that Miss Pruitt puts in his wife's hair, in her up-to-date little beauty shop at 23rd and Hooper Ave.

However, Miss Pruitt is no less perfect in her portrayal of "Anita," leading character in the dramatic sensation "Easy Money," to be shown at Gamut Aud., Monday night, August 23rd. Unusually fortunate were those in charge of selecting the cast for this play, in securing the services of Miss Pruitt, for this young lady is really dramatic, really talented, really beautiful.

Mr. Fitzhugh L. Banks, president of the well known East Side Realty firm who plays opposite Miss Pruitt, as Mr. Samuel Wellington, a handsome and wealthy but selfish and dissipated batchelor, looks the part so exactly in his "make up" and acts it so well on the stage, that Mr. Banks will have to look to his reputation in Los Angeles, after Monday night, August 23rd.

"She was just born for her part," is the comment passed upon the acting of Dr. Annie Leggett, well-known in the professional and social set of Los Angeles, in her role of the rich, haughty, but kind-hearted society matron, in whose employ "Anita" serves.

Miss Thelma Brown, daughter of Rev. L. B. Brown, pastor of the Beth Eden Baptist Church, carries her audience with her and there is scarcely a dry eye in the house, when she finishes her dramatic recital of the experiences through which she passed as the wife of a soldier hung as a participant in the Houston Riots.

Fresh as paint and haughty as a queen is Miss Portia Pruitt, as "Elsie," a white school mate of "Anita's" and conceited fiancee of Mr. Samuel Wellington this young lady really plays her part and no one seeing "Easy Money" on Monday nite, Aug. 23rd will doubt the fact.

Very tired, very sick, very spent, and ill is Mrs. Hazel Temple, as the bed-ridden invalid mother of Anita and there is no better actress in the entire production, in their part than this very versatile little matron.

Miss Ettaford Sanders, is red-headed in reality and she is more than red-headed in her denouncement of Negroes, as the native southern woman visiting Mrs. Wellington. This young lady has a very difficult part which she plays exceptionally well.

A recital of characters who take their parts with ability would not be complete without mentioning Mrs. Sarah Garrott as Mrs. Turner. Mrs. N. A. Hawkins as Elsie's mother and little Jane Christian as a little girl living near "Anita."

TAKES PARTY ON SIGHT-SEEING TRIP

On last Thursday, Mrs. Sterling Settles of 1342 E. 33rd St., had as her honored guest on a sight-seeing trip: Mrs. E. Sodas and daughter, Mrs. E. Johnson of Marlin, Texas; Mrs. E. N. Mrs. Settles being a cateress served a wonderful lunch in the picnic grounds on the pier of Santa Monica.

Officer Leroy Kelly

The above is a likeness of Patrolman Leroy Kelly, the genial traffic officer stationed at the busy intersection of 9th and Central. Tall, handsome and powerfully built, he presents an imposing figure as one of the guardians of the great city's peace and safety. It is erroneously conceived by some that an officer of the law cannot be an officer and at the same time possess the sympathetic qualities that go to make up a peace-loving Christian and a gentleman. But Mr. Kelly is a contradiction of this belief as he is an active member and church worker of Macedonia Baptist Church.

Thousands of vehicles of all kinds pass under his direction, day after day and so general has the public become acquainted with him that every man and woman passing has a nod and smile for him, and all the children look up to him as a natural protector. Though forced to untangle the traffic, frequently settle disputes, and punish law breakers, he keeps a cool head at all times and is a man not only his race, but the public in general should highly apprec'ate.

Children, Piano Wonders Discovered

As proof of the fact that wonders never cease in this city, Miss Hazel Gottschalk has discovered in little Alice and Ernestine Wilson, two pianists who will some day in the near future, occupy an honorable place in the world of art. They were presented by Miss Gottschalk on Wednesday night of last week at her home on East 17th street. Among the fifty friends were many high in musical circles who were surprised and delighted at the wonderful mastery the little tots displayed in their playing of the great classics, of which their program practically consisted. The difficult "Sonata," one of the great Mozart's masterpieces; "Barcarole," by Bilbro; "Chevalaresque" by Burgmuller; "L'Avalanche" by Heller and the descriptive "In an Alabama Cabin" by Cadman were all played perfectly with true interpretation and artistic touch and technique. Miss Mavme Lowe sang "Pale Moon" in beautiful voice and Mr. Edward Atkinson rendered the comical little solo, "You'd better ask me"

'Back Porch Burglar' is White Boy

Camden, N. J., July 26. (A. N. P.) The "back porch burglar" who has been operating in this city for several months, turned out to be a white youth in the person of John Penn, eighteen, of Broadway near Haddon avenue. He was arrested early Saturday morning after a chase.

When Detectives searched his room they found watches, rings, silverware, and other small artcles of value. Police are endeavoring to connect him with about thirty robberies. They say that in each of these, the manner of entry and the thief's methods were the same. Many colored men were arrested and the police tried to put the blame on them.

OLDEST WOMAN IN LOS ANGELES

MOTHER ELIZA ALLEN

We are giving in brief the history and some of the activities of Mother Eliza Allen, who, at her death, was believed to be the oldest woman in Los Angeles.

Until the time of her death, it is said, she was as young physically and mentally, as when she was but a young woman.

According to the daughter of the deceased, Sister Eliza Allen was born a slave to one Mr. Ratliff in Lexington, Ky., January 1st, 1800, which would make her 126 years, 6 months and 7 days old at the hour of her death, which occurred 4 A. M. Monday, June 7th, 1926, at 1228 Compton avenue.

Sister Eliza Allen was the mother of eleven children. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Permele Smith with whom she resided; one grandson; one granddaughter and three great grandsons.

Mother Allen has always been a Sabbath keeper, religiously speaking, being reared such by her owner, himself a 7th Day Baptist.

In 1906 Sister Allen came to California and in this same year connected with the 7th Day Adventist Church where she has since remained faithful. She has not only been an active member in the church but she spent long years of service in "denomination book work."

At the time of her death Sister Allen had been confined to her bed for several weeks prior to her death. While there she realized she wou'd not recover from this last attack she suffered hence would often say to her daughter that her "work was finished." After eating her breakfast 9 A. M., Sunday morning, she could not speak loud enough to make herself heard. Sister Mary Anna Menchan was at the bedside when she breathed her last breatth. She described the scene as having been a peaceful one, just as if she had resignedly relaxed into the arms of Jesus.

Sister Allen was a great church worker, and at her advanced age went to Redondo Beach, Venice, Glendale, Ocean Park and Hollywood selling the literature for her church, she made all of these trips alone.

Elder Rich conducted the funeral services.

An Interview With Pres. Mary McLeod Bethune

BY CAMILLE COHEN-JONES

(For the Associated Negro Press)

Eyes aglow, pride beaming upon her countenance and a heart brimful of gratitude for the wonderful co-operative spirit of the delegation crossing the continent to carry a message to the women of the far west so as to have them feel that though they are far from the center of activities, they are part of the program of the association and much needed for success, Mary McLeod Bethune, sat in the beautifully appointed Golden Gate Club Car and gave praise to the women who are so loyal to the cause.

Two years ago when California extended an invitation to the women to met with her, a big cry went up! "Entirely too far, it is too expensive, and we shall never have the representation we ought to have, and it 's best to have it in a more centrally located city". But it was not to be. Calofirnia won out, and the one question the expression of pride made by President Bethune when told that the Rock Island officials state that this is the largest special they have ever sent across the Continent? This special caries at this time (we are right now at Council Bluffs, Iowa) exactly eighten Standard Pullmans, with two more to be added later on, at Colorado Springs, two diners, one club car, and one observation car.

Listen to Mrs. Bethune's program in her own words:—

"I am for peace and harmony first of all. It is my wish that our meetings will be noted for that above all things. I want to do the things that are best for us all and the things that will go farthest in promoting our ideas and carying them out to a successful finish. Wherever you wish to go, there shall you find me willing to go and to work to put over the things that not only will help us as women, but to make things better for all humanity. Mine is not a selfish motive. It is to promote the interests of first, the women, next the race but I do so want that all will be well with the worl at large. Of course, I am anxious to see the women of the world take their rightful place in the work of this life, and the women of my race to shoulder our responsibility. I want the men of my race to recognize us and give us credit for what we do, not only for them, but for all who call upon us. Then I want America to be for ALL AMERICANS, not only in the north, but throughout this vast, beautiful, country of ours, and I believe when a group of women, such as we can boast of in this delegation, can get together and put before the world our program, we shall be listened to with respect and granted our wish with free hearts.

"I have in mind a selecteion of women from the different sections of our country to make an eucation tour of Europe during the year of 1927 in order to be prepared to give us the full benefit of their observations at our next biennial convention. We believe that our biggest problem is that of education and when we have solved that we have won the battle. The solving of that problem is our work, and we are going to do it no matter how hard it is. We have the brains to do it; we have the will to do it, and God giving us our health, we shall put it over'

"This is the wonderful spirit of the entire delegation and with such women, termined to do, why can not such a race succeed? Why is it astonishing that we have mad esuch progress when weh ave such women in our midst? Remembering that 'No Race of people can rise higher than its women", surely we are on the incline and our men should be proud of us and assisa us in every way posible."

Mary McLeod Bethune is profuse in her praise of the women who are assisting her. She realizes that nothing can be done by one person alone and co-operation is needed to do all things well. Mrs. Bethune is dynamic, magnetic, and impressive, and can put over anything she has in mind to do. Having learned that the secret of success begins by bing a good follower, then later on the experience gained by following well, puts one in a position to direct with intelligence and gain the confidence of those who come from behind or who have gone on before. In her gracious and charming manner, Mrs. Bethune holds open house in the club car and all of the women revere her, respect her, and look to her for inspiration. A southern woman by birth, (South Carolina claiming that honor) and now a resident of Florida there educationally. Another hope expressed by Mrs. Bethune is that "sections" will be forgotten and that those best fiteed will do the work to be done and that they will be selected for the good they can do and render service when called upon to do so. To know Mary McLeod Bethune is a privilege as well as an inspiration; to follow in her wake is a thing we should all strive to do; to keep up with her is more than a notion, but thank God, she is easy to meet and worth while cultivating and one coming in contact with her is bound to realize that Life is worth-while and that one must find something to do in order to find happinass and that happiness is found only in service.

Among the many new comers who have arrived to settle in our midst are Mr. and Mrs. J. Starling who have taken a nice home at 1481 E. 15th St. They are now being visited by their neice, Mrs. Jeanna Fields, a prominent teacher of Marshall, Texas. The Starlings are here from Salt Lake City as are also Mr. and Mrs. A. Simms who have arrived with the expectation of settling here.

COMMENTS

By:
W. J. WHEATON

With the incoming month, August, the aspirants for political favor have renewed their energy in the game of vote catching. The three candidates for gubernatorial honors—C. C. Young, Rex Goodcell and the present incumbent, Friend Richardson—are making a thorough canvass of the state and promises galore are greeting the ears of Mr. and Mrs. Citizen. Judging from the blowing straws Young seems to have a mite the best in the going. He has shot the economy claims of Richardson full of holes and has corraled a great following on his stand for the Boulder Dam project. C. C. Young has yet to show color or racial bias which cannot be said of the incumbent. It is alleged that Friend Richardson in taking into consideration the appointment of a colored man to a judgeship lost sight of capability and made the assertion that "he did not think that the time was ripe to appoint a man of color to such a position." But the governor had no hesitancy in making a boot black stand a political controversy which was carried to the Supreme Court of the State. It seems that there is a racial complex in the Governor's makeup and a color biag which, in his opinion, determines fitness. It will speak well for the dignity of the particular people whom he has sought to humiliate to repudiate his efforts to retain office.

Some of the non-discerning Colored voters have shown a tendency to support Chief Justice Waste at the primary election. Justice Waste is an appointee of the present governor and if we look carefully into his decisions we learn that he, also, seems to have a color complex which reverts to his judicial opions. Open up 181 California, and read his decision in the Los Angeles Realty case. His opinion in that case, in which the matter of ownership and occupancy was argued, would uphold the most insidious scheme of racial segregation ever evolved in the brain of man. And Judge Hauser, another Richardson appointee in another case coincided with the opinion handed down by Justice Waste. Then Mr. and Mrs. Voter, you of the Race, should read the dissenting opinion of Justice Thomas J. Lennon and note the difference in the points of the law which was unbiased by colored glasses and you will have no hesitancy in deciding where to place your (X).

Men and measures, not party should be the watchword of every voter of the Race. Especially should this be so in the selection of our legislative representatives. They should be interrogated as to the stand they would take in the event that legislation be sought inimical to the interest of any particular group of citizens. There should be a close watch kept on the many measures which will be presented before that body because sinister interests are seeking to inject conditions which, while appearing harmless, will serve to make conditions such as the ownership of desirable homes intollerable. Blind following of party should be eschewed and votes be cast for those candidates who will legislate for the people as a whole and not for any class or clan. The hired political "Bally Hoo" should be disregarded. The advice of the person who works for a mercenary purpose should be disregarded. Give those people sufficient money and they will try to make you believe that Pat Harirson and that ilk are your best friends. It will pay the voter to pay particular attention to domestic conditions and thwart the efforts of those who have shown their true colors and have placed color on the throne of displaced JUSTICE to maintain their power and influence by aiding in their defeat at the polls. MIGHTY IS THE BALLOT.

EUREKA VILLA

$100,000.00 to be spent immediately for improvements at Eureka Villa. To those purchasers and all other persons interested in Eureka Villa we wish to announce the following:

On June 17th, 1926, we negotiated the purchase of Eureka Villa consisting of 720 acres of land. Included in that purchase were its good and bad accounts, contracts and deeds of which title has never been given. We are not going to discuss the 'whys' and 'wherefores,' fight or criticise anyone, but we have gone in there with our eyes open and with both feet on the ground with plenty of money with which to give deeds and titles to all of those who have waited so long for same.

WATER: Contract for the development of water has been let to Ralph Shaffer of Filmore, California, who is now engaged in putting piles in the river-bed at Filmore, and promises to get into Eureka Villa during the week of July 25th.

GENERAL IMPROVEMENTS: A general contract for the develpment of the entire tract, roads, dams, pools, parkways, playgrounds, etc., has been let to George Paonossa, 1045 Highland, Los Angeles., California.

Should the little company release us in time, we will formally open this tract on Labor Day with the largest swimming pool in the county at which time Jimmie Smith will stage a "Bathing Girl' contest; silver trophy and cash, etc., as prizes.

HUDSON SPECIAL BROUGHAM: To all persons who should buy a lot at Eureka Villa on or before September 15th, 1926, we will give a number; to all persons who now hold contracts and are behind in their payments, but who care to pay up by September 15th, will also be given a number. These numbers will entitle you to a chance of being presented with this automobile now on display at A. L. Johnston's, Inc., Hudson and Essex Agency, 25th and Central Avenue.

To those who will make no effort whatever to bring their payments down to date by September 15th, 1926, your contracts will be cancelled and all money paid in forfeited as liquidated damages. We shall more than do our part at Eureka Villa and most assuredly will expect you to do yours.

Payments will be accepted by the National City Bank, 8th and Main Sts., until our escrow and trust shall have been completed, at which time you will be instructed to put in your demands for deeds and title.

LAURA C. JANES, Sidney P. Dones, Eureka Development Ass'n., Eureka Villa Advisory Board and Rev. E. R. Driver, all of whom have nothing more to do with the management of Eureka Villa, but when the title company shall have finished its search of this entire property we will own Eureka Villa outright and have ample money with which to develop same.

It is true, we did secure the county's help with a park program to the extent of $25,000.00 but we did not authorize anyone to commercialize on that information with a letter or public demonstration, neither did we authorize anyone to use Eureka Villa to further their interests politically and as owners of that place, do feel that someone or group exceeded their authority, therefore, we are not responsible for anything that has been said or done by anyone but ourselves.

To date, there has been only one person authorized to talk about the future plans of Eureka Villa, namely, Mrs. Nellie Turner, AXridge 5008. Should anyone desire to know more or pay contracts down to date, or make new purchases, or any salesmen care to sell these lots, see Mrs. Turner.

A Challenge To You!

If you want your hopes brightened;

Rev. I. A. Moore Pico and Paloma
You will always leave feeling better.

Mt. Olive Baptist To Install New Pastor

The Rev. W. F. Watkins, D. D., of Oakland will be installed as the pastor of The Mount Olive Baptist Church of Boyle Heights on Sunday, August 8th, at 3 P. M.

The Mount Olive Baptist Church is one of the best and leading churches of Los Angeles having in its membership some of the leading and influential citizens of the race. Some of our very best talent is found in this Church.

The Boards are composed of very capable and intelligent men, home owners business men and civil employees.

Each department of the Church has efficient and conscientious leaders. Miss Viola Baucom will extend a welcome to the visitors on behalf of the Church. Miss Baucom is an exceptional young woman, one in whom the whole race should feel proud of, it was she who won the First International and the Third National Oratorical Contest in the zone which comprises the state of California, Nevada and Arizona. She won over all other competitors representing over 200 high schools and 160,000 students. Mrs. Floyd A. Watson, another brilliant young woman will speak for the Auxiliaries, while Mr. Robert Williams an oversea "war veteran" and one of our splendid young business men will represent the Boards.

Rev. A. P. Ramsey will be the Master of Ceremonies and Rev. T. L. Griffith will preach the sermon. The New Hope Choir will furnish the music.

Many of the ministers and their members will take part in these services. Doctor Watkins comes very highly recommended, he is one of the best known ministers of his denomination and for the past three years has served as both the Field Missionary for The Negro Baptist Association of Northern California and The State Convention, he was for two years Chairman of The State Missionary Board, he is a member of The Educational and The Church Extension Boards of The National Baptist Convention and for a time served as the secretary of its Finance Committee. He has for two years been associated with the WESTERN APPEAL a weekly newspaper published at San Francisco, he also published and was the editor of The California Missionary a religious journal. He has published several books, the latest "The Cry of the West" had a tremendous sale. He is now writing his "Humanity's Light." He stands high in fraternal circles, being a member of the Masons, K. of P. and the K. of T.

The Church has made a wise choice and the pastor feels himself very fortunate in having been honored.

Rev. Watkins is a deep thinker and a good preacher. The North regrets his going, the South appreciates his coming.

All of the churches and pastors of the city are invited to this service. A special invitation is extended to those without a church home.

Passing of the Rev. H. L. Webster

The Rev. Henry L. Webster died last Friday, July 30th at 2 P. M.

Mr. Webster was a Baptist minister of considerable ability. He graduated from the Calabar College of Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I., and held important charges in the Jamaica Baptist Union. He pastored the First Baptist Church of Montego Bay, the church at Mt. Larey and Salters Hill. He came to the United States about nine years ago, and did some work in the East. Seeking a more congenial climate he came to California six weeks ago, and was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Prowd of 10723 So. Compton Ave., and Rev. T. D. Scott of 1613 E. 108th St.. After a very sudden and short illness he fell asleep peacefully. His funeral held at Undertakers Conner-Johnson Co., Wednesday, August 4th was under the auspices of the Baptist Ministers Conference, with Dr. Prowd, who was appointed a Committee of one carrying out its arrangements.

WATTS NEWS

Mr. Little in Worthington Ave., is suffering from a spider sting.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton, after a pleasant visit with relatives at Watts left for Oakland this week.

Mrs. Robert Lishey has returned from a pleasant visit at Oakland and other northern cities.

Among the families of whom we are proud is the Houchins family.

Rev. Scott is doing a work that will never be defaced at Watts.

SPECIAL: Banquet to be given at Compton Hall, on August the 4th in behalf of the delegates who have returned from the Grand Lodge, which was held at Oakland from July 13 to July the 18th, and also unvail the Ark of Covenant, which will be one of the greatest events been held in Young Los Angeles, by the I. O. O. T. Order of Twelve. Everybody invited who wishes the lodge well and the best part will be the program rendered by some of the best talents of the Order and Rev. Beane, G. C. S., of Hamilton Chapel, Los Angeles; Thomas B. Normon, G. C. M. of Los Angeles and G. W. Brown, V. G. M. of Los Angeles and our C. P., Mrs. Cunningham of E. 109th and Mrs. R. A. Harris of E. 114th, Chairman.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

Los Angeles is the mecca for distinguished visitors at this time. Among ths week's arrivals were Mrs. L. B. Fouse, prominent school teacher of Lexington, Ky., and her mother, Mrs. M. P. Burnsider; Mrs. J. E. Hunter, wife of a prominent physician; Mrs. J. L. Hathaway, leading undertaker; Mrs. E. B. Davis, whose husband is principal of the Lexington High School in which she is teacher. All of these people mentioned represent the very best familes of Lexington, Ky.

And also among the distinguished guests are Mrs. G. B. Neal of Springton, W. Va., as the guests of Mrs. J. N. Littlejohn and Mrs. M. W. Felix. These ladies have enjoyed a most delightful stay in Southern California motoring to several nearby places included among which were San Dego, Lower California and Old Mexico.

They left Friday A. M. over the Southern Pacific for the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs at Oakland.

Before leaving they proclaimed Los Angeles the Pacific's most beautiful spot and Mesdames Littlejohn and Felix the most delightful hostesses.

CAMP FOR ALL NATIONS

Arrangements have been made for a day and night of prayer at the Camp for all Nations, in the little grove at the corner of Hoover and Temple in charge of Evangelist S. B. Shaw. The Colored people are urged to come and take part and take lunch with us both at noon and night. This meeting will be held on Saturday, August 7th. The revival meetings will continue all summer. Herbert Buffun the noted singer and author and wife will be with us and render some of his famous songs. Among hs best songs are "I'm Going Thru Jesus," "I Would Like to Hear Elijah Pray Again," "My Sheep Hear My Voice" and others. The "C" car passes the camp. If you cannot come pray for the meetings.

SHERIFF TRAEGER LOOKS LIKE 100 TO 1 SHOT TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

As the campaign moves on the campaign for Sheriff shows W. L. Traeger the incumbent with a commanding lead which bids fair to hold out to the end and there are many of the sheriff's friends who declare that he will again emerge victorious by election at the primaries.

The fact remains that as you move about with your ears to the grass roots, you hardly ever hear a discordant note when the sheriff fight is mentioned. They all say TRAEGER!

At the various meetings throughout the county the Traeger spirit is in the air, as a matter fact, no other name is barely ever mentioned. Therefore it seems to be the consensus of opinion that Traeger is on his way.

PREACHER L. B. BROWN IN THE SPOT LIGHT CLAIM TO SPEAK FOR 20,000 COLORED VOTERS

Right on the heels of our editorial reproduction from the "Chicago Bee" and comment thereon, here comes a preacher true to form, speaking, so he says, for 20,000 Colored voters and he gives his endorsement to somebody for some office, and if this preacher delivers full value of his strength, doubtless Justice Curtis will gather one vote.

It is the same old story and we are loath to tell it; but the Reverend has stepped out on the battlefield of politics and must be able to stand the gaff or get out of the way.

The reason we say this is the fact that there is not one ounce of truth in the whole situation. His statement in the Daily is absurd.

The proposition lines up to the minute with our reproduced editorial on the grafters in politics, and anybody who would have the effrontery to put such hog-wash as this out in the daily press cannot escape the odiom suggested in the said editorial.

Here are the statements as published in the L. A. Times and the Daily News:

"Judge Curtis Given Backing of Negroes

According to a letter received yesterday by H. E. Cutcher, secretary of the Curtis campaign committee, Rev. L. B. Brown, chairman of the Negro Industrial Convention to be held at the White Sox ball park, Thirty-eight St. and Compton avenue, said that as spokesman for the 20,000 California Negroes to attend the convention, Judge Jesse W. Curtis, associate justice of the Supreme Court of California and candidate to succeed himself at the primaries the 31st inst., is unanimously indorsed by them. In addition to this indorsement, William Ibbs McAdoo, Frank P. Flint, Marco Hellman, Susan Dorsey, Ida May Adams, S. W. McNabb, Benjamin Bledsoe and others have given their endorsement of Justice Curtis' candidacy.

Negroes Indorse Criswell

The California Negro Industrial and Educational Exposition has indorsed the candidacy of Ralph L. Criswell, Republican candidate for Congress from the Tenth District, according to a letter received at the Criswell headquarters from L. B. Brown, secretary of the board of directors of the exposition.

Now, we have been content to let things slow along and the people to get their own information about some so-called Industrial Association, which has yet to demnostrate its existence, but when this embryo organization goes forth to shear its sheep without demonstrating and attempting to hijack in the political field, we must call its hand.

Our advice brother, is, if you are the promoter of industrial conventions, make good at that and cut out this misrepresentation about 20,000 Negroes endorsing anybody. It comes with bad grace and is a reflection on our race.

Read well the two endorsements; Rev. L. B. Brown says 20,000 membership endorses Judge Curtis and the same organization endorses Ralph Criswell.

Now, as a matter of fact, if Brown did touch these candidates or their managers up for the iron men, it should be a lesson worth while. For if perchance some real existing and worthwhile proposition had been put up to them they would much prefer the bunk proposition to the good one. The only reason we take occasion to get in on the game is the fact that such conduct must be exposed or a sad reflection is upon all of us.

Now, we are not fighting Preacher Brown at all, we are eternally against the situation of graft and we do not doubt for one moment that somebody is using this supposed Industrial Association for their own selfish ends, in other words mooching off of the same.

PROF. J. W. BOTTS INAUGURATES TEAPOT DOME SYSTEM IN LOS ANGELES

Prof. J. W. Botts, Pullman investigator who has been looking after the Los Angeles District during Porter Instructor L. A. Coffins' illness, has brought with him his famous Teapot Dome System, and has established it in this district. Many of the Los Angeles Porters not familiar with the system were surprised to see notes in their equipment boxes with a record of things they neglected to do, and a reminder of the right way to do them in the future. The system which was first tried out in Portland gossip among the men of this district by the Professor has created no little as the majority of older men are considered a hundred per cent efficient, while the younger men are fast being trained toward the hundred per cent goal by our able Instructor Mr. L. A. Coffin.

CALVIN W. MURDOCK CALLED TO CHICAGO IN INTEREST OF PORTERS AND MAIDS

Calvin W. Murdck, frmer representative of the Los Angeles District, left ver the Santa Fe fr Chicag last week. There will be placed on the bureau of industrial relations a representative on the employe side. And with this end in view, Pullman employees from the seven zones will meet in Chicago August 2nd for the express purpose of electing one of their group to serve on the board with the management representative to handle grievances and look after the welfare of the Porters and maids throughout the country.

T. D. STARKS ATTENDS PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF SWEDEN

Porter T. D. Starks had the novel on the Santa Fe for Chicago last week, car which had as its guests the Prince and Princess of Sweden. The party first boarded the train of one Pullman and two private cars at The Grand Canyon, stopping off at Galup, N. M., for three days, from which point they motored to the painted desert. The party again boarded the train and left at San Bernardino, motoring to Pasadena. This is considered quite an honor for the Los Angeles district. We give 'em service as they come—Kings, Queens, Dukes, or what have you?

They tell me that Mr. Henry Morris better known as the French King likes to drive a fine car in the trenches.

Mr. Albert Sparks had a ringside seat at the Tiger Flowers fight.

McRiley is still peddling the same old brand on diner 10010. He would make a good real estate dealer with his line.

They say that Logan, the relief chef is afraid of the Indian. What Indian silly? "Why the one in front of the cigar store foolish."

Warning to Waiters: I know a young lady who reads this column every week so watch your steps, boys.

Do you bring cantalouge from Phoenix to your sugar?

The girls say they can wait no longer for the S. P. Boys to get a raise and many are now turning their eyes longingly toward the Pullman Porters. That's right, girls; Mr. Pollock gave all the boys a copy of that song entitled, "You Will Have to Wait Until Martin Comes."

I have looked in vain on Central avenue for Arthur Nunn and that hot car, but I guess he is going to wait until Martin comes.

Mr. E. G. Brooks not to be outdone by Mr. Wilson put over a hot party at the new Bronx Cabaret.

Now whose turn is it.

Would like to get some real snappy news from the Santa Fe waiters? Mail it to Chas. L. Upton.

BIG INCREASE IN POWER IN L. A.

That the use of electric power and light in Los Angeles' homes, stores and factories has more than doubled in the past five years, is revealed in a statement filed with the Water and Power Commission by Chief Electrical Engineer E. F. Scattergood of the Municipal Bureau of Power and Light, who draws attention to the rapid rate at which this city is continuing to grow, as well as a remarkable increase in the percapita consumption of electrical energy here.

Declaring that the homes, stores and factories of Los Angeles are demanding every horsepower of electricity that can be made available, Mr. Scattergood stated that the Power Bureau must be permitted to develop additional hydro-power now available along the Owens River Aqueduct and provide additional facilities for the handling of this energy within the city itself.

During the year 1921, Mr. Scattergood pointed out, the people of Los Angeles consumed approximately 350,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity for all purposes, exclusive of the energy used by the street railways. During the first six months of 1926, electrical users in this city, exclusive of the street railways, had already consumed 370,000,000 kilowatt hours of this energy. This reveals, it was shown, that for the entire year of 1926, Los Angeles people will consume more than twice as much power and light as they did five years ago.

"The amazin gincrease in the use of electric power and light in Los Angeles during the past five years discloses not only the rapid growth of our city," said Mr. Scattergood, "but also the fact that the people are increasing their per capita consumption of electrical energy.

"Low rates for power and light service has made electricity a convenience in every Los Angeles home, rather than a luxury. In Los Angeles, electricity has taken its place as the unfailing servant in the home. The home manager has come to use electrical energy for an almost unlimited number of purposes in doing her household duties.

"This increasing demand for power and light, places upon the Power Bureau the duty of providing additional supplies of this energy to meet our present needs, to say nothing of our requirements in the near future.

"An increase in the demand for water in Los Angeles is resulting in a greater flow of water through the Owens River Valley Aqueduct. This increased volume of water, in turn, presents to the Power Bureau the opportunity to enlarge its power development facilities along this waterway to the extent of 28,000 additional horsepower. Los Angeles urgently needs every kilowatt of this available energy.

"Bonds to finance the construction of works necessary to the development of this energy are to be submitted to the voters at the August 31st primaries. With these bonds voted, the Power Bureau can go forward immediately with this imperatively needed development work, as well as with the construction of other facilities required to handle an ever increasing demand for power and light service in this city.

"It will cost the taxpayers nothing to vote these bonds, since all interest and principal charges will be met from earnings of the Power Bureau."

Later in the evening favors such as jockey caps and Unca Sam hats and unique parasols were distributed among the guests. "EASY MONEY" SCORES AGAIN

With the eyes of everyone in Los Angeles turned upon it, that "so different" three-act production, "EASY MONEY," that is to be staged at Gamut Auditorium, Monday night, August 23rd, has already challenged the city to discover its peer as a play and now it is making the boast that the two atmospheric prologues of 100 characters, which precede the play proper, are more beautiful, more novel and more entertaining than anything of like nature ever witnessed in the United States. Beautiful costumes, these prologues have them, perfect settings, they are not missing (even if Amie was), real dramatic talent, it is there, perfect voices, wonderful forms, are included. Drama, suspense, surprise, comedy, pathos, instruction, all packed into one evening's entertainment, and when the curtain falls three are weeps in your eyes, laughs in your sides and thoughts in your head—sounds like another "Kidnapping Story," but it is only EASY Money. See it, Monday night, August 23rd, Gamut Auditorium. Tickets 50c, 75c, $1.00, boxes $1.25 on sale at California Eagle office, 843 Central avenue and Dr. Ruth J. Temple's office, 3556 Western Ave. Get your tickets now—if you want any.

SHERIFF TRAEGER LOOKS LIKE 100 TO 1 SHOT TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

As the campaign moves on the campaign for Sheriff shows W. L. Traeger the incumbent with a commanding lead which bids fair to hold out to the end and there are many of the sheriff's friends who declare that he will again emerge victorious by election at the primaries.

The fact remains that as you move about with your ears to the grass roots, you hardly ever hear a discordant note when the Sheriff fight is mentioned. They all say TRAEGER!

At the various meetings throughout the county the Traeger spirit is in the air, as a matter fact, no other name is barely ever mentioned. Therefore it seems to be the consensus of opinion that Traeger is on his way.

PREACHER L. B. BROWN IN THE SPOT LIGHT CLAIM TO SPEAK FOR 20,000 COLORED VOTERS

Right on the heels of our editorial reproduction from the "Chicago Bee" and comment thereon, here comes a preacher true to form, speaking, so he says, for 20,000 Colored voters and he gives his endorsement to somebody for some office, and if this preacher delivers full value of his strength, doubtless Justice Curtis will gather one vote.

It is the same old story and we are loath to tell it; but the Reverend has stepped out on the battlefield of politics and must be able to stand the gaff or get out of the way.

The reason we say this is the fact that there is not one ounce of truth in the whole situation. His statement in the Daily is absurd.

The proposition lines up to the minute with our reproduced editorial on the grafters in politics, and anybody who would have the effrontery to put such hog-wash as this out in the daily press cannot escape the odiom suggested in the said editorial.

Here are the statements as published in the L. A. Times and the Daily News:

"Judge Curtis Given Backing of Negroes

According to a letter received yesterday by H. E. Cutcher, secretary of the Curtis campaign committee, Rev. L. B. Brown, chairman of the Negro Industrial Convention to be held at the White Sox ball park, Thirty-eight St. and Compton avenue, said that as spokesman for the 20,000 California Negroes to attend the convention, Judge Jesse W. Curtis, associate justice of the Supreme Court of California and candidate to succeed himself at the primaries the 31st inst., is unanimously indorsed by them. In addition to this indorsement, William ibbs McAdoo, Frank P. Flint, Marco Hellman, Susan Dorsey, Ida May Adams, S. W. McNabb, Benjamin Bledsoe and others have given their endorsement of Justice Curtis' candidacy.

Negroes Indorse Criswell

The California Negro Industrial and Educational Exposition has indorsed the candidacy of Ralph L. Criswell, Republican candidate for Congress from the Tenth District, according to a letter received at the Criswell headquarters from L. B. Brown, secretary of the board of directors of the exposition.

Now, we have been content to let things slow along and the people to get their own information about some so-called Industrial Association, which has yet to demnostrate its existence, but when this embryo organization goes forth to shear its sheep without demonstrating and attempting to hijack in the political field, we must call its hand.

Our advice brother, is, if you are the promoter of industrial conventions, make good at that and cut out this misrepresentation about 20,000 Negroes endorsing anybody. It comes with bad grace and is a reflection on our race.

Read well the two endorsements; Rev. L. B. Brown says 20,000 membership endorses Judge Curtis and the same organization endorses Ralph Criswell.

Now, as a matter of fact, if Brown did touch these candidates or their managers up for the iron men, it should be a lesson worth while. For if perchance some real existing and worthwhile proposition had been put up to them they would much prefer the bunk proposition to the good one. The only reason we take occasion to get in on the game is the fact that such conduct must be exposed or a sad reflection is upon all of us.

Now, we are not fighting Preacher Brown at all, we are eternally against the situation of graft and we do not doubt for one moment that somebody is using this supposed Industrial Association for their own selfish ends, in other words mooching off of the same.

PROF. J. W. BOTTS INAUGURATES TEAPOT DOME SYSTEM IN LOS ANGELES

Prof. J. W. Botts, Pullman investigator who has been looking after the Los Angeles District during Porter Instructor L. A. Coffins' illness, has brought with him his famous Teapot Dome System, and has established it in this district. Many of the Los Angeles Porters not familiar with the system were surprised to see notes in their equipment boxes with a record of things they neglected to do, and a reminder of the right way to do them in the future. The system which was first tried out in Portland gossip among the men of this district by the Professor has created no little as the majority of older men are considered a hundred per cent effiicent, while the younger men are fast being trained toward the hundred per cent goal by our able Instructor Mr. L. A. Coffin.

CALVIN W. MURDOCK CALLED TO CHICAGO IN INTEREST OF PORTERS AND MAIDS

Calvin W. Murdck, frmer representative of the Los Angeles District, left ver the Santa Fe fr Chicag last week. There will be placed on the bureau of industrial relations a representative on the employe side. And with this end in view, Pullman employees from the seven zones will meet in Chicago August 2nd for the express purpose of electing one of their group to serve on the board with the management representative to handle grievances and look after the welfare of the Porters and maids throughout the country.

Porter T. D. Starks had the novel on the Santa Fe for Chicago last week. car which had as its guests the Prince and Princess of Sweden. The party first boarded the train of one Pullman and two private cars at The Grand Canyon, stopping off at Galup, N. M., for three days, from which point they motored to the painted desert. The party again boarded the train and left at San Bernardino, motoring to Pasadena. This is considered quite an honor for the Los Angeles district. We give 'em service as they come—Kings, Queens, Dukes, or what have you?

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

They tell me that Mr. Henry Morris better known as the Trench King likes to drive a fine car in the trenches.

Mr. Albert Sparks had a ringside seat at the Tiger Flowers fight.

McRiley is still peddling the same old brand on diner 10010. He would make a good real estate dealer with his line.

They say that Logan, the relief chef is afraid of the Indian. What Indian silly? "Why the one in front of the cigar store foolish."

Warning to Waiters: I know a young lady who reads this column every week so watch your steps, boys.

Do you bring cantalouge from Phoenix to your sugar?

The girls say they can wait no longer for the S. P. Boys to get a raise and many are now turning their eyes longingly toward the Pullman Porters. That's right, girls; Mr. Pollock gave all the boys a copy of that song entitled, "You Will Have to Wait Until Martin Comes."

I have looked in vain on Central avenue for Arthur Nunn and that hot car, but I guess he is going to wait until Martin comes.

Red Cap, Fleming, has not made the grade on that new uniform yet, and the boys are not going to let him rest until he gets one. He says he is waiting for the Santa Fe to build a new depot. Home come?

Mr. Luther Wilson entertained a party of thirteen at Doc Nelson's new Cabaret on the opening night.

Mr. E. G. Brooks not to be outdone by Mr. Wilson put over a hot party at the new Bronx Cabaret.

Now whose turn is it.

BIG INCREASE IN POWER IN L. A.

That the use of electric power and light in Los Angeles' homes, stores and factories has more than doubled in the past five years, is revealed in a statement filed with the Water and Power Commission by Chief Electrical Engineer E. F. Scattergood of the Municipal Bureau of Power and Light, who draws attention to the rapid rate at which this city is continuing to grow, as well as a remarkable increase in the percapita consumption of electrical energy here.

Declaring that the homes, stores and factories of Los Angeles are demanding every horsepower of electricity that can be made available, Mr. Scattergood stated that the Power Bureau must be permitted to develop additional hydro-power now available along the Owens River Aqueduct and provide additional facilities for the handling of this energy within the city itself.

During the year 1921, Mr. Scattergood pointed out, the people of Los Angeles consumed approximately 350,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity for all purposes, exclusive of the energy used by the street railways. During the first six months of 1926, electrical users in this city, exclusive of the street railways, had already consumed 370,000,000 kilowatt hours of this energy. This reveals, it was shown, that for the entire year of 1926, Los Angeles people will consume more than twice as much power and light as they did five years ago.

"The amazin gincrease in the use of electric power and light in Los Angeles during the past five years discloses not only the rapid growth of our city," said Mr. Scattergood, "but also the fact that the people are increasing their per capita consumption of electrical energy.

"Low rates for power and light service has made electricity a convenience in every Los Angeles home, rather than a luxury. In Los Angeles, electricity has taken its place as the unfailing servant in the home. The home manager has come to use electrical energy for an almost unlimited number of purposes in doing her household duties.

"This increasing demand for power and light, places upon the Power-er Bureau the duty of providing additional supplies of this energy to meet our present needs, to say nothing of our requirements in the near future.

"An increase in the demand for water in Los Angeles is resulting in a greater flow of water through the Owens River Valley Aqueduct. This increased volume of water, in turn, presents to the Power Bureau the opportunity to enlarge its power development facilities along this waterway to the extent of 28,000 additional horsepower. Los Angeles urgently needs every kilowatt of this available energy.

"Bonds to finance the construction of works necessary to the development of this energy are to be submitted to the voters at the August 31st primaries. With these bonds voted, the Power Bureau can go forward immediately with this imperatively needed development work, as well as with the construction of other facilities required to handle an ever increasing demand for power and light service in this city.

"It will cost the taxpayers nothing to vote these bonds, since all interest and principal charges will be met from earnings of the Power Bureau."

"EASY MONEY" SCORES AGAIN

With the eyes of everyone in Los Angeles turned upon it, that "so different" three-act production, "EASY MONEY," that is to be staged at Gamut Auditorium, Monday night, August 23rd, has already challenged the city to discover its peer as a play and now it is making the boast that the two atmospheric prologues of 100 characters, which precede the play proper, are more beautiful, more novel and more entertaining than anything of like nature ever witnessed in the United States. Beautiful costumes, these prologues have them, perfect settings, they are not missing (even if Amie was), real dramatic talent, it is there, perfect voices, wonderful forms, are included. Drama, suspense, surprise, comedy, pathos, instruction, all packed into one evening's entertainment, and when the curtain falls three are weeps in your eyes, laughs in your sides and thoughts in your head—sounds like another "Kidnapping Story," but it is only EASY Money. See it, Monday night, August 23rd, Gamut Auditorium. Tickets 50c, 75c, $1.00, boxes $1.25 on sale at California Eagle office, 843 Central avenue and Dr. Ruth J. Temple's office, 3556 Western Ave. Get your tickets now—if you want any.

BONE HEAD IN SPOT LIGHT

According to latest reports the cognomen of "bone head" will outshine the one placed upon the brow of Fred Merkle when he failed to touch 3rd base on that memorable occasion in a New York baseball game, when Chief Cline and Assistant District Attorney Ryan failed to get to first base after claiming a home run at Carmel by the Sea.

NOTED JURIST SPEAKS IN GLOWING TERMS OF TALENT DISPLAYED IN RECENT CHOIR CONTEST BRANDS US TOO MODEST IN THE PREMISES

We appreciate the encouraging remarks of Judge Carlos Hardy anent the recent Choir Contest at Hollywood Bowl, that we cannot refrain from reproducing his letter to this writer upon the subject.

Be it known that Judge Hardy is a national character based upon his reputation and demonstration as a humanitarian, and we fail not to appreciate the weight and consideration given to any utterance which he might make upon any matter which has to do with public weal. The letter follows:—

"Chambers of The Superior Court ,Los Angeles, Calif.
Carlos S. Hardy, Judge
July 19, 1926.

"Editor, The Eagle:—

"I have read with interest your report of the great Church Choir Contest at the Hollywood Bowl, on the evening of July 12th. The report is splendid but it is too modest.

"Mrs. Hardy and myself, with some highly capable friends, attended the contest and we recognized it as one of the outstanding musical events of the year. It was certainly a unique affair, and stands alone in the community as a festival of religious music.

"I try never to miss an opportunity to hear a presentation of Negro Music to which white people are invited, and I regard this choir contest as one of the finest things, if not the very finest, presentment of music by Negroes that I have ever attended.

"So I say that your report was too modest. It was a great civic event in which our entire city may take just pride.

"I sincerely trust that the contest will become a recognized civic enterprise to be enjoyed by all people.

"Sincerely yours,
"CARLOS S. HARDY."

POLITICAL SITUATION IN LOS ANGELES NOT UNLIKE VIEW POINT IN CHICAGO

So aptly summed up and with such a similarity of situations which obtain this very minute along political lines in this city we are reproducing in full an editorial from the last issue of the Chicago "Bee". All that is lacking in the resume of cities referred to is the city of Los Angeles and now if the editor of the "Bee" will just slip Los Angeles in everything will be just right. For be it known at this very minute the conditions as narrated below fit the situation here precisely.

"Newspapers And Politicians

"We learn that a prominent financial magnate of Chicago has threatened to spend no more money on the south side. (For the sake of people outside of Chicago, let us say that the south side of Chicago means the colored section). The reason given for this decision was that the Negro leaders to whom the money has been given have usually failed to spend the money for the campaign. Without having the least bit of interest in the magnate referred to, we want to say that the decision is, on the whole, sensible and just.

"Nor is this condition peculiar to Chicago. It is equally true of New York and other cities. It is not limited to the Negro politicians either. It applies to the whites as well.

"Now, as every well informed person knows, a great number of Negro politicians and preachers simply fool white men out of large sums of money from year to year. They go in and get money which is seldom put into the campaign. Most likely a few circulars and hand-bills are gotten out a few days before election and the rest of the money pocketed. There are unquestionably certaain high-type ministers and public men, but most of those who frequent the political headquarters are primarily grafters. Only recently two prominent white office-holders told us how a Negro preacher of Chicago had pretended to sell his congregation. One of them said this Negro minister first sold him the congregation. Then he sold the congregation to his opponent When each opponent learned of the minister's action, both went to see the gentleman of the cloth. Whereupon the swallow-tailed grafter explained that he had adopted a basis of equity, because he gav eone-half of the congregation to one and one-half to the other.

"While this crook was more subtle than many others in explaining his action, he fairly well represents the group. It is safe to say that not five cents of a dollar is spent on the campaign by most of these political grafters who are given money for campaigns in the black belt. What should the political managers do and how should they do it? Here is a question which is capable of an answer—a practical and valuable answer.

"Frst, it is possible to reach the colored voters of Chicago. It may be done at a reasonable and honest rate. We state this without having interest in any candidate or political party. There are two legitimate newspapers, only, in Chicago. They have circulations and intelligent direction. They are neither blackmail nor extortion sheets. Together they reach the colored leading clientele of the city. No political party can purchase their editorial departments, but those political parties can buy space for presentation of their side, just as they would purchase space in onoe of the white dailies of Chicago. Outside of legitimate publicity, there is no occasion for spending any money except for halls, speakers who really speak, postage for letters actually sent out, and precinct workers who work under supervision.

"The preceding facts go for everybody and for all parties. White men who have made huge business success should not be misled by a few scheming Negro politicians and unscrupulous preachers who do not reflect the sentiment of the community. They should apply the same business analysis which they apply in commerce, finance and industroy. There they follow their dollars and demand a return upon money invested. Theey also try to make the investment which brings the greatest return. The best investment which the campaign managers can make is in the legitimate colored newspapers which are really circulated and read by the voters. This course is the ship; all else is the sea."

How She Arose From Obscurity to Stardom

Madam Sul-Te-Wan's early school days were happily spent in Louisville, her home town.

As has been said, she showed signs of innate ability in singing and dancing. However, at this period of advancement, daneing was not looked upon as an art to be culitvated, hence at first the little actress, whose soul was brim full of enthusiasm for the thing she liked best was her own tutor and gathered about her, her school associates as a daily audience, who lauded her performances and were apt as well as anxious pupils.

But fortunately for little Madam, her contact with her mother's friends opened for her an unexpected opportunity for demonstrating her whole ability. She was often invited by the best of the town to sing and dance at polite affairs, and perhaps her greatest inspiration as well as information came with her privilege of attending the shows that came and went wekely. One time seeing a new dance and hearing the latest song hit was enough for little Madam Sul-Te-Wan as she was still fondly called.

So rapidly did she grow in favor that no longer were the school pals her only audience. The city became her stage with it citizens her patrons.

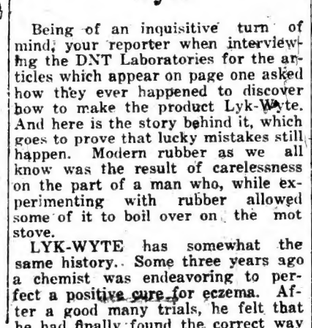
Big Game Hunt Is Responsible for Lyke-Wyte



Being of an inquisitive turn of mind, your reporter when interviewing the DNT Laboratories for the articles which appear on page one asked how they ever happened to discover how to make the product Lyk-Wyte. And here is the story behind it, which goes to prove that lucky mistakes still happen. Modern rubber as we all know was the result of carelessness on the part of a man who, while experimenting with rubber allowed some of it to boil over on the mot stove.

LYK-WYTE has somewhat the same history. Some three years ago a chemist was endeavoring to perfect a positive cure for eczema. After a good many trials, he felt that he had finally found the correct way to make this cure, so he gave samples of it to various friends to try, asking that they let him know what the results were. One of the first to use it was a man who had but just returned from the tropics, where for three years he had been after big game, exploring and looking for a legendary gold mine. A few weeks after starting to use his friends salve, he noted that his face on which he had been applying the salve every night was much lighter than the rest of his body, which of course had been deeply tanned by the tropical sun. Investigation by the chemist, who at once saw what a world-wide demand there would be for a real skin bleach, proved that he was able to bleach the dark pigment in the skin. Months more of work were essential to bring it to a stage of pefection, but finally it was done.

Since that time thousands have been using it, all with the same invariable resuls. It positive bleaches the skin.

If your Druggist cannot supply you send one dollar to the DNT Laboratories, 1616 East 9th street, Los Angeles, California, for a jar sufficient for a month's use.

LIE NAILED

STARTED WITH INTENT TO INJURE SHERIFF W. I. TRAEGER

The folowing correspondence will set at rest the pernicious rumors circulated among our group by enemies of Sheriff W. L. Traeger in order to prejudice voters against his re-election:

A. B. Loving

MR. J. B. LOVING,
Los Angeles County Jail,
Hall of Justice.
Dear Major:

There appears to be a persistent rumor that the Sheriff did not live up to certain promises made to the members of the California Citizens Civic League by an explanation in detail of the above, and the relation sustained to fellow officers and the duties thereof. Thankng you for a speedy reply, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
R. G. LAMAR,
Secretary, California Citizens League,
1520 Essex St., Los Angeles, Calif.

MR. R. G. LAMAR,
Secy. Cal. Citizens Civic League,
1520 Essex St., Los Angeles, Cal.
Dear Sir:

In reply of your note of a few days ago, permit me to submit the following for the satisfaction of all parties concerned. Relative to my position of Deputy Sheriff of Los Angeles County, which postion I have held for a period of twenty years, during fourteen years of which time I served as Turnkey. This position necessitated being indoors during my entire working shift, by reason of which my health was so threatened I considered resigning.

About four years ago upon election and induction into office of Mr. Wm. L .Treager, who recognized my condition and proposed a change of work which would permit me to enjoy natures light and sunshine. The choice of work was left to my own selection in the same class. My long and tedious experience as a Turnkey had taught me the necessity of a regular and trusted Inspector of locks, walls and gratings.

Up to this time there was no one entrusted or charged with this grave responsibility. I suggested to my Superior the necessity of such a posiion as a distrinct duty. The suggestion was accepted by Mr. Traeger and I was immediately appointed to the position of Jail Inspector. Not only did this carry with it a degree of promotion and an increase of salary, but it expressed a vote of confidence second only to that of Chief Jailor. This was the first promotion and increase in salary that I had received during my fourteen years of service.

I can truthfully say that the position was created at my suggestion, and I was installed at my own request I am therefore more than satisfied with my station and further I enjoy the confidence and respect of the entire personnel. The title of the position above mentioned is that of Jail Inspector. I therefore hope that this explanation will serve to set at rest any and all false rumors respecting my position. I wish also to emphasize the fact that I am not at present, neither have I ever been, employed in the capacity of Janitor at the L. A. County Jail.

Respectfully submitted,
MAJOR J. B. LOVING,
Inspector County Jail

Among the delightful events of the week was the birthday party given in honor of Miss Alma Featherstone Crenshaw, Friday evening, July 30th at her home, 4100 Hooper Ave.

The rooms were adorned with a profusion of balloons, serpentine and garden flowers. The favors were very artistic and there were more than a hundred that danced to the tune of the three-piece orchestra.

Miss Crenshaw made a very charming hostess. The many gifts were more than adorable

The visiting guests who attended were: Miss Mineola Love of San Francisco and Miss Willie Penn of Dallas, Texas.

Miss Juanita Rabouin entertained with a theater party at Carthay's Circle last Thursday afternoon honoring Miss Jennie Dora Grayson of Portland, Oregon and Miss LaVerne Martin. Other guests included the Misses Clothilde Curry, Ruby Jefferson and Florence Russell.

Pioneer Builders Of Los Angeles

Robert R. Cook, a twenty-five year resident, farmer, mechanic and capitalist, says as follows:

"I owe my present success to the installation and operation of the Owen River Aqueduct and its bi-product, namely Electric Power.

"Property purchased before the induction was very cheap and practically unfit to produce anything of a commercial value, but as soon as the people were assured of plenty of water and power ,property was advanced in value hundreds and in many instances thousands per cent.

"I am still a believer in, and an advocate of water and more water and power. Our continued success and prosperity is sorely dependent upon these vital essentials.

"Yes, I am for the Bonds—first, last and all the time. My advice to my friends is to vote "YES," on the Power Bond. Thereby insuring prosperity and expansion.

SUBDIVIDER SPEAKS

Mr. Sidney P. Dones, of the Sidney P. Dones Brokerage Corporation and Sub-Divider of Eureka Villa Lands:

"An abundance of water in Los Angeles and vicinity is its greatest asset. Without this we could not have attained to the present rank and position among the great cities of our country. If we are to maintain that position we should vote "YES" on the Power issue, thereby removing all doubt as to the future possibilities of of this our great city."

ONE OF L. A. MOST POPULAR CLUB WOMEN AND CIVIC WORKER'S VIEW

Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert, 1468 E. 20th St., Los Angeles, Calif., takes this stand:

"I was a resident of Los Angeles before the completion of the Owen River Aqueduct, Past experience teaches me that a shortage of water or power at this time would be a calamity unapparalleled in the history of our great city. We must have an abundance of water and electrical energy. Our immediate and distant future is dependent thereon. I urge those who know me and are willing to accept and profit by my experience to vote "YES" on the Power Bond."

ELDER RODGERS AT BAT

Evangelist, Pastor P. G. Rodgers announces a series of out-door Gospel meetings under the BIG TENT, at the S. E. Cor. of 20th and Central Ave., Los Angeles and cordially invites every person desirous of knowing more about the prophecies and the deep things of the Bible to be present every night beginning Sunday Night, August 8th at 7:45 P. M.

Evangelist Rodgers will speak the first night on the "Future of the World as Seen in the Metal Man", and as often as this subject has been presented by the speaker it always brings a large audience to hear it.

A brand new tent has been bought for these meetings and no expense has been spared to make it beautiful and comfortable. An extra large choir of trained singers will render music during these meetings, besides many illustrated sermons each week adding interest and a spiritual blessing to all who come. Monday night the speaker will preach on the Devil, who he is and where he came from and where he is going, illustrated by stereopticon views.

Everybody is made welcome and all are invited to be present.

A few evenings past Mrs. William Roan of 1559 East 22nd street threw open the doors of her beautiful home to a host of friends of Mrs. Mildred B. Jenkins who honored the latter on her golden birthday (fiftieth) with beautiful gifts, music, songs, and words of congratulation. All expressions of friendship and love. The party was not given to celebrate the number of years which God has blessed Mrs. Jenkins to live to see, but the degree of a fuller understanding of that which has no end—Eternity.

JACK JOHNSON MAY FIGHT CARPENTIER IN LOS ANGELES

Negotiations were put under way Wednesday by an Eagle representative to get Jack Johnson, famous exchampion heavyweight to come here for promoter Dick Donald who wishes him to fight Geirges Carpentier, the idol of France. In this he knows he will have a card that will be a rare treat as Jack is better yet than a lot of younger heavyweights and a crowd pleaser, while Carpentier would like a crack at him as the match arranged for them some years ago in England was stopped. The genial Donald is waiting a return wire from Johnson when the machinery will be set in motion at once.

The Grand Lodge and Grand Court convened in Forresters Hall on Monday morning and after the business of the day. TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS DECREASE

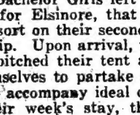
Los Angeles is slowly but surely conquering defective traffic conditions despite pessimistic knocks given existing triffic laws from time to time by persons who have more respect for those violating the law than those bent on observing the law so speaks traffic officer Kelly who directs and keeps traffic in order at 9th and Central. "The traffic officer's job is at no time an easy one. His very presence is obnoxious to many, yet he is simply placed at street intersections to make it possible for both pedestrians and motorists to reach their point of destination with least inconvenience. However conditions are improving. Accidents and arrests for traffic violations are not so numerous as a year or so ago. Education is doing the trick. The traffic officer simply solicits co-operation in his effort to perform his duty. Given this the public can rest assured that traffic violations will continue to decrease and a better relation built up between the police department and the citizen."

BACHELOR GIRLS CAMP AT LAKE ELSINORE

Sunday, July 25th in three private cars loaded with camping paraphernalia, the Bachelor Girls left the city of Angels for Elsinore, that popular summer resort on their second annual camping trip. Upon arrival, they immediately pitched their tent and prepared themselves to partake of those things that accompany ideal camping. During their week's stay, they participated in everything that tended to make their trip enjoyable. Rising every morning with the sun, a memorial day was always looked forward to.

The daily swim was aided greatly by the new and fancy bathing togs of the girls. The old standby—hiking—proved as interesting to all as usual. Possible "she" Babe Ruths were found in the club members during the occasional baseball games that were played. Probably the most interesting of all sports was that of rabbit hunting in Elsinore wild woods. This was quite novel and new to most of the girls and—oh yes, they caught some rabbits—eight to be exact! Dancing was indulged in both on the pavilion at the beach and at Coleman's Hotel. The cooking was done in the open and each girl's cooking ability was tested by cooking on the camp stove.

Many compliments were given the club on the neat appearance of the tent and other equipment. Much of the good time is attributed to the excellent chaperons, Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Hoskins. Mrs. Beatty also accompanied the girls.



Sunday, August 1st found the girls "breaking camp." With many sore limbs, sunburns and other natural results of a real good time, they returned to L. A. All loudly proclaimed that this, the second annual camping trip, was a booming success in every way and although they were eagerly looking forward to next year's trip, they will always recall this outing as being one of the most enjoyable times of their lives.

PLAIN FACTS

By: DR. RUTH TEMPLE

NOTE: The recent occurrence of a number of cases of Gonorrhea in my department at the White Memorial Hospital justifies this departure from "maternity" subjects in order to talk with mothers this week about the incidents of this terrible infection in school children. Address all querries to Dr. Ruth I. Temple, 3556 So. Western; Phones, UNiversity 1255; EMpire 2981; VAndike 1221.

GONORRHOEA IN CHILDREN

Within the past few weeks I have had several cases of severe Gonorrhoea in children under 6 years of age. Their mothers brought them into my department at the White Memorial Hospital suffering with a profuse discharge and slight pain in the pelvis region. I sent the slides to the laboratory to have them examined and they proved to be positive Gonorrhea. Babies only 3, 4 and 5 years old with an awful venereal disease, which, in spite of all treatment may go with them through life. In all of my eight years' experience at the White Memorial Hospital as specialist and in other city clinics I have had most of my cases of Gonorrhoea in children among the white race and practically none among the Black. All of the cases mentioned above were in white children.

THE CAUSE OF GONORRHEA

How is Gonorrhoea contracted? In one of several ways the germ, which is the cause, is transmitted. A person with gonorrhoea always has a discharge. In this discharge the germs causing the infection are found. If any particle of this discharge is left on towels, toilet seats or in bath tubs these may be source of infection to others. The most common source of infection from gonorrhoea is sexual intercourse. There are many cases on record in which older men have infected small girls through rape because of the absolutely false idea that intercourse with a virgin will cure gonorrhoea in men.

HOW SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE INFECTED

There are two common sources of infection in school children. Bad habits of all kinds are prevalent among many school children. They do not mean to be sinful, but they are ignorant. No one has ever told them anything—they do not know. Parents should stay close to their baby girls and boys. Do not wait until they are ruined—save them by telling them in time about the beauty of shunning evil habits and the grave dangers of yielding to them.

Next to venereal diseases from evil habits the toilet is probably the most common source of infection in children. No child should sit on a toilet seat in school nor in any public place. Always put a clean newspaper on the seat before using it.

HOW TO PREVENT AND CURE THE CONDITION

There is no positive cure for gonorrhoea. I have seen these treated for years. We had one little Italian girl 3 years old who came for 2 years for treatment and was not then cured. But there are quite some which seem to be entirely cured. Especially those which are taken early. Therefore it is absolutely imperative that a mother watch her child and if she finds the least sign of a discharge, do not wait, but go at once to a physician and have a laboratory slide made and examined that you may begin the treatment in the very first stages as this is the only possible way to check the infection and get the system freed from the disease.

Prevention is worth 10,000 pounds of cure. Every child should be well informed concerning the results of evil habits and the careless use of public towels and the public toilet. In this way may be prevented the ruination of the lives of hundreds of school boys and girls before they are really old enough to choose for themselves between right and wrong.

PIANOLOGY

By:

PROF. C. D. COOKSEY

Piano Technician

1327 East 48th Place

The second of a series of talks given by the manufacturer of the famous Gulbransen Registering Piano, Mr. A. G. Gulbransen, Chicago, Ill. As said at the start these are published in the interest inspiring the piano owning public toward efforts of having their pianos serviced regularly by an expert piano technician.

Chicago: Musical notation of western civilization is an awkward compromise, declared A. G. Gulbransen, in an address here.

"To obtain perfect tonal relations between all the notes in all the scales the octave unit would have to be divided into twenty-seven notes, instead of twelve," said Mr. Gulbransen. "In every octave there is a slight variation which has to be distributed among all the notes. This is done by counting the 'beats,' or air pulsations, caused by the vibrations of the strings an by mathematical formulas, adjusting them to balance each other.

"This is a scientific task, which does not require its performer to be piano player, but does require him to be an expert in acoustics and mathematics of tone relations.

"Every piano should be tuned at least twice a year. Professional musicians have their pianos tuned after each performance. Pianos deteriorate if not tuned. The musical ear of both player and hearer is ruined by our of tune pianos. More than a billion dollars worth of pianos in American homes are drifting along to the junk pile because of neglect, according to A. G. Gulbransen, piano manufacturer, in an address recently in Chicago.

"All the piano tuners in America working day and night every day in the year could not take care of half the pianos in this country," said Mr. Gulbransen. "An untuned piano deteriorates and warps internally. The reason is that its 230 strings of highly tempered steel exert a pull of 18 tons. When this balance unbalanced it twists the delicate sounding board out of shape."

The public is completely equipped to service all makes of pianos and player pianos, and as a rule artisan properly trained in this important branch of the musical profession, should be employed at regular intervals to keep pianos in tune.

LT. GOVERNOR, C. C. YOUNG FOR GOVERNOR OF CALIFORNIA

ENDORSED BY THE EAST-SIDE INDEPENDENT LEAGUE

The Eastside Independent League is solidly behind Lieut. Governor, C. C. Young for governor of the State of California, and is making an appeal to every qualified voter in the State to help concentrate the full voting strength on the candidacy of C. C. Young.

Lieut. Governor Young is recognized as one of the ablest legislators in the entire country and during his long public career has been a consistent supporter of every measure which meant for constructive legislation, economic and progressive development. He is outspoken in his position favoring the Boulder Dam and All American Canal project which means so much to every property owner in Southern California. He is firm for every measure which stands for the protection of women and children. His principles are all genuinely progressive and he will apply these principles to California government.

During a recent visit in the Northern part of the State, representatives of the Eastside Independent League, by thorough canvas, were assured of the high esteem in which Lieut. Governor Young is held by our group. Every public utterance, every official act of his in which the status of the Colored people was concerned he has shown unbiased treatment. On our constitutional rights he is absolutely sound and fearless, declaring that "before the law all men are equal".

Thereforee, let us unite our strength and help California elect the right man for governor of our State; Tuesday, August 31st, primary election.

The League has inaugurated an intensive campaign for Lieut. Governor Young and will cover all Southern California with the unanswerable reasons, why it is the duty of our group especially to vote and work for the election of C. C. Young for governor and select him as the choice of the people at the August primaries on August 31st.

OVER 2,000 LEADING RACE WOMEN MEET IN CONVENTION AT OAKLAND, CALIF.

Pouring into the city of the world-famed Golden Gate, most of them on a special train of twenty coaches, came over 20,000 of our Race's mothers, wives and sisters to convene on matters most vital to the other 200,000 colored women of their organization. By that same standard their convening was vital also not only to the whole race but to the nation itself. For are we not an important integral unit of this same great nation? This was the biennial convention of the National Association of Colored Women and the first convention ever held West of Denver.

The meeting was called to order at 3:00 P. M. Sunday, August 1st in the Civic Auditorium ith the great head of Bethune-Cookman College, Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, holding the president's gavel. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Esther Jones Lee of Oakland, first vice-president of the California State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs.

The public spirited womanhood and manhood of the Bay Region responded to the invitation of these noble women and filled the vast arena of the auditorium to capacity.

On the platform were seated about 200 of our prominent personages. Senator Samuel Shortridge of California was the speaker of the day and gave a very inspiring talk.

The presidents of the 41 Federations made 1 minute talks. The words were few but well chosen, and touched upon the rapid growth of this great Association.

Among ithers who were present at the convention were Mrs. Charlott Hawkins-Brown, founder of the Alice Freeman Palmer Memorial School at Sedalia, North Carolina; Mrs. Helen Curtis, widow of James L. Curtis, former United States Minister and Consul-General to Liberia, who for the past two years has served as a missionary in Monrovia, Liberia, as a representative of the foreign mission department of the African Methodist Episcopal Church; Mrs. W. B. T. Williams of Tuskegee Institute, Ala., vice-president of the Alabama State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs. The official entertainment of the delegates and friends was held Saturday night—Reception by the Alameda County League of Colored Women Voters at the Linden branch of the Y. W. C. A. On Monday evening—Reception tendered by the California State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs at the Municipal Auditorium. Saturday, August 7—Alameda county sight-seeing tour. Sunday, August 8—Visit to the Home of the Aged and Infirm Colored People, and a barbecue given by the Fleur de Lis Club of San Mateo, at the clubhouse in San Mateo.

After the close of the convention many of the visiting delegates stopped over in the city and many are still here, resting, seeing the sights and being royally entertained before beginning the long journey back East.

Taken all together, it was a convention long to be remembered.

REAL MONEY TO SPECTATORS—"EASY MONEY" PARADE SUNDAY AFTERNOON, 12:30 P. M.

There is no catch in the promise of those in charge of that unprecedented, city famous dramatic novelty, "EASY MONEY" to be seen Monday night, August 23rd at amut Auditorium, when they say that on next Sunday, 12:30 a real shower of money will rain upon Central avenue from 8th to Jefferson street. This will be real money, given away to all spectators along the line of march of the street parade for this now famous three-act play, directed by Mrs. Neosha Bartleson, preceded by two atmospheric prologues, depicted by 150 characters. Suported by a full well-trained orchestra.

"EASY MONEY" GREATEST RACE PROPOGANDA PLAY EVER STAGED IN AMERICA
(By: SPECIAL CONTRIBUTOR)

I have seen "Easy Money," that drama of which all Los Angeles seems to be talking, at the present time; in one of its rehearsals.

There are many things in the play that impress one. The size of the cast, the unusual combination of music, pantomine and spoken drama, and the beauty of the scenery.

But the thing that impressed me most, the thing that makes me actually believe that the advent of this play will mark the beginning of a real reformation in the treatment of our race in this city, is the race propoganda, which it contains. It shows so plainly that a white person seeing it will remember for all time, some things: first, that what the new Negro wants in America is not charity, but justice, and the opportunity to WORK. That America is injuring herself, when she closes the door to honest opportunity to work in the face of 13,000,00 of her citizens, thus subjecting them to the temptation to get "EASY MONEY" in ways that are dishonest. The drama shows the danger to America of converting thru unjust treatment, her Negro citizens into enemies of their country, instead of loyal patriotic friends. The injustice and menace to democracy of mob violence is brought out very plainly also.

To have these themes so sacred to our hearts, and yet so well known to us handled in such an altogether different way, as to hold each spectator spell-bound from the opening entrance to the last act, proves what this play really is. The production is different, novel, daring, yet it gives no offense. The most sensitive member of either race could see the play and go away thoughtful, but not offended.

I am truly thankful that the Propoganda Committee of the Federation of Improvement Associations is staging this play, and if their work in the future is anything like their initial appearance, I believe that colored Los Angeles will see a new day in this city.

Well Trained Choirs in Chorus For "Easy Money".

The New Hope Baptist Choir, that aggregation of real harmony and technique, under the direction of their talented leader, Mrs. Lucile Brandon, takes the part of the Adult Chorus in the beautiful musical prologue for "Easy Money" while the Westside Children's Chorus under the able direction of Mrs. Neosha Bartleson has been given the role of the Juvenile Chorus.

SENATOR SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE
Being introduced to Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, President of the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs on the occasion of its opening meeting in Oakland, California, Sunday, August 1st. Reading from Right to Left: Senator Shortridge; Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune and Walter A. Butler.

This meeting was admitted to be the greatest gathering ever held in Oakland by any people and on the occasion of the Senator's appearance more than 7,000 persons were present to hear him.

Found Guilty of Slaying Affianced White Couple

Macon, Ga., Aug. 10 (By A. N. P.)—After he had confessed that a white man named Davis had hired him for twenty-five dollars and a gallon of whiskey to kill a white man and his sweetheart here on the night of July 10, Ed. Glover was found guilty here of the double slaying and sentenced to die in the electric chair September 9th.

At the coroner's inquest held after the couple were found slain, a verdict was returned to the effect that the man and woman he drome to their death at the hands of parties unknown. The sheriff of the county, however, continued his investigations which resulted in the arrest of Glover and three white men. It was not long before a confession was forced out of Glover. So far nothing has been done with the white suspects.

It was significant that there was no demonstration at the trial and no Negroes were molested. Officers are said to have made every effort and taken every precaution to see that there was no race trouble. It is unlikely that Glover will be granted a new trial, the testimony at the trial just concluded having shown him to be the real murderer of the man and woman.

NEGRO MAY ESTABLISH ALIBI

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 10 (A. N. P.)—Although Mrs. Lena Nickson, widow of Mack Nickson, who is said to have been held up and murdered by a Negro on July 18, believes that Roosevelt McChristian taken in custody as a suspect by police, looks like the man who killed her husband; McChristian may be freed by the possibility of him establishing an alibi that he was not in Paducah on the night of the murder, but in Cairo, Ill., for which there he had entrained the day before the crime occurred.

COMMENTS

By:
W. J. WHEATON

The National Association of Colored Women has just closed the sixteenth biennial session held in the Civic Auditorium, Oakland, California. Women representing 42 states, a thousand or more, from the East, West, North and South gathered to exchange views on matters effecting the Race. Those conferences are of great benefit to all concerned and when they are arproached with intelligence leave their impression on the conferee. The woman from Georgia exchange ideas with the woman from Michigan and so from the different sections of the Union where the conditions of life in every phase vary.

The subjects of education, Art, Literature, Music and the Domestic Sciences which have a bearing on the welfare and health of communities were ably discussed and many practical suggestions made for their being carried out. Women of international prominence, as the president Mrs. M. M. Bethune; Mrs. Mary Church Terrel, widow of the late Judge Terrel of the District of Columbia; Helen Curtis; Hallie Brown and numerous women who have won honor on the field of RACIAL SERVICE. Many social events were held in honor of the delegates and visitors and a reception was tendered them by the women of San Francisco, headed by Mrs. Irene Ruggles, at the California Club house. They were shown the points of interest in the city by automobile groups.

The political battle is on. Senator Hiram Johnson launched his broadsdie at the Auditorium Theatre, Oakland. His big guns were trained on the present governor and United States Senator—Richardson and Shortridge no harm—the opposition of the Governor for his "economy fake" and Shortridge because of his staunch support of the President and his vote on the World Court. It goes without saying that C. C. Young has confidence of the majority of the voters and unless there is some unforseen turn in the tide, will be nominated at the primaries. It has done senator Shortridge no harm—the oposition of the senior Senator Johnson; his advocacy of Judge Clarke seems to savor too much of "hand picking." We hear a great deal of adverse criticism where Judge Clarke is concerned but as we aforesaid, "The opposition of Senator Johnson is bolstering the cause of Senator Shortridge."

Supervisor Welch seems to have the edge in the 5th Congressional District and in all probability will succeed the late Congressman Flaherty. It is a pretty race between Mrs. Florence Kahn, widow of the late Congressman Julius Kahn and Judge Sylvan Lazarus. A casual survey through the 4th District looks as though the Judge might win by a nod from the widow, who is putting up a great fight on a "wet plank." For the billet of Supreme Justice, Thomas J. Lennon will beat the present incumbent, Judge Waste, who is an appointment of the present administration. Like the Governor, Judge Waste, in his legal decisions, seems to see through a glass "darkly." Edward Mabson, attorney-at-law, is seeking the nomination for Assemblyman in the 30th District. His campaign is being managed by Westley Peoples. A man who cannot discern that JUSTICE should be regulated by an unbiased vision and not be seen through colored glasses is unfit for the highest place in the State's Tribunal. Voters who admire "Justice" should study the opinion of California's Chief Justice in Cal. (1811 in the case of the Los Angeles Realty Co. Yes! there is one other who is at present on the bench a Richardson appointee, and his name is Hauser, he reaffirmed the decision of Justice Waste. Colored voters cannot afford to support either of those men.

Fines Woman For Beating Her Husband

Camden, N. J., Aug. 9 (By A. N. P.)—A married woman of this city was fined $10 in Police Court, Monday, because she beat her husband.

The woman, Mrs. Jennie Chadwick, 32 years old, of 2715 Harrison avenue, denied beating her husband, but he averred that she not only beat him, but put him out of the house and ordered him to stay out.

The woman's husband's statement was corroborated by Policeman Relf. Judge Cleary informed the women that she had no right to beat her husband and imposed the fine.

HUDSON SPECIAL BROUGHAM: To all persons who should buy a lot at Eureka Villa on or before September 15th, 1926, we will give a number; to all persons who now hold contracts and are behind in their payments, but who care to pay up by September 15th, will also be given a number. These numbers will entitle you to a chance of being presented with this automobile now on display at A. L. Johnston's, Inc., Hudson and Essex Agency, 25th and Central Avenue.

To those who will make no effort whatever to bring their payments down to date by September 15th, 1926, your contracts will be cancelled and all money paid in forfeited as liquidated damages. We shall more than do our part at Eureka Villa and most assuredly will expect you to do yours.

Payments will be accepted by the National City Bank, 8th and Main Sts., until our escrow and trust shall have been completed, at which time you will be instructed to put in your demands for deeds and title.

LAURA C. JANES, Sidney P. Dones, Eureka Development Ass'n., Eureka Villa Advisory Board and Rev. E. R. Driver, all of whom have nothing more to do with the management of Eureka Villa, but when the title company shall have finished its search of this entire property we will own Eureka Villa outright and have ample money with which to develop same.

It is true, we did secure the county's help with a park program to the extent of $25,000.00, but we did not authorize anyone to commercialize on that information with a letter or public demonstration, neither did we authorize anyone to use Eureka Villa to further their interests politically and as owners of that place, do feel that someone or group exceeded their authority, therefore, we are not responsible for anything that has been said or done by anyone but ourselves.

To date, there has been only one person authorized to talk about the future plans of Eureka Villa, namely, Mrs. Nellie Turner, AXridge 5008. Should anyone desire to know more or pay contracts down to date, or make new purchases, or any salesmen care to sell these lots, see Mrs. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield had as their guests over the week-end, the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Sheffield of Venice, who were en route home from the K. of P. A wedding of much interest to the younger contingent was that of Miss Ruth Thurman and Mr. Thomas Grey which had its setting at the home of the bride's parents last Sunday evening. The Rev. Fred A. Hughes of the A. M. E. Church read the marriage vows, and only the immediate families and friends were in attendance.

Our eminent physician, Dr. H. C. Wallace, has returned from a fortnight's sojourn at the southern beaches. He motored down in his new Pontiac coupe.

William A. Bigby, Jr., motored up to Oakland last week to spend a few days with Mrs. Bigby who is passing the summer in the Bay Cities, and incidently to take in the National Federation and Odd Fellows Grand Lodge.

Mrs. Charles Reuben Holmes has opened up a soft drink parlor at Sacramento and "E" Streets, and would greatly appreciate your patronage.

A large number of Fresno people have returned from the Federation and Grand Lodge at Oakland, while quite a few have lingered a while to enjoy the cool breezes around the Bay. Others will motor down the coast to Los Angeles before returning home.

The construction of the new Bethel A. M. E. Church was resumed this week, much to the interest of the city at large.

Miss Alma Dixon has returned from a fortnight's vacation in Oakland and says she had "some time."

A LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

123½ North Greenwood,
Tulsa, Oklahoma,
August 2nd, 1926.

MRS. LONDON DEVOE,
Pasadena, California.

Dear Madam, Friend, Family and Wife: Your telegram under date of August last, 1926 brings to me the deplorable intelligence of the tragical death of a friend, christian, gentleman, an American citizen by birth and standing, a proud father and a devoted husband, which occurred in your Pasadena home under gray and golden skies. I say tragic death, because he died young, any death among the young and youthful is tragical.

We are all born to die; after an individual journeys all the way from the cradle or from life's brilliant dawn to the twilight of its evening sunset and then shakes off this mortal coil, lies down, using his burdens for a pillow and sleeps time away, we should not grieve, for to the aged death is his last and best friend. Your husband was an unusual man, he was my friend, one that never changed, he never consorted with my enemies, after I exhausted my medical skill trying to effect a cure for him, on finding that it was but superhuman in this climate, I advised that he go West. He did so, accumulated wealth and lived a happy, contented life. His life was a model one, he lived for his family and friends and died among those he loved and labored to make happy.

You are now a widow, made so by the only true divorce Judge. You have a name to protect, children to labor and live for and children to live for you. Words from a friend, or epithets from the wise cannot replace the flower which the cycle of time hath clipped from the garden of your life.

With pathetic regards, I beg to subscribe myself as your friend.

Very respectfully,
M. M. WAKEFIELD, M. D.

THE HUB OF PROSPERITY

Whether you realize it or not, the electric railway is the hub around which the whole development of your community revolves.

The electric railways render a service that is fundamental. They afford a transportation agency around which modern cities are built.

They are at the service of all the people all the time and in every kind of weather.

Directly or indirectly, every individual of the community is benefitted by good service. Your business, your pleasure and your income are advanced because of the stimulant that the operation of cars adds to industries. Your real estate holdings are likewise enhanced in value.

NOTE OF REGRET

The members of the Achievement Social Club deeply regret the death of the late Miss Ruth Smith.

Miss Smith was elected as our Secretary on the first of this year. Her efficiency as such was highly appreciated by the entire club. It was through her winning personality that she successfully weilded her influences through the entire membership of more than three clubs as well as other organizations. Her trend of sociality was very conspicuous.

Miss Smith will be missed greatly by each member of the club.

The Achievement Club also regrets not having been notified of her death until after the funeral, therefore we were unable to participate in the funeral services. We hope, however, that in the future the club will be given ample notification.

Mrs. F. L. Woods, wife of the General Manager of The Pullman Co., passed away last week after a lengthy illness. The Porters of this district extend their sympathy to Mr. Woods in his recent bereavement; Mr. C. Roth is in San Francisco during Mr. Wood's absence.

BAKER HEAT TALK

The suspense is now over and it is at last out. A rumor with a good, solid foundation has it that Mr. Arthur will be here about the 15th of the month, to take the office made vacant by the retirement of Mr. C. Lincoln as Supt. of Los Angeles, Mr. Arthur is at present Supt. at Kansas City.

—00—

Mr. C. Lincoln, former District Supt. of Los Angeles was seen watering his lawn last week by the writer at his home on Hobart Blvd. Mr. Lincoln apparently is perfectly satisfied at his new occupation and looks ten years younger.

DINING CAR STEWARD MAKES GUN PLAY

A dining car steward operating between Los Angeles and El Paso on train 103-104 drew his revolver on Porter H. Wortham, because he turned him in to the train conductor for refusing to serve him with food. What might have been a regular wild West play was averted by the cool headedness of Porter Wortham who refused to continue the argument.

A. NOEL'S ORCHESTRA HOLDS REHEARSAL

Alonzo Noel of this district, who undertook to organize a Pullman Porters' Band here, but could not get the proper support, has turned his efforts towards an orchestra which is meeting with great success. Mr. Noel who is a born musician would not rest until he had assembled together harmony of some kind, a successful rehearsal was held at his home last week in South Los Angeles. The strains of sweet music soon attracted nearby neighbors and residents, and the Professor's book is fast filling up with dates for his entertaining outfit for social events to be held in the near future, and as soon as his orchestra is completely perfected. Following is the list of those playing and their instruments: A. Noel, Mgr. and leader Saxophone, Clarinet; J. Perry, Violin, Banjo; E. E. Meyers, Saxophone; J. M. Moulder, Trombone; C. B. Willis, Cornet; C. Mangum, Piano; J. A. Carter, Drums; and they're RED HOT.

EXTRA BOARD DULL

The Extra Board in Los Angeles, instead of improving seems to be getting worse from recent reports of men who are unfortunate to be bucking it; much bumping has been taking place, and regular line men who have seldom warmed the extra bench, are familiar faces in the sign out office, where Mr. V. V. Ross reigns supreme.

—00—

Joe Lee was bumped sky high by J. Minter, and has not found a place to land yet, but has been seen casting longing eyes toward the coast pool; should he make up his mind to locate there, Joe Holmes will be looking for another run, as he is the youngest man in the pool at the present time.

—00—

J. Carter No. 1 who has been bucking the extra board for six years, says it's tough, and when Carter says it's tough—it's TOUGH!

American Woodmen to Hold Mammoth Log Rolling

OVER 300 TO TAKE OBLIGATION AND INSTRUCTION I NWOODCRAFT

The Los Angeles Camps of the eeAmerican Woodmen, commonly referred to as "The Giant of Negro Fraternals will hold a mammoth Log Rolling and "Feast in the Forest," Friday night, August———at the Masonic Hall, Central avenue. The mammoth Log Rolling is the culmination of the Silver Jubilee Membership Campaign which was conducted by the Los Angeles camps from April 1st to June 30th, under the direction of Ben H. Graham, Supervisor for the State of California. The campaign in Los Angeles was a huge success, according to Mr. Graham, and proves conclusively the growing popularity of this millionaire society which boasts of employing more workers than all other fraternals. The first camp in the state of California was organized in Los Angeles in September, 1922. The recent membership campaign has brought the membership in Los Angeles to more than fifteen hundred. Camps have also been organized at San Diego, Santa Barbara, Oakland, and others are now being organized at Pasadena and Riverside. At the Log Rolling to be held August more than three hundred new members will receive the obligation and instruction in Woodcraft. Mr. Graham will be assisted in the ceremonial by Deputies J. E. Rector, H. K. Watkins and local officials. Following the Log Rolling the Feast in the Forest will be observed. The following persons are expected to take the obligation:

EDITORIALS

EXPECT BETTER THINGS

Truly the sight of grafting preachers in political campaigns looms up to a greater extent than any other sort of grafters. The reason is that the people expect greater things from the preachers.

BLOCKING THE ISSUE

Something seems at all times to get out in front of, or in the way of, launching a drive by the officials to start right out and catch Mrs. McPherson's kidnappers, as evinced in the latest sortie of the grand jury, when one of its members is accused of stealing evidence.

WHERE IS BORAH

Where, oh, where is Senator Borah, who prates about the enforcement of the 18th Amendment and is hand in hand with the South which is brazenly violating the 15th Amendment?

MORTALLY AFRAID

Dempsey, the champion dodger, has no doubt had many heart beats in his successful attempt to dodge the black panther, Harry Wills, of whom there is not the slightest doubt he is mortally afraid.

YOU CAN BANK ON HIM

Talk about judges, one must go a long ways to find a jurist who will equal the record of Judge Albert Lee Stephens for fairness and impartiality; and for all who stand for even-handed justice, Judge Stephens is the man. Our advice is to not only vote but work for the election of Judge Stephens.

NATIONAL FEDERATED CLUB WOMEN

Los Angeles welcomes the presence in the city of returning delegates from the recent National meeting held in Oakland, California. We feel that even their passing presence will be of immeasurable benefit and give both hope and inspiration not only to our women, but to the men as well. Indeed the women from all over the land made a lasting impression in their recent gathering, and the story of the great event will not be soon forgotten. Therefore on behalf of the people of this city we indeed extend to them a sincere and royal welcome

REAL PRODUCTION

The turnout for the dedication of the ground upon which a furniture factory is to be erected, owned and controlled by members of our group, while good, was not by any means what it should have been. This brings us to the proposition so often told that when real constructive situations are at hand the Negro can generally be found looking out the window.

We are firm believers in production and right here with the Heflin Company blazing the trail to real endeavor along this line of effort, it is a reflection should we fail to give to their efforts a fitting send-off, with both moral and financial support.

The ground breaking of most any church edifice would prove indeed a great day in Zion and just why the launching of a real factory with its possibilities of furnishing work for thousands and to prove our boasted capacity to do things, would fail to attract to the extent that it should is an enigma to us.

Factories! why, they are just the things that we stand in need of, if we ever expect to play our part in the mighty march of progress. We sincerely hope that when the ground is broken for this most laudable effort that the people will have realized the opportunity and give to the same the consideration which it really and truly deserves.

GET AWAY FROM SMALL TOWN "STUFF"

"If I have pleased you, tell other; If I have not pleased you, tell me." This saying, while it has a very grave logical meaning has become a cheap cafe slogan, but we suggest that some of our greater organizations put it into practical demonstration.

Such organizations as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People may be the medium through which Jim Crowism is eradicated. It may awaken the conscience of the American nation to the extent that It will recognize the fact that "all men are created equal" and it may open wide the door of industrial opportunity for the Negro youth, but what will it all amount to if the Negro has neither sympathy nor respect for one another?

Take a casual survey of Los Angeles with its fifty or sixty thousand population;—What have we that stands for big business?—NOTHING. We have individuals in this community, of our group, who have intelligence, initiative and are willing to pay the price of hardships to succeed, but whenever he or she lifts their head with hope for the future, some sophisticated individual whose only excuse for being popular rests on the fact that he or she has always and at all times set a high price on their own social standing, hurls a stone of malice destined to discourage or depreciate, and the rest of the group either applauds or sits supinely by.

And so we say, again, and we firmly believe that the Negro will never amount to much as a group, race or nation until the Black people of all shades and hues realize that it matters not how strewn with prejudice his path; how charged with discrimination the future his only hope rests in the fact that he must stop long enough to have a sympathetic understanding with his own.

In civic, social, political or religious life, the Black man is divided—He does not stand for anything concrete—and the white man knows it—he has no secreats that he himself respects.

Must Lay Foundation For Future

If the Negro hopes to fill a place in the economic world he must first build from within, and in order to do this he will have to tear out of self the old belief of doubt, fear, hatred, and superstition. Let his foundation for the future be built on love—for all other ground is sinking sand.

THE POWER BONDS

Reprisals against the administration would absolutely fail if we vote against the things which mean the future progress of our city. Instead of accomplishing the result sought, such reprisals as have been suggested will put us in the awkward position as voting to put the iron heel of oppression upon our very existence in this particular bailiwick.

We not only advise our readers to vote for this particular bond issue which will appear on the primary ballot, but urge all others to do likewise. Every citizen who has the prosperity of the city at heart, should both vote and work for the Municipal Water and Power Bonds, as it will appear on the ballot at the primaries August 31st.

It has been said, without successful contradiction, that in order to meet the constantly growing needs of the city, we must get both water and power from the Colorado River. But it will require several years to construct the gigantic works necessary to bring the Colorado River water and power to Los Angeles. In the meantime our city continues to grow with an ever-increasing demand for both water and power. It is therefore imperative in this situation that we develop the remaining water and power resources of the Owens River Aequeduct to their fullest extent and provide increased distribution facilities, and it is for this purpose that the present bond issue is sought.

It is a sound business proposition. The $10,000,000 asked for by the Water Bureau will enable the city to complete the purchase of approximately 80,000 acres in Owens Valley, and to develop an additional 10,000 miners inches of water. In purchasing these lands the city is paying the Inyo County ranchers very good prices—about four and one tenth times the assessed valuation. This bond issue will also provide for increased storage and distribution facilities.

These bonds do not in any way affect the taxpayer, since all interest and annual principal charges are paid entirely from revenue derived from the sale of power and light. As stated before, there is no danger that the bureau cannot meet these charges for it has not only met them since February, 1922, but in addition to that has earned a surplus of over $14,000,000 which has gone back into the system in improvements.

In fact th eincreased facilities will enable us to increase our surplus earnings while at the same time to continue to serve the public at the remarkably low commercial and domestic rate which has been enjoyed for many years.

Therefore we must take cognizance of the fact that the bonds mean to the future of this great city and join in with the march of progress and support them.

If reprisals must be made on any official there will be many opportunities further down the road, but most assuredly this is not the time nor place, when we would be doing the thing which means many steps backwarad in the march of progress for all the people.

Anti-Lynching Bill Supported By Another LIE NAILED

Washington, D. C., July 15, 1926.
Hon. L. C. Dyer,
House of Representatives,
My Dear Mr. Dyer:

I read a statement made by you at the seventeenth annual session of the N. A. A. C. P. in which you stated that the Republican members of the Judiciary committee was responsible for the defeat of the Anti-Lynching Bill.

I do not know to whom you refer, whether one or all of the Republican members of the Committee. But there was one member of the committee who stood first, last and always for the passage of the bill and that member was Senator Samuel M. Shortridge of California. When the Anti-Lynching bill was first referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee, a number of Republican members refused to handle it including Senator Borah, and they finally placed it on the shoulders of Senator Shortridge who never faltered in his effort either in the committee or on the floor of the Senate to have the bill passed. In that battle Senator Shortridge fought single-handed both in the committee and on the floor of the Senate, losing many friends, and gain may eemies, but he stood up and fought for what he believed was right.

I have known of your good work in behalf of the colored people and I have always appreciated your effort in that direction and trust that you wil continue the good work.

I am, very truly yours,
R. F. FONTAINE.

No. 2024 Fifteenth St., N. W.

I heartily indorse the above and Senator Shortridge for renomination and re-election.

Barnes For Supervisor

CITY COUNCILMAN ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY AS MEMBER OF COUNTY BOARD

Urged by friends who appreciate his knowledge of city problems and the good record that he has made as a councilman and civic leader, A. J. Barnes has announced his candidacy for Supervisor of the 3rd District, at the primaries on August 31st.

Among the more important planks in his platform, Councilman Barnes promises, if elected, to use his influence in having County funds appropriated to help in the construction and maintenance of major traffic arteries, storm drains and sanitary sewers throughout the city. The gigantic First Street Improvement Project is one of those which would be benefitted.

FAVORS HIGH DAM

Barnes thinks that the County Supervisors should take the lead in working for the early consummation of the great scheme which will bring Colorado River water to Los Angeles, and he favors the construction of storage dams all along the route of the proposed acqueduct, which would also proved flood control.

The submission of bond issues to the people, for all public structures, is anuother thing advocated by Barnes, whose candidacy is endorsed by a formidable array of civic organizations and industrial and civic leaders.

Isador B. Dockweiler Hurls Bomb in Democratic Machinery

Los Angeles, Aug. 12.—Launching his campaign for the Democratic Senatorial nomination by declaring that the California Democracy is threatened with disruption because of the present contest within the party, Isidore B. Dockweiler, national committeeman for California, at a meeting of Democrats here today exposed an attempt, which, he declared, has for its purpose the alienation of a small group for the united party. Although Dockweiler's speech avoided the use of McAdoo's name, it was regarded by Democrats here as an acceptance of the challenge to the Democratic party by the McAdoo faction in its attempt to control the state organization.

In his address, Dockweiler reviewed the history of the Democratic party in California and of the present campaign. He stated that while he was in the East a conference of Democratic leaders was held at Fresno, and that following the refusal of former Senator James D. Phelan to become a candidate again the conference unanimously requested Dockweiler to accept the party leadership for the campaign. This, explained Dockweiler, was the same group from which McAdoo accepted California's support in his attempt to secure the presidential nomination in 1924.

The conference, continued Dockweiler, had but one idea and that was to serve the party. No attempt was made to consider turning the Democratic party in the state over to any individual for use in 1928, for it was considered that no candidate is sufficiently in the forefront at this time to merit the consideration of any political body. The sole idea was to secure men capable of carrying the party standard in the present campaign.

Dockweiler, who is national committeman for California, is a former State Normal School Trustee, and Indian Commissioner under President Wilson, and was a candidate for the Lieutenant overnorship on the same ticket in 1902 when the late Franklin K. Lane rand for governor. Dockweiler, whose home is in Los Angeles, has been practicing law for thirty-seven years. He is a native of Los Angeles as are his eleven sons and daughters.

RED HOT BILL AT MAIN ST. CLUB SAT.

Though not featured by the usual number of knockouts, the last Saturday nights show was a hummer and full of plenty of action. Tony Tovar of Sacramento, and Orpaa Arfea battled to a well-earned draw in the main event. Frankie Thone (young Chico), hung the sleep sign on Ad Hammerly of 160th Infantry in the semi-wind up. The rest of the bouts were especially good. Hotter than red hot chile will be the fast, furious fights at the Main Street Athletic Club, 319 S. Main, Saturday night. For these versatile promoters have dished up a "Spanish Night" for their ever-growing throng of patrons whom they always please. This program will be featured by being nearly all Mexican boxers on the card, starred by that hard hitting game and fast glove thrower, Mateo oMagdeleno, the champion of Magdalene. Magdaleno has a string of knockouts to his credit, but Alkee Akol may take him.

The bill is as follows:

Main event, Alkie Akol vs. Mateo Magdaleno; Semi wind up, Orlando (Kid) Lucerro vs Chappy Cruz; Special, Dominic Chebarria vs. Chas. (Chuck) Nash; Vernon Jackson vs Panco Sabid; Ramon Lugo vs Frank Abadeno; George Wilson vs Cornell Ball; Rufino Dayton vs Joe Hernandez.

TIGER FLOWERS FOULED IN TEN-ROUND BOUT

Atlanta, Ga. Aug. 10.—Tiger Flowers of Atlanta, sensational middleweight Championship of the world, was fouled so badly he could not continue in aa 10-round decision bout with Battling McCreary of Boston. As usual, fighting above his weight, Flowers weighed only 164½ and his opponent 200 even. The Tiger would have given McCreary a good clawing if the bout had not ended as it did.

Y. M. C. A.

The principal activity at the Y. at present centers in the swimming pool which has developed some crack swimmers. Of the young men's division they are Wallace, Markham, Vernon, Furhill, and Harold Lewis. In the boys division the leading stars are: D. Brandon, Alfonso Scott, Harry Penn and A. Brandon. The big camp of 48 boys at Mt. Wilson was pitched for ten days with Harold Wilson, Boys' Work Secretary, in charge, is in full swing now and the boys are having the time of their lives climbing the heights swimming, hunting, fishing, etc.

Baby Gans Shows Rapid Strides To Top Under New Manager

Many strange little things happen in the realm of the padded ring as any other game; things that have their effect on the future. So with Baby Joe touted as the next lightweight champion of the world. He has always been a game, willing, little fighter, ready at any time to fight any one he was lucky enough to get on with, but his matches at times seemed to be too few and far between. Then at best they were only semi-windups which meant lots of fighting and little money. One night, hile Jimmy Kalty, a well known fight manager was at Wilmington with one of his fighters, he learned that Gans was not getting as many bouts as a fighter of his caliber deserved. So he wired that same night to Fresno, and got a bout on for the well-pleased boy for the folloing week. This was about six months past and was his first main bout. The crowd went wild over his classy style, and from then on his way was made.

Soon after, his work was noticed by his present manager Mr. Lichenstein who looked him over and saw the championship possibilities in him and took over full charge of his ring affairs. He is a fighter very easy to manage as he is a faithful trainer and needs only a chance to fight to show his stuff. Every fight since Mr. Lichenstein has had charge of him has been a big one, and he won them all mostly by knockouts, and now comes his last step toward the championship. If he cops Callahan, which all authorities dope out he will, the next glovefest will be with the king of that division—Mandell.

Jimmy Kalty who threw the first chance his way always knows his man. He has a large string of boxers himself among whom are Farmer Adams, the new sensational middleweight from Arizona.

CHAS. GILPIN READY FOR TITLE ROLE OF "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

Los Angeles, Cal. 7. (By A. N. P.) —Charles Gilpin, the first world famous colored actor since Ira Aldridge, in an interview, stated that final arrangements have been made with Harry Pollard to start in his part of the already much talked of feature picture, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It will be the first great play in which a Negro actor holds the title role though.

TILDEN-WILLS IN POOR SHAPE TO RETAIN CROWNS

New York, Aug. 8.—Grease paint and surgery may give the United States two new tennis champions this year.

Just as William T. Tilden's long rule of the national men's singles is threatened, so will Helen Wills have difficulty in defending her title of women's singles champion at Forest Hills next week.

What the stage did to Tilden's game that appendicitis operation may have done to that of Miss Wills.

The Californian was far from her old self at Seabright. Her encouraging showing at East Hampton does not weigh in the balance when her difficulties and eventual defeat at the New Jersey resort are considered.

"Big Bill" has until September 13 before he must defend his title, but the women's national singles championship starts August 16.

WILLS HA TROUBLE

Miss Wills not only lost to Miss Elizabeth Ryan at Seabright, but had difficulties, unusual for her, in winning earlier matches. Obviously, she is not at her best, and quite as obviously, Miss Ryan and some of the others are going to force her to be at her best or surrender her championship.

BAND BOYS RETURN

LeBlanc's Boys Band has returned home after a wonderful trip to Oakland and San Francisco. The boys are back with a glad heart and had quite an experience after visiting two of the most beautiful northern cities. The boys don't know how to thank their band master Prof. T. R. LeBlanc and their mother, as they call Mrs. LeBlanc; the boys say they will stick to Mrs. LeBlanc because she was so kind and effectionate all the way and back home. Mr. and Mrs. Whaley at 830 Linde St. opened their doors to the boys and made them welcome.

The people of Los Angeles should pay homage to Prof. LeBlanc, he is the first one to organize a boys band and train them, and give them a trip to Oakland; why, let us help the good work. Prof. LeBlanc wants to thank those who have helped to make the trip successful and especially Dr. G. W. Shields for his financial support toward the boys, he is the only one who made an effort to see that the boys made their trip. There will be more said about the trip in the next issue of this paper.—Contributed.

Life's Little Things

A husband of two years' happy married life learns that a newly-acquired friend of his wife is very indiscreet, divorced herself and is running around with a married man. He objects to any further association with her and after a stormy objection on the young wife's part, she agrees to neither see nor hear from the woman again. He considers the incident closed until months later he sees a letter written to wife from this dear friend who is on a vacation trip in the mountains. The letter, seemingly one of many, ends with, "Give that husband of yours my regards (smiles! ! !) That one word, "smiles" —but it proved that wife had ungratefully permitted him to be ridiculed and now they too are far apart.

She stands at 5th and Broadway calmly, silently. She is neatly dressed, well built, with strong looking, healthy body. Her brown face is round, complexion soft and clear; still she stands while other women jostle each other to gaze in the windows at the latest creations. Strange, she isn't window-shopping too with the gay throng, blest as she is with the health that brings happiness. But ah, she turns this way, revealing her sightless eyes. Stone blind! And there to peddle pencils.—One of life's little things.

A visitor enters the office of a certain Race business man. After an interminable length of time, the Race business man with curt, haughty manner, asks the visitor what he wants and in the same breath tell him he is very busy to call again. Then he turns to his desk and with mock importance begins to shuffle among the pile of papers tossed on it. Meanwhile the crestfallen visitor has quietly goes to a sky-scaper office building down town, emerging later with a smile on his face and a hand full of contracts. Upstairs, the head of a great corporation in a magnificient suite of offices, a dozen girls rattling typewriters, a dozen phones jingling, messengers coming and going, turns to a friend and remarks: "Say, that Colored fellow who was up here just now has a wonderful proposition. I just put $25,000 behind it and know it will double that a year after we get started.—One of Life's little things.

IN THE REALM OF HIGHER THINGS

By: DANIEL W. CHASE
(For the Associated Negro Press)

Alexander C. Rogers and C. Luckeyth Roberts, authors of "My Magnolia," the new colored musical comedy at the Mansfield Theatre, have written a Negro operetta tentatively called "Swanee."

NEGRO FOLK SONGS PLEASE LONDON AUDIENCES

The American contingent on the London stage seems to increase with the summer season. Dixie music is now well to the fore in London. Edna Thomas and her accompanist, Constance Piper, have returned from Germany and France and are giving a second series of concerts, in which Negro spirituals and plantation songs make up most of the program. The Emory University Glee Club of Atlanta, Ga., is also signing Southern melodies in London.

"MY MAGNOLIA" OPENS

At the opening of "My Magnolia" Monday night the audience presented quite as picturesque a spectacle as anything on the other side of the foot lights. It always does at these Negro revues, where any single row of seats gives a series of alternating white and bronze profiles picked out in the shadows like a smudgy sketch by Bellows. Among the spectators of the players' own race was Julius Bledsoe, the Negro baritone, whose debut at Aeolian Hall three years ago was a cheering surprise at the dreary end of a fagged out music season. In the lobby Mr. Bledsoe confided that he was rehearsing a role in "Deep River," by Laurence Stallings and W. Frank Harling, which represents Arthur Hopkins' first venture into the operatic field. Mr. Bledsoe added with gusto that he is playing the part of a Voodoo King. We have never heard Mr. Bledsoe in his capacity, but if he can put into his Voodoo cadences half of the eerie undertones he brings to "Water Boy" his engagement is one of the most promising features of this more than promising production.

Carson City, Nev.—This state is the least populated state in the country. Although ranking fifth in size, with 110,690 square miles, its population of about 80,000 is over 400,000 less than that of the District of Columbia, which covers only 70 square miles.

Philadelphia, Pa.—When police responded to a telephone call from a rooming house at 10th and Spruce streets, they found Maurice allagher, twenty, who had attempted suicide by drinking poison because his sweetheart had jilted him in favor of his brother.

Singapore, Sumatra—A flower that measures one yard across and when fully developed weighs fifteen pounds grows in this country. It has five large creamy-colored petals as big as dinner plates and a beautiful centre of purple stamens. But in bud it is as big as a cabbage.

Westfield, Mass.—An English sparrow that has learned more than its fellows makes its appearance each afternoon between 4 and 4:30 o'clock at the baggage room of the Westfield station. If the door is closed when it comes, it flies to one of the side windows and pecks on the glass to call the attention of the railroad men that it has come for the night. The request is honored immediately.

MAIL CARRIER THIEF CAUGHT

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 7. (By A. N. P.)—Federal authorities are holding Jos. C. Roseberry, letter carrier in the Hollywood district accused of having stolen money from registered and special delivery letters. This is said to have been going on for several months until Chief Inspector Kline and C. D. Lowe trapped him with two marked letters.

DAILY PAPER FANS NEGRO VOTE CONTROVERSY

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9 (By A. N. P.)—The Chicago Tribune has taken the initiative this week in questioning a number of senators and senate aspirants relative to their attitude toward suffrage of the Negro in states where he is not permitted to vote. The Tribune action is felt to have been inspired by a speech of Senator Borah in Atlanta, Ga., who characterized the effort to repeal the Volstead Act as an attempt to nullify the Eighteenth Amendment. The Tribune wants to discover how many senators there are who feel that there should be some such act as the Volstead to enforce the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments.

Negroes throughout the country should be interested to know how their senators feel on this matter. According to the Tribune, Gov. John J. Blaine, contesting for the seat now occupied by Senator Lenroot from Wisconsin, said in response to the inquiry, that congress should enact legislation that will compel southern states to carry out the intent of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments.

"These two amendments should be enforced and observed," Gov. Blaine declared. "Congress should carry out the duty to enforce these amendments by appropriate legislation, and such duty, in my opinion, is mandatory. I shall vote for legislation to make these amendments effectove."

Senator Lenroot was less definite. He wired in reply to a long-dsitance telephone nquiry:

"Could not answer your question without knowing the law and the facts in a particular case. The Fourteenth Amendment covers many subjects, and, of course, any state law in conflict with it is invalid."

Subsequently, a message asking a further statement was unanswered by Senator Lenroot.

Senator James A. Reed, Missouri Demserat in charge of the Senate's slush fund investigation, expressed himself as being against any more force laws to prop up amendments to the constitution of the United States:

"Let the South take care of its own problems," Senator Reed said. "If we have any more force laws, we'll only have more trouble and we're having trouble enough with the force laws we have already.

"The late Senator Lodge of Massachusetts was the author of the last force bill and he made a vigorous effort to pass it. Some southern senators strenuously opposed it and in doing so revived some of the fever that existed in the carpet bag days after the Civil War. Senator Lodge told me a short time before his death that those things should be forgotten and that he realized his force bill was a mistake.

"White people and colored in the South seem to be getting along very satisfactorily and the Negroes I have talked to seem to be pretty well satisfied with things as they are. We don't want any more force laws."

Southern senators in Washington, according to the Tribune, refused to be quoted, but expressed the belief that Gov. Blaine would be unable to accomplish anything along the line of enforcing the Negro amendments. They were of the opinion that the governor was taking for campaign effect in Wisconsin rather than with any serious idea of obtaining action.

Some senators were puzzled to know just how Gov. Blaine, through any senate action would be able to bring suffrage to the colored citizens of the South. They point out that the Supreme Court of the United States has upheld the constitutionality of laws of southern states which provide conditions under which the right of franchise may be exercised. Such state laws have been upheld, provided the same conditions were made to seem to apply to all.

The Republican Senator Reed from Pennsylvania, it will be recalled, threatened at one time to propose a provision which would prohibit the seating of a senator from a state where Negroes were not permitted to vote. His proposal failed to receive serious consideration.

It is significant that Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin, a friend and political colleague of Gov. Blaine, declined to express himself on the subject.

Negro leaders in this city have pointed out that Negro voters should keep strict tab on how their senators feel on this matter with a view of holding them to "strict accountability" when the time comes.

Finds Aged Hubby's Ideas Too Young

Merchantville, N. J., Aug. 9 (By A. N. P.)—Lewis Brown, 83-year-old civil war veteran, "likes his lady friends young and his liquor old," his wife told Justice of the Peace, John O'Grady, Monday when she appeared to charge her aged mate with desertion and non-support. Brown was committed to the county jail for lack of $500 bail.

"He just won't stay home," was the plaint of Mrs. Brown, who is 68. "We have been married now more than 40 years and maybe he is tired of me. He likes these young flappers and he likes his liquor, and all he has given men during the last year is $2.50 out of his $75-a-month Civil Pension."

Brown and his wife live apart. His wife told Justice O'Grady she believed a cell was about the best place for her matrimonial adversary until he losses some of his "young ideas."

Douglass Nat'l. Bank Shows Remarkable Progress

By:
OSCAR C. BROWN

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9.—From a recent survey of The Douglass National Bank of Chicago it was found that the institution is efficiently and conservatively managed and has shown unprecedented growth among the business enterprises owned and operated by Colored people.

LARGEST BANK OWNED BYCOLORED PEOPLE

In point of resources, the bank is now the largest bank in the United States owned by colored people. At the close of business, June 30, 1926, the resources were more than one million, nine hundred thousand dollars. This represents an increase of over a million, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars since June 30, 1923. The institution has a capital and surplus of $235,000.00. Ten thousand dollars of this surplus was added out of earnings during the first six months of this year. The two thousand shares of the capital stock of the bank are owned by more than 250 stockholders, located in many sections of the county. These stockholders have already begun to receive dividends and it is evident that those who own the stock have an unusually good investment.

FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND DEPOSITORS WITHIN FOUR YEARS

More than 45,000 persons and institutions have opened accounts in The Douglass National Bank within the past four years. Among these depositors are included the city of Chicago, Cook County (the county in which Chicago is located), and the State of Illinois. The Bank is also a depository for Postal Savings Funds of the Federal Government. National, Religious, and Fraternal organizations located throughout the country have found it of great advantage to carry deposits in this Bank. In addition to the many thousands of depositors who live in the State of Illinois, the institution has, at the present time, 2,368 out-of-town depositors, who reside in twenty-eight other states of the Union. The Bank is, therefore, doubly Nationay—National in that it was created under an act of Congress and National in that an increasingly large number of persons and organizations located throughout the nation are using the Bank because of its safety, efficiency and convenience in handling their banking business by mail.

The Bank conducted a campaign for new business from May 17th to Jluy 17th, 1926. During these two months more than forty-five hundred new accounts were opened.

Approximately twenty-five million dollars have been handled through the bank within four years with absolute safety and satisfaction. Most of this amount represented the funds of colored people.

The support that the institution is getting is brought out by the facts that on June 30, 1923, the deposits were $262,709.46; on June 30, 1924, they were $86,177.06; June 30, 1925, they had reached over a million and on June 30, 1926, they had climbed to $1,391,604.53. The business is growing so rapidly that the Directors will be compelled to take over more banking space within the next few weeks.

OFFERS COMPLETE BANKING SERVICE

The institution offers a complete general banking service. In addition to its Commercial and Savings Departments, it maintains an efficient collection department for both local and out-of-town items; and sells traveler's checks negotiable throughout the civilized world. The safe deposit vaults are modern in every detail. They are made of torch proof, drill proof, and explosion proof steel. The thickness of the vault door alone is eighteen inches and weighs eighteen tons. It is equipped with two combination locks and four time locks.

The bank is a member of the Federal Reserve System and issues its own money known as National Bank Notes, bearing the signatures of its President and Cashier, both of whom are colored men.

BANK BUILDING IS THE PROPERTY OF THE BANK

The Douglass Natoinal Bank Building is owned by the bank. The building is a modern four-story reinforced concrete and brick structure, occupying one-half block at the corner of State Street and Thirty-sixth Place. The building is conservatively valued at three hundred thousand dollars. The first floor is used for the banking rooms and for stores. The fourth and part of the third floors are occupied by the Overton Hygienic Manufacturing Company and the remaining space is used for offices. The building is well financed and managed and every available space is always in demand.

OPERATED ENTIRELY BY COLORED PERSONNEL

The directors and other personnel of the institution are all colored. The Directors are men of long experience and training who have made a success in their several fields of endeavor. The officers are:

Anthony Overton, President; Alderman R. R. Jackson, Vice-Pres.; Rev. John W. Robinson, Vice-Pres.; Arthur J. Wilson, Cashier and Theodore A. Roane, Assistant Cashier; Atty. S. A. T. Watkins is Chairman and Dr. Edward S. Miller is Secretary of the Board of Directors. The other members of the Board are: State Representative George T. Kersey, Rev. J. H. Branham, T. H. Samuels, Dr. Julian H. Lewis, Atty. Richard Hill, Jr. and George Rambo.

WATER A NECESSITY FOR LOS ANGELES

Revealing the rapid rate at which Los Angeles is continuing to grow, through the fact that this city is increasing its consumption of domestic water at the rate of four and one-half billion gallons a year, Chief Engineer William Mulholland of the Municipal Water Bureau, in a statement to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners, today emphasized the necessity of further water development and the construction of more extensive storage and distributing facilities.

The use of domestic water in Los Angeles, Mr. Mulholland pointed out, practically has doubled during the past five years. This amazing increase, it was shown, indicates that this city's population also has been doubled during the same period of time.

In order to keep pace with this ever increasing demand for water service, it is necessary for the Water Bureau, Mr. Mulholland stated, to develop its existing resources to their fullest extent and provide more extensive facilities for water storage and its distribution to an ever growing number of consumers.

It is to carry forward this work that proceeds from the $10,000,000 water bond issue are to be used, it was explained. This bond issue, together with an $11,000,000 power bond issue to help finance additional hydro-electric power development and facilities on the municipal power system, will be submitted to the voters at the August 31st primary election.

Since both the Water Bureau and the Power Bureau are self-sustaining municipal utilities, it was pointed out the voting of these two bond issues will in no way increase taxes. All charges on the water and power bonds will be paid out of earnings of the Water and Power Bureaus.

Referring to the constantly increasing volume of domestic water required in Los Angeles, Mr. Mulholland explained that for the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1921, the average daily consumption of domestic water here amounted to approximately 76,000,000 gallons; while for the fiscal year ended June 30 of this year, the average daily consumption had jumped to approximately 140,000,000 gallons.

Water being used by Los Angeles people during the summer months shows an even greater increase, it was pointed out. During the summer months of the year 1920-21 the average daily consumption was 82,000,000 gallons; while in the summer months of the year 1925-26 the average daily use had mounted to approximately 165,000,000 gallons, slightly more than a 100 per cent increase in five years.

Careful surveys and calculations, it was stated, reveal that the consumption of domestic water in Los Angeles amounts to 125 gallons per capita per day. Each year for the past five years Los Angeles people have been increasing their daily consumption of domestic water 12,000,000 gallons over the daily consumption of the previous year. This indicates a population increase of 100,000 a year, it was stated.

The twelve million gallon increase in the daily demand for water when applied on a yearly basis discloses that this city's domestic water requirements are increasing at the rate of approximately four and one-half billion gallons annually.

To give some idea of the tremendous quantity of water required each day to meet the domestic water needs of Los Angeles, it was pointed out that if all the water used each day, during the present season, was collected in Pershing Square, it would cover that city block to a depth of 124 feet.

COURT SOLOMON HOLDS ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

In its endeavor to live up to its reputation of progressiveness, Court Solomon No. 8677, Ancient Order of Foresters, spared no efforts in making the meeting of Friday evening, August 5th, one of the most enthusiastic as well as one of the greatest in the annals of its existence. The spirit of this auspicious occasion was greatly heightened by the presence of High Chief Ranger, James H. Smith of the Pacific Coast jurisdiction and William J. People, general secretary of the same district. In glowing speeches in which the two above named officials expressed their inability to command appropriate words to fit the occasion, a lasting tribute was paid to court Solomon and its staff of able officers.

Realizing that there could be no better opportunity to reward the zeal, interest and integrity of those officers who had shown an unusual amount of untiring efforts in making Court Solomon the greatest fraternal order in the Forrestic Circle, High Chief Ranger, Smith, in a voice vibrating with emotion presented Past Chief Ranger, Claude G. McDonald, with deserving credentials emblemtic of the wonderful services that he has rendered to this fraternal organization. Following this presentation, Past Chief Ranger, Buell A. Thomas was made the proud recipient of a gold ring mounted with symbolic letters of the court. Fitting tributes were also paid to financial secretary Charles R. Isum and others for their wonderful display of brotherly interest.

Remarks were heard from representatives of Court Intangible and Court Mt. Lowe, whose expressions of great pleasure at being present at such a meeting were well received.

During the course of the meeting sixteen candidates were initiated and became members of the Lodge.

It would be wholly unfair not to take advantage of this opportunity to mention the meritorious showing of the Forresters "Wonder Band." This aggregation of men and women who only eight months ago knew little or nothing about music are today proving themselves a contemporary of the city's leading bands. The phenomenal accomplishments of this great band must justly be credited to the super-ingenuity of Prof. John C. Spikes, who as organizer and director of this wonderful band cannot be given too much credit.

After the general routine of business had been consummated the visiting officials, guests and brothers retired to the antechamber of the hall where enjoyable refreshments were had by all.

Onward Court Solomon! Onward! Yours for a bigger and better fraternal order.

Pioneer Builders
Of Los Angeles

ROBERT R. COOK

Robert R. Cook, a twenty-five year resident, farmer, mechanic and capitalist, says as follows:

"I owe my present success to the installation and operation of the Owen River Aqueduct and its bi-product, namely Electric Power.

"Property purchased before the induction was very cheap and practically unfit to produce anything of a commercial value, but as soon as the people were assured of plenty of water and power ,property was advanced in value hundreds and in many instances thousands per cent.

"I am still a believer in, and an advocate of water and more water and power. Our continued success and prosperity is sorely dependent upon these vital essentials.

"Yes, I am for the Bonds—first, last and all the time. My advice to my friends is to vote "YES," on the Power Bond. Thereby insuring prosperity and expansion.

SUBDIVIDER SPEAKS

Mr. Sidney P. Dones, of the Sidney P. Dones Brokerage Corporation and Sub-Divider of Eureka Villa Lands:

"An abundance of water in Los Angeles and vicinity is its greatest asset. Without this we could not have attained to the present rank and position among the great cities of our country. If we are to maintain that position we should vote "YES" on the Power issue, thereby removing all doubt as to the future possibilities of of this our great city."

ONE OF L. A. MOST POPULAR CLUB WOMEN AND CIVIC WORKER'S VIEW

Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert, 1468 E. 20th St., Los Angeles, Calif., takes this stand:

"I was a resident of Los Angeles before the completion of the Owen River Aqueduct. Past experience teaches me that a shortage of water or power at this time would be a calamity unapparalleled in the history of our great city. We must have an abundance of water and electrical energy. Our immediate and distant future is dependent thereon. I urge those who know me and are willing to accept and profit by my experience to vote "YES" on the Power Bond."

BUSINESS MEN'S SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS WORKERS ADVOCATE WATER AND POWER BONDS

Rev. J. H. Wilson, whose twenty-one years of social and religious contact has endeared him to thousands of those who know him, urge the endorsement of the WATER AND POWER BONDS to be decided August 31st says in part: I have lived in California twenty-one years as the Presiding Elder of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and my observation has been that an abundant water suply and electrical energy are indispensible in the developmet of the resources and the expansion of our agricultural industries. If a vote for the Bonds means a more efficient water supply, by all means let us vote them.

REV. J. H. WILSON.

DRUGGIST PUTS O. K. ON BONDS

Dr. Albert Baumann, successful business man and druggist, at 9th and Central and Pico and Central Ave., says: "I think of no lofty cause around our proposition equally common to us all than that of WATER and POWER. Their capacity effect our every conceivable business and vocational life. Divest us of a sufficient supply and you retard progress and prosperity, they are essentials indispensible.

Permit me to advise you as a friend to go to the polls on August 31st and cast the vote for WATER and POWER. You owe this to yourself, family and community.

DR. ALBERT BAUMANN

STORAE CO. MAN SEES A FUTURE FOR L. A. VOTING BONDS

Mr. A. H. Dunston, president and manager of the Los Angeles Van and Storage Co., L. A. City, says:

The business of WATER and POWER in sufficient quality and quantity to serve our present and future requirements rests with our bureau of POWER and LIGHT. I have the utmost confidence in the ability and integrity of the management.

Their past recor dand foresight in keping pace with our fast growing City, meeting every emergency in the past should be suffcient proof of their ability to take care of tfe future. Let us all therefore get behind them and VOTE YES for MORE WATER and POWER, to further develop our resources.

MR. A. H. DUNSTON

ROSS RESIGNS

DIRECTOR OF PUBLICITY

WM. J. McLAMORE

William J. McLamore holds the position of Director of Publicity for the Colored Press in Northern California and occupies a very important niche in the headquarters for Senator Shortridge in the Crocker Building at San Francisco. Mr. McLamore has demonstrated a keen insight into the essential things which go toward conducting a successful campaign and has been a tower of strength to the organization.

Hon. E. Marion Crawford for Full Term Judge of the Superior Court

The Hon. E. Marion Crawford is asking our suport in his candidacy for Judge of the Superior Court.

Having in mind the brilliant record Mr. Craford has made as a practicing attorney in the Courts of California together with his fair-minded principles and broad sense of equal justice to all classes which make him eminently fitted for the high position he seeks, the Eastside Independent League heartily endorses Mr. Crawford and urges for him the support of the people. "THE CRUISE OF THE CHIAPAS"

LIBERNIAN TRANSPORTATION S. S. AND EXCELSIOR MINING CO. BEGINS REALIZATION OF THE DREAM OF AFRO-AMERICANS

By: BARRON BROWN

Hon. Oscar Hudson, Liberian Transportation S. S. and Excelsior Mining Company last Sunday on board the CHIAPAS at San Pedro addressed a large gathering of the company's friends and stockholders. In his eloquent manner he described the inauguration of a direct steamship line from Los Angeles port to Liberia as a modern romance of business.

It is a romance—a dream come true. It is none the less romantic because business men take the place of knights errant, or because the gonfalons of chivalry have given way to the pennants of commerce. It is the beginning of the realization of a dream long dreamed and hopes long deferred.

In all the histroy of races and governments there is nothing more interesting or appealing than the establishment and development of the government and country of Liberia. Consider—More than a hundred years ago human slavery existed in America. A race was held in hpysical bondage. By great indusrty and frugal saving it was possible for a slave to purchase his freedom; but with this attained he found himself in possession of only a mockery of freedom because it did not carry with it the rights of citizenship—not even the right to express a voice in the government under which he lived and reared his children. In order that these slaves, who by one means or another had gained their "freedom," might enjoy the rights of citizenship and live as free men in truth as well as in name, some New England white philanthropists fostered a movement to establish a free and independent government by and for the Negro race on the continent of Africa. In 1822 the first "settlers" arrived on the West Coast of that continent and landed at a point known as Sierra Leone. They met with serious opposition from the natives in this section and were compelled to move farther south to a territory less hostile but none the less rich and inviting. Here where the coast of Africa begins its great sweep to the Eastward was established the colony of Liberia. After the many dangerous and trying vicissitudes of pioneer life in a wild and unsettled region these heroic pioneers established in 1847 under the sponsorship of President James Monroe the Republic of Liberia, framing their government after that of the United States and naming their capitol Monrovia. A new flag was unfurled in the galaxy of nations; a new challenge to human slavery and to despotism was issued to mankind; a new destiny was born.

After a century of struggle against the predatory white powers of Europe, Liberia stands today with most of her original territory intact, her integrity established, and her ideals unsullied. The thing that so strongly links the sentiment of the colored race all over the world with Liberia and which so strongly claims the fealty and affection of the race is the fact that on the whole continent where Ethiopia once reigned supreme—in the whole world, indeed—there is not another spot of terrain that the Negro can point to and say, "That is my hom! There is one spot on the face of the earth where I am sovereign!"

Fate seems to exercise an irony in the destiny of nations as in the destiny of individuals. Like the Osage Indians in our own country, the colonists and founders of Liberia were compelled to go to a spot which was remote and which was considered worthless by the reat of mankind—a place no one else wanted. And like the land of the Osages, Liberia in recent years has proved to be a very treasure-house of natural riches; so rich, indeed, that now, when it is too late for predatory white governments to dare confiscation or the establishment of "protectorates" it is found that no territory on earth is more valuable to modern business or more neccessary to the world's continued commercial development.

Professor Edward Pittman, a Liberian educator of not who is now in this section as a special representative of the Monrovian Chamber of Commerce, in speaking to a mass meeting on the Chiapas last Sunday told the amazing story of the development of this natural wealth. Liberia would be immensely wealthy if it produced nothing but rubber. Her territory has no less than twenty-two indiginous trees and plants which produce this commodity so essential to the maintenance of human life and commerce. Very little rubber is as yet artificially cultivated; and yet rubber to the value of $50,000.00 was taken out of the country in five months! With proper planting and cultivation this commodity alone will total millions of dollars. In addition to this immense potential wealth Liberia has large forests of valuable hard-woods which include mahogany in great quantity. So plentiful and accessible is this precious wood that whole houses are sometimes built of it. Coffee and palm oil of the finest quality can be produced with little expense and in great quantities. Gold is plentiful in nugget form among the natives who use it for personal decoration. Precious stones are commonly found, and ivory in quantity is easily available.

L. A. Deltas Breakfast With Honorary Soror Mary M. Bethune

By: FAY JACKSON

With the charming simplicity of the truly great, Mary McCleod Bethune, foremost woman of the Negro Race, sat as honored guest at breakfast last Saturday morning given by her sorors of Delta Sigma Theta sorority of which she is an honorary member.

Twenty-four young college women representing both local chapters of the sorority together with visiting sorors of various eastern colleges assembled at Christian's Tavern to receive this eminent woman who so beautifully represents the finest of womanhood in the Negro race—in fact, a woman of whom any race may be justly proud.

A short period of introductions and subdued conversations, then, all at once, unannounced and quite unceremoniously, Mary McCleod Bethune burst farth with a electrifying "Girls, Girls! I must speak, I cannot lose this precious time" . . . It was the human geyser breaking through releasing a volley of personal magnetism unmistable in its purpose and its aim.

"It is such a rare treat," continued the speaker, "to meet young women such as you, fresh and idealistic, full of the hopes and aspirations of youth, that I must tell you how very, very happy I am."

The desire to see at least 50,000 young women co-operating with the National Association of Colored Women was expressed by soror Bethune. "For," she explained, "we need the young woman's viewpoint; we need her vigor and enthusiasm. Our group is judged largely by the masses of our people, not by the cultured college women but by those in the humbler callings of life. Yours must not be an existence of exclusion and snobbery but a life of active service, "Lifting as you climb."

In a plea for a stronger organization of Colored women, Mrs. Bethune said that the work of men is heralded and adored while that of women is given last place or entirely overlooked. "We must go to the front," cried the Black Joan, "and take our rightful place; fight our battles and claim our victories!"

Thus was Mary McCleod Bethune: a woman with a purpose; an artery of life, pulsating with energy; and indeed, a woman of women consecrated to the noblest aim in life: Service.

Indeed it was a beautiful hour and Delta Sigma Theta is extremely proud to have been hostess to its honroary soror.

Sharing honors with Mrs. Bethune was her secretary, Mrs. Taylor, herself a woman of exceeding keen judgment who said in a personal interview with the writer, "To me, the problems of the New Negro People are two-fold—Economic and Palitic. We are as yet a people of only superficial crust without the fundamental substnace necessary to a sound race-building. We have taken over the finer points of the white man's civilization and overlooked the fundamental ones but until we include in our program of upbuilding self-reliance and resourcefulness, until we are able to back up our progress with the sound and practical things, which in America spells economic wealth, we shall forever remain a dependent, imitating people. Our political strength is, of course, the other important means of tieing up our growth and power. Stand back of the men and women, black or white who have our interests at heart, regardless of party affiliations . . . see that our representatives are fostering the best and cleanest ideals. Stand back of them with your vote and stand as a Unit!"

This pragmatic philosophy came from the mind of a woman, strangely spiritual, singularly practical. It was the echo of the Present-Day Negro Woman, alert to the problems confronting her race.

HIS RECORD A GUARANTEE

SENATOR SHORTRIDGE

Senator Shortridge's ability and loyalty have brought his state new prestige in national affairs.

He is a member of the powerful Senate Finance Committee handling tariff rates and income taxes. His influence has been thrown into the balance again and again successfully to protect California products. Membership on that Committee is impossible to a newcomer.

He is a member of the Senate Reclamation and Irrigation Committee. He has worked tirelessly to promote Colorado River development, including the Boulder Dam and All-American Canal.

Shortridge has kept faith with the voters who sent him to Washington. Ask the War Veteram, the citrus men, the almond men, the walnut growers. He has safeguarded the interests of the working man, as well as the industrialist. He has secured special appropriations for new buildings, port development, highways, bridges, agricultural experiment stations. He has been vigilant; he has been efficient; he has been loyal. His record is a guarantee.

CHILDREN LEARN TO USE CARE

PEDESTRIAN FATALITIES OF ALL KINDS FALL OFF AS COMPARED WITH LAST YEAR

Marked improvement is shown in the traffic fatality records in Los Angeles for the last two months with less deahts among children being especially evident in the report lately compiled by the public safety department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

In the face of increased auto and pedestrian traffic, fatalities from motor vehicle accidents in the city dropped to twelve for July from the seventeen of the same month of last year, following the June reduction of fifteen death this year from the total of twenty-seven of 1925.

Although running or playing in the street was the leading cause of motor fatalities during the two months last year, no deaths have occurred under this cause during June and July, 1926. July had three last year, and June had five on its score. Only seven fatalities under this cause are recorded for the year to date, as against fifteen for the same period of 1925. This is considered a valuable compliment to the safety work of the Automobile Club of Southern California in the local schools, and especially to its scheme of playground supervision by student guardians during summer vacation.

FOR NATIONAL PRESIDENT

In honor of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, president of the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs Mrs. J. M. Edwards, recently elected Vice-President of the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, entertained at a charmingly appointed luncheon, Sunday afternoon at her beautiful home. Those included were Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, Mrs. Bright and Mrs. Hinton of New York, Mrs. A. C. Richardson, Mrs. M. Beavers, Miss Louise Beavers, Miss Hazel Glottschalk and Mr. & M. Edwards.

Gov. Richardson At Douglass Temple Last Sunday Meets Noted Club Leader

Sunday evening was a gala occasion at the Douglass Temple, on East 21st Street. It was the first occasion of Governor Richardson addressing the Colored folk in the city during the intensive campaign now for the Republican nomination for Governor.

The church was decorated with American flags and the robed choir sang patriotic songs and Negro Spirituals. The pastor, Rev. Dr. G. W. Shields having made the presentation speech of the Master of Ceremonies. Mrs. A. E. Walker delivered in her characteristic way a warm endorsement of the Governor's administration.

When Governor Richardson arose to speak he was greeted with a perfect oration and his address, from time to time, was punctuated with applause. His audience throughout his short adress appeared to be in thorough sympathy with the speaker and he closed his address amid tumultuous applause.

The next speaker was Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, Pres. of the Bethune Cookman Institute of Daytona, and President of the National Colored Women's Federation of Clubs, that had just adjourned a meeting in Oakland. Mrs. Bethune is the foremost woman in the public life of her people in the United States.

Mrs. Bethune listened attentively to the address of Governor Richardson and in her interesting talk of Negro Welfare work said among other things:—

"I wish to congratulate you, my people, of this wonderful state with its wonderful opportunities for human progress in having for your chief executive a man whose sympathies are broad, deep and patriotic. I have listened with my hopes growing stronger and stronger, to the plain, outspoken address of your Governor and I feel it's not only to your interest but it is also a bounden duty that you support your Governor, for re-election."

"I shall return to my life work in Florida with this message t othem: "Go West! to California, where you will have an opportunity under the rare executive ability of Governor Richardson to find the spirit of fair play and encouragement in all of your elevate dendeavors."

Mrs. Bethune's story of the beginning of her career of public usefulness when, as a bare-foot child, went five miles to school and five miles back and the evidence she gave in citing the fact that she owed her higher education and training for her lifework to the generosity of a white lady school teacher of Colorado, held the vast audience spell-bound.

The effect of the governor's speech was immediately evident following the program when in an informal levee hundreds of prominent people including leaders of the race, crowded about the Governor and Mrs. Richardson and grasped their hands with pledges of their unstinted support at the coming primary and subsequent election.

D. R. JONES PASSES

Rev. D. R. Jones, perhaps the oldest minister in point of service on the Pacific Coast, quietly passed to the great beyond on last Tuesday at the family residence, on 38th street.

At the bedside were his wife and two daughters, Mrs. L. Roy Lott and Mrs. W. H. Robinson.

Rev. Jones had been in failing health for the past several months, the last four weeks of which he was confined to his bed.

He was connected with the A. M. E. denomination and had seen active service on the coast for over 35 years, during which period he held down nearly every charge of importance in California and Nevada.

Funeral will be held today, Friday, at 1 P. M., from 8th and Towne Avenue.

About The So-Called Exposition And Educational Congress

There has been holding forth at the White Sox Ball Park since last Saturday, what was heralded as an Exposition, which was to depict the progress of the race along all the various lines of endeavor.

One Rev. L. B. Brown, to all intent and purpose is the head of this so-called proposition. In fact he admits it.

We must say that along the advertised lines it was a misnomer from the very beginning. If it had been named an affair to demonstrate gambling for hams and bacon, the Charleston, a carnival supreme, or catch penny for Candidates for the approaching primaries, it would have come nearer telling just what it was.

The sorry spectacle of collecting 10 cents per head to enter a gate, to see nothing excepting a carnival, operated by professional carnival men, was the hight. Only one saving spot, in an out of the way place, was an art exhibit conducted by race artists.

After viewing this spectacle it is self evident that the race has been exploited to the utmost, it has been outraged and raped by arch conspirators. It has been humbugged and its standing has ben challenged.

In the first place the records at the city hall show that the license out there was granted to the Old Folks Home. We want the officials of this Home to come formard and answer as to the part they played if any, in this nefarious affair.

They advertised Prof. Carver and other notables would be present, and not one appeared, they swooped down on the city Hall, enveigled the City Council to decorate the streets for just about as unworthy and less meritorious a proposition as it was possible to conceive.

It was rather punk and smelled to the highest heavens. Politicians were manhandled, thugged and despoiled. It was indeed the raggediest ragged affair ever pulled off, on an unsuspecting public.

They could not advertise enough in these columns to still our tongue upon the injury perpetuated upon a race by the erroneous impression made upon the same wherein an exposition is alleged and not a semblance of the representation at hand.

FISH OR CUT BAIT

Now the Rev. L. B. Brown is a very likable person, smooth and suave. We certainly hold no malice toward him, but we cannot sit supinely by and let him or any other man exploit the people or any community and get away with it for lack of publishing the inside of the situation.

We say to the preacher, he must either fish or cut bait. Preach or promote gambling, dances and misrepresentations to the public. For we are going to be eternally on the job and let the people know "What's going on."

We want to get the preacher fixed either as pastor of some church or a prometer of Carnivals with gambling, games, dances and etc. One or the other, brother, "that's all".

In other words we want our ministry to stand up as men among men and not stoop to the little things, even though they get hold of a few filthy dollars by doing so.

About any others connected with this farce we have nothing to say. We are satisfied to present the situation as it applies to its confessed leader. We have spoken in this article.

We want the people to know if any well organized exposition, fostered by men of honor and integrity had been put forth, a demonstration of Negro genius and accomplishment worth while would have been present, for their inspection and consideration.

ENTERTAINS PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL FEDERATION

Mrs. W. D. Carter, most royally entertained Mrs. aMry McLeod Bethune. The day was strenuous, but pleasing to the utmost. The distinguished visitor expressed herself as pleased beyond expression with the beauty and cordiality of her visit. The day was taken up with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. Robinson, a drive by Miss Shumake; afternoon reception, Mrs. Carr; Lecture at Friendship Church, 8:15 P. M. to a crowded house, enthusiastic and sympathetic audience; Dinner preceded the lecture at th eresidence of Mrs. H. Johnson and Mrs. Harper; after the lecture at the residence of Mrs. Ruption by the Women's Club, during Friday luncheon with Mrs. Louise Williams.

PRETTY AFFAIR AT EAGLE HALL

A very charming affair at beautiful Eagle Hall on last Saturday evening was the presentation of the grand prizes awarded to the winners of the high scores by the Whist Tournament Association. A handsome sterling silver buffet service, consisting of a meat tray and compartment vegetable dish was presented to Miss Fern Caldwell, winner of the grand prize for ladies. Mrs. L. L. French was presented a handsome glass and silver water set for the 2nd grand prize. The men's grand prize was captured by Mr. D. B. Floyd, who was rejoiced with a handsome sterling silver cocktail shaker and set. Mr. Duplesis as winner of the second grand prize was given a tray of handsome silver smoking accessories. Dr. Mitchell, popular dentist, was consoled with a beautiful English tea service for the grand booby.

Appropriate speeches of appreciation were made by the winners, but Dr. Mitchell's oratorical gem was indeed a masterpiece.

The prizes for the first night of the second semester were awarded as follows: To Miss Alvina Caldwell, an amber boudoir clock; to Miss Miller, two beautiful vases; to Mr. A. W. Hogue, a walrus billfold; and to Mr. D. B. Floyd, a smoking set. The second semester promises to be even more interesting and better attended than the first. Mrs. Emma Gordon received vociferous applause when introduced as new hostess. Mrs. Alta Clark will continue also as hostess. The next meeting on Saturday evening, August 28th promises to be eventful.

By: W. J. WHEATON

The sudden death of Thomas J. Lennon, Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court and candidate for the Chief Justiceship of that tribunal, gives an almost certainty to the selection of Chief Justice Waste at the coming primary. We say "almost," because there are certain conditions under which a contest can be made, even after the primaries. Though too late to file applications, citizens can write in the name of candidates, as Independents and qualify for the election in November. The death of Justice Lennon makes two vacancies to be filled on the bench. Why not citizens write in the names of E. Burton Ceruti of Los Angeles and Judge Walter Perry Johnson of San Francisco for Associate Justice?

The fight for the nomination of the United States senatorship in California is not so much a matter of the Tariff issue or the World Court embroiglio as it is for the control of the delegation which will be selected from California to the Republican Convention which nominates the president in 1928. The presidential bee buzzes in some bonnets until the hive decays. Once it is set buzzing it will sting everything in its path to its ultimate goal—the White House. While Senator Shortridge may not have pleased us at all times by the stand that he has taken, it seems that the greatest sin committed—according to his opponents for renomination—is that, under every condition, he has supported the Administration and THAT IS WHAT WE ELECTED HIM FOR.

The National Bar Association composed of the leading Negro lawyers of the United States met recently in the city of Chicago. There are so many vital questions which, as a Race, effect us; so many legal points to be determined; so many court decisions to be reviewed and antagonized, that we are waiting with anxiety to find out just what that body has done. We have no doubt that "Jim Crow" and his associate relatives of Discrimination were dealt with from a legal standpoint and various means discussed and formulated for their abatement. Special Assistant to the Attorney General, William C. Matthews, at the present stationed for special service in San Francisco, was one of the principal speakers on the program.

We are in receipt of a survey of the farming activities of Negroes in California. It was sent to us by our old co-worker, Charles Hall, of the Census Bureau. While the result of that survey is very flattering, there is considerable room for further improvement. Plenty of land and opportunity to purchase it. We still are preaching the doctrine of production as the means of solving a vital problem.

There is a party of Japanese students from the grammar grades and the universities visiting here, San Francisco. In a recent conversation one of them informed this writer that California fruit was being shipped and despite the high cost, was receiving favor over the fruit grown in the Orient. We have claimed at all times that the opportunities in this state for the intelligent farmer was greatest of any in the world. It has been our aim to divert the trend city-ward and direct it where it might become independent producters. Politics and religion have not aided the effort but we are not discouraged.

EUREKA VILLA

$100,000.00 to be spent immediately for improvements at Eureka Villa. To those purchasers and all other persons interested in Eureka Villa we wish to announce the following:

On June 17th, 1926, we negotiated the purchase of Eureka Villa consisting of 720 acres of land. Included in that purchase were its good and bad accounts, contracts and deeds of which title has never been given. We are not going to discuss the 'whys' and 'wherefores,' fight or criticise anyone, but we have gone in there with our eyes open and with both feet on the ground with plenty of money with which to give deeds and titles to all of those who have waited so long for same.

WATER: Contract for the development of water has been let to Ralph Shaffer of Filmore, California, who is now engaged in putting piles in the river-bed at Filmore, and promises to get into Eureka Villa during the week of July 25th.

GENERAL IMPROVEMENTS: A general contract for the develpment of the entire tract, roads, dams, pools, parkways, playgrounds, etc., has been let to George Paonossa, 1045 Highland, Los Angeles., California.

Should the little company release us in time, we will formally open this tract on Labor Day with the largest swimming pool in the county at which time Jimmie Smith will stage a "Bathing Girl' contest; silver trophy and cash, etc., as prizes.

HUDSON SPECIAL BROUGHAM: To all persons who should buy a lot at Eureka Villa on or before September 15th, 1926, we will give a number; to all persons who now hold contracts and are behind in their payments, but who care to pay up by September 15th, will also be given a number. These numbers will entitle you to a chance of being presented with this automobile now on display at A. L. Johnston's, Inc., Hudson and Essex Agency, 25th and Central Avenue.

To those who will make no effort whatever to bring their payments down to date by September 15th, 1926, your contracts will be cancelled and all money paid in forfeited as liquidated damages. We shall more than do our part at Eureka Villa and most assuredly will expect you to do yours.

Payments will be accepted by the National City Bank, 8th and Main Sts., until our escrow and trust shall have been completed, at which time you will be instructed to put in your demands for deeds and title.

LAURA C. JANES, Sidney P. Dones, Eureka Development Ass'n., Eureka Villa Advisory Board and Rev. E. R. Driver, all of whom have nothing more to do with the management of Eureka Villa, but when the title company shall have finished its search of this entire property we will own Eureka Villa outright and have ample money with which to develop same.

It is true, we did secure the county's help with a park program to the extent of $25,000.00, but we did not authorize anyone to commercialize on that information with a letter or public demonstration, neither did we authorize anyone to use Eureka Villa to further their interests politically and as owners of that place, do feel that someone or group exceeded their authority, therefore, we are not responsible for anything that has been said or done by anyone but ourselves.

To date, there has been only one person authorized to talk about the future plans of Eureka Villa, namely, Mrs. Nellie Turner, AXridge 5008. Should anyone desire to know more or pay contracts down to date, or make new purchases, or any salesmen care to sell these lots, see Mrs. Turner.

LARGE VOTE FROM NEGRO VOTERS IS EXPECTED TO ELECT J. W. McKINLEY STATE SENATOR

J. W. McKINLEY

Planning on drawing a majority of the thousands of Negro votes of the 38th Senatorial District Attorney J. W. McKinley a long resident of the district and whose candidacy has been announced is very satisfied with the way that individuals and organizations are rallying to his support.

From the very first, Attorney McKinley has stated that he believes the Negro should be considered just as much after election as before and any measure that comes before the senatorial body of a prejudiced nature will not receive his support.

Attorney McKinley was educated in the Los Angeles city school and is the son of the late Judge McKinley. He is also a veteran of the World War and at one time was commander of Los Angeles Post No. 8 of the American Legion.

Mr. McKinley is an active supporter of the Boulder Canyon Dam and the All-American Canal, and if elected will support all measures before the Legislature which will aid in securing this very necessary development of our State Highway System and pledges his best efforts in obtaining justice for Southern California in getting its fair shrare of the money expended by the State for highway purposes in order that the State highways in Southern California may be completed as soon as possible.

Being a graduate of the public school system and in seeing that it is properly supported by the State.

Reliable Colored Citizens Endorse A. Pratt For Supervisor 3rd District

Quite often a man of the white race has been doing much that tends to benefit our race although it is not generally known. And such men, not having an personal interests at stake or any exploitation of our race in mind, can best be counted on for sincerity of purpose and a real intention to do the things that help our people most—So states a colored lady who has known Mr. Alvaro Pratt and family very well for number of years and first learned of his broadness, sympathy, fairness and kindness of heart, when he issued a letter in her behalf to a street car company which was seeking to avoid compensating her for injuries she had suffered in a street car accident.

In this letter he expressed this opinion: "no corporation, institution, or body of people should discriminate against any person or persons on account of the color of their skins." He has quietly been acquainting himself with interracial affairs and is now well prepared to put forward his best efforts in the improvements that re-

Mrs. Hortense Allen and Anita Harvey entertained with a Treasure Hunt last Sunday morning, honoring visiting guests and Miss Nadine Bratton. More than a hundred responded to the occasion. The first cue to the hunt was a verse of poetry concealed in a huge baloon which was punctured by Miss Bratton. The Hunters followed Miss Taylor to Exposition and the next hunt began. Miss Jennie Smith, sister and house guest of Mrs. F. A. Pearl, was the next lucky hunter. Miss Smith found the next verse of poetry in a huge tree. The cue led the hunters to the treasure which was buried in the sand at Manhattan Beach. The visitor's treasure was found by Mrs. Galloway of Chicago, house guest of Mrs. J. A. Freeman and Miss Pauline Slater. The next treasure was found by Mrs. Ethel Reid and the men's treasure was found by Mrs. Wickliffe.

Mrs. H. G. Dwiggins addressed the Zion Hill Baptist congregation Sunday evening, August 15th. As a delegate to the N. C. W. C. which met in Oakland, she related the success of the 15th biennial and paid tribute to the illustrious president. She spoke on "The Achievements of the P. T. A. Work," stating its aims, purposes and objectives and added that it was a potent factor and represented the greatest force let loose in the country. The parent power, that if parents would assume their responsibility, great things for the youth could be accomplished. That the motto was: "A United Effort, Not for Me and Mine, Nor Thee and Thine, But Ours." She urged upon her hearers to enlist the parents, teachers and children into the much needed cause of better homes, schools and children and teach the child love, restraint and to become law-abiding citizens. She pleaded for truer, purer, better homes, where God is known and blesses. That the home used to be a parking station was only a filling stationto today. She proved a forceful, pleasing speaker with a burning message held her audience spell-bound. Her address followed a short but soul-stirring sermon delivered by the greater than Billy Sunday of the West, Rev. J. H. Holder.

On Monday night, the Colored Women's Council met and held a successful meeting at the home of Mrs. Franklin, 1368 E. 22nd St. After the general routine of business, the Pres. Mrs. C. Ross gave a few minutes talk and some helpful suggestions for the Council. We were very grateful to have as our invited guest Mrs. C. A. Bass and Mrs. Murry who gave us encouraging remarks and wished us much success in the work. The Council is soliciting the co-operation of every colored woman in the city that we may be able to do great things as a whole and which will be thoroughly explained in the near future.

Meeting place and date will be announced in the next isue.

Mrs. E. A. Kimbrough was hostess to the Silver Lining Club, Tuesday afternoon at her home, 1355 Newton St. Wonderful Luncheon was enjoyed by all. Officer Arthur McClanahan was the only visitor present. Don't forget the Whist Tournament to be given by this club, Thursday, August 19, 1926 at 1145 E. 51st St.

Federated Club News

By: MARY E. REED

The National Association of Colored Women held one of the most profitable, harmonious and successful sessions in its history in Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, the magnetic, inspiring, beloved leader is responsible for this success.

Many interesting reports were made from the different states, which showed that our women are wide awak in the problems of today.

One of the highlights of the convention was the National Headquarters fostered by the president, Mrs. Bethune. The headquarters to be located in Washington, D. C., where all records, deeds, seals and movable properties are kept and from which place official orders are given and official recognition had.

California did itself honor in the entertainment of the delegates and Oakland and San Francisco joint hostess cities, left nothing lacking in their wonderful sight-seeing trips and for the comfort and pleasure of their visitors.

California won the silver cup for the best art exhibit, and the ribbons were won by Miss Mary E. Reed, Mrs. Leona McDowell, Mrs. Vassie Reese, Miss Anna Guess, Miss Esther Morris and 19 blue ribbons were won by pupils from Los Angeles schools; exhibits collected by Mrs. Leona McDowell, California, also won the silver cup for music.

The next Biennial will be held in Washington, D. C., 1928, when the National Headquarters will be dedicated, it is hoped. Following the National Convention the State Federatio was also held in Oakland for two days only. All work was condensed and finished as soon as possible, because the women were tired from the attendance of the National.

Mrs. Corrine B. Hicks, the retiring president cleaned up her slate after an arduous two years' task and came forth victorious.

The following were elected officers: President, Mrs. Esther Jones Lee, Oakland; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. A. A. Knight, San Diego, Mrs. Otey Smith, Fresno, Mrs. J. M. Edwards, Los Angeles; Vice-President-At-Large, Mrs. Edna Steward; Treasurer, Mrs. L. J. Williams, Vallejo; Secretaries: Corresponding, Mrs. Mathews, Oakland, Recording, Mrs. Lillian Wolfskill, Fresno, Financial, Miss Mary E. Reed, Los Angeles, Assistant, Mrs. A. E. Brown, San Diego; Parliamentarian, Mrs. J. C. Banks; Chaplain, Mrs. Ella Hawkins; Editor, Mrs. Irene Moore; Chairman of Executive Board, Mrs. Ada Jackson; Organizer, S., Mrs. E. J. Layne; Reciprocity, S., Mrs. Homer Dean; Exchange, S., Mrs. C. D. Robinson; Business, S., Mrs. S. Strickland; Citizenship, S., Mrs. F. E. Bramlett; Music, S., Mrs. M. Beavers; Education, S., Mrs. M. Stafford; Religious Work, S., Mrs. S. Cole; Domestic Science, S., Mrs. R. E. Banks; Ways and Means, S., Mrs. J. J. Christian; Mothers Work, S., Mrs. E. A. Johnson; Forestry, S., Mrs. N. D. Reese.

The President's Council entertained the National President, delegates and visitors at Tea, Sunday afternon from 4 to 7 at Christian's Tavern. The National President, Mrs. Bethune was presented with a huge basket of flowers by Mrs. J. M. Edwards in behalf of the council. About 300 guests called.

The Social Few Club met at the home of Mrs. L. Jordan, Wednesday August 4, 1926 with the majority of members present. The ladies discussed whist tournament series which is to begin after September. Refreshments were served. The ladies then adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. A. Kyles, Wednesday, August 19th

The Harmony Art and Literary Club met at the residence of Mrs. E. Luper, 1219 Birch St. The evening was pleasantly spent playing whist and five hundred. A unique buffet luncheon was enjoyed immensely by both guests and members.

SUPT. J. L. ARTHUR ARRIVES

Mr. J. L. Arthur, Supt. Pullman Co., Kansas City, arrived last Friday, August 13th at 2 P. M. on the Los Angeles Limited. He will take charge of the Los Angeles District at once. The men in this district expect to cooperate with Mr. Arthur to their fullest extent in kepeing the Los Angeles District the prize District that it has alway held the reputation of being. It is to be hoped that our new Supt. will be fair in his dealings with the boys and give an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, thus assuring team work and a hundred per cent efficiency at all times.

When you are reading the Clatter this week, the writer will be shaking shets and fighting dust between Los Angeles and Detroit, Mich., answering a thousand questions and as many bells as is humanly possible for one pullman porter to do. He also will be eating, when he can get it and sleeping the same way, jumping off at this station and that one in a wild scramble for a bucket of ice, which seems to melt before you put it in the coolers. And when in need of a little more added exercise, will grab a mop which is always handy and proceed to swing it in a most graceful and dignified manner across the checkers of the smoking room floor. While doing all of these things he will be making an effort to drive a dime up to as many dollars as is possible for him to do so, and as my good friend HARRY LEVETTE says,—ONE OF LIFE'S LITTLE THINGS.

JOE HOLMES GETS BUMPED

Running true to form and just as the Clatter predicted last week, one button Joe Holmes, operating in the Coast Pool was heartlessly bumped by Joe Lee; the only thing strange about this is that Joe has not got the power to take the line until the 16th. That's very funny indeed, surely Joe cannot be doing any days.

BULLET MAY KILL MAN; ASSAILANT HELD

Police Arrest Assailant of Colored Railroad Porter After Shooting Affray

Shot through the abdomen by Jerry Washington while visiting at 3025 Webster street, San Diego, Herman Washington, railroad porter, was in a serious condition at the County Hospital last Friday night.

Jerry Washington was arrested by Detective Sergeant John Kane at the Webster Street address a short time after the shooting and at Detective headquarters gave a complete statement of the affair, police said.

He said he shot in self-defense, after Herman had threatened his life because he had objected to an insult allged to have been made to the housekeeper at the former's home. Washington was taken to the County Hospital from a drug store at 16th and Broadway, where he had gone for treatment following the shooting. Jerry Washington was held in the city jail last night on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

In last week's Clatter it was reported that H. W. Weeks was taken to the hospital, which was very true, but in order that his friends may not become alarmed over the report, we will explain more fully data which we were unable to get at the last writing. Mr. Weeks ran a sliver into his little finger and holloed so loud in the New Bronx Hotel that the manager thought he was being murdered and called an ambulance to take him to the General Hospital. When they arrived with him, all that was the matter was a sliver in his little finger.

Oother guests were Mrs. Wm. Day; Mrs. E. Taylor; Mrs. Freddie Perry; Mrs. Mitchell; Mrs. Helen Scott; Miss Willie Penn and Mrs. Lillian Harris.

FRESNO

A demonstrative protest against unscrupulous Negro politicians, who have been selling the Negro vote, was voiced in a big mass meeting at Garibaldi Hall last Friday night. The practice of these so-called race leaders in accepting various sums of money from candidates and promising them in return the Negro vote, has had its damiaging effect in blocking every effort put forth by our group to gain recognition in city and county affairs. Out of the mass meeting a permanent, dominant politeal organization was formed for the purpose of combating these conditions and for the general progressiveness of the Negro in this city and county. William A. Bigby, Jr., was elected President; Mrs. Irene Hinds, Vice-Pres.; James L. Clarke, Secy.; Robert Strother, Ass't. Secy.; Rev. Fred A. Hughes, Treas.; Mrs. Etta Mae Kennedy, Personal Secretary to the President. The Executive Board is headed by J. E. K. Knicholls, Chairman; William Page, Mrs. A. Harris Crawford, John Cannon, Mrs. Minnie Howard, S. O. Sheffield, Mrs. Etta Mae Kennedy. The President, Secretary and Treasurer will also act as ex-officio members of the Executive Board. Speakers of the evening were Wm. A. Bigby, Jr.; S. O. Sheffield; Mrs. Ida Johnson; J. E. G. Knicholls; Mrs. A. Harris Crawford; Rev. Fred Hughes; Mrs. Etta Mae Kennedy and Sam C. Hannibal. Headquarters have been opened up at 1401 "F" street.

In compliment to her house guest, Miss Cleo Sparks of Sacramento, Miss Helen Wolfe entertained a large group of the younger set last Thursday evening at her residence in "D" street; dancing was the principal mode of pleasure, with cards as a secondary diversion. The guest list included most of the younger set, with a sprinkling of the younger married contingent.

Col. and Mrs. Ed. Jones have with them for a several months' sojourn, the latter's sister, Mrs. I. S. Wilson of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Wilson is the wife of Dr. I. S. Wilson, a Presiding Elder of the A. M. E. Conference.

Mrs. William A. Bigby, Jr., who is spending the summer in the Bay Cities motored down to Santa Cruz for several days sojourn.

Rev. J. D. Wilson, the eminent pastor of the 85th Ave. Baptist Church in Oakland occupied the pulpit at the Second Baptist Church last Sunday and gave a very forceful lecture on "Negro Inconsistencies" on Monday night.

After having attended the National Federation in Oakland, Mrs. Alice Foster and Mrs. Henry Sims are still enjoying the cool breezes around the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel E. King and daughter, Miss Marjorie King of Santa Monica were the week-end house guests of William A. Bigby, Jr., while en route home last week. Mr. King is the head field representative of the Hefflin Mfg. Co., in Los Angeles.

James W. H. Harding and Thomas Irving were in town for the week, having come in on the private car "Santa Barbara."

The Negro Exposition

The season's Carnival at the White Sox Ball Park is a success beyond question. The promoters are worthy of commendation, but the affair bears no resemblance to a Negro Industrial Exposition in which the exhibits of Negro enterprises and industries are on display.

The Negroes of Los Angeles have no part in this supposed exposition nor does this stunt represent the Negro industrial progress in these years.

The term "Negro Exposition" is misleading and a slap in the face to the progressive Negroes in this city, but has served the purpose of a few political pie hunters to enrish their morally distorted stomachs at the expense of twenty thousand Negroes who will never stoop to a thing so low. We wish it to be generally known that this is NOT A NEGRO EXPOSITION, but a Carnival in the Beal Street Style.

Don't lie gentlemen, tell the truth and put your program over.

(Signed) J. S. D.

CONTINUOUS STRUGGLE FOR WATER AND POWER

Water and Power to Supply the needs of Los Angeles has been the Chief Concern of its Citizens Since the Pueblo Began

THE STRUGGLE HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL, BECAUSE OF CONTINUOUS EFFORT PUT FORWARD BY THINKING PEOPLE—

Against Nature's odds in a "Land of Little Rain."
Against Opposition born of lack of experience.
Against Physcical Problems of crossing deserts.
Against Obstacles of Mountains to be tunneled.
Against Difficulties of supplying large areas and elevations, to be found in no other city in the entire United States.

AGAINST ALL OF THESE AND MANY MORE—The struggle has been continued and success has crowned the efforts of the citizens of this great city, to assure at all times an abundant supply of cheap water and power.

BEFORE THE AQUEDUCT STARTED

WATER RATES WERE 50 HIGHER
ELECTRIC RATES WERE 60 MORE
INDUSTRIES WERE FEW AND SMALL
FIRE INSURANCE RATES WERE DOUBLE

POPULATION WAS SMALL AND BUSINESS WAS DULL

THESE FACTS PROVE CONCLUSIVELY THAT PROGRESS, PAYROLLS AND PROSPERITY HAVE FOLLOWED THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MUNICIPAL AQUEDUCT AND ITS CHEAP SUPPLY OF WATER AND POWER

EDITORIALS

LOOK WELL

We suggest to our fellow citizens to look well to their interests on all the various offices to be voted for, with special reference to our judiciary, the keystone and foundation to our very existence.

SHARPEN YOUR AXES

Get out your battle axes now and even up on the men who have been recreant to their trust and failed in their duty as the servant of all the people.

DIRECT ACTION

Do not let anybody tell you to scuttle the value of your own home and fireside to get even with somebody who you believe has not "toted" fair. If some one has misused you, bide your time, meet them face to face, and let them know that you are going to even up scores and then you will get somewhere.

STATE YOUR CASE

Certainly we have, personally, well defined ideas as to our choice for the various positions and never hesitate to so state. Personal opinion however, hardly ever becomes manifest in these columns at a primary election when we give all sides an opportunity to state their case.

BE ON GUARD

The flagrant misuse of Business and Industry in the fiasco at the White Sox base ball park under the guise of being an Exposition and Educational Congress (which is only an excuse for some individuals to make money at the expense of the public), should never happen again. The Business League or some other stable organization should be on guard and prevent official recognition of any proposition excepting those of real worth and merit.

THE POWER BONDS

We most heartly join in with all the forces which mean progress for the bailiwick in which we reside. It not only demonstrates civic pride, but enhances the value of the home and makes the burden of living easier. Th eimmense net saving of $500,000.00 annually to tax payers is the answer as to our position on this particular bond issue. The city must keep pace along business lines just the same as an individual in business if it is to gain the maximum results. The greater results which the city attains for water and power the greater saving accrues to the consumer of these commodities. As we understand it the present bond issue will add two units to power plant No. 1, which will produce 28,000 horse power. This will be only a part of the benefit as a result of buying the lands in Owens' Valley. This horse power will help in reducing other consumer's costs to a minimum.

we must at all times safe guard our opportunity to keep up to the highest efficiency our present city owned proposition which means the very heart and core of our present advanced standing, and in this situation give to the power bonds our unstinted support.

One thing you must be sure of, do not fall out with anybody about anybody's politics.

SHORTRIDGE FOR U. S. SENATE

On what hypothesis can any member of our group fail to support the present junior Senator from this state, the Honorable S. M. Shortridge? It is unreasonable to suppose there would be EVEN ONE who would do so, unless it would be for petty pelf or filthy lucre.

Senator Shortridge is now and always has been a real humanitarian and one who has, with sincere devotion at all times, championed the cause of the down trodden without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Especially true has this been the attitude of Senator Shortridge toward the colored citizens of California and later of the Nation.

His deed in championing the Dyer Anti-Lynching bill on the floor of the United States Senate was but in keeping with his stand for fair play for all peoples during his entire career. His stand for our group has been more outstanding, for the simple reason that they have stood in greater need of his service. In other words they have been more oppressed than any other class.

In the face of these circumstances, if there are any of our group who would fail to rally to the cause of the Senator's success, they can be classed as nothing less than ingrates.

We want to say that it is imperative for all of us to rise up to the occasion and do our utmost in the present situation, by voting for the Senator and getting out every possible vote to help re-elect, not one whom we have heard to be a friend to all the people, but one whom we know is that friend.

Aside from this angle of the situation, Senator Shortridge has in his first term in the Senate, become one of the strong spokes in the wheels of the Government, and is recognized for his ability and accomplishments. He is a high credit to California and the nation. California is complimented indeed af the opportunity to return him to the Senate for another term.

Mrs. Bethune Speaks To Governor Richardson

Mrs. Bethune

Much is being said about Mrs. Bethune's praising Governor Richardson for giving such a welcome reception to the club women, and thereby endorsing Governor Richardson for re-election. It takes a weak or biased mind to stretch what Mrs. Bethune said as an endorsement of the Governor. I took it as a high-class criticism of the Governor and his administration. Have you ever been publicly praised and given credit for doing something that you had not been man enough to do? That was the situation that the Chief Executive found himself in.

First. No great honor can be given our Governor for the reception accorded our ladies. Mrs's Bethune told how the people of Salt Lake City had sent a special committee to meet the train and held a special concert in Morman Temple for delegates. She also told of how the Chamber of Commerce of Colorado took the whole delegation sight-seeing in that city. Then the California welcome that some would make political capital of was only following the example set by other states through which the delegation passed.

Mrs. Bethune praised the Governor for being big enough to see no color when making his appointments for office and told him that it took a big man to select his aid with regards to the color of his skin, and she also pleaded that other Governors would follow his example and give the colored man a chance and that all we wanted was our equal chance with other citizens, and no special favors.

How that could be taken as an endorsement when none of the conditions in the speech had been met I fail to see.

Praise him for being big enough to make his appointments without regards to color, when he had failed in his whole administration to appoint a colored man to a single position. We pleaded for a judge and united in requesting the appointment of Mr. Cerutti, but the big man appointed fifty-seven, without touching us. She praised him for giving us a chance, when he knew that he had not done that. She praised him for seeing no color when that is all he saw. She thanked him for the hope he held out when the only hope he showed us was a stronger national guard that would protect us during riots. Mrs. Bethune praised him for what he should have done. He failed to measure up to her rule, and he knows it. Let us help to retire him to private life? In so doing we will make the chance Mrs. B. prayed for.

H. C. HUDSON.

RE-ELECT HIM!

Barnes For Supervisor Endorsed By German-American League

Representing a federation of thirty-eight German Societies with 40,- registered voters in Los Angeles, the German-American League has given its endorsement to Councilman A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, 3rd District, according to a statement of his campaign committee.

Barnes' supporters claim that despite the lateness of his entrance into the race, his candidacy is rapidly gaining momentum. They point to the fact that his record on the City Council and as a civic leader especially qualify him for the office of supervisor.

At a meeting of the West Hollywod Republican Club, the following resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing Mr. Barnes:—

"It is most important to the citizens and taxpayers of this District to have a representative as Supervisor in whom we can place the fullest confidence as to honesty, integrity and ability. Therefore, be it Resolved, that this organization does hereby endorse the candidacy of A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, and be it further resolved that we do everything within our power to help in electing Mr. Barnes."

The Barnes sentiment on the East Side of the District is growing by leaps and bounds and a strong support is promised for his success.

ALBERGA HITS TOWN—THINGS PICK UP IN RICHARDSON CAMP

A. P. Alberga of San Francisco hit town Saturday and immediately things began to pick up in the Richardson camp. And after conferring with the redoubtable (Pop) Sanders, things began to happen. The wiley and resourceful Sanders had already arranged for the appearance of Governor Richardson at Douglas Temple Spiritualist Church for Sunday evening and in came Alberga who put the cap stone on the affair by producing Mrs. Bethune. To say that it was a knock-out is putting the question mildly.

Even the most rabid enemy of Richardson must give (Pop) Sanders and Alberga credit for the coup they put over.

Generosity of Real Men and Women Make Presenting of Propoganda Play Possible

Realizing the power for goo din such a production as the Race play, "Easy Money," the propoganda committee determined that it should be shown before a Los Angeles audience, but also realizing that they were not sufficiently financed to put such an expensive production on alone, they decided to appeal to the Race business men and women of the city to make the thing possible. Such an appeal was made, the committee deciding that $10.00 from 30 contributors would give them the necessary sum.

Miss Vivian Temple makes her report this week. Other members of the committee will report next week:

COUNTRY CLUB ACTIVITIES

VOLUME 40 — LOS ANGEES, CAL., AUGUST 20, 1926 — No. 11

THEY DON'T STALL AT THE MAIN STREET CLUB

Unchangeable as the laws of the "Medes and Persians" is the rule at The Main Street Club of "Fight or Get Out." That's all, but it means a lot to the fight fans, who pay to see fights, not brotherly "team acts." And they really get their money's worth and show their appreciation by always filling the house to the roof.

Last Saturday night, August 14th Mateo Magdaleno lived up to expectations by beating Alese Akol to a well earned decision for six rounds. Orland Lucerro drew with Chappy Crus. Dominic Chebarria beat Chuck Nash. Vernon Jackson the fast little colored boy beat Tomas Palacio, substituting for Pancho Sabio. Damon Lugo got a decision over Frank Abadeno. Richie Aguazo won over Hoyt McClain. Ruffino Dayon lost to Joe Holquin, substituting for Joe Hermandez.

For Saturday night, August 21st the promoters have cooked up an appetizing bit which runs thusly:

Main Event: Young Brown vs. Sailor Ashmore, 140 Lbs.; Semi-Windup: Don Chebarria vs. Chuck Nash, 158 Lbs.; Specials: Phil Harris vs. Phil Cohen, 145 Lbs.; Young Carpenterio vs. Tommy Pilacio, 117 Lbs.; Pee Wee Nolan vs. Vernon Jackson, 114 Lbs.; Richie Aguayo vs. Ady Palmer, 135 Lbs.; Tracey Porterfield vs. Sam Brown, 155 Lbs.

ENGLAND IN NEED OF CHAMPION BOXERS

British ring followers finally are beginning to despair of Joe Beckett, once heavyweight champion of England, but, since his first knockout at the hands of Georges Carpentier, one of the world's most horizontal pugilists. Phil Scott is now heavyweight kingpin in John Bull's tight little isle, and Britons had been looking to Beckett to come out of retirement and give Phil a battle. Joe did go through the motions of training, but he couldn't last.

TENNIS TO BE TRIED UNDER ARC LIGHTS

Golf, polo and automobile racing at night under arc lights have been tried in this section. On the Los Angeles Teis club a number of leading Southern California racquet wielders will try the net game. If successful night tennis may be made a regular sport at the club.

GIRLS SET NEW WORLD SWIM MARK IN CARNIVAL ON LONG ISLAND

Two girl champions of the New York Women's Swimming Association, smashed records for the 220-yard breast stroke and the 800-yard relay at the water carnival, held by the Long Island Railroad A. C., at Long Beach, L. I., on the afternon of July 27th.

Miss Agnes Geraghty shattered the breast-stroke mark in a 220-yard handicap, which she won from scratch, with Miss Esther Foley, allowed 22 seconds, in the place.

COLORED BANTOM CHAMP TOO GOOD FOR EASTERN BOY

The bout between "Chick" Suggs, New England champion, and Jacinto Valdez, bantam-weight champion of Cuba, held at Troy, N. Y., on the night of July 25, proved something of a frost and was stopped by the referee in the fifth round after the Cuban had been plainly outclassed. He never had a chance from the start.

N. Y. to Chicago Relay Race Plans Are in Making

The greatest relay race the world has ever known, a race in which young runners carried a message from the Mayor of New York to the Chief Executive of Chicago, will be repeated in 1928, if plans of Cleveland (Ohio) promoters now in the making are carried through.

The first event of the sort was held eighteen years ago this month and 1,200 boys covered the distance in 116 hours 50 minutes and 30 seconds from one city hall to the other.

The promoters will start a two years' training course, designed to round out the greatest group of young athletes ever to participate in a single event. Twelve thousand applications will be received and 4,000 boys will be chosen from associations along the route, one runner to each quarter mile. Only boys between the ages of thirteen and eighteen will be accepted.

Bicycle Racing

By grit and gameness, Charles Jaeger, twenty-one years old, of Newark, N. J., won the fifty-mile motor-paced championship bicycle race at the New York Velodrome, Sunday night, July 25, before 21,000 fans. With only two and one-half miles to go, Jaeger took the lead from Frank Keenan of Boston, Mass., after both himself and Robert Grassin, world's champion, had blown up in a previous attempt to oust Keenan from his position. Grassin finished second, Keenan third, Vincent third, Vincent Madonna of Italy fourth, Victor Hopkins of Davenport (Ia.) fifth, and George Chapman sixth. The time was 1 hour 12 minutes 52 2-5 seconds.

Familiar Figures On Fisticuff Row

SI MULVEY is one of the busiest box-fight managers in this vicinity. He has a bunch of wicked scrapper on his string that never fail to deliver the goods. Chief among them is Mateo Magdaleno the champion of Aguas Calientas.

OLD FOLKS WILLMERE as he is called is a veteran trainer and masseur of over 35 years experience. Born in Rochester, N. Y., he has lived in L. A. 25 years. He has handled such men as old Sam Langford, Bob McAllister Pinkey Mitchell, Young Jack Johnson and Battling Levinsky and was four years with the heavyweight champion, Jack Dempsey.

EAGLE THOMAS—Here is a quiet gentlemanly little fighter whom (the fans are accustomed to seeing go, (and he really steps) but little of his real history is generally known. He is one of the few fighters who knocked out the great Johnny Buff in 1925, just too late to win the championship from him. He was amateur bantom champ of N. Y. and has fought in Australia and other foreign countries. He laso K. O'ed. Pinkey Arquidi the Mexican bantom champ. He is game, fast and clever and willing mixer, always in condition.

Gans Callaham Fight Drawing Nation-Wide Attention

Investigation of the training camps of Gans and Callahan where they are being groomed into shape to do battle on the 24th of the month at Doyle's Vernon Arena. Gans is already in tip-top shape and uses up a score of sparring partners every day at the Main Street gym. Manager Litchenstein is having his handlers watch that Gans does not get down to too fine a point and be overtrained.

Mushy Callahan, in spite of his slow-up with his damaged lamp, is down to hard work again, making up for lost time. He started in his sensational working out with Young McGovern, the same boy who cut his left eye open ten days ago, causing the bout to be postponed. He said if he had not started in with him in preference to all his other sparring partners he would have thought McGovern was a jinx. Inquiries have been coming in every mail to the Eagle office from Eastern Sports as to details of the bout and its importance.

VOTE FOR

Frank F. Merriam

FOR

Lieutenant Governor

A FEW REASONS WHY FRANK F. MERRIAM SHOULD BE NOMINATED FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR

He has reached the mature age when experince gives wise judgment.

He has the highest standing among the people who know him best.

He has had ten years experience in newspaper business in Long Beach.

He is at present in the banking business.

For ten years past he has been a member of the California Legislature and has been found zealous and trustworthy during all that time in advocating the things wanted by the people.

For the past four years he has been honored by his associates in the legislature with the Speakership of the Assembly, which gave him immeasurable insight and experience in state affairs, which would be of the greatest possible value in the conduct of the lieutenant governorship.

He has been active in civic affairs, being president for several years past of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce, comprising about seventy Chambers of Commerce and Civic and Improvement bodies in the towns and cities south and west of Los Angeles.

Promises of candidates are not so important as their real characters, and their standing among those who know them best, their ability and experience in life, and their equipment for the particular office to which they aspire. FRANK F. MERRIAM'S training and experience have all been valuable for the handling of the lieutenant governorship office in the interest of the people. We base his candidacy on his worth and reliability as a man, and on his superior qualifications, which we believe to be the best.

PIONEER PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS MEN ENDORSE BONDS

Wm. Shelten, a twenty-five year resident of Los Angeles city, says:

"I have always stood for the things which have tended for the progress of this great city, and which have been the cause of its rapid growth and expansion. At this stage of the proceedings I would indeed be taking a step backward should I fail to support the program of progress and the measures which tend to help us in our efforts to go forward. I am, therefore, most heartily in favor of the proposed bonds as advertised by the Bureau of Power and Light."

INSRANCE MAN OF WIDE EXPERIENCE ENDORSES BOND ISSUE

Mr. W. T. Martin of 1108 Austin St., L. A., says:

"I have lived sufficiently long in Los Angeles, to appreciate the value of Water and Power. They are the very sinews of our industrial and social life; as agent for one of the largest companies on the coast I am carried into many of our best homes. My observation has been that one hundred per cent of the Old Timers are for the Water and Power Bonds. I am, therefore, constrained to share in their opinion, that the Power Bond issue is of most vital importance to our community. I urge all of my clients and their many friends to work and vote "yes" on the Power Bond issues.

(Signed) W. T. MARTIN.

AUTOMOBILE DEALER FOR POWER BONDS

Mr. A. G. Reece of the A. L. Johnston, Inc., agents of Hudson and Essex Motor Car Co., says:

"I cannot see how anyone who knows California, the average rainfall, and its natural resources, can think of voting other than for the Water and Power Bonds; as each of them are indispensible to our continued growth and industrial expansion. They are the very backbone of not only Los Angeles, but all Southern California. I would consider it a crime of omission if I should fail to work and vote "yes" on the Power Bonds. Let me advise all of you who desire continuous prosperity and expansion to vote "yes" on the Power Bonds at the Primaries, August 31st.

(Signed) A. G. REECE.

SENATOR KING ADVISES TAX REFORM

OUTLINES KING TAX BILL AND SUGGESTS FURTHER REMEDIES FOR EXISTING TAX EVILS

Former State Senator Lyman M. King, Republican Candidate for Lieutenant Governor in an address before the Optimists' Club of Hollywood last Friday, outlined the present State Tax System, and explained how the existing inequality in taxation can be re-adjusted and remedied.

Senator King is an authority on the subject of taxation, being the author of the King Tax Bill, which was passed by the state legislature in 1921, and which saved taxpayers from 22 per cent increase in taxes that year, and every year since. Senator King declared in his remarks that while he was pleased to have the courts declare his measure a strong one from a technical standpoint, he was esentially glad that they had at all times likewise declared it to be a fair, and just measure, in accord with the constitution of the state, and as such entitled to every commendation. Senator King also declared that the time has come for further re-adjustment in the present system, if, indeed not for the abandonment of it and the adoption of one which will more fully meet the demands of the present day for economy in state administration.

"We need a tax system in which every bit of property in the whole state pays exactly the same rate," says Senator King, "and a system which assesses every man and every corporation at just the same way. We should not have an ad valorem or valuation tax for individuals and a gross receipts tax for corporations. That leads to complications and deceptive practices. A clear, open, plain, which and though we can never expect to get absolute equality in taxation, that will come as near to giving it to us as is possible."

If elected to the Lieutenant Governorship Senator King promises tax reform measures, which will still further reduce the taxes which individual property and home owners are now paying.

Owens River Aqueduct Means Expansion For Los Angeles

Declaring that Los Angeles' rapid transformation from a small tourist city to the metropolis of the West has been made possible by this City's constant vigilance in maintaining adequate water and power supplies, H. A. Van Norman, assistant chief engineer of the Municipal Water Bureau, yesterday urged the necessity of further development along this line as the only possible guarantee of continuing growth and prosperity.

Mr. Van Norman was in charge of the construction of important sections of the Owens River Aduequct and has been William Mulholland's first assistant in the operation and expansion of Los Angeles municipal water system for many years. He stated yesterday that the proposed water and power bonds to be submitted to the people at the August 31st primary election are urgently required if necessary water and power development work is to be carried forward.

"Los Angeles has a habit of outgrowing its water and power supplies and distributing facilities as rapidly as they are made available," said Mr. Van Norman. "This, of course, is proof of our city's amazing development. It also places upon the Municipal Water and Power Bureaus the extraordinary task of keeping pace with these demands.

"It is obvious that the only practical and business-like method if financing these permanent extensions and developments is through the issuance of bonds, to be retired from Water and Power Bureau earnings over a period of years.

"All interest and annual principal charges on these bonds are paid out of the revenues of the Water and Power Bureaus. For this reason, the voting of additional water and power bonds, as required, does not cost the taxpayers a single dollar.

"Of the $10,000,00 water bond issue, approximately $6,000,000 are required to carry through the city's water bearing land purchases in Owens Valley, source of the Aqueduct water supply. Possession of this land by the City is required to guarantee and safeguard its aqueduct water supply.

"To help finance additional reservoir storage and water distributing trunk lines within the city itself, bond funds to the amount of $4,000,000 will be required during the next two years.

"As the demand for greater quantities of water in Los Angeles are met by bringing down increasing volumes of water through the Aqueduct, the Municipal Power Bureau is presented with the opportunity to increase its production of hydro-electric power in generating plants along the water line.

"A portion of the $11,000,000 power bond issue is required to install additional generating facilities at Power Plant No. 1. Installation of these units will make it possible for the Bureau to produce 28,000 horsepower of electric energy in addition to the quantity which can now be generated in its Aqueduct plants. The remainder of the bond issue is needed to help finance urgently needed expansions to its facilities for the handling of an ever increasing volume of electricity on its lines."

HOT FIGHT IN 73rd ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

The fight of Attorney Tyler for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman in the 73rd District, is now going at a fast pace. Attorney Tyler's Committee has been formed, and is functioning overtime in his behalf. Rev. J. H. Wilson, Presiding Elder, California A. M. E. Conference is Chairman of the "Tyler for Assembly" Committee; Wood Wilson, veteran campaigner is manager of the Tyler Campaign, assisted by Lillian M. Tyler, Helen Wheeler, C. C. Flint and Mrs. Ella Cassells, secretary. The Executive Committee follows, and over one thousand others have enrolled their names, have sleeves rolled up and bogfires burning. Interest is at a higher pitch than ever witnessed before in the 73rd District during a Primary Campaign.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Rev. H. H. Hines, Rev. Robert L. Wade; Rev. H. D. Trotter, Rev. W. J. Chegwood, Rev. W. D. Mitchell, Mr. Charles H. Conner, Mr. [illegible] Johnson, Jordan; Atty. William Posey; Atty. W. M. Austin; Atty. C. A. Jones; Atty. E. C. Jennings; Atty. Bert McDonald; Mr. Burton Highbaugh; Mr. A. Hill; Mr. Ed. Hamilton; Mr. William Robinson; Mr. M. S. Sledge; Mr. E. J. Porter; Mr. William H. Gamble; Mr. Robert H. Hurst; Mr. Sidney P. Dones; Mr. J. Reginald Trent; Mr. E. R. Baldwin; Mr. John W. Lyons; Mr. E. R. Reese; Mr. R. Baker; Mr. Geo. Henderson; Mr. George W. City; Mr. C. C. Flint; Mr. J. J. Christian; Mr. William H. Browning; Mr. Charles H. Palmer; Mrs. Hattie Baldwin; Mrs. Sadie Jennings; Mrs. Nettie B. Reese; Mrs. Ollie Hamilton; Mrs. A. Hill; Mrs. B. Strode; Mrs. Alice Wilson; Mrs. Bell Williams; Mrs. Marie Robinson; Mrs. Sallie Richardson; Mrs. Anna E. Guest; Mrs. Amelia C. Lightner; Miss Juanita De Laneauville; Mr. Wm. Colly; Mrs. Wm. Colly.

Attorney Tyler has been a resident of the 73rd District for 15 years, during this time he has taken an active part in politics, but never before sought public office, elective or appointive. The issues are too vital at this time in the opinion of Attorney Tyler to be overlooked for any reason of private business. The public now has an interest that must be served for the public's good.

DIVORCE REFORM

Attorney Tyler urges in his platform, a very important change in our present divorce laws. The evil he will seek to correct by proper legislation, relates to what is called the "entry" of the final decree. Attorney Tyler points out that when a divorce is granted by the judge, a decree must be filed. This decree is called an Interlocutory Decree, which is not a divorce at all, for in fact not until one year expires can the final decree, or decree of divorce be "entered." This is never done unless the attorney for divorced wife, or husband files such a decree and presents it to the Court for signature (and finally) "entry" in the Judgment Book. In thousands of cases, neither party requests that this be done. A divorced person moves away, or waits one year and re-marries without further ado, and thinks himself—or (herself)—divorced. This entangles property rights and in fact is bigamy in many cases. Under the reform urged by Attorney Tyler, one year after the First Decree is entered, the Decree becomes final by operation of law, and neither divorced party has any further concern, nor could any mistake be made by a re-marriage by either. Attorney Tyler says thousands of married couples now living together have had to re-marry because of the mistake he points out, and many, many thousands are not now legally married, because no Final Decree has ever bee entered in the matter of their former divorce. All of these difficulties would be overcome by his proposed reform.

WATER

In the 73rd Assembly District, there are of course some people of considerable wealth, though no portion of it is, technically speaking, a millionaire colony, at this time, although at one time many rich people lived on what is now the Western edge of the District. The rank and file of the voters in the 73rd Assembly District are vitally concerned in those great utilities, which are in fact, living necessities, such as water, electric power and gas, which can be, and are being distributed under the wonderful program of municipal ownership, now afforded the people of the city of Los Angeles.

The base rate for water per one thousand cubic feet in San Francisco (privately owned company) is $28.00, while in Los Angeles, the rate is only $15.00. In some cities, the rate is as high as $35.00 per one thousand cubic feet, while the average for 183 cities was $17.89, thus proving that Los Angeles is being afforded a very low water rate, free of any charge for meter service, such as San Francisco must pay. Everyone knows that the low electric power rate has been the back-bone of our manufacturing industries and business. For these reasons, public ownership of water, electric power and gas, should never be surrendered, by failure to pass the necessary enabling acts, so that the water from the Boulder Dam, when once we get it, can be made available as well as the hydro-electric power developed therefrom, for our great Southern California.

The state should be re-apportioned, and all the laws should be enforced. The difficulty with too many organizations, and groups of citizens, well intentioned today, is that they center their whole activity upon a particular law, or upon a portion of one enactment, and thus overlook many of the laws of equal importance, and just as necessary for the public guidance and control. All laws should be enforced without fear or favor, and constituted authority should receive the fearless support of all private and public citizens, when doing their duty, not in the sense of prosecuting offenders because of violations of the law,

PUBLIC EDUCATION

The system of public education now established in California is one of the best, if not the best, in the world today, rising as it does from the Kindergarten, through the grades, the high schools and state university. During this time the child is not only afforded every advantage at play and proper physical development to keep pace with the mental training it will receive, but nurses and specialists are called to child, and heads of the adult when grown.

Not only is this true, but the system of adult education, and all of the broader, more humane and more cultural provisions, with which public education is surrounded in California should have hearty support, and suffer no curtailment of program, or of means to carry it out. This means a sufficient appropriation for teacher training,—for the development of Junior Colleges, and for the retirement of superannuated teachers.

Some time ago, California was near losing the services of the very able State Superintendent of Public Education, Will C. Wood, because of the small pay this state offers the holder of that high position. We should pay a sufficient salary to retain without fear of losing, the services of so capable a figure in the world of education, as is Will C. Wood.

A Voice From the Nation's Capitol Stresses Greatness of Senator Shortridge

I beg leave through your columns to appeal to the colored electorate of the great State of California to return to the Senate the distinguished statesman, Senator Samuel Shortridge. He is needed here, not only for the colored people at the capital, but for all of us in the nation, for all of our discriminations here and our fights against them are national in their character and influence.

As President of the Washington Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a member of its National Directorate, I am forced into continued contacts with the men and women who run this nation. There are so many wrongs for which we get no relief, and so many new hostile measures proposed by those high in authority, that this organization must wage relentless conflict, so I have constant opportunity to take the measure of our statesmen. Senator Shortridge is one magnificent figure that has never failed us, and since there are so few here who worry much over the misfortune of our disadvantaged group, we cannot spare him.

We have segregated schools here, hence, discrimination in racial allotments. The Senator has always stood for equity in the appropriations, so that our schools are far better equipped than they would be were there not some broad-minded statesmen in Congress to heed our pleas. In the case of Howard University he has responded with like interest and sense of justice, so that Howard today is receiving more than twice the aid she received some years ago. I heard him speak before the Amity Congress here several years ago, before an audience largely white from all sections of the country, and was inspired by his noble eloquence against race hatreds, and for a universal brotherhood among men regardless of race. In the case of all of the many hostile bills introduced by our industrious enemies from the South he is of invaluable aid to us. There were four vicious bills in the Senate at one time this winter, and every one of them was smothered.

But, of all of his services his claim to fame and all men's support will rest upon his brilliant, courageous, and altruistic fight for the Anti-Lynching Bill. In this long and bitter struggle he loomed a magnificent solitary gladiator holding his own against the solid south and a sympathetic, or at least an apathetic, North. He made the lengthly, learned, and humane report on the bill which read like the documents of the giants of the great Reconstruction days. He forced it upon the Senate, and successfully withstood the combined fire of its hosts of enemies, both North and South. It was a brilliant fight and a distinguished service, for it brought Lynching home to the nation.

I am sure the good, patriotic Colored people of California, realizing that our interests are one and inseparable, that the wrongs of one section are the wrongs of all, will use that most powerful of social levers, the ballot with the single thought of keeping men in places of power who work for all of the people. The present incumbent, Senator Samuel Shortridge, is just such a man. Will you go to the polls in large numbers and return him to the Senate?

POLITICAL POT PIE

Judge Hary A. Hollzer is receiving a strong support from all classes for re-election to the Superior Court. This is right and just for his record as a jurist will stand the test of all time. Not only the members of the bar, but the laity and people in general are lining up with a united front to vote and work for a magnificent majority for Judge Hollzer at the primaries on August 31st.

Personally we can testify to the worth and eminent fairness of Judge Albert Lee Stephens on the bench. With this sentiment prevailing as it still is it is no wonder that he is seeking Judge Chas. S. Bricknell has been a tower of strength to our local judiciary and will receive at the hands of the voters a most unusual support. We are strong for Judge Burnett and commend him as a man who is worthy in the highest degree for your consideration.

Joe Crail who is coming into the home stretch not unlike a stake horse in a derby race looks like a winner. His endorsement by the Republican Committee which seems assured to day, it is said, will carry him way over the top.

F. M. ROBERTS FOR RE-ELECTION

Frederick M. Roberts in this issue announces his candidacy for re-election to the Assembly from the 74th Assembly District. He stands before the voters of the district on his records. He states that he is conducting his campaign just as any other American citizen and strives for success upon his merits.

Mr. Roberts further states that the coming session is perhaps the most crucial period for all the people in the history of the State and that for protection if nothing else, the people should have on guard a man of real legislative experience and that he is willing for comparison against any other candidate in the field.

Judge F. C. Valentine is one of the strong men of our local judiciary. It is a foregone conclusion that the voters will give to him a huge vote of confidence and re-elect him to the position which he has so ably filled.

Judge Charles Crail since ascending the bench has made an enviable record, which places him in the very front ranks as a jurist and impartial judge. This accounts for his great popularity and his hold upon the affections of the people. The voters are united in their support of Judge Crail for re-election.

CANCER IN WOMEN OF 40 YEARS

Nothing teaches like experience. "Doctor, I know it's too late now. I know I will never get well, I'm just dying by degrees. And nothing can save me. When you tried to get me to have the tumor removed last year, I thought I would get around it and just kept putting it off. Now I know it's too late!" I just left the bedside of one of the finest women in Los Angeles, who wept out those sad words. A year ago I plead with this woman as I should have plead with my own sister to have a laboratory examination and the operation if necesary to remove the awful enemy which had invaded her body. But she was human. She hated the word "operation," she "tried to get around it," she waited! Today she would have not only one operation but one hundred operations—if any surgeon in the world could hold out any hope to her. But as she herself says, unless God performs a miracle for her it is "too late."

Cancer taken in time is one of the easiest conditions in the world to cure—because it is only a small, local lesion. Let it go too long and no power under heaven can arrest it because the disease has made its way thrrough the blod or lynmph stream into all parts of the body. And a surgeon would have to take the whole body apart in order to get all part of the cancer. This of course is a physical impossibility. It is because it is natural for cancers to form little metestatic or secondary growths all throughout the entire body. After they reach a certain period in their development—that I, with every other doctorw ho has the well-being of humanity at heart, urge every woman with any kind of tumor to be examined and accept the propert treatment, even thought it be an operation before it is too late!

HOW CANCERS FORM

Women above 35 are especially subject to cancer. All of the female organs, the mouth of the womb and the mouth of the vagina are especially susceptible cites. Often I find in patients this history. A woman about 40 or 45 years comes into the office for examination. She was torn or lacerated 20 years ago in child birth and the laceration was never repaired. Now she is annoyed with a discharge—I place her on the table and find a tumor which resembles a cancer. I explain to her, the condition. She is shocked and surprised. She is not sick; She has only had a little annoying discharge, sometimes mixed with a little blood, but surely she hasn't any cancer! I tell her that a laboratory examination of the growth is the only possible way to make a positive diagnosis early. She cannot quite make up her mind. I tell her that she may lose her life if she hesitates, that a quick decision and prompt action are the only salvation in cancer. She still hesitates and finally decides to "go home and think it over." I wish I had time to tell you of the large number of women whom I have known in my short time of service as a physician who have "thought it over" until it was altogether too late. "Thought it over," until they have finally gone to the County Hospital to end their days in misery and die a premature death—just because they could not quite make up their minds to have a growth removed while it was still a simple tumor or an early cancer.

PROCRASTINATION AND DEATH

You can "put off" an operation and medical treatment but you cannot "put off" Death. The grim reaper comes whether you are ready for him or not. And yet how many, many, women between 35 and 55 years are flirting with death today, by putting off examination and treatment for old lacerations and possible tumor growths. I have in mind this morning five women who have been to my office recently who have tumors, each of whom can still be operated upon with comparative safety and a good chance for complete recovery. But they are in the class of those who run the terrible risk of "putting it off," for a while longer.

DANGER SIGNS

1. Old lacerations or tears—from childbirth. If these are not repaired at time of delivery, do not let the age of 35 or 40 find them still unrepaired. Old lacerations are potential seats for cancers.

2. Discharge—especially the irregular appearing of blood stains, often the signs of beginning cancer.

3. Tired out, "dragged down" feeling, often due to displacement of organs or lacerations which may lead to cancers. If you have any of these symptoms, do not wait. Seek the advice of a competent physician at once. It may be the difference between life and death to you.

4. Women above 35 are more susceptable to cancer than young women.

Corner Stone Baptist Church Calls New Pastor

After consecrated prayer and careful consideration, the Corner Stone Baptist Church, located at 14th and Naomi streets has called Rev. M. J. Gipson, B. Th., as its pastor. The church is to be commended upon the selection of so progressive a young Gospel preacher.

Rev. Gipson came to Los Angeles from Texas six years ago, ably recommended by his father in the ministry, Dr. G. F. C. Curry, pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church of San Antonio, Texas. It was through Dr. Curry's great influence that the Mt. Zion Baptist Church sent Rev. Gipson to Gaudalupe College, fir[illegible] a course for him in systematic Theology under Dr. Aikins.

Upon his arrival in Los Angeles in 1920, he pursued a course of study at the Bible Institute completing a Bible course, and a course in vocal culture.

In 1922 he was appointed as Associate pastor to Dr. R. N. Holt, pastor of the St. Paul Baptist Church, which position he occupied until he organized the Union Baptist Church in June 1924 where he pastored until June, 1926.

Several local pastors and their respective choirs and congregations have been invited to participate in the Installation Services during the week, beginning Monday, 23rd to 29th Inclusive. On Monday evening the Evergreen Baptist Church, Rev. H. Hunter, pastor; Tuesday evening, the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Dr. W. A. Venerable, pastor; Wednesday evening, the Mt. Corinth Baptist Church, Rev. J. C. O'Conner, pastor; Thursday evening, St. Paul Baptist Church, Dr. R. N. Holt, Pastor; Friday evening, Zion Hill Baptist Church, Dr. J. H. Holder, pastor.

BLACKSTONE CLUB ENDORSES JUDGE LANGDON IN FULL

The letter printed below in fact is one mailed unsolicited to Judge Wm. H. Langdon, candidate Associate Justice Supreme Court. The club further states that the letter may be considered as a fair barometer of the high esteem, in which he is held by the large group of Colored Voters. And that the long experience of Judge Langdon in the educational field and impartial fairness to black and white alike, has endeared him not only to them but to the colored public in general, touching as it does that step by which the Negro has climbed to his present achievements, and will continue on, to greater successes—the step of education.

August 5, 1926.

HON. WILLIAM H. LANGDON,

Associate Justice, Court of Appeal, State Bldg., McAllister & Larkin Sts., San Francisco, California.

Dear Judge Langdon:

In Los Angeles County, aboutseventy thousand Negroes, and fifty thousand of these live in the City of Los Angeles. Of this number, twenty-one are members of the Bar and belong to the Blackstone Club. We formed this club because the Los Angeles Bar Association has never accepted the application of a member of our race for membership. Hoping to better serve our clients and to better uphold the highest ideals of the legal profession, we have our little club in order that we can pull together in our common cause.

We are happy to know that you are a candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and, at a meeting of our club, held August 3, 1926, we heartily endorsed your candidacy and pledged ourselves to urge our people to vote for your election.

We have followed your work upon the bench and rejoice in your learning in the law, and in your fearless exposition of its humane and democratic principles.

We deem it to be true that the whims, likes and dislikes of some of the citizens of our state sometimes find expression in contracts, and in regulations prohibitive and restrictive, directed point blank at Negro citizens, just because they are Negroes. Once these biased sentiments reach the Courts and find sanction in judicial opinion and decree, our civil and political rights are often impaired because of arguments which apparently uphold the equality of equal laws, but which in fact have veiled limitations upon common law and constitutional rights from which we alone suffer solely because of color.

We believe that the rights of all the people of our great commonwealth will find a broad and positive expression in your decrees, your orders and opinions.

We have been asked to apprise you of the hearty endorsement the Blackstone Club has given you, and to assure you we shall work for your election.

With every good wish for your success, we remain,

Most cordially yours,
BLACKSTONE CLUB,
(Signed) Willis O. Tyler,
Lewis K. Beeks,
Bert McDonald,
Publicity Committee.

Joseph P. Sproul said:

Judge Langdon will be one of the two justices elected as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, not only because of his long judicial record, but also because he is one of the best and most widely known men in California.

Twenty years ago his name was as well known here as that of any moving picture star today. He was a head-liner in every paper of the State, day after day and year after year, during his two terms as District Attorney of San Francisco. He was then engaged in the gigantic struggle with official corruption and serving to restore honesty and decency in government. This public service is not forgotten nor unknown in any portion of the State.

Aside from his law and judicial activities he has always taken a keen interest in educational matters. When but 28 years old he was superintendent of schools of San Francisco. Associated with him were such educational experts as Professor Henry Suzzallo, now President of the University of Washington, Professor T. L. Heaton, then Superintendent of Schools of Fresno and A. A. Macurda of Los Angeles. A completely new course of study for the San Francisco Public Schools in keeping with Charles F. Stearn and Mrs. Mary Barnham of Los Angeles and E. F. Clark of Riverside, were the first members of the re-organized State Board of Education and Judge Langdon was its first President. With Senator Frank Flint and Prescott Coggswell of Los Angeles, Mortimer Fleishhacker of San Francisco and Professor Mead of the University of California, he served on the Land Settlement Board which inaugurated one of the most successful land colonies in the United States, at Durham, California.

In a judicial position during the last decade Judge Langdon has not been in the public eye, but the lawyers of the State are familiar with the great quantity of work he has performed in the courts and its satisfactory quality and character. With this background of public service his candidacy for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court is going forward rapidly and most successfully. The old time residents of Southern California know Judge Langdon's public record, it shall be my purpose to acquaint the new comers with it.

Upon his record as a public servant and jurist he should and we feel certain he will be promoted from Presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal to Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

"THE CRUISE OF THE CHIAPAS"

LIBERNIAN TRANSPORTATION S. S. AND EXCELSIOR MINING CO. BEGINS REALIZATION OF THE DREAM OF AFRO-AMERICANS

By: BARRON BROWN

Hon. Oscar Hudson, Liberian Transportation S. S. and Excelsior Mining Company last Sunday on board the CHIAPAS at San Pedro addressed a large gathering of the company's friends and stockholders. In his eloquent manner he described the inauguration of a direct steamship line from Los Angeles port to Liberia as a modern romance of business.

It is a romance—a dream come true. It is none the less romantic because business men take the place of knights errant, or because the gonfalons of chivalry have given way to the pennants of commerce. It is the beginning of the realization of a dream long dreamed and hopes long deferred.

In all the histroy of races and governments there is nothing more interesting or appealing than the establishment and development of the government and country of Liberia. Consider—More than a hundred years ago human slavery existed in America. A race was held in hpysical bondage. By great indusrty and frugal saving it was possible for a slave to purchase his freedom; but with this attained he found himself in possession of only a mockery of freedom because it did not carry with it the rights of citizenship—not even the right to express a voice in the government under which he lived and reared his children. In order that these slaves, who by one means or another had gained their "freedom," might enjoy the rights of citizenship and live as free men in truth as well as in name, some New England white philanthropists fostered a movement to establish a free and independent government by and for the Negro race on the continent of Africa. In 1822 the first "settlers" arrived on the West Coast of that continent and landed at a point known as Sierra Leone. They met with serious opposition from the natives in this section and were compelled to move farther south to a territory less hostile but none the less rich and inviting. Here where the coast of Africa begins its great sweep to the Eastward was established the colony of Liberia. After the many dangerous and trying vicissitudes of pioneer life in a wild and unsettled region these heroic pioneers established in 1847 under the sponsorship of President James Monroe the Republic of Liberia, framing their government after that of the United States and naming their capitol Monrovia. A new flag was unfurled in the galaxy of nations; a new challenge to human slavery and to desbotism was issued to mankind; a new destiny was born.

After a century of struggle against the predatory white powers of Europe, Liberia stands today with most of her original territory intact, her integrity established, and her ideals unsullied. The thing that so strongly links the sentiment of the colored race all over the world with Liberia and which so strongly claims the fealty and affection of the race is the fact that on the whole continent where Ethiopia once reigned supreme—in the whole world, indeed—there is not another spot of terrain that the Negro can point to and say, "That is my hom! There is one spot on the face of the earth where I am sovereign!"

Fate seems to exercise an irony in the destiny of nations as in the destiny of individuals. Like the Osage Indians in our own country, the colonists and founders of Liberia were compelled to go to a spot which was remote and which was considered worthless by the rest of mankind—a place no one else wanted. And like the land of the Osages, Liberia in recent years has proved to be a very treasure-house of natural riches; so rich, indeed, that now, when it is too late for predatory white governments to dare confiscation or the establishment of "protectorates" it is found that no territory on earth is more valuable to modern business or more neecessary to the world's continued commercial development.

Professor Edward Pittman, a Liberian educator of not who is now in this section as a special representative of the Monrovian Chamber of Commerce, in speaking to a mass meeting on the Chiapas last Sunday told the amazing story of the development of this natural wealth. Liberia would be immensely wealthy if it produced nothing but rubber. Her territory has no less than twenty-two indiginous trees and plants which produce this commodity so essential to the maintenance of human life and commerce. Very little rubber is as yet artificially cultivated; and yet rubber to the value of $50,000.00 was taken out of the country in five months! With proper planting and cultivation this commodity alone will total millions of dollars. In addition to this immense potential wealth Liberia has large forests of valuable hard-woods which include mahogany in great quantity. So plentiful and accessible is this precious wood that whole houses are sometimes built of it. Coffee and palm oil of the finest quality can be produced with little expense and in great quantities. Gold is plentiful in nugget form among the natives who use it for personal decoration. Precious stones are commonly found, and ivory in quantity is easily available.

L. A. Deltas Breakfast With Honorary Soror Mary M. Bethune

By: FAY JACKSON

With the charming simplicity of the truly great, Mary McCleod Bethune, foremost woman of the Negro Race, sat as honored guest at breakfast last Saturday morning given by her sorors of Delta Sigma Theta sorority of which she is an honorary member.

Twenty-four young college women representing both local chapters of the sorority together with visiting sorors of various eastern colleges assembled at Christian's Tavern to receive this eminent woman who so beautifully represents the finest of womanhood in the Negro race—in fact, a woman of whom any race may be justly proud.

A short period of introductions and subdued conversations, then, all at once, unannounced and quite unceremoniously, Mary McCleod Bethune burst forth with a electrifying "Girls, Girls! I must speak, I cannot lose this precious time" . . . It was the human geyser breaking through releasing a volley of personal magnetism unmistable in its purpose and its aim.

"It is such a rare treat," continued the speaker, "to meet young women such as you, fresh and idealistic, full of the hopes and aspirations of youth, that I must tell you how very, very happy I am."

The desire to see at least 50,000 young women co-operating with the National Association of Colored Women was expressed by soror Bethune. "For," she explained, "we need the young woman's viewpoint; we need her vigor and enthusiasm. Our group is judged largely by the masses of our people, not by the cultured college women but by those in the humbler callings of life. Yours must not be an existence of exclusion and snobbery but a life of active service, "Lifting as you climb."

In a plea for a stronger organization of Colored women, Mrs. Bethune said that the work of men is heralded and adored while that of women is given last place or entirely overlooked. "We must go to the front," cried the Black Joan, "and take our rightful place; fight our battles and claim our victories!"

Thus was Mary McCleod Bethune: a woman with a purpose; an artery of life, pulsating with energy; and indeed, a woman of women consecrated to the noblest aim in life: Service.

Indeed it was a beautiful hour and Delta Sigma Theta is extremely proud to have been hostess to its honroary soror.

Sharing honors with Mrs. Bethune was her secretary, Mrs. Taylor, herself a woman of exceeding keen judgment who said in a personal interview with the writer, "To me, the problems of the New Negro People are two-fold—Economic and Palitic. We are as yet a people of only superficial crust without the fundamental substnace necessary to a sound race-building. We have taken over the finer points of the white man's civilization and overlooked the fundamental ones but until we include in our program of upbuilding self-reliance and resourcefulness, until we are able to back up our progress with the sound and practical things, which in America spells economic wealth, we shall forever remain a dependent, imitating people. Our political strength is, of course, the other important means of tieing up our growth and power. Stand back of the men and women, black or white who have our interests at heart, regardless of party affiliation . . . see that our representatives are fostering the best and cleanest ideals. Stand back of them with your vote and stand as a Unit!"

This pragmatic philosophy came from the mind of a woman, strangely spiritual, singularly practical. It was the echo of the Present-Day Negro Woman, alert to the problems confronting her race.

HIS RECORD A GUARANTEE

SENATOR SHORTRIDGE

Senator Shortridge's ability and loyalty have brought his state new prestige in national affairs.

He is a member of the powerful Senate Finance Committee handling tariff rates and income taxes. His influence has been thrown into the balance again and again successfully to protect California products. Membership on that Committee is impossible to a newcomer.

He is a member of the Senate Reclamation and Irrigation Committee. He has worked tirelessly to promote Colorado River development, including the Boulder Dam and All-American Canal.

Shortridge has kept faith with the voters who sent him to Washington. Ask the War Veterans, the citrus men, the almond men, the walnut growers. He has safeguarded the interests of the working man, as well as the industrialist. He has secured special appropriations for new buildings, port development, highways, bridges, agricultural experiment stations. He has been vigilant; he has been efficient; he has been loyal. His record is a guarantee.

CHILDREN LEARN TO USE CARE

PEDESTRIAN FATALITIES OF ALL KINDS FALL OFF AS COMPARED WITH LAST YEAR

Marked improvement is shown in the traffic fatality records in Los Angeles for the last two months with less deahts among children being especially evident in the report lately compiled by the public safety department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

In the face of increased auto and pedestrian traffic, fatalities from motor vehicle accidents in the city dropped to twelve for July from the seventeen of the same month of last year, following the June reduction of fifteen death this year from the total of twenty-seven of 1925.

Although running or playing in the street was the leading cause of motor fatalities during the two months last year, no deaths have occurred under this cause during June and July, 1926. July had three last year, and June had five on its score. Only seven fatalities under this cause are recorded for the year to date, as against fifteen for the same period of 1925. This is considered a valuable compliment to the safety work of the Automobile Club of Southern California in the local schools, and especially to its scheme of playground supervision by student guardians during summer vacation.

FOR NATIONAL PRESIDENT

In honor of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, president of the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs Mrs. J. M. Edwards, recently elected Vice-President of the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, entertained at a charmingly appointed luncheon, Sunday afternoon at her beautiful home. Those included were Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, Mrs. Bright and Mrs. Hinton of New York, Mrs. A. C. Richardson, Miss M. Beavers, Miss Louise Beavers, Miss Hazel Cottenhalk and Mr. J. M. Edwards.

Gov. Richardson At Douglass Temple Last Sunday Meets Noted Club Leader

Sunday evening was a gala occasion at the Douglass Temple, on East 21st Street. It was the first occasion of Governor Richardson addressing the Colored folk in the city during the intensive campaign now for the Republican nomination for Governor.

The church was decorated with American flags and the robed choir sang patriotic songs and Negro Spirituals. The master, Rev. Dr. G. W. Shields having made the presentation speech of the Master of Ceremonies. Mrs. A. E. Walker delivered in her characteristic way a warm endorsement of the Governor's administration.

When Governor Richardson arose to speak he was greeted with a perfect oration and his address, from time to time, was punctuated with applause. His audience throughout his short adress appeared to be in thorough sympathy with the speaker and he closed his address amid tumultuous applause.

The next speaker was Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, Pres. of the Bethune Cookman Institute of Daytona, and President of the National Colored Women's Federation of Clubs, that had just adjourned a meeting in Oakland. Mrs. Bethune is the foremost woman in the public life of her people in the United States.

Mrs. Bethune listened attentively to the address of Governor Richardson and in her interesting talk of Negro Welfare work said among other things:—

"I wish to congratulate you, my people, of this wonderful state with its wonderful opportunities for human progress in having for your chief executive a man whose principles are broad, deep and patriotic. I have listened with my hopes growing stronger and stronger, to the plain, outspoken address of your Governor and I feel it's not only to your interest but it is also a bounden duty that you support your Governor, for re-election."

"I shall return to my life work in Florida with this message to them: "Go West! to California, where you will have an opportunity under the rare executive ability of Governor Richardson to find the spirit of fair play and encouragement in all of your elevate dendeavors."

Mrs. Bethune's story of the beginning of her career of public usefulness when, as a bare-foot child, went five miles to school and five miles back and the evidence she gave in citing the fact that she owed her higher education and training for her life-work to the generosity of a white lady school teacher of Colorado, held the vast audience spell-bound.

The effect of the governor's speech was immediately evident following the program when in an informal levee hundreds of prominent people including leaders of the race, crowded about the Governor and Mrs. Richardson and grasped their hands with pledges of their unstinted support at the coming primary and subsequent election.

D. R. JONES PASSES

Rev. D. R. Jones, perhaps the oldest minister in point of service on the Pacific Coast, quietly passed to the great beyond on last Tuesday at the family residence, on 38th street.

At the bedside were his wife and two daughters, Mrs. L. Roy Lott and Mrs. W. H. Robinson.

Rev. Jones had been in failing health for the past several months, the last four weeks of which he was confined to his bed.

He was connected with the A. M. E. denomination and had been active service on the coast for over 35 years, during which period he held down nearly every charge of importance in California and Nevada.

Funeral will be held today, Friday, at 1 P. M., from 8th and Towne Avenue.

About The So-Called Exposition And Educational Congress

There has been holding forth at the White Sox Ball Park since last Saturday, what was heralded as an Exposition, which was to depict the progress of the race along all the various lines of endeavor.

One Rev. L. B. Brown, to all intent and purpose is the head of this so-called proposition. In fact he admits it.

We must say that along the advertised lines it was a misnomer from the very beginning. If it had been named an affair to demonstrate gambling for hams and bacon, the Charleston, a carnival supreme, or catch penny for Candidates for the approaching primaries, it would have come nearer telling just what it was.

The sorry spectacle of collecting 10 cents per head to enter a gate, to see nothing excepting a carnival, operated by professional carnival men, was the sight. Only one saving spot, in an out of the way place, was an art exhibit conducted by race artists.

After viewing this spectacle it is self evident that the race has been exploited to the utmost, it has been outraged and raped by arch conspirators. It has been humbugged and its standing has been challenged.

In the first place the records at the city hall show that the license out there was granted to the Old Folks Home. We want the officials of this Home to come forward and answer as to the part they played if any, in this nefarious affair.

They advertised Prof. Carver and other notables would be present, and not one appeared, they swooped down on the city Hall, enveigled the City Council to decorate the streets for just about as unworthy and less meritorious a proposition as it was possible to conceive.

It was rather punk and smelled to the highest heavens. Politicians were manhandled, thugged and despoiled. It was indeed the raggediest ragged affair ever pulled off, on an unsuspecting public.

They could not advertise enough in these columns to still our tongue upon the injury perpetuated upon a race by the erroneous impression made upon the same wherein an exposition is alleged and not a semblance of the representation at hand.

FISH OR CUT BAIT

Now the Rev. L. B. Brown is a very likable person, smooth and suave. We certainly hold no malice toward him, but we cannot sit supinely by and let him or any other man exploit the people or any community and get away with it for lack of publishing the inside of the situation.

We say to the preacher, he must either fish or cut bait. Preach or promote gambling, dances and misrepresentations to the public. For we are going to be eternally on the job and let the people know "What's going on."

We want to get the preacher fixed either as pastor of some church or a promoter of Carnivals with gambling, games, dances and etc. One or the other, brother, "that's all".

In other words we want our ministry to stand up as men among men and not stoop to the little things, even though they get hold of a few filthy dollars by doing so.

About any others connected with this farce we have nothing to say. We are satisfied to present the situation as it applies to its confessed leader. We have spoken in this article.

We want the people to know if any well organized exposition, fostered by men of honor and integrity had been put forth, a demonstration of Negro genius and accomplishment worth while would have been present, for their inspection and consideration.

The Music Association will meet Monday evening at St. Paul Baptist Church, 21st St. and Naomi Ave. We invite others to come. Mr. Sanders, Manager, has outlined a program, if worked out, will insure this Association as the mecca in brilliant affairs. The president, Mr. Jones, aspires to attain a higher goal that will bring together and cement an interest among the churches and insist that such an organization can build only upon that foundation—whose watchword is good fellowship at a nominal rate. One of the many features solicited by this organization is the "Pleasant Sunday" that will be launched on the Second Sunday in September. Watch these columns for further announcement, or call BEacon 3550, Mrs. C. V. Pitts, the secretary for information.

PRETTY AFFAIR AT EAGLE HALL

A very charming affair at beautiful Eagle Hall on last Saturday evening was the presentation of the grand prizes awarded to the winners of the high scores by the Whist Tournament Association. A handsome sterling silver buffet service, consisting of a meat tray and compartment vegetable dish was presented to Miss Fern Caldwell, winner of the grand prize for ladies. Mrs. L. L. French was presented a handsome glass and silver water set for the 2nd grand prize. The men's grand prize was captured by Mr. D. B. Floyd, who was rejoiced with a handsome sterling silver cocktail shaker and set. Mr. Duplesis as winner of the second grand prize was given a tray of handsome silver smoking accessories. Dr. Mitchell, popular dentist, was consoled with a beautiful English tea service for the grand booby.

Appropriate speeches of appreciation were made by the winners, but Dr. Mitchell's oratorical gem was indeed a masterpiece.

The prizes for the first night of the second semester were awarded as follows: To Miss Alvina Caldwell, an amber boudoir clock; to Miss Miller, two beautiful vases; to Mr. A. W. Hogue, a walrus billfold; and to Mr. D. B. Floyd, a smoking set. The second semester promises to be even more interesting and better attended than the first. Mrs. Emma Gordon received vociferous applause when introduced as new hostess. Mrs. Alta Clark will continue also as hostess. The next meeting on Saturday evening, August 28th promises to be eventful.

By: W. J. WHEATON

The sudden death of Thomas J. Lennon, Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court and candidate for the Chief Justiceship of that tribunal, gives an almost certainty to the selection of Chief Justice Waste at the coming primary. We say "almost," because there are certain conditions under which a contest can be made, even after the primaries. Though too late to file applications, citizens can write in the name of candidates, as Independents and qualify for the election in November. The death of Justice Lennon makes two vacancies to be filled on the bench. Why noticitizens write in the names of E. Burton Ceruti of Los Angeles and Judge Walter Perry Johnson of San Francisco for Associate Justice?

The fight for the nomination of the United States senatorship in California is not so much a matter of the Tariff issue or the World Court embroiglio as it is for the control of the delegation which will be selected from California to the Republican Convention which nominates the president in 1928. The presidential bee buzzes in some bonnets until the hive decays. Once it is set buzzing it will sting everything in its path to its ultimate goal—the White House. While Senator Shortridge may not have pleased us at all times by the stand that he has taken, it seems that the greatest sin committed—according to his opponents for renomination—is that, under every condition, he has supported the Administration and THAT IS WHAT WE ELECTED HIM FOR.

The National Bar Association composed of the leading Negro lawyers of the United States met recently in the city of Chicago. There are so many vital questions which, as a Race, effect us; so many legal points to be determined; so many court decisions to be reviewed and antagonized, that we are waiting with anxiety to find out just what that body has done. We have no doubt that "Jim Crow" and his associate relatives of Discrimination were dealt with from a legal standpoint and various means discussed and formulated for their abatement. Special Assistant to the Attorney General, William C. Matthews, at the present stationed for special service in San Francisco, was one of the principal speakers on the program.

We are in receipt of a survey of the farming activities of Negroes in California. It was sent to us by our old co-worker, Charles Hall, of the Census Bureau. While the result of that survey is very flattering, there is considerable room for further improvement. Plenty of land and opportunity to purchase it. We still are preaching the doctrine of production as the means of solving a vital problem.

There is a party of Japanese students from the grammar grades and the universities visiting here, San Francisco. In a recent conversation one of them informed this writer that California fruit was being shipped and despite the high cost, was receiving favor over the fruit grown in the Orient. We have claimed at all times that the opportunities in this state for the intelligent farmer was greatest of any in the world. It has been our aim to divert the trend city-ward and direct it where it might become independent producters. Politics and religion have not aided the effort but we are not discouraged.

EUREKA VILLA

$100,000.00 to be spent immediately for improvements at Eureka Villa. To those purchasers and all other persons interested in Eureka Villa we wish to announce the following:

On June 17th, 1926, we negotiated the purchase of Eureka Villa consisting of 720 acres of land. Included in that purchase were its good and bad accounts, contracts and deeds of which title has never been given. We are not going to discuss the 'whys' and 'wherefores,' fight or criticise anyone, but we have gone in there with our eyes open and with both feet on the ground with plenty of money with which to give deeds and titles to all of those who have waited so long for same.

WATER: Contract for the development of water has been let to Ralph Shaffer of Filmore, California, who is now engaged in putting piles in the river-bed at Filmore, and promises to get into Eureka Villa during the week of July 25th.

GENERAL IMPROVEMENTS: A general contract for the develpment of the entire tract, roads, dams, pools, parkways, playgrounds, etc., has been let to George Paonossa, 1045 Highland, Los Angeles., California.

Should the little company release us in time, we will formally open this tract on Labor Day with the largest swimming pool in the county at which time Jimmie Smith will stage a "Bathing Girl' contest; silver trophy and cash, etc., as prizes.

HUDSON SPECIAL BROUGHAM: To all persons who should buy a lot at Eureka Villa on or before September 15th, 1926, we will give a number; to all persons who now hold contracts and are behind in their payments, but who care to pay up by September 15th, will also be given a number. These numbers will entitle you to a chance of being presented with this automobile now on display at A. L. Johnston's, Inc., Hudson and Essex Agency, 25th and Central Avenue.

To those who will make no effort whatever to bring their payments down to date by September 15th, 1926, your contracts will be cancelled and all money paid in forfeited as liquidated damages. We shall more than do our part at Eureka Villa and most assuredly will expect you to do yours.

Payments will be accepted by the National City Bank, 8th and Main Sts., until our escrow and trust shall have been completed, at which time you will be instructed to put in your demands for deeds and title.

LAURA C. JANES, Sidney P. Dones, Eureka Development Ass'n., Eureka Villa Advisory Board and Rev. E. R. Driver, all of whom have nothing more to do with the management of Eureka Villa, but when the title company shall have finished its search of this entire property we will own Eureka Villa outright and have ample money with which to develop same.

It is true, we did secure the county's help with a park program to the extent of $25,000.00, but we did not authorize anyone to commercialize on that information with a letter or public demonstration, neither did we authorize anyone to use Eureka Villa to further their interests politically and as owners of that place, do feel that someone or group exceeded their authority, therefore, we are not responsible for anything that has been said or done by anyone but ourselves.

To date, there has been only one person authorized to talk about the future plans of Eureka Villa, namely, Mrs. Nellie Turner, AXridge 5008. Should anyone desire to know more or pay contracts down to date, or make new purchases, or any salesmen care to sell these lots, see Mrs. Turner.

Primary Election, Aug. 31, 1926.

LARGE VOTE FROM NEGRO VOTERS IS EXPECTED TO ELECT J. W. McKINLEY STATE SENATOR

J. W. McKINLEY

Planning on drawing a majority of the thousands of Negro votes of the 38th Senatorial District Attorney J. W. McKinley a long resident of the district and whose candidacy has been announced is very satisfied with the way that individuals and organizations are rallying to his support.

From the very first, Attorney McKinley has stated that he believes the Negro should be considered just as much after election as before and any measure that comes before the senatorial body of a prejudiced nature will not receive his support.

Attorney McKinley was educated in the Los Angeles city school and is the son of the late Judge McKinley. He is also a veteran of the World War and at one time was commander of Los Angeles Post No. 8 of the American Legion.

Mr. McKinley is an active supporter of the Boulder Canyon Dam and the All-American Canal, and if elected will support all measures before the Legislature which will aid in securing this very necessary development of our State Highway System and pledges his best efforts in obtaining justice for Southern California in getting its fair shrare of the money expended by the State for highway purposes in order that the State highways in Southern California may be completed as soon as possible.

Being a graduate of the public school system and in seeing that it is properly supported by the State.

Reliable Colored Citizens Endorse A. Pratt For Supervisor 3rd District

Quite often a man of the white race has been doing much that tends to benefit our race although it is not generally known. And such men, not having an personal interests at stake or any exploitation of our race in mind, can best be counted on for sincerity of purpose and a real intention to do the things that help our people most—So states a colored lady who has known Mr. Alvaro Pratt and family very well for number of years and first learned of his broadness, sympathy, fairness and kindness of heart, when he issued a letter in her behalf to a street car company which was seeking to avoid compensating her for injuries she had suffered in a street car accident.

In this letter he expressed this opinion: "no corporation, institution, or body of people should discrimmate against any person or persons on account of the color of their skins." He has quietly been acquainting himself with interracial affairs and is now well prepared to put forward his best efforts in the improvements that re-

POPULAR MATRONS INTRODUCE TREASURE HUNT

Mrs. Hortense Allen and Anita Harvey entertained with a Treasure Hunt last Sunday morning, honoring visiting guests and Miss Nadine Bratton. More than a hundred responded to the occasion. The first cue to the hunt was a verse of poetry concealed in a huge baloon which was punctured by Miss Bratton. The hunt began. Miss Ethel Taylor was the next lucky hunter when she found the next verse of poetry in a bunch of keys which happened to be the piano keys. The Hunters followed Miss Taylor to Exposition and the next hunt began. Miss Jennie Smith, sister and house guest of Mrs. F. A. Pearl, was the next lucky hunter. Miss Smith found the next verse of poetry in a huge tree. The cue led the hunters to the treasure which was buried in the sand at Manhattan Beach. The visitor's treasure was found by Mrs. Galloway of Chicago, house guest of Mrs. J. A. Freeman and Miss Pauline Slater. The next treasure was found by Mrs. Ethel Reid and the men's treasure was found by Mrs. Wickliffe.

After the hunt the party went in for a dip in the ocean, the bathers were then called for their piping hot breakfast, which was served on the sand by Mrs. Allen and Harvey assisted by Mrs. Wickliffe, Winder and Bruseaud.

The guests departed declaring the treasure hunt a thrill of the season.

C. which met in Oakland, she related the success of the 15th biennial and paid tribute to the illustrious president. She spoke on "The Achievements of the P. T. A. Work," stating its aims, purposes and objectives and added that it was a potent factor and represented the greatest force let loose in the country. The parent power, that if parents would assume their responsibility, great things for the youth could be accomplished. That the motto was: "A United Effort, Not for Me and Mine, Nor Thee and Thine, But Ours." She urged upon her hearers to enlist the parents, teachers and children into the much needed cause of better homes, schools and children and teach the child love, restraint and to become law-abiding citizens. She pleaded for truer, purer, better homes, where God is known and blesses. That the home used to be a parking station was only a filling stationto today. She proved a forceful, pleasing speaker with a burning message held her audience spell-bound. Her address followed a short but soul-stirring sermon delivered by the greater than Billy Sunday of the West, Rev. J. H. Holder.

SUPT. J. L. ARTHUR ARRIVES

Mr. J. L. Arthur, Supt. Pullman Co., Kansas City, arrived last Friday, August 13th at 2 P. M. on the Los Angeles Limited. He will take charge of the Los Angeles District at once. The men in this district expect to co-operate with Mr. Arthur to their fullest extent in kepeing the Los Angeles District the prize District that it has alway held the reputation of being. It is to be hoped that our new Supt. will be fair in his dealings with the boys and give an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, thus assuring team work and a hundred per cent efficiency at all times.

When you are reading the Clatter this week, the writer will be shaking shets and fighting dust between Los Angeles and Detroit, Mich., answering a thousand questions and as many bells as is humanly possible for one pullman porter to do. He also will be eating, when he can get it and sleeping the same way, jumping off at this station and that one in a wild scramble for a bucket of ice, which seems to melt before you put it in the coolers. And when in need of a little more added exercise, will grab a mop which is always handy and proceed to swing it in a most graceful and dignified manner across the checkers of the smoking room floor. While doing all of these things he will be making an effort to drive a dime up to as many dollars as is possible for him to do so, and as my good friend HARRY LEVETTE says,—ONE OF LIFE'S LITTLE THINGS.

JOE HOLMES GETS BUMPED

Running true to form and just as the Clatter predicted last week, one button Joe Holmes, operating in the Coast Pool was heartlessly bumped by Joe Lee; the only thing strange about this is that Joe has not got the power to take the line until the 16th. That's very funny indeed, surely Joe cannot be doing any days.

Jerry Washington was arrested by Detective Sergeant John Kane at the Webster Street address a short time after the shooting and at Detective headquarters gave a complete statement of the affair, police said.

He said he shot in self-defense, after Herman had threatened his life because he had objected to an insult allged to have been made to the housekeeper at the former's home. Washington was taken to the County Hospital from a drug store at 16th and Broadway, where he had gone for treatment following the shooting. Jerry Washington was held in the city jail last night on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

H. W. WEEKS

In last week's Clatter it was reported that H. W. Weeks was taken to the hospital, which was very true, but in order that his friends may not become alarmed over the report, we will explain more fully data which we were unable to get at the last writing. Mr. Weeks ran a sliver into his little finger and hollored so loud in the New Bronx Hotel that the manager thought he was being murdered and called an ambulance to take him to the General Hospital. When they arrived with him, all that was the matter was a sliver in his little finger.

FRESNO

A demonstrative protest against unscrupulous Negro politicians, who have been selling the Negro vote, was voiced in a big mass meeting at Garibaldi Hall last Friday night. The practice of these so-called race leaders in accepting various sums of money from candidates and promising them in return the Negro vote, has had its damaging effect in blocking every effort put forth by our group to gain recognition in city and county affairs. Out of the mass meeting a permanent, dominant political organization was formed for the purpose of combating these conditions and for the general progressiveness of the Negro in this city and county. William A. Bigby, Jr., was elected President; Mrs. Irene Hinds, Vice-Pres.; James L. Clarke, Secy.; Robert Strother, Ass't. Secy.; Rev. Fred A. Hughes, Treas.; Mrs. Etta Mae Kennedy, Personal Secretary to the President. The Executive Board is headed by J. E. K. Knicholls, Chairman; William Page, Mrs. A. Harris Crawford, John Cannon, Mrs. Minnie Howard, S. O. Sheffield, Mrs. Etta Mae Kennedy, The President, Secretary and Treasurer will also act as ex-officio members of the Executive Board. Speakers of the evening were Wm. A. Bigby, Jr.; S. O. Sheffield; Mrs. Ida Johnson; J. E. G. Knicholls; Mrs. A. Harris Crawford; Rev. Fred Hughes; Mrs. Etta Mae Kennedy and Sam C. Hannibal. Headquarters have been opened up at 1401 "F" street.

In compliment to her house guest, Miss Cleo Sparks of Sacramento, Miss Helen Wells entertained a large group of the younger set last Thursday evening at her residence in "D" street; dancing was the principal mode of pleasure, with cards as a secondary diversion. The guest list included most of the younger set, with a sprinkling of the younger married contingent.

Col. and Mrs. Ed. Jones have with them for a several months' sojourn, the latter's sister, Mrs. I. S. Wilson of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Wilson is the wife of Dr. I. S. Wilson, a Presiding Elder of the A. M. E. Conference.

Mrs. William A. Bigby, Jr., who is spending the summer in the Bay Cities motored down to Santa Cruz for several days sojourn.

Rev. J. D. Wilson, the eminent pastor of the 85th Ave. Baptist Church in Oakland occupied the pulpit at the Second Baptist Church last Sunday and gave a very forceful lecture on "Negro Inconsistencies" on Monday night.

After having attended the National Federation in Oakland, Mrs. Alice Foster and Mrs. Henry Sims are still enjdying the cool breezes around the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel E. King and daughter, Miss Marjorie King of Santa Monica were the week-end house guests of William A. Bigby, Jr., while en route home last week. Mr. King is the head field representative of the Heffin Mfg. Co., in Los Angeles.

James W. H. Harding and Thomas Irving were in town for the week, having come in on the private car "Santa Barbara."

The Negro Exposition

The season's Carnival at the White Sox Ball Park is a success beyond question. The promoters are worthy of commendation, but the affair bears no resemblance to a Negro Industrial Exposition in which the exhibits of Negro enterprises and industries are on display.

The Negroes of Los Angeles have no part in this supposed exposition nor does this stunt represent the Negro industrial progress in these years.

The term "Negro Exposition" is misleading and a slap in the face to the progressive Negroes in this city, but has served the purpose of a few political pie hunters to enrich their morally distorted stomachs at the expense of twenty thousand Negroes who will never stoop to a thing so low. We wish it to be generally known that this is NOT A NEGRO EXPOSITION, but a Carnival in the Ball Street Style.

Don't lie gentlemen, tell the truth and put your program over.

SACRAMENTO

By: FREDONIA MAGRUDER

Mrs. Massey has recently returned from a seven-weeks' trip in the East with her father and mother who lives in Nebraska. On the day of Mrs. Massy's departure she received the sad news of her youngest breather being killed by an unknown person. He was killed, robbed and thrown in the river. While at her mother's she and her sister spent the week-end with friends in Chicago, Omaha and Denver where she says she had a most wonderful time. On Mrs. Massey's return home stops were made in Kansas City, Mo., Enid Oaklahoma, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Owing to the lovely trip Mrs. Massey had she says "there is no place like California of which we are all proud."

Mr. and Mrs. Casy of San Francisco are visiting her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. White.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tull of San Francisco and Mrs. Sarah T. Martin of Tuskegee, Alabama spent last week at Mrs. E. Gray.

Mrs. Perry Root of Fresno is visiting Mrs. E. Gray for a week.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Richardson motored down to San Francisco during the week of the Grand Lodge of K. of P. The doctor was a delegate from the Crispus Attuck Lodge of Sacramento. He proved to be a very popular delegate by being elected Grand Medical Director. Dr. and Mrs. Richardson both report a very fine trip. While in San Francisco they were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Dunany, formerly of Sacramento.

CONTINUOUS STRUGGLE FOR WATER AND POWER

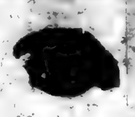
Water and Power to Supply the needs of Los Angeles has been the Chief Concern of its Citizens Since the Pueblo Began

THE STRUGGLE HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL, BECAUSE OF CONTINUOUS EFFORT PUT FORWARD BY THINKING PEOPLE—

Against Nature's odds in a "Land of Little Rain."
Against Opposition born of lack of experience.
Against Physcical Problems of crossing deserts.
Against Obstacles of Mountains to be tunneled.
Against Difficulties of supplying large areas and elevations, to be found in no other city in the entire United States.

AGAINST ALL OF THESE AND MANY MORE—The struggle has been continued and success has crowned the efforts of the citizens of this great city, to assure at all times an abundant supply of cheap water and power.

BEFORE THE AQUEDUCT STARTED



WATER RATES WERE 50 HIGHER
ELECTRIC RATES WERE 60 MORE
INDUSTRIES WERE FEW AND SMALL
FIRE INSURANCE RATES WERE DOUBLE

POPULATION WAS SMALL AND BUSINESS WAS DULL

THESE FACTS PROVE CONCLUSIVELY THAT PROGRESS, PAY-ROLLS AND PROSPERITY HAVE FOLLOWED THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MUNICIPAL AQUEDUCT AND ITS CHEAP SUPPLY OF WATER AND POWER

ETERNAL VIGILANCE AND CONSTANT EFFORT WILL PROVIDE AND PROTECT THIS WATER AND POWER

EDITORIALS

LOOK WELL

We suggest to our fellow citizens to look well to their interests on all the various offices to be voted for, with special reference to our judiciary, the keystone and foundation to our very existence.

SHARPEN YOUR AXES

Get out your battle axes now and even up on the men who have been recreant to their trust and failed in their duty as the servant of all the people.

DIRECT ACTION

Do not let anybody tell you to scuttle the value of your own home and fireside to get even with somebody who you believe has not "toted" fair. If some one has misused you, bide your time, meet them face to face, and let them know that you are going to even up scores and then you will get somewhere.

STATE YOUR CASE

Certainly we have, personally, well defined ideas as to our choice for the various positions and never hesitate to so state. Personal opinion however, hardly ever becomes manifest in these columns at a primary election when we give all sides an opportunity to state their case.

BE ON GUARD

The flagrant misuse of Business and Industry in the fiasco at the White Sox base ball park under the guise of being an Exposition and Educational Congress (which is only an excuse for some individuals to make money at the expense of the public), should never happen again. The Business League or some other stable organization should be on guard and prevent official recognition of any proposition excepting those of real worth and merit.

THE POWER BONDS

We most heartly join in with all the forces which mean progress for the bailiwick in which we reside. It not only demonstrates civic pride, but enhances the value of the home and makes the burden of living easier. Th eimmense net saving of $500,000.00 annually to tax payers is the answer as to our position on this particular bond issue. The city must keep pace along business lines just the same as an individual in business if it is to gain the maximum results. The greater results which the city attains for water and power the greater saving accrues to the consumer of these commodities. As we understand it the present bond issue will add two units to power plant No. 1, which will produce 28,000 horse power. This will be only a part of the benefit as a result of buying the lands in Owens' Valley. This horse power will help in reducing other consumer's costs to a minimum.

We must at all times safe guard our opportunity to keep up to the highest efficiency our present city owned proposition which means the very heart and core of our present advanced standing, and in this situation give to the power bonds our unstinted support.

One thing you must be sure of, do not fall out with anybody about anybody's politics.

SHORTRIDGE FOR U. S. SENATE

On what hypothesis can any member of our group fail to support the present junior Senator from this state, the Honorable S. M. Shortridge? It is unreasonable to suppose there would be EVEN ONE who would do so, unless it would be for petty pelf or filthy lucre.

Senator Shortridge is now and always has been a real humanitarian and one who has, with sincere devotion at all times, championed the cause of the down trodden without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Especially true has this been the attitude of Senator Shortridge toward the colored citizens of California and later of the Nation.

His deed in championing the Dyer Anti-Lynching bill on the floor of the United States Senate was but in keeping with his stand for fair play for all peoples during his entire career. His stand for our group has been more outstanding, for the simple reason that they have stood in greater need of his service. In other words they have been more oppressed than any other class.

In the face of these circumstances, if there are any of our group who would fail to rally to the cause of the Senator's success, they can be classed as nothing less than ingrates.

We want to say that it is imperative for all of us to rise up to the occasion and do our utmost in the present situation, by voting for the Senator and getting out every possible vote to help re-elect, not one whom we have heard to be a friend to all the people, but one whom we know is that friend.

Aside from this angle of the situation, Senator Shortridge has in his first term in the Senate, become one of the strong spokes in the wheels of the Government, and is recognized for his ability and accomplishments. He is a high credit to California and the nation. California is complimented indeed at the opportunity to return him to the Senate for another term.

Mrs. Bethune Speaks To Governor Richardson

Much is being said about Mrs. Bethune's praising Governor Richardson for giving such a welcome reception to the club women, and thereby endorsing Governor Richardson for re-election. It takes a weak or biased mind to stretch what Mrs. Bethune said as an endorsement of the Governor. I took it as a high-class criticism of the Governor and his administration. Have you ever been publicly praised and given credit for doing something that you had not been man enough to do? That was the situation that the Chief Executive found himself in.

First. No great honor can be given our Governor for the reception accorded our ladies. Mrs's Bethune told how the people of Salt Lake City had sent a special committee to meet the train and held a special concert in Morman Temple for delegates. She also told of how the Chamber of Commerce of Colorado took the whole delegation sight-seeing in that city. Then the California welcome that some would make political capital of was only following the example set by other states through which the delegation passed.

Mrs. Bethune praised the Governor for being big enough to see no color when making his appointments for office and told him that it took a big man to select his aid with regards to the color of his skin, and she also pleaded that other Governors would follow his example and give the colored man a chance and that all we wanted was our equal chance with other citizens, and no special favors.

How that could be taken as an endorsement when none of the conditions in the speech had been met I fail to see.

Praise him for being big enough to make his appointments without regards to color, when he had failed in his whole administration to appoint a colored man to a single position. We pleaded for a judge and united in requesting the appointment of Mr. Ceruti, but the big man appointed fifty-seven, without touching us. She praised him for giving us a chance, when he knew that he had not done that. She praised him for seeing no color when that is all he saw. She thanked him for the hope he held out when the only hope he showed us was a stronger national guard that would protect us during riots. Mrs. Bethune praised him for what he should have done. He failed to measure up to her rule, and he knows it. Let us help to retire him to private life? In so doing we will make the chance Mrs. B. prayed for.

Barnes For Supervisor Endorsed By German-American League

Representing a federation of thirty-eight German Societies with 40,000 registered voters in Los Angeles, the German-American League has given its endorsement to Councilman A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, 3rd District, according to a statement of his campaign committee.

Barnes' supporters claim that despite the lateness of his entrance into the race, his candidacy is rapidly gaining momentum. They point to the fact that his record on the City Council and as a civic leader especially qualify him for the office of supervisor.

At a meeting of the West Hollywood Republican Club, the following resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing Mr. Barnes:—

"It is most important to the citizens and taxpayers of this District to have a representative as Supervisor in whom we can place the fullest confidence as to honesty, integrity and ability. Therefore, be it Resolved, that this organization does hereby endorse the candidacy of A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, and be it further resolved that we do everything within our power to help in electing Mr. Barnes."

The Barnes sentiment on the East Side of the District is growing by leaps and bounds and a strong support is promised for his success.

ALBERGA HITS TOWN—THINGS PICK UP IN RICHARDSON CAMP

A. P. Alberga of San Francisco hit town Saturday and immediately things began to pick up in the Richardson camp. And after conferring with the redoubtable (Pop) Sanders, things began to happen. The wiley and resourceful Sanders had already arranged for the appearance of Governor Richardson at Douglas Temple Spiritualist Church for Sunday evening and in came Alberga who put the cap stone on the affair by producing Mrs. Bethune. To say that it was a knock-out is putting the question mildly.

Even the most rabid enemy of Richardson must give (Pop) Sanders and Alberga credit for the coup they put over.

Generosity of Real Men and Women Make Presenting of Propoganda Play Possible

Realizing the power for good in such a production as the Race play, "Easy Money," the propoganda committee determined that it should be shown before a Los Angeles audience, but also realizing that they were not sufficiently financed to put such an expensive production on alone, they decided to appeal to the Race business men and women of the city to make the thing possible. Such an appeal was made, the committee deciding that $10.00 from 30 contributors would give them the necessary sum.

Miss Vivian Temple makes her report this week. Other members of the committee will report next week:

COUNTRY CLUB ACTIVITIES

VOLUME 49 — LOS ANGEES, CAL., AUGUST 20, 1926 — No. 11

THEY DON'T STALL AT THE MAIN STREET CLUB

Unchangeable as the laws of the "Medes and Persians" is the rule at The Main Street Club of "Fight or Get Out." That's all; but it means a lot to the fight fans, who pay to see fights, not brotherly "team acts." And they really get their money's worth and show their appreciation by always filling the house to the roof.

Last Saturday night, August 14th Mateo Magdaleno lived up to expectations by beating Alfee Akol to a well earned decision for six rounds. Orland Lucerro drew with Chappy Crus. Dominic Chebarria beat Chuck Nash. Vernon Jackson the fast little colored boy beat Tomas Palacio, substituting for Pancho Sabio. Damon Lugo got a decision over Frank Abadeno. Richie Aguazo won over Hoyt McClain. Ruffino Dayon lost to Joe Holquin, substituting for Joe Hermandez.

For Saturday night, August 21st the promoters have cooked up an appetizing bit which runs thusly:

Main Event: Young Brown vs. Sailor Ashmore, 140 Lbs.; Semi-Windup: Don Chebarria vs. Chuck Nash, 158 Lbs.; Specials: Phil Harris vs. Phil Cohen, 145 Lbs.; Young Carpenterio vs. Tommy Pilacio, 117 Lbs.; Pee Wee Nolan vs. Vernon Jackson, 114 Lbs.; Richie Aguayo vs. Ady Palmer, 135 Lbs.; Tracey Porterfield vs. Sam Brown, 155 Lbs.

ENGLAND IN NEED OF CHAMPION BOXERS

British ring followers fingally are beginning to despair of Joe Beckett, once heavyweight champion of England, but, since his first knockout at the hands of Georges Carpentier, one of the world's most horizontal pugilists. Phil Scott is now heavyweight kingpin in John Bull's tight little isle, and Britons had been looking to Beckett to come out of retirement and give Phil a battle. Joe did go through the motions of training, but he couldn't last.

TENNIS TO BE TRIED UNDER ARC LIGHTS

Golf, polo and automobile racing at night under arc lights have been tried in this section. On the Los Angeles Teis club a number of leading Southern California racquet wielders will try the net game. If successful night tennis may be made a regular sport at the club.

GIRLS SET NEW WORLD SWIM MARK IN CARNIVAL ON LONG ISLAND

Two girl champions of the New York Women's Swimming Association, smashed records for the 220-yard breast stroke and the 800-yard relay at the water carnival, held by the Long Island Railroad A. C., at Long Beach, L. I., on the afternon of July 27th.

Miss Agnes Geraghty shattered the breast-stroke mark in a 220-yard handican, which she won from scratch, with Miss Esther Foley, allowed 22 seconds, in the place.

COLORED BANTOM CHAMP TOO GOOD FOR EASTERN BOY

The bout between "Chick" Suggs, New England champion, and Jacinto Valdez, bantam-weight champion of Cuba, held at Troy, N. Y., on the night of July 25, proved something of a frost and was stopped by the referee in the fifth round after the Cuban had been plainly outclassed. He never had a chance from the start.

N. Y. to Chicago Relay Race Plans Are in Making

The greatest relay race the world has ever known, a race in which young runners carried a message from the Mayor of New York to the Chief Executive of Chicago, will be repeated in 1928, if plans of Cleveland (Ohio) promoters now in the making are carried through.

The first event of the sort was held eighteen years ago this month and 1,200 boys covered the distance in 116 hours 50 minutes and 30 seconds from one city hall to the other.

The promoters will start a two years' training course, designed to round out the greatest group of young athletes ever to participate in a single event. Twelve thousand applications will be received and 4,000 boys will be chosen from associations along the route, one runner to each quarter mile. Only boys between the ages of thirteen and eighteen will be accepted.

Bicycle Racing

By grit and gameness, Charles Jaeger, twenty-one years old, of Newark, N. J., won the fifty-mile motor-paced championship bicycle race at the New York Velodrome, Sunday night, July 25, before 21,000 fans. With only two and one-half miles to go, Jaeger took the lead from Frank Keenan of Boston, Mass., after both himself and Robert Grassin, world's champion, had blown up in a previous attempt to oust Keenan from his position. Grassin fitished second, Keenan third, Vincent third, Vincent Madonna of Italy fourth, Victor Hopkins of Davenport (Ia.) fifth, and George Chapman sixth. The time was 1 hour 12 minutes 52 2-5 seconds.

Familiar Figures On Fisticuff Row

SI MULVEY is one of the busiest box-fight managers in this vicinity. He has a bunch of wicked scrapper on his string that never fail to deliver the goods. Chief among them is Mateo Magdaleno the champion of Aguas Calientas.

OLD FOLKS WILLMERE as he is called is a veteran trainer and masseur of over 35 years experience. Born in Rochester, N. Y., he has lived in L. A. 25 years. He has handled such men as old Sam Langford, Bob McAllister Pinkey Mitchell, Young Jack Johnson and Battling Levinsky and was four years with the heavyweight champion, Jack Dempsey.

EAGLE THOMAS—Here is a quiet gentlemanly little fighter whom the fans are accustomed to seeing go, (and he really steps) but little of his real history is generally known. He is one of the few fighters who knocked out the great Johnny Buff in 1925, just too late to win the championship from him. He was amateur bantom champ of N. Y. and has fought in Australia and other foreign countries. He laso K.-O'ed. Pinkey Arquidi the Mexican bantom champ. He is game, fast and clever and willing mixer, always in condition.

Gans Callahan Fight Drawing Nation-Wide Attention

Investigation of the training camps of Gans and Callahan where they are being groomed into shape to do battle on the 24th of the month at Doyle's Vernon Arena. Gans is already in tip-top shape and uses up a score of sparring partners every day at the Main Street gym. Manager Litchenstein is having his handlers watch that Gans does not get down to too fine a point and be overtrained.

Mushy Callahan, in spite of his slow-up with his damaged lamp, is down to hard work again, making up for lost time. He started in his sensational working out with Young McGovern, the same boy who cut his left eye open ten days ago, causing the bout to be postponed. He said if he had not started in with him in preference to all his other sparring partners he would have thought McGovern was a jinx. Inquiries have been coming in every mail to the Eagle office from Eastern Sports as to details of the bout and its importance.

For ten years past he has been a member of the California Legislature and has been found zealous and trustworthy during all that time in advocating the things wanted by the people.

For the past four years he has been honored by his associates in the legislature with the Speakership of the Assembly, which gave him immeasurable insight and experience in state affairs, which would be of the greatest possible value in the conduct of the lieutenant governorship.

He has been active in civic affairs, being president for several years past of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce, comprising about seventy Chambers of Commerce and Civic and Improvement bodies in the towns and cities south and west of Los Angeles.

Promises of candidates are hot so important as their real characters, and their standing among those who know them best, their ability and experience in life, and their equipment for the particular office to which they aspire. PIONEER PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS MEN ENDORSE BONDS

Wm. Shelten, a twenty-five year resident of Los Angeles city, says:

"I have always stood for the things which have tended for the progress of this great city, and which have been the cause of its rapid growth and expansion. At this stage of the proceedings I would indeed be taking a step backward should I fail to support the program of progress and the measures which tend to help us in our efforts to go forward. I am, therefore, most heartily in favor of the proposed bonds as advertised by the Bureau of Power and Light."

(Signed) Wm. SHELTEN,
1104 E. 21st St., City.

INSRANCE MAN OF WIDE EXPERIENCE ENDORSES BOND ISSUE

Mr. W. T. Martin of 1108 Austin St., L. A., says:

"I have lived sufficiently long in Los Angeles, to appreciate the value of Water and Power. They are the very sinews of our industrial and social life; as agent for one of the largest companies on the coast I am carried into many of our best homes. My observation has been that one hundred per cent of the Old Timers are for the Water and Power Bonds. I am, therefore, constrained to share in their opinion, that the Power Bond issue is of most vital importance to our community. I urge all of my clients and their many friends to work and vote "yes" on the Power Bond issues.

(Signed) W. T. MARTIN.

AUTOMOBILE DEALER FOR POWER BONDS

Mr. A. G. Reece of the A. L. Johnston, Inc., agents of Hudson and Essex Motor Car Co., says:

"I cannot see how anyone who knows California, the average rainfall, and its natural resources, can think of voting other than for the Water and Power Bonds; as each of them are indispensible to our continued growth and industrial expansion. They are the very backbone of not only Los Angeles, but all Southern California. I would consider it a crime of omission if I should fail to work and vote "yes" on the Power Bonds. Let me advise all of you who desire continuous prosperity and expansion to vote "yes" on the Power Bonds at the Primaries, August 31st.

(Signed) A. G. REECE.

SENATOR KING ADVISES TAX REFORM

OUTLINES KING TAX BILL AND SUGGESTS FURTHER REMEDIES FOR EXISTING TAX EVILS

Former State Senator Lyman M. King, Republican Candidate for Lieutenant Governor in an address before the Optimists' Club of Hollywood last Friday, outlined the present State Tax System, and explained how the existing inequality in taxation can be re-adjusted and remedied.

Senator King is an authority on the subject of taxation, being the author of the King Tax Bill, which was passed by the state legislature in 1921, and which saved taxpayers from 2% per cent increase in taxes that year, and every year since. Senator King declared in his remarks that while he was pleased to have the courts declare his measure strong one from a technical standpoint, he was essentially glad that they had at all times likewise declared it to be a fair, and just measure, in accord with the constitution of the state and as such entitled to every consideration. Senator King also declared that there has come for further reform in the present system. It is needed, he says, for the abandonment of it and the adoption of one which will more fully meet the demands of the present day for economy in state administration.

"We need a tax system which will tax all of property in the whole state upon exactly the same rate," says Senator King, "and a system which assesses every man and every corporation taxed the same way. The result has been that favoritism or valuation has been practiced and a discrimination has been made for corporations which leads to complications and deceptive [illegible] and though we can never expect to get absolute equality in taxation, that will come as near to giving it to us as is possible."

If elected to the Lieutenant Governorship Senator King promises tax reform measures, which will still further reduce the taxes which individual property and home owners are now paying.

Owens River Aqueduct Means Expansion For Los Angeles

Declaring that Los Angeles' rapid transformation from a small tourist city to the metropolis of the West has been made possible by this City's constant vigilance in maintaining adequate water and power supplies, H. A. Van Norman, assistant chief engineer of the Municipal Water Bureau, yesterday urged the necessity of further development along this line as the only possible guarantee of continuing growth and prosperity.

Mr. Van Norman was in charge of the construction of important sections of the Owens River Aquequct and has been William Mulholland's first assistant in the operation and expansion of Los Angeles municipal water system for many years. He stated yesterday that the proposed water and power bonds to be submitted to the people at the August 31st primary election are urgently required if necessary water and power development work is to be carried forward.

"Los Angeles has a habit of outgrowing its water and power supplies and distributing facilities as rapidly as they are made available," said Mr. Van Norman. "This, of course, is proof of our city's amazing development. It also places upon the Municipal Water and Power Bureaus the extraordinary task of keeping pace with these demands.

"It is obvious that the only practical and business-like method if financing these permanent extensions and developments is through the issuance of bonds, to be retired from Water and Power Bureau earnings over a period of years.

"All interest and annual principal charges on these bonds are paid out of the revenues of the Water and Power Bureaus. For this reason, the voting of additional water and power bonds, as required, does not cost the taxpayers a single dollar.

"Of the $10,000,00 water bond issue, approximately $6,000,000 are required to carry through the city's water bearing land purchases in Owens Valley, source of the Aqueduct water supply. Possession of this land by the City is required to guarantee and safeguard its aqueduct water supply.

"To help finance additional reservoir storage and water distributing trunk lines within the city itself, bond funds to the amount of $4,000,000 will be required during the next two years.

"As the demand for greater quantities of water in Los Angeles are met by bringing down increasing volumes of water through the Aqueduct, the Municipal Power Bureau is presented with the opportunity to increase its production of hydro-electric power in generating plants along the water line.

"A portion of the $11,000,000 power bond issue is required to install additional generating facilities at Power Plant No. 1. Installation of these units will make it possible for the Bureau to produce 28,000 horsepower of electric energy in addition to the quantity which can now be generated in its Aqueduct plants. The remainder of the bond issue is needed to help finance urgently needed expansions to its facilities for the handling of an ever increasing volume of electricity on its lines."

HOT FIGHT IN 73rd ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

The fight of Attorney Tyler for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman in the 73rd District, is now going at a fast pace. Attorney Tyler's Committee has been formed, and is functioning overtime in his behalf. Rev. J. H. Wilson, Presiding Elder, California A. M. E. Conference is Chairman of the "Tyler for Assembly" Committee; Wood Wilson, veteran campaigner is manager of the Tyler Campaign, assisted by Lillian M. Tyler; Helen Wheeler, C. C. Flint and Mrs. Ella Cassells, secretary. The Executive Committee, Tyler, and over one thousand others have enrolled their names, have already rallied and fanfires burning. Interest is at a higher pitch than ever witnessed before in the 73rd District during a Primary Campaign.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Rev. J. H. Wilson; Presiding Elder, A. M. E. Conference; Wood Wilson; Campaign Manager; Mrs. Ella Cassells, Secretary; Mrs. Lillian M. Tyler; Mrs. Helen Wheeler; C. C. Flint; Atty. Joseph Jackson; Atty. William Posey; Atty. W. M. Austin; Atty. C. A. Jones; Atty. E. C. Jennings; Atty. Bert McDonald; Mr. Burton Highbaugh; Mr. A. Hill; Mr. Ed. Hamilton; Mr. William Robinson; Mr. W. S. Sledge; Mr. E. J. Power; Mr. William H. Gamble; Mr. Robert H. Hurst; Mr. Sidney P. Dones; Mr. J. Reginald Trent; Mr. E. R. Baldwin; Mr. John W. Lyons; Mr. E. R. Reese; Mr. R. Baker; Mr. Geo. Henderson; Mr. George W. City; Mr. C. C. Flint; Mr. J. J. Christian; Mr. William H. Browning; Mr. Charles H. Palmer; Mrs. Hattie Baldwin; Mrs. Sadie Jennings; Mrs. Nettie E. Reese; Mrs. Ollie Hamilton; Mrs. A. Hill; Mrs. B. Strode; Mrs. Alice Wilson; Mrs. Bell Williams; Mrs. Marie Robinson; Mrs. Sallie Richardson; Mrs. Anna E. Guest; Mrs. Arsella C. Lightner; Miss Juanita De Lancauville; Mr. Wm. Colly; Mrs. Wm. Colly.

Attorney Tyler has been a resident of the 73rd District for 15 years, during this time he has taken an active part in politics, but never before sought public office, elective or appointive. The issues are too vital at this time in the opinion of Attorney Tyler to be overlooked for any reason of private business. The public now has an interest that must be served for the public's good.

DIVORCE REFORM

Attorney Tyler urges in his platform, a very important change in our present divorce laws. The evil he will seek to correct by proper legislation, relates to what is called the "entry" of the final decree. Attorney Tyler points out that when a divorce is granted by the judge, a decree must be filed. This decree is called an Interlocutory Decree, which is not a divorce at all, for in fact not until one year expires can the final decree, or decree of divorce be "entered." This is never done unless the attorney for divorced wife, or husband files such a decree and presents it to the Court for signature (and finally) "entry" in the Judgment Book. In thousands of cases, neither party requests that this be done. A divorced person moves away, or waits one year and re-marries without further ado, and thinks himself—or (herself)—divorced. This entangles property rights and in fact is bigamy in many cases. Under the reform urged by Attorney Tyler, one year after the First Decree is entered, the Decree becomes final by operation of law, and neither divorced party has any further concern, nor could any mistake be made by a re-marriage by either. Attorney Tyler says thousands of married couples now living together have had to re-marry because of the mistake he points out, and many, many thousands are not now legally married, because no Final Decree has ever bee entered in the matter of their former divorce. All of these difficulties would be overcome by his proposed reform.

WATER

In the 73rd Assembly District, there are of course some people of considerable wealth, though no portion of it is, technically speaking, a millionaire colony, at this time, although at one time many rich people lived on what is now the Western edge of the District. The rank and file of the voters in the 73rd Assembly District are vitally concerned in those great utilities, which are in fact, living necessities, such as water, electric power and gas, which can be, and are being, distributed under the wonderful program of municipal ownership, now afforded the people of the city of Los Angeles.

The base rate for water per one thousand cubic feet in San Francisco (privately owned company) is $28.00, while in Los Angeles, the rate is only $15.00. In some cities, the rate is as high as $35.00 per one thousand cubic feet, while the average for 183 cities was $17.89, thus proving that Los Angeles is being afforded a very low water rate, free of any charge for meter service, such as San Francisco must pay. Everyone knows that the low electric power rate has been the back-bone of our manufacturing industries and business. For these reasons, public ownership of water, electric power and gas, should never be surrendered, by failure to pass the necessary enabling acts, so that the water from the Boulder Dam, when once we get it, can be made available as well as the hydro-electric power developed therefrom, for our great Southern California.

The state should be re-apportioned, and all the laws should be enforced. The difficulty with too many organizations, and groups of citizens, well intentioned today, is that they center their whole activity upon a particular law, or upon a portion of one enactment, and thus overlook many of the laws of equal importance, and just as necessary for the public guidance and control. All laws should be enforced without fear or favor, and constituted authority should receive the fearless support of all private and public citizens, when doing their duty, not in the sense of prosecuting offenders because of violations of the law.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

The system of public education now established in California is one of the best, if not the best, in the world today, rising as it does from the Kindergarten, through the grades, the high schools and state university. During this time the child is not only afforded every advantage at play and physical development, but have poured into the mental training offered, but nerves and muscles are called to [illegible] child, and hence of the adult when grown.

Not only is this true, but the system of adult education, and all of the broader, more humane and more cultural provisions, with which public education is surrounded in California should have hearty support, and suffer no curtailment of program, or of means to carry it out. This means a sufficient appropriation for teacher training,—for the development of Junior Colleges, and for the retirement of superannuated teachers.

Some time ago, California was near losing the services of the very able State Superintendent of Public Education, Will C. Wood, because of the small pay this state offers the holder of that high position. We should pay a sufficient salary to retain without fear of losing, the services of so capable a figure in the world of education, as is Will C. Wood.

A Voice From the Nation's Capitol Stresses Greatness of Senator Shortridge

I beg leave through your columns to appeal to the colored electorate of the great State of California to return to the Senate the distinguished statesman, Senator Samuel Shortridge. He is needed here, not only for the colored people at the capital, but for all of us in the nation, for all of our discriminations here and our fights against them are national in their character and influence.

As President of the Washington Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a member of its National Directorate, I am forced into continued contacts with the men and women who run this nation. There are so many wrongs for which we get no relief, and so many new hostile measures proposed by those high in authority, that this organization must wage relentless conflict, so I have constant opportunity to take the measure of our statesmen. Senator Shortridge is one magnificent figure that has never failed us, and since there are so few here who worry much over the misfortune of our disadvantaged group, we cannot spare him.

We have segregated schools here, hence, discrimination in racial allotments. The Senator has always stood for equity in the appropriations, so that our schools are far better equipped than they would be were there not some broad-minded statesmen in Congress to heed our pleas. In the case of Howard University he has responded with like interest and sense of justice, so that Howard today is receiving more than twice the aid she received some years ago. I heard him speak before the Amity Congress here several years ago, before an audience largely white from all sections of the country, and was inspired by his noble eloquence against race hatreds, and for a universal brotherhood among men regardless of race. In the case of all of the many hostile bills introduced by our industrious enemies from the South he is of invaluable aid to us. There were four vicious bills in the Senate at one time this winter, and every one of them was smothered.

But, of all of his services his claim to fame and all men's support will rest upon his brilliant, courageous, and altruistic fight for the Anti-Lynching Bill. In this long and bitter struggle he loomed a magnificent solitary gladiator holding his own against the solid south and a sympathetic, or at least an apathetic, North. He made the lengthly, learned, and humane report on the bill which read like the documents of the giants of the great Reconstruction days. He forced it upon the Senate, and successfully withstood the combined fire of its hosts of enemies, both North and South. It was a brilliant fight and a distinguished service, for it brought Lynching home to the nation.

I am sure the good, patriotic Colored people of California, realizing that our interests are one and inseparable, that the wrongs of one section are the wrongs of all, will use that most powerful of social levers, the ballot, with the single thought of keeping men in places of power who work for all of the people. The present incumbent, Senator Samuel Shortridge, is just such a man. Will you go to the polls in large numbers and return him to the Senate?

NEVAL H. THOMAS.

CANCER IN WOMEN OF 40 YEARS

Nothing teaches like experience. "Doctor, I know it's too late now. I know I will never get well, I'm just dying by degrees. And nothing can save me. When you tried to get me to have the tumor removed last year, I thought I would get around it and just kept putting it off. Now I know it's too late!" I just left the bedside of one of the finest women in Los Angeles, who wept out those sad words. A year ago I plead with this woman as I should have plead with my own sister to have a laboratory examination and the operation if necesary to remove the awful enemy which had invaded her body. But she was human. She hated the word "operation," she "tried to get around it," she waited! Today she would have not only one operation but one hundred operations—if any surgeon in the world could hold out any hope to her. But as she herself says, unless God performs a miracle for her it is "too late."

Cancer taken in time is one of the easiest conditions in the world to cure—because it is only a small, local lesion. Let it go too long and no power under heaven can arrest it because the disease has made its way thrrough the blod or lynmph stream into all parts of the body. And a surgeon would have to take the whole body apart in order to get all part of the cancer. This of course is a physical impossibility. It is because it is natural for cancers to form little metestatic or secondary growths all throughout the entire body. After they reach a certain period in their development—that I, with every other doctorw ho has the well-being of humanity at heart, urge every woman with any kind of tumor to be examined and accept the propert treatment, even thought it be an operation before it is too late!

HOW CANCERS FORM

Women above 35 are especially subject to cancer. All of the female organs, the mouth of the womb and the mouth of the vagina are especially susceptible cites. Often I find in patients this history. A woman about 40 or 45 years comes into the office for examination. She was torn or lacerated 20 years ago in child birth and the laceration was never repaired. Now she is annoyed with a discharge—I place her on the table and find a tumor which resembles a cancer. I explain to her, the condition. She is shocked and surprised. She is not sick; She has only had a little annoying discharge, sometimes mixed with a little blood, but surely she hasn't any cancer! I tell her that a laboratory examination of the growth is the only possible way to make a positive diagnosis early. She cannot quite make up her mind. I tell her that she may lose her life if she hesitates, that a quick decision and prompt action are the only salvation in cancer. She still hesitates and finally decides to "go home and think it over." I wish I had time to tell you of the large number of women whom I have known in my short time of service as a physician who have "thought it over" until it was altogether too late. "Thought it over," until they have finally gone to the County Hospital to end their days in misery and die a premature death—just because they could not quite make up their minds to have a growth removed while it was still a simple tumor or an early cancer.

PROCRASTINATION AND DEATH

You can "put off" an operation and medical treatment but you cannot "put off" Death. The grim reaper comes whether you are ready for him or not. And yet how many, many, women between 35 and 55 years are flirting with death today, by putting off examination and treatment for old lacerations and possible tumor growths. I have in mind this morning five women who have been to my office recently who have tumors, each of whom can still be operated upon with comparative safety and a good chance for complete recovery. But they are in the class of those who run the terrible risk of "putting it off," for a while longer.

DANGER SIGNS

1. Old lacerations or tears—from childbirth. If these are not repaired at time of delivery, do not let the age of 35 or 40 find them still unrepaired. Old lacerations are potential seats for cancers.

2. Discharge—especially the irregular appearing of blood stains, often the signs of beginning cancer.

3. Tired out, "dragged down" feeling, often due to displacement of organs or lacerations which may lead to cancers. If you have any of these symptoms, do not wait. Seek the advice of a competent physician at once. It may be the difference between life and death to you.

4. Women above 35 are more susceptable to cancer than young women.

Pioneer Citizen Thrown From Trick, Dies

Joseph Edward Banks, died at the General Hospital Tuesday night, having suffered a crushed chest and broken spine as the result of the overturning of the truck in which he was riding. Banks, a big dealer in junk, was directing one of his trucks, which was loaded with iron ore, to its destination. The truck, driven by the Booth brothers started to skid, the streets having been recently watered at 3rd and LaBrea. Booth, thinking to stop the car, put on the brakes. The car, stopping so suddenly with the heavy load began to turn over. The drive leaped, Banks in an attempt to leap, fell headlong on the cement. He was rushed to the receiving hospital and later changed to the General Hospital where he succumbed Tuesday evening.

Mr. Banks came to California in the year 1888. He was well known and highly respected. He was one of the large land owners of this county, having forty acres in Eagle Canyon, where he was living.

Funeral services were held from the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Saturday, Roberts Undertakers in charge. The large attendace and elaborate floral offerings attest the esteem in which the deceased and the family of the deceased is held. More than twenty cars, holding up the traffic for blocks, was in the procession.

Mr. Banks is survived by a wife, Mrs. Ethel Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Albritton; a daughter, Mrs. Jessie Banks Hamilton; two sons, Norwell and six grand children.

BLACKSTONE CLUB ENDORSES JUDGE LANGDON IN FULL

The letter printed below in fact is one mailed unsolicited to Judge Wm. H. Langdon, candidate Associate Justice Supreme Court. The club further states that the letter may be considered as a fair barometer of the high esteem in which he is held by the large group of Colored Voters. And that the long experience of Judge Langdon in the educational field and impartial fairness to black and white alike, has endeared him not only to them but to the colored public in general, touching as it does that step by which the Negro has climbed to his present achievements, and will continue on to greater successes—the step of education.

August 5, 1926.

HON. WILLIAM H. LANGDON,

Associate Justice, Court of Appeal, State Bldg., McAllister & Larkin Sts., San Francisco, California.

Dear Judge Langdon:

In Los Angeles County, aboutseventy thousand Negroes, and fifty thousand of these live in the City of Los Angeles. Of this number, twenty-one are members of the Bar and belong to the Blackstone Club. We formed this club because the Los Angeles Bar Association has never accepted the application of a member of our race for membership. Hoping to better serve our clients and to better uphold the highest ideals of the legal profession, we have our little club in order that we can pull together in our common cause.

We are happy to know that you are a candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and, at a meeting of our club, held August 3, 1926, we heartily endorsed your candidacy and pledged ourselves to urge our people to vote for your election.

We have followed your work upon the bench and rejoice in your learning in the law, and in your fearless exposition of its humane and democratic principles.

We deem it to be true that the whims, likes and dislikes of some of the citizens of our state sometimes find expression in contracts, and in regulations prohibitive and restrictive, directed point blank at Negro citizens, just because they are Negroes. Once these biased sentiments reach the Courts and find sanction in judicial opinion and decree, our civil and political rights are often impaired because of arguments which apparently uphold the equality of equal laws, but which in fact have veiled limitations upon common law and constitutional rights from which we alone suffer solely because of color.

We believe that the rights of all the people of our great commonwealth will find a broad and positive expression in your decrees, your orders and opinions.

We have been asked to apprise you of the hearty endorsement the Blackstone Club has given you, and to assure you we shall work for your election.

With every good wish for your success, we remain,

Most cordially yours,
BLACKSTONE CLUB,
(Signed) Willis O. Tyler,
Lewis K. Beeks,
Bert McDonald,
Publicity Committee.

Joseph P. Sproul said:

Judge Langdon will be one of the two Justices elected as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, not only because of his long judicial record, but also because he is one of the best and most widely known men in California.

Twenty years ago his name was as well known here as that of any moving picture star today. He was a head-liner on every screen of the State, day after day and year after year, during his two terms as District Attorney of San Francisco. He was then engaged in the gigantic struggle with official corruption and striving to restore honesty and decency in government. This public service is not forgotten nor unknown in any portion of the State.

Aside from his law and judicial activities [illegible] always taken a keen interest in educational matters. When but 28 years old he was superintendent of schools of San Francisco. Associated with him were such educational experts as Professor Henry Suzzallo, now President of the University of Washington, Professor T. L. Heaton, then Superintendent of Schools of Fresno and A. A. Macirda of Los Angeles. A completely new course of study for the San Francisco Public Schools in keeping with Charles F. Stoaks and Mrs. Mary Barnham of Los Angeles and E. F. Clark of Riverside, were the first members of the re-organized State Board of Education and Judge Langdon was its first President. With Senator Frank Flint and Prescott Coggswell of Los Angeles, Mortimer Fleishhacker of San Francisco and Professor Mead of the University of California, he served on the Land Settlement Board which inaugurated one of the most successful land colonies in the United States, at Durham, California.

In a judicial position during the last decade Judge Langdon has not been in the public eye, but the lawyers of the State are familiar with the great quantity of work he has performed in the courts and its satisfactory quality and character. With this background of public service his candidacy for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court is going forward rapidly and most successfully. The old time residents of Southern California know Judge Langdon's public record, it shall be my purpose to acquaint the new comers with it.

Upon his record as a public servant and jurist he should and we feel certain he will be promoted from Presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal to Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

BAR ASSOCIATION ENDORSES JUDGES

The problem of voting for the judiciary of Los Angeles County is no longer a conjecture, if voters in this district will take to the polls with them, August 31, the list of candidates published in our announcement elsewhere in this issue, that have received the approval of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, according to information from John W. Kemp, Chairman of the Judiciary Campaign Committee.

The Association consits of more than 2000 lawyers, and a candidate to qualify for the indorsement must have registered in his favor more than 75% of the votes cast from the membership.

Mr. Kemp feels that voters everywhere are interested in having the best men elected to a judicial position, and members of the Bar Association made the opinion that their duty contact with judges places them in a position to familiarize themselves with judges' qualifications.

Below unpronounced sketch of their qualifications follow:

CHARLES S. BURNELL—Appointed assistant city attorney in 1913, served 6 years. Graduate of Stanford University. Special County Council, in charge of flood control district one year. Elected city attorney in 1919. On the Superior Court bench since 1921. He is a Mason, Jinistar Grotto, No. 76, President of the Chaparral Club, member of Kiwanis Club and Trowell Club of Santa Monica.

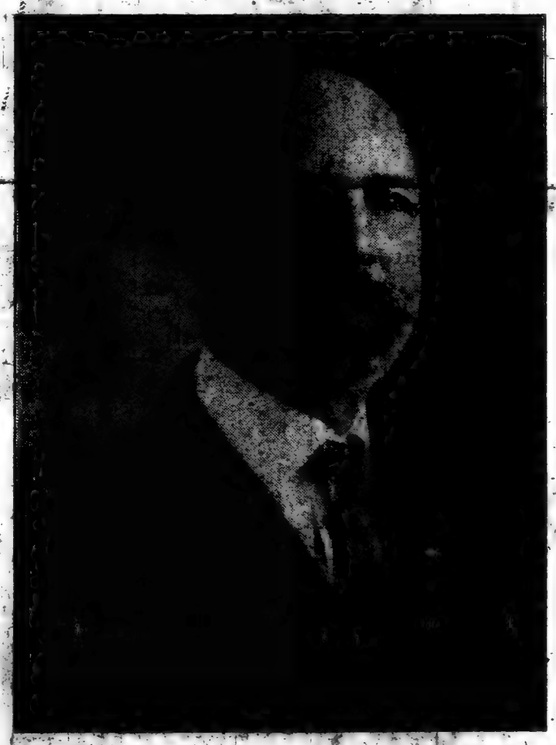
WALTER S. GATES—Presides over the alimony court and lunacy commission. Born in Pomona Valley; graduate of U. S. C. law. He is credited with being one of the hardest working judges in the Superior Court.

WANTED:—Experienced Marceller and all around operator. Lula's Beauty Parlor, 1327½ Central Ave. WE-3893.

JOE CRAIL FOR CONGRESS
TENTH DISTRICT

Our candidate for Congress from the 10th Congressional district is deservedly receivin ga strong support from all classes of our voters.

Mr. Crail is right on all of the questions which are before the American public. He is the tried and true friend of all the people and with him in Congress, the people will always have an advocate to state their case. Vote and work for Joe Crail.



J. W. McKINLEY FOR SENATOR
38TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

With a fixed resolve carrying the battle right to the parapets of the enemy, th eintrepid young attorney and over seas veteran, J. W. McKinley, is making a winning race for Senator from the 38th District.

The supporters of McKinley come from all classes of the electorate and seem to indicate his triumphant nomination at the primaries next Tuesday.

HENRY W. CARTER FOR THE ASSEMBLY
71ST DISTICT

Senator Carter, a native of California, is a lawyer, having practiced his profession for over twenty-five years in Los Angeles.

He is the present member of the Assembly for the 71st District, and has represented Los Angeles in both houses of the Legislature.

The masterly manner in which this district has ben represented during Mr. Carter's term of office, deserves his triumphant re-election. He has very ably and truly been the advocate of all the people regardless of race, creed or previous condition of servitude. The large colored vote of this district will doubtless be as a unit for Mr. Carter. The Eagle is glad to present him for consideration.

MINISTERS' ALLIANCE ENDORSES TYLER

As the 73rd Assembly District fight draws to a close the nomination of Attorney Willis O. Tyler is conceded, by all those conversant with district politics.

Attorney Tyler closes his campaign with the hearty approval of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Los Angeles City. The approval of his candidacy was voted Monday morning, and all the ministers of the various denominations pledged themselves to urge his election at the polls, for the good of the group, and for recognition of the eminent services Attorney Tyler has rendered the many masses in litigation was prosperity matters, as a republic in public meetings, and in the courts, and elsewhere, guiding guidance as for an

THE U. N. I. A. AND NEGRO LABOR

By: WILLIAM PICKENS
(For the Associated Negro Press)

On the night of August 5th, we went to look in on "The Fifth Convention of the Negro Peoples of the World" in Liberty Hall, on 138th street, New York City. And we went on the invitation of the officers of the Convention, who also urged us to address the assembly. It had been about 8 years since we had been in Liberty Hall, and at that time we were forbidden even to take notes in place. When we had taken out pencil and notebook and began to down some of the truly remarkable being spoken there the platform and finally and a dozen officers of the Legion rushed upon us and

Forum For Bonds

L. A. FORUM, PIONEER CIVIC ORGANIZATION, ENDORSES WATER AND POWER BONDS

Last Sunday's meeting at the L. A. Forum was full of action and fervid oratory was cut loose in generous portions.

It seems that in a moment of forgetfulness, that this great body which had always stood squarely by all measures which meant the onward march of progress for the growth of our city, in an absent-minded moment and desutry manner voted aginst endorsing the Water and Power Bonds.

Therefore on last Sunday the question was opened on a motion to reconsider, and this brought about the fireworks. Mr. John Pitts, former president of the Forum, ably assisted by Noah D. Thompson, Mrs. Lulu Slaughter and others overcame the futile attempt to filibuster by one or two isolated opponents and the final vote was nigh unto a unanimous vote in favor of the bonds.

This expression at the Forum is a fair barometer as to how the people stand upon this great question and demonstrates that you can depend upon the people at all times when questions of import are at hand such as the continued prosperity of our city is concerned.

They are marching forward and onward 50,000 strong in favor of the Bonds.

NATIONAL NEGRO PRESS ASSOCIATION REPORTS GREAT SESSION AT PHILADELPHIA

EAGLE EDITOR ELECTED 2ND VICE-PRESIDENT

Philadelphia, Pa., (Special)—After having deliberated for three days, the National Negro Press Association adjourned in this city Saturday noon. Chicago will entertain them February 10, 11, 12, 1927. Benjamin Jefferson Davis was elceted President. The Constitution was so amended as to admit Periodicals, Newspapers and Magazines, these to be represented at the Association by properly-accredited messengers from the various publications.

An "Address to the Country" was delivered, full of pep, making certain specific requests of the American people, setting forth grievances that were not shadows, and at the same time, complimenting the American people for certain adjustments of wrongs that had hitherto existed.

Two women were added to the official family. Many social courtesies were shown by the Philadelphia people. The Sesqui-Centennial officers were hosts to the quill-pushers during their session. Philadelphia gave one reception and one public meeting. The dean or nestor of journalism was a conspicuous figure throughout the week. Twenty-one accomplishments presented by the secretary of the Association as the work of the organization, were plainly set forth and clearly demonstrated.

The following are the officers for the new year: Earl J. Davis, Atlanta, Ga., President; Robert J. Nelson, Washington, D. C., First Vice-President; Jos. B. Ross, Los Angeles, Cal., Second Vice-President; Henry Allen Boyd, Nashville, Tenn., Cor. Secretary; I. Willis Cole, Louisville, Ky., Rec. Secretary; Miss A. E. Tittle, Nashville, Tenn., Asst. Rec. How She Arose From Obscurity To Staardom

But Madam Sul-Te-Wan was not destined to remain in obscurity. Her popularity as a little actress soon spread abroad.

In her own estimation, her one and only handicap was her name and after she had successfully filled several vaudeville acts in her own town, and state, calls began to come in from other sections of the country.

But Madam Sul-te-Wan was no longer looked upon as the vivacious little black beauty about the place, she was waxing rapidly into womanhood along with being the stage scream of her section, the little lady was the center of attraction for all the young men in the community who were seeking wives of fortune and fame.

GIRL WAITS FOR HER ATTACKER

(By A. N. P.)

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 27.—According to a story printed in the Commercial-Appeal of this city, Miss Billie Hollis, 19-year-old white girl, was criminally assaulted by two colored bandits who held her and her escort up at midnight. One of the men was large and the story tells how the girl is alleged to have waited for the second bandit while the first went to get him. Following the Appeal's description of the attack:

"Forcing the young woman to get out of the car, according to her story and that of Richards, the big Negro handed his pistol to his companion and led her away. Returning to the car in a few minutes, Richards declared the big Negro took the gun and stood guard while the other Negro went where the girl had been taken."

MR. ALVARO PRATT

Candidate For Supervisor 3rd District

It was mentioned in last week's issue concerning the great aid given to Mrs. Lillie Akens, colored, 1506 Griffith Avenue, city, when seriously injured in a street car accident. It stated how he prevented her from being discriminated against in the damage procedings, by a very pointed letter to the Street Car Company backed up by his powerful influence and desire for justice.

In addition to this letter, Mr. Pratt made it his personal business to prosecute this colored lady's claim for damage to a successful conclusion, and secured for her full compensation for the injury which she had suffered.

This involved many davs of his time and intricate questions of law, which service he freely paid for.

Thus he has always been fair and impartial and especially interested in the welfare of the colored race, showing it by many other instances of help and encouragement.

Will Vodery Shot

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Aug. 23.—Will Vodery, noted orchestra leader and arranger of music, was shot in the arm early Wednesday morning when two footpads trailed him to the door of his apartment and sought to rob him of a $3,000 ring he wore. The bandits were unable to take the ring from his finger, but robbed him of $16 which he carried in his pocket. Vodery was not seriously hurt.

Gans Defeats Callahan

Packed from pit to dome and with hundreds standing, Doyle's Vernon Arena, scene of historic battles fought by the "Old Master", saw his name sake, Baby Joe Gans, uphold this famous name.

Two colorful gladiators, both hard hitters, both game and fast, there was never a better picked match than Mushy Callahan and Baby Joe Gans.

But Callahan must have been overestimated for Gans out-fought, outpointed and outgeneraled his opponent from the first round to the last.

The blow whirled Gans across the ring and into the ropes. Groggy and badly shaken. Callahan tried his best to finsh him but using his head, Gans saved himself by clinching and covering till he could get his bearings, and partly recover.

In the second he was more careful and Callahan more confident, carrying the fight to Gans, but Gans had recovered and held him even.

In the third Mushy landed three hard lefts t oGans' wind but the game little fighter took them all and more than out pointed him the round through.

In the fourth Gans came out like a whirl wind chasing Mushy all over the ring knocking him half through the ropes and staggering, Gans hitting him with rights and lefts at will.

From then on Gans piled up his big lead till the referee raised his hand in the tenth, while the thousands of fans white and colored yelled, screamed and went wild long afterward.

Central Avenue was crowder with well wishers late in the night and an impromptu dinner and reception was held when Gans ate his supper at the Entertainers Cafe.

Matchmaker "Wad" Wadhams will undoubtedly sign the battlers for a return match. It's a cinch the house will be packed again. It was a whale of a scrap and there is no reason why the rematch shouldn't be even more exciting.

Brown Winner in Slow Bout

Young Brown took the referee's decision from Sailor Ashmore in the six-round windup at the Main Street Athletic Club, Saturday night.

Brown and Ashmore furnished the fans with one of the slowest fights ever seen at the Main Street club. It was a clinching affair from the first gong to the last.

Don Chobarria defeated Chuck Nash in the four-round semi-windup in the best fight of the evening. Phil Harris and Mike Flores went four ounds to a draw. Louis Carpenterio took every one of the four rounds from Joe Mandock. Tommy Palacio defeated the veteran Pee Wee Nolan. Richie Aguayo knocked out Tony Flores in one round. Red Lewman put away Tracey Porterfield in the first round of the curtain raiser.

Main Street Advertises Three Star Ring Bouts

Three star bouts top the Main St. Athletic Club card next Saturday night. Angel de la Cruz and Benny Diaz meet in the six-round windup. Joel Lopez and Young Freeman Black new colored star from Oakland, meet in the semi-windup and Tony Herrera and Al Lovell are paired for the special event.

De La Cruz is a great card at the Main Street by virtue of his easy knockout over Joe Rickey, the boy who beat Frankie Grandetta in 10 rounds. Diaz made a very creditable showing against Young Magdalino in a preliminary that stole the show at the Olympic last week.

WOULD MATCH JOHNSON, CARPENTIER

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 25.—Promoter Dick Donald, impresario of big time mixed bouts at Ascot Park, has been wiring daily to Jack Johnson in order to match him against Georges Carpentier at Wrigley Field here next month. The two have never met though there were several attempts to bring them together in England some years ago when Jack was at the height of his career. The bout would probably draw the biggest crowd ever attending a fight in late years here.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

Upton's Matrimonial Chart

ARTICLE I.

Ever since Adam and Eve had such a wonderful romance, it has been said, that man shall not live in peace with a woe-man, or without a woe-man. So, according to that, poor man is in a ticklish position. Man, being the stronger of the two, is supposed to be woman's master; but it brings a laugh when you think of him as such. The average married man in Los Angeles, is in many cases afraid to speak above a whisper, although he is a past master at talking at the big gate.

Woman has gradually come to the front in a most forceful way, exercising her rights with a rolling pin physically, and by casting her vote politically, the latter can best be testified to by talking to some poor, down-trodden man, who has sought a divorce. When he gets through singing the blues to you, there will be no doubt left in your mind as to her power with the biggest majority of domestic court judges. Why, Judge Summerfield will almost hang you on a woman's word, so what chance have you got. You might as well step right out and take one of the innocent things for life, and try to do as she says, or curl up and die. The only man who have any reasonable amount of success in securing a divorce after they are once hooked, are the ones who live in Hollywood, where they marry today and get a divorce tomorrow. However, there are a few left who have not succumbed to the pre-eminence of woman. They stand in a band, as the rock of Gibralta, boldly in defiance of the feminine sex, with good jobs, and fair incomes, they go unmolested in their care-free way, no one to tell them they must stay home, and no one to bounce a rolling pin off their heads. But it has been said that even a rock can be worn down by the constant dripping of water, and though they appear hard boiled and unconcerned, SOME DAY THEY WILL FAILL; to this end, I am writing this article, in order to let the women of Los Angeles know that in their very midst, there are no less than fifty Pullman Porters, who are cheating some good woman out of a home and the comforts of life by staying single in defiance of olden traditions—if the right woman comes along, at the right time and puts up the right kind of battle, the spoils will be hers.

JUDGE WOOD OPPOSED BY ATTORNEY

August 27, 1926.

Editor "EAGLE":—

Answering your question: I do not think that Judge Walton Wood expects the vote of any Negro other than a certain individual whose name appears on two "Wood" articles in your last issue.

Your write-up, in November, 1922, concerning the case of Mrs. Annie Williams vs. Boos Bros. Cafeteria, should be remembered by every black man in the state. You will recall that Mrs. Annie Williams, a middle-aged, sincere colored W. C. T. U. worker, was most humiliatingly refused service when she and some of her white friends entered the cafeteria. Your paper then gave a clear, but mild, idea of what Walton Wood thought of such cases, and how the people present in court were filled with chagrin over his avowed opposition to the law which he was compelled to enforce. I think that a judge should endeavor to leave the public in a mood to cooperate with the law which he is ELECTED TO ENFORCE UPON THOSE WHO ELECT HIM: otherwise, the law is a mockery!

WOOD BOOST "BUNK"

"Bunk" describes the article which was handed to you for publication representing that "Race Lawyers Endorse Wood". Of the twenty-one colored lawyers in os Angeles, only seve ames appeared there. Three of these seve have office together in a dark hallway in a dilapidated shack on Spring Street. Another, Lewis K. Beeks, told me today, that he resents the brazen effrontery of whoever wrote Beeks' name as indorsing Wood and that Beeks does not believe that Attorney Murdock, out o f the city today, authorized such use of Murdock's name. I tried in vain, to reach the other two named there. NOTE THE ABSENCE OF THE NAMES OF THE LEADING COLORED ATTORNEYS.

The other article handed to you and purporting to come from the Blackstone Club, and indorsing, among others, Houser and Wood, is misleading.

Negro Addresses Klansmen; Denounces Order

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23.—The unusual action of a Negro being taken to a Klan meeting then asked to speak, occurred to Titus Alexander, candidate unopposed for assemblyman of the 76th district for the next election. Mr. Alexander was asked by a white Klansman friend to attend a meeting of the klan as his guests. It was held out in the open in the hills, and was attended by hundreds of the hooded knights. During the course of the meeting, Alexander was asked to speak. He mounted the rostrum and lashed forth in a vindictive tirade denouncing the klan as un-American and cowardly.

AT THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Sunday night, August 29th, Evangelist P. G. Rodgers will answer the great question "Are the Ten Commandments out of Date?" Mr. Rodgers finds it necessary to preach on this subject because of the growing tendency to include the Moral Law in the code of laws that the Jews of old felt were essential to their righteousness. The best promises to show that any man in Christ Jesus will not turn away from the standard of heavenly government which has been given to heaven bound creatures, hence all who love the ways of the LORD are invited to be present at the BIG TENT—located at 20th and Central Ave., at 7:30 P. M. to insure a good seat. The big choir is an added feature to these services and the question and answer hour helps every honest seeker for the truth.

Evern one is welcomed to this BIG Evangelistic Series of plain Bible sermons.

LeBLANC'S BOYS BAND HOME AGAIN

Oh boys; Well, all we can say is that we certainly had a fine time, and we wish to express our appreciation to the people of Los Angeles for their hearty co-operation in attending our concerts, etc., in order that we may raise money for our trip. Although the public's co-operation was nothing near a 100 per cent this time, but we expect it to be much better next time. The band shall immediately begin preparing for a much better trip for next summer. We shall do our best to induce the public to co-operate with us in order to make our play a success. Owing to the fact that we had a day's engagement before us, our trip had to be shortened in order to face the Los Angeles public with full force and plenty of pep.

Los Angeles Was A City Without Promise

PUBLIC PARTNERSHIP WINS

Th eactuating motive which prompted the building of the great Owens River Aqueduct for Los Angeles, was to so shift the natural resources of the Southwest that the ice and snow of the high mountains might play upon fertile valleys and desert sands and make safe for all time, the building of this great City.

SERVICE—NOT PPOFIT, A REALITY

WATER and POWER at LOW RATES have broadened the opportunity of the City's industry and business and fattened the pay envelopes and salary checks of its people.

PUSH FOR WATER AND POWER, AND PULL FOR YOURSELF

WORTHY OF HIGHEST CONSIDERATION

No one is more deserving of the support of the readers of this journal than Judge Harry A. Holzer and along with others, tried and true, we ask for your earnest consideration for a man who will stand every test, and that man is Judge Harry A. Holzer.

PROVED THEIR WORTH

Speaking of Judges, our readers will not soon forget such stalwart friends of all the people as Judge Albert Lee Stephens, Charles S. Burnell, Crail and Valentine.

THE BETTER SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

The Better Suffrage League embryo political organization, which is composed of many of our leading citizens, has our best wishes for a fulfilment of its pronounced ideals.

We say this despite the fact that upon the proposition of the bond issue we are at variance with the organization.

We cannot see wherein we could justify ourselves in opposing the things which stand for our very existence and where it means to sacrifice our standing as progressive citizens and in the end we have accomplished nothing whatever to cure our ills.

Therefore we will depart from the Suffrage League upon this issue. We are in the main with it on almost all other contentions.

TYLER FOR THE ASSEMBLY

Despite the fact that these columns have been freely open to all contenders for Assembly honors, Eagle readers know only W. O. Tyler in the premises.

Mr. Tyler no doubt, will represent this district with rare ability and will bring forth things worth while for the 73rd district.

ALL CROOKS LOOK ALIKE TO US

A crooked preacher will have a harder time getting by the Searching Eye of the "Soaring Eagle" than any other sort of crook. In fact we will give them no quarter. The only way in which they can operate is to do so on the square. We march ahead on our campaign of pitiless publicity against them unafraid. The interest and standing of the race must be maintained at all hazards and in due time the crooked preacher will get in his proper place as a profligate desperado or bum. It matters not to us.

JOE CRAIL

It looks like a run away race for Congress in the 10th District with that intrepid, energetic friend of all the people, the Hon. Joe Crail, as the winner. He has clearly won this fight by his matchless genius and truly we believe with Joe Crail in Congress the old 10th District will be represented as never before.

BILL TRAEGER FOR SHERIFF

True to form the big, good natured Sheriff of Los Angeles County, William I. Treager, is making a record run and we miss our guess if he fails to go over in the primary. Yes we are all for big Bill Treager.

TUESDAY'S PRIMARIES

Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock will bring to a close in some respects the most remarkable primary campaign ever held within the confines of the State. It has been so from the fact that for the major offices to be chosen that the contenders have not even had what is known as an organized effort behind them.

To select a candidate in the primary is personal to the candidate or in other words, it is a contest between factions. In this contest the factions have failed to perform as of yore. They have fallen short on even getting out propaganda to state their case.

This paper, as a rule, opens its columns for the various candidates or factions to state their case to just whatever extent they desire measured by inches in advertising space. But in so far as the major offices are concerned there has not been any great demand for inches. Therefore being not in a position to donate ourselves no matter how much we would desire to do so, we had at no time an opportunity to call a tune. If we called a tune we certainly would have had to pay the fiddler for doing so. Therefore the columns of this paper have been wide open to all to state their case without running into counter editorials.

In the gubernatorial contest, personally, we have well defied ideas and pronounced opinion and regret very much the fact that for a newspaper man, the exigencies of the situation forbade our active participation via are newspaper route.

Men and measures, however, should at all times receive the serious thought and consideration of the people and summing up the accmplishments and what the various nominees stand for. It is easy indeed to make up the mind as to the candidate of your choice.

This is the voting that makes good governments worth while, when citizens study men and measures for themselves and likewise form their choice without waiting to be told how to vote or following blindly the dictation of others.

SHORTRIDGE THE MAN

We cannot go wrong when we express our sincere appreciation to a man or woman who has demonstrated their worth as the sincere and devoted friend of all the people, and we, of the Negro race, would indeed be ingrates should we fail in the least in our support of Senator Shortridge.

We want to say from our view of the situation, we can say to the Senator this morning, that we are with father Samuel 60,000 strong.

ROBERTS FOR RE-ELECTION

As a neighbor, friend and co-worker of a man whom we have the highest personal regard for, and a republican beyond peradventure, who has faithfully serve dthe district, we must pause to speak up for him and announce our fondest hope for his return to the Assembly, as a reward for his faithful service in the past.

Pres. Chamber of Commerce Speaks For Water and Power Bonds

Arthur S. Bent, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, in a statement isued yesterday, drew attention to the rapid rate at which this city's water and power requirements are increasing and strongly urged that the people authoribe the proposed water and power bonds at the August 31st primary election as the only means of developing additional water and power resources and facilities now needed by industries and homes in this area.

Mr. Bent pointed out that both the Water Bureau and the Power Bureau are self-sustaining municipal utilities and will meet all interest and principal charges on the bonds from the'r own earnings, without any cost whatever to the taxpayers.

"Both the $10,000.00 water bond issue and the $11,000,000 power bond issue have been approved and endorsed by the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce," stated Mr. Bent. "This endorsement was given after a careful and detailed study of the needs of the City with regard to additional water and power supplies and facilities.

"Investment of bond money, from time to time, to help finance additional water and power supplies as required by the people of Los Angeles is essential to the progress and prosperity of our city. Such investments of bond money are an orderly and businesslike procedure in expanding the City's water and power systems. and developing additional supplies of these necessities, as required.

"The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in endorsing the bond issues, feels, and I personally am convinced, that these bonds are necessary at this time; and the work thus to be financed should be carried forward without delay.

"Our City is in the business of supplying its citizens with water, power and light. If Los Angeles' increasing water, power and light requirements are to be met, and this city's continued expansion and prosperity thus supported, we must provide for the development of this vital resources through the issuance of bonds.

"Our Water Bureau and our Power Bureau are both self-supporting utilities. Therefore, it will cost the taxpayers nothing to approve the proposed water and power bonds. All charges on these bonds, as provided in our new City Charter, are paid from earnings of the Water and Power Bureaus, and not from taxes."

Mr. Bent is a member of Bent Brothers, Inc., a construction firm which recently completed the building of the Exchequer Dam on the Merced River in California. This dam, one of the largest water storage structures ever built in this state, has created a reservoir capable of storing 280,000 acre feet of water for the Merced Irrigation project.

Judge Stephens was elected at the primaries the last time he was candidate, scoring a three thousand majority over his nearest opponent. He has qualified his friends point out, by serving in every department of the Superior Court and his record has brought him recognition as one of the leading jurists of the state.

William T. Craig and Ida May Adams, two of the leading attorneys of Los Angeles are chairmen of his general campaign committee and his women's campaign committee, respectively. Raymond A. Nelson, campaign manager, declares that the enthusiasm for Judge Stephens is county wide and that if all of the jurist's friends will go to the polls on election day, his re-election at the primaries is assured.

Among the endorsements received by Judge Stephens are: Bar Association; Blackstone Club; California Jewish Voice; Central Labor Council; City Attorneys' Association; Civic Endeavor Association; Colored Non-Partisan League; Figueroa Business Men's Association; Hoover Street Business Men's Association; Jugoslav Central League; Lorena Heights Club; Los Angeles County Council United Veterans of the Republic; Public Welfare League; Southwest Improvement Association; State Building Trades Council; The Civic Federation of Los Angeles County; Twelfth District Civic League and by many political organizations.

Mrs. Bethune did not thank the Governor for his appointment of Negroes to any position, notwithstanding the fact that he has had appointed three members of the race to the Harbor Commission employment.

Barnes For Supervisor Endorsed By German-American League

Representing a federation of thirty-eight German Societies with 40,- registered voters in Los Angeles, the German-American League has given its endorsement to Councilman A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, 3rd District, according to a statement of his campaign committee.

Barnes' supporters claim that despite the lateness of his entrance into the race, his candidacy is rapidly wod Republican Club, the following resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing Mr. Barnes:—

"It is most important to the citizens and taxpayers of this District to have a representative as Supervisor in whom we can place the fullest confidence as to honesty, integrity and ability. Therefore, be it Resolved, that this organization does hereby endorse the candidacy of A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, and be it further resolved that we do everything within our power to help in electing Mr. Barnes."

she had listened attentively to his address.

The statement that Dr. Hudson dorse the Governor's candidacy after made, viz., that Mrs. Bethune praised the Governor for what he SHOULD HAVE DONE is not alone an INSULT to this leader of the Women's Federated Clubs of America, who in her absence from our community is without an opportunity to defend herself or reiterate the statements that she made on that occasion, but is also an insult to the intelligence of the leaders of the Women's Clubs of California and to those present on that occasion. There is no doubt but that the actions of Dr. Hudson will have a tendency to cement and unite the women, not alone of Los Angeles, but of the whole State, in carrying out the advice and counsel given them by our most capable leader in America today.

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23.—An unknown white man was badly injured in an affray that occurred between him and a colored man on Sunday night last at the corner of 9th and Hemlock streets. Parties who witnessed the affair say it began when the white man asked the Negro about two colored women he had just escorted home from church. He was left bleeding and unconscious by the other combantant who escaped without anyone learning his identity.

JUDGE LANGDON HIGHLY COMMENDED

Former Chief Justice, F. M. Angellotti: Judge Langdon is one of the ablest jurists we have in California."

Former Associate Justice Max C. Aloas: "Judge Langdon has an integrity and a capacity that makes him stand out as one of the best judges we have in our higher courts. It is to be hoped that California will not fail to avail itself of the opportunity of placing so valuable a man on the Supreme bench."

Superior Judge J. C. Needham, successor to Judge Langdon on the Superior Court bench in Stanislaus County, and former member of Congress, representing a district in which San Diego once was included: "I strongly favor Judge William H. Langdon for promotion to the Supreme Court. His ability, integrity, experience and especially his aptitude for dispatch of work, will make him an ideal member of our highest court."

Mayor James Rolph, Jr., of San Francisco: "It is encouraging that a man and jurist of Judge Langdon's character and ability will seek a place o nthe Supreme bench. He is exceptionally fitted for higher judicial responsibilities."

R. M. Fitzgerald of Oakland, one of the leaders of the California Bar: "Judge Langdon has in unusual degree the true judicial temperament which may be relied on at all time to do fair and impartial justice."

Judge Langdon was formally received by adjournment of the Superior Court in San Diego, Monday and introduced by the judges to the two score attorneys before the bar. In one of the courtrooms, an attorney, an ex-judge, six feet four inches tall, with a foot resting on a chair, was arguing as Judge Langdon entered. "You reminded me of Abraham Lincoln, and I am sorry to have interrupted your address," said the judge. "I am from Sangamon County in Illinois," replied the attorney proudly. "My father left there in 1856 when he came to California," replied Judge Langdon. An exchange of Lincoln stories followed. It developed that Judge Langdon's father, during his lifetime, was one of the corroborating authorities for the story of the farmer who at the White House thirty years afterward asked Lincoln what he did with a whetstone he used while scything hay for the farmer, and the President remembered placing it on top of a high gatepost, where it was found when the farmer returned home. Judge Langdon's father, in his youth, was a neighbor of the farmer who never gave up in his effort to recover a good whetstone, and had a letter from him telling of the White House incident.

Virginians Lynch Man

(By A. N. P.)

Wytheville, Va., Aug. 26.—A mob of masked men stormed the county jail here Sunday morning and shot to death Raymond Bird, held for an alleged attack on a white girl several months ago. The men are said to have got into the jail by calling the jailer out front and covering him with their shotguns. They then entered the prison and killed Bird in his cell, afterwards taking him out and hanging him to a tree.

France To Use Motion Pictures to Check Slavery and Cannibalism

(By A. N. P.)

Paris, France, Aug. 25.—A curious gathering has just been held in this city which brought together some of the great names of France, in the name of the committee whose work is the abolition of slavery, and which was founded by Georges Rostaing, ex-commissioner of the merchant marine and colonial explorer.

Despite the general ignorance of Frenchmen and Europeans on slavery, there are slaves in many different parts of the world. In Africa, especially, the rival tribes capture the would-be martyrs, the dying, and defeated, and make slaves of them. Slavery might be said to be the function of cannibalism there.

But the question has so far remained in the domain of colonial history. The committee in France which has the subject at heart has abandoned impractical theories regarding it, and organised an expedition to Africa, which is to get busy within a few weeks. Its task will be to bring back all documents and other information which will enable them to begin by the most practical immediate means the end of the present traffic in slaves. The aim is to create a powerful international public opinion on the subject.

In his book, "Towards the Nile," General Baratier has traced some atrocious pictures. He writes:

"Dango is an important market, provisions abound there, except meats. Sheep are preciously kept in order to be exchanged for slaves who will be fattened and eaten, because human flesh is more savory."

To be exact, they breed human live stock. Further on, Baratier says:

"The lot of a slave here is truly frightful. It is the cattle which is not eaten; the slave counts much less than a chicken and his death means nothing."

It is said that one of the daughters of the Duchess d'Uzes was found dead at the home of a friend whose she had gone to seek the remains of another friend who had been slain and eaten.

Rev. L. B. Brown Tries To Pluck Eyes From Soaring Eagle

Stung to the quick by the publication of the article on the supposedly Negro Exposition(which in reality was nothing more than the cheapest of cheap Carnivals) in our last issue, anent the connection of one who styles himself as Rev. L. B. Brown, this self same "sky pilot" pounced upon the editor of this paper near Spring and Fourth streets last Monday morning to engage him in physical combat.

We are free to admit that the gentleman representing the cloth by his audacity caught us momentarily off our guard, got his fingers in our mouth, scratched our face and clawed at our eyes before we could turn on the power; and as a result of the assault we have had one blood-shot eye and some facial scratches for some days.

Further, we are sure that if there was one lingering doubt of the truthfulness of the story published, that doubt has now disappeared like the baseless fabric of a vision. For no man would, for one moment resort to taking the law into his own hands as this one, unless he had been stung. Lies don't hurt, but the truth, when it hits the mark, cuts not unlike a sabre.

This REVEREND GENTLEMAN used such profane language in threatening the life of the editor that we cannot, and would not, soil these pages by attempting even to abbreviate what he said.

We have a written statement from him since this incident, asking the editor to retract, that he has proof that we have wronged him.

What we want to say is, that we play no favorites and whenever he proves to us that we are wrong and he is right, we will be glad to retract, but until then there is nothing doing. The very fact that we were on the right track has been furnished in the acts which speak louder than words.

Threats don't scare this editor by a long shot, and as to the crude street fighting, we will leave that to the PARSON, with an abiding faith that we can defend ourselves at any stage of the game—if not attacked cowardly.

Even though we called a name in our article of last issue, we meant to be wholly impersonal; we ourselves count for nothing, our objective is to eternally put a stop to RACE EXPLOITATION and MISREPRESENTATION. We thought then, and think now, that the race was MISUSED in the premises spoken of and did not hesitate then, or even now, to denounce the procedure of the confessed head of the same.

We know that it makes the road hard for future efforts if it is true that the City Council finds out that it was imposed upon in putting up miles of decorations just for a CARNIVAL.

What we said about GAMBLING GAMES must have been true, for the place was RAIDED last Saturday night and more than a score of arrests were made; they plead GUILTY to conducting GAMBLING GAMES and were FINED.

The Negro Business League at its meeting on last Thursday evening passed drastic resolutions denouncing the misrepresentation and appointed a committee to wait upon the City Council, the Mayor, etc. The universal sentiment among real race leaders is that we have been HUMBUGGED; we are still of the same opinion. Holding this opinion we cannot do otherwise than to keep hewing to line let the chips fall where they may. We are trying to be law-abiding, and if wronged must look to the law. If we could be forced to desist in our onward course by assaults and threats on our personal self we would be unworthy indeed, to occupy the position we hold as Editor of "The Soaring Eagle."

The Yakomas, pushed by hunger killed and ate a French adjutant.

To do away with hunger in Africa is to lessen slavery.

The expedition of M. Rostaing will penetrate to the heart of that frightful land, it will film, without a disturbing sensibility as to the causes, the worst scenes in which they will assist; this unic motion pictures already obtained is expected to provoke a movement that will be epic in its proportions.

MINISTERS' ALLIANCE ENDORSES TYLER

As the 73rd Assembly District fight draws to a close the nomination of Attorney Willis O. Tyler is conceded, by all those conversant with district politics.

Attorney Tyler closes his campaign with the hearty approval of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Los Angeles City. The approval of his candidacy was voted Monday morning, and all the ministers of the various denominations pledged themselves to urge his election at the polls, for the good of the group, and for recognition of the eminent services Attorney Tyler has rendered the many pastors in litigation over property matter, as a speaker at public meetings, and in incorporating churches, gaining refunds on tax assessments, etc.

Attorney Tyler goes to the polls with the endorsement of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance; Republican League of 312 Alexandria Hotel; the Central Labor Council of 540 South Maple Avenue; the Progressive Alliance of the City Club Building; the Women's Progressive Club; the Los Angeles City Council of the U. V. R.; the N. A. A. C. P.; the Women's Community League and the German-American Association, besides personal endorsements too numerous to publish, coming from friends in every walk of life, congratulating him on the clean-cut manner in which he has made his campaign, based solely upon the vital issues now confronting the people of the district.

Attorney Tyler is thanking those who have interested themselves in his campaign, says he approaches the coming Primary with a grave sense of the growing responsibility that now confronts the citizens of this community in the field of politics. Those now here, will be doubled in numbers in the next ten or fifteen years, and the one safeguard to the gate that opens into the economic, civil and political equalities of our city, is the ballot box. Everybody is urged to vote on August 31st, for candidates cannot be elected with god wishes, it takes the vote of every citizen in the district to decide who are to be the Party's standard bearers.

GIRL WAITS FOR HER ATTACKER

(By A. N. P.)

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 27.—According to a story printed in the Commercial-Appeal of this city, Miss Billie Hollis, 19-year-old white girl, was criminally assaulted by two colored bandits who held her and her escort up at midnight. One of the men was large and the story tells how the girl is alleged to have waited for the second bandit while the first went to get him. Following the Appeal's description of the attack:

"Forcing the young woman to get out of the car, according to her story and that of Richards, the big Negro handed his pistol to his companion and led her away. Returning to the car in a few minutes, Richards declared the big Negro took the gun and stood guard while the other [illegible] went where the girl had been taken.

EAGLE EDITOR ELECTED 2ND VICE-PRESIDENT

Philadelphia, Pa., (Special)—After having deliberated for three days, the National Negro Press Association adjourned in this city Saturday noon. Chicago will entertain them February 10, 11, 12, 1927. Benjamin Jefferson Davis was elceted President. The Constitution was so amended as to admit Periodicals, Newspapers and Magazines, these to be represented at the Association by properly-accredited messengers from the various publications.

An "Address to the Country" was delivered, full of pep, making certain specific requests of the American people, setting forth grievances that were not shadows, and at the same time, complimenting the American people for certain adjustments of wrongs that had hitherto existed.

Two women were added to the official family. Many social courtesies were shown by the Philadelphia people. The Sesqui-Centennial officers were hosts to the quill-pushers during their session. Phildelphia gave one reception and one public meeting. The dean or nestor of journalism was a conspicuous figure throughout the week. Twenty-one accomplishments presented by the secretary of the Association as the work of the organization, were plainly set forth and clearly demnostrated.

How She Arose From Obscurity To Staardom

But Madam Sul-Te-Wan was not destined to remain in obscurity. Her popularity as a little actress soon spread abroad.

In her own estimation, her one and only handicap was her name and after she had successfully filled several vaudeville acts in her own town, and state, calls began to come in from other sections of the country.

But Madam Sul-te-Wan was no longer looked upon as the vivacious little black beauty about the place, she was waxing rapidly into womanhood along with being the stage scream of her section, the little lady was the center of attraction for all the young men in the community who were seeking wives of fortune and fame.

THE SUMMER COLD

This affection is very prevalent just now and it manifests itself in many different ways. A large number have cold in their throats, tonsilitis, pharyugitis and other local affections with others the lungs are affected and heavy deep chest colds develop. Still others are attacked in the covering of the lungs, thus causing a severe pleurisy. Many of these deep seated colds are leaving permanent sequellar which are serious.

HOW TO PREVENT COLDS

The prevention of colds is much easier than their cure. Many and many a case of tuberculosis has started from one severe cold. For this reason it behooves us to consider carefully the prevention of every respiratory and tonsilar disease.

A few rules carefully adhered to will increase the body's resistance and greatly decrease the probability of taking colds.

1. You perspire more freely in the summer. Dried perspiration clogs the pores and decreases your elimination. Very frequent bathing is necessary to prevent this condition. At least one bath a day for the whole body is necessary in hot weather in order to keep the eliminating properties of the skin in 100% condition.

2. The bowels must move every day freely. This should be regulated by diet. If you do not have natural movements go to a reliable doctor and find out why you suffer from constipation. Just this may save your life for it is hard to contract any disease when the bowels move freely, thus carrying off poison.

3. The kidneys must be flushed well. Poisons store up in the liver, kidneys, spleen and bladder are reabsorbed and poison the body. This can be prevented by drinking copiously of water or fruit joices between meals. Water is cheap and drinking it freely saves many doctor's bills.

4. What we eat makes us, weaker or stronger. More susceptable to colds or less so. No one should eat heavy foods in hot weather. One pork dinner may be your ruination. If you value your life during this hot weather stay absolutely away from all parts of the hog.

5. In-door life breeds colds. Get out-doors as much as possible. Leave off night life. Live out-doors.

"JYES' TELL 'EM WE'S RISIN"

By: WILLIAM PICKENS

(For the Associated Negro Press)

About two generations ago a little bright-eyed black boy, named R. R. Wright, was a student in the early grades of Atlanta University. A northern white visitor who was speaking to the school audience asked what message he should carry back to the friends in te north who were supporting the institution. The ambitious little black child, with the smile on his face which has been characteristic of him for 50 years since, held up his hand and shouted out of his soul: 'Jes' tell 'em we's risin'!"

That was a true word and a prophecy. This human being has been rising ever since, and his race has risen with him. He became a teacher, a leader of his people and of his state, president of the Georgia State College for Negroes,—and after doing about all that any black man would be permitted to do in Georgia, he had sense and grit enough to move away to Philadelphia, Pa., where the improvement over Georgia civilization would permit him to do a bit more. Today he is founder and president of the Citizens and Southern Bank and Trust Company at 19th and South Streets, and his institution is designated as a "City Depository."

This is the kind of black man who will ultimately confound any effort to keep black people in an inferior status. He has even raised a family to good repute and good works, one of whom, R. R. Wright, Jr., is his strongest business partner and is nationally known as a scholar, an editor and a church leader.

This would be a noteworthy achievement for any white man in America who started out poor and of a poor family. For a black man, handicapped by persistent opposition, it is a marvelous achievement. It takes more brains and character to be a successful black man than to be a successful white man in a country with a color line dominated by whites. If Wright could achieve this by breaking open closed dors, what might he not have achieved if all dors had been open to him? Suppose that every political office in Georgia, up through the Governorship, had been open to him—suppose every business position in Atlanta and every corporation office on Wall Street had been as impartially subject to his attainment as to that of the white boys who were born in the year when he was born—with the same energy and character and courage and sweat, where would Wright be today?

With his white hair, his evidently sound constitution, his enthusiasm and his bright mind, R. R. Wright, Sr., seems to us to belong equally to the past and the present.

Treasury Robbed; Klan Yields Charter

(By A. N. P.)

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 24.—The local body of the Ku Klux Klan, one of the largest in the state, has surrendered its charter. Many reasons are given for the disbandment, but the paramount one, given out by those on the inside, is that a good brother who has acted as treasurer for several terms "went south" with four thousand dollars of the treasury.

TO GIVE AWAY 100 ACRES

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23.—Geo. W. Bright, a retired city fireman, and one of the oldest colored firemen of the department, has been in possession of one hundred acres of land for some time which he obtained some years ago as government land. He is to give it all away shortly in one-acre tracts to ex-soldiers.

Attack Negro Homes In Chicago

(By A. N. P.)

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Homes of Negroes in the Maxwell Street District on the West side of Chicago were the objects of attacks by white residents Wednesday night. Police say that the whites were angered when Negroes encroached beyond a line which the whites had agreed among themselves was far enough for the colored citizens to go. An automobile belonging to a colored man, Robert Woodman, was destroyed, and flaming rag-wrapped bricks were thrown through the windows of the home of George Williams, a blind veteran of the World War. One girl was seriously hurt. Firemen extinguished the flames and police retsored order, guards being placed around several houses occupied by Negroes.

The Maxwell Street district is often referred to as "The Ghetto." It is very thickly populated with Jewish tradesmen, and poor foreigners. It is a great market center. In the last few years many Negroes have moved into the district, most of the incoming from the south. It was there that William Bell was lynched three years ago.

COMPLAINS OF DEATH THREAT

(By A. N. P.)

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Frank Keenan, White, a veteran actor, starred in the play "Black Velvet," has turned over to postal authorities, a letter threatening him with death if he does not leave town immediately and close up his play. Inclosed in the letter to Keenan was a clipping, praising the actor's work in "Black Velvet," but condemning the play. The letter purported to express the view of "28,500 Negroes" and warned Keenan that he would be shot on sight. He has hired several detectives to guard him.

Last week the Chicago Defender and the Chicago Whip both directed attacks against the play "Black Velvet," holding that it was an insult to the Negro race worse than the "Birth of a Nation." The attack of the Whip was especially spirited, but gave due credit to Keenan's work as an actor.

MRS. A. A. YANCY RETURNS

Mrs. Alice Yancy, widow of the late Arthur Yancy, has just returned from a five weeks' trip taking in the cities of Oakland, thence to Seattle, where she attended the mortgage burning in the church for [illegible] by Dr. W. D. Carter, now of Friendship Baptist Church, Tacoma. After leaving Seattle she visited Vancouver and Tacoma, Washington, taking a side trip to the Shasta Springs where she partook of the cool and refreshing spring water. She greatly enjoyed many beautiful sights long to be remembered. Since the death of her husband she has been greatly depressed which necessitated a change and for that reason she took a five weeks vacation, returning feeling much revived and elated over her extended visit.

Three Campaign ISSUES

ONLY THREE

Three Clean Cut Issues—only three—have a bearing upon the election of a Governor for the State of California.

Clever Politicians have attempted to befog these issues by building up smoke screens to draw the public's attention away from these real campaign issues.

1 Economy and Efficiency

Should we have four more years of economical, Efficient, Sane, Constructive State Government or revert to the old spoils system with reckless waste of public funds?

Governor Richardson has made good his campaign pledges of economy and efficiency. He has supported Civil Service, appointed the highest type of judges, retained only competent employees, without regard to politics. Administration of corrective and humanitarian institutions has been improved, and corrupt campaign practices have been abolished.

2 Law and Order

Shall we continue a regime of law and order in California, punishing adequately all guilty or be governed by sob-sisters, sentimentalists, Reds, enemiss of Americanism, gunmen and bootleggers?

Governor Richardson has increased respect of California by enforcement of law and support of the Constitution. He issues no pardons on account of popular clamor. He enforces convicts' sentences. Educational expenditures have increased 58.3 per cent during his administration.

3 An Administration not controlled by Big Bosses and Big Interests

Shall we continue an administration by a Governor possessing backbone, courage and decision or or shall we surrender our state government to the control of the political bosses of the two big California cities and the boss representing the disgruntled professional job holders thrown out of office for incompetency by Governor Richardson.

Fearless, unswerving in duty, and independent, Governuor Richardson stands for every possible aid to farmers, good roads, justice to war heroes, and a fair deal for labor. He opposes official favors to gain political support and has eliminated the political bosses—Tom Finn, Kent Parrot and Al McCabe—from control of the state government.

Do You Want A Sane, Businesslike Administration
Or A Government By Political Bosses?

Judge Wm. Hazlett For Judge Superior Court

Judge William Hazlett, a candidate to succeed himself as Judge of the Superior Court, is endorsed by other judges of the Superior Court, who hope to see him returned to the bench.

Judge Hazlett for many years has been a prominent and well-thought-of lawyer in this county, receiving the appointment as judge at the hands of Governor Richardson because of his unblemished record as an attorney, and his unusual ability in legal matters.

Judge Sidney N. Reeve, one of the oldest Superior Court Judges, said today: "When Judge Hazlett was practicing law, he was an attorney in a case tried before me which took eleven weeks. Never during that time did I see Judge Hazlett lose his temper or his quiet and dignified demeanor, and at no time did he ever take advantage of a technicality or in any way present his evidence or question a witness in any but the fairest and most praiseworthy manner, and I recognized at that time that he was of a judicial temperament, and should be on the bench. I was therefore glad when he was appointed, and I feel sure he will be elected by the people."

A. P. Allerga Answers Dr. H. C. Hudson

No wecomes Dr. H. C. Hudson, the energetic President of the N. A. A. C. P. in the issue of the California Eagle under date of August 20th, challenging the assertion that Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune endorsed the candidacy of Governor Richardson for re-election, and mis-quoting what Mrs. Bethune had actually said, and in addition thereto, the Doctor upbraides the Governor for not appointing my old time friend E. B. Cessil to one of the municipal judgeships.

Dr. Hudson is a bright young man, full of energy, pep and eloquence but I must confess he is equally as full of inaccuracies when it comes to stat-

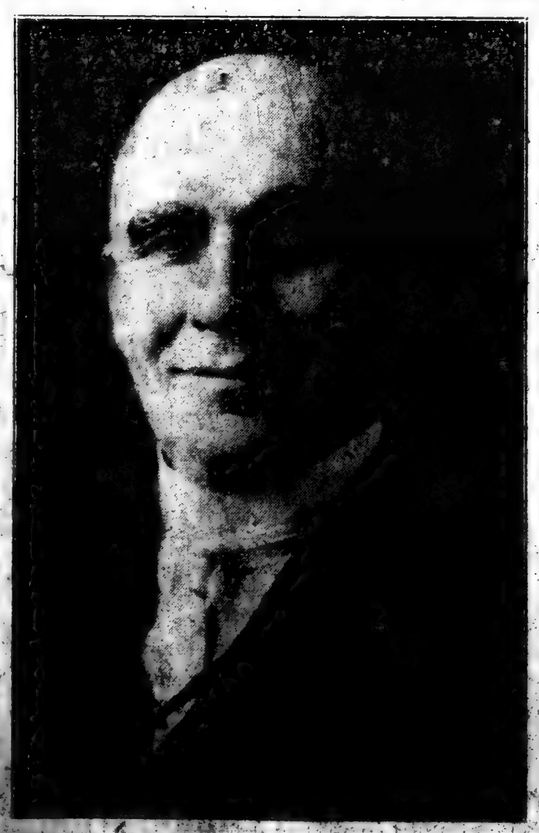
Shortridge

UNITED STATES

Senator



"It has been said that American citizenship is a BADGE OF HONOR. It is my hope and desire that it shall be a SHIELD OF PROTECTION to the citizens of every race and color."—Senator Shortridge in presenting the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill to the Senate.

The Hon. JAMES WELDON JOHNSON, National Executive Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., under date of March 10, 1926, wrote as follows: "Senator Shortridge did all he could when the (Dyer Anti-Lynching) Bill was up in the Senate. However, he did not get the support that he was entitled to."

Hon. Walter L. Cohen, Controller of Customs at the Port of New Orleans, La., whose appointmnt was contested by Southern Senators for more than a year, says: "Senator Shortridge's earnest support of me for confirmation as Controller of Customs at New Orleans, in the face of the opposition of the two Senators from my State who resorted to the long established custom of the United States Senate to recognize the "Personal Objection" of a Senator, has placed me under much obligation to him. His record on the Anti-Lynching Bill should cause every member of our Race to give him their support."

Prof. Kelly Miller—ex-Dean of Howard Univer sity, the man on the watchtower, always observing the attitude and conduct of the legislators who meet at the National Capitol, and scrutinizing every race measure coming under their consideration, writes: "I have been especially interested in his (Shortridge's) attitude on human rights as they relate to the Colored Race, and have found that he stands firm where many of our be lieved friends are inclined to deviate and to Dodge. The management of the Dyer Bill in the Senate was well placed upon the willing shoulders of Senator Short ridge, while the Republican Veterans shirked the responsibility. It is well known here that the party leaders were playing a cheap game of politics with a great moral measure. But not so with Senator Shortridge. He fought for the success of the measure with all of the honesty and ardor of his nature, while other Republic ans contrived with the Democrats to encompass its defeat."

Attorney E. Burton Ceruti—Of Los Angeles, ardent advocate of human rights, says: "With the possible exception of California, Senator Shortridge is recognized in every State of the Union as our authorized spoksman in the Senate, and the outstanding champion of Negro rights at the Capitol."

DR. JNO. WILLIS BAER MAKES APPEAL

Dr. John Willis Baer, former president of Occidental College issuded a formal appeal this week to all Republicans in the Ninth Congressional District, urging that they unite on Harold B. Landreth of Pasadena for representative in Congress.

"Landreth is a straightforward Republican who will support the Administration," Dr. Baer declared. "Because he is a Republican he is an advocate of an adequate protective tariff on all California products. He has been an advocate of the development of the Colorado river since the first time the project was presented to a state American Legion when Lan- was a member of the resolutions committee that urged the project.

"He is unequivocal for the upholding of the 18th Amendment and Volstead Act. He has a personal as well as general interest in mountain development, fire prevention and flood control. Landreth is the only man in the Ninth District race who has the courage, the friend-making qualities, the ability, and the backing to unite all shades of opinion within the party, and put an end to bickering and controversy. Landreth is the only Republican in the race who can beat the Democrat, Charles H. Randall, in the final election."

BAR ASSOCIATION ENDORSES JUDGES

The problem of voting for the judiciary of Los Angeles County is no longer a conjecture, if voters in this district will take to the polls with them, August 31, the list of candidates published in our announcement elsewhere in this issue, that have received the approval of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, according to information from John W. Kemp, Chairman of the Judiciary Campaign Committee.

The Association consits of more than 2000 lawyers, and a candidate to qualify for the indorsement must have registered in his favor more than 75% of the votes cast from the membership.

Mr. Kemp feels that voters everywhere are interested in having the best man elected to a judicial position, and members of the Bar Association are of the opinion that their daily contact with judges places them in a position to familiarize themselves with judges' qualifications.

Below unpronounced sketch of their qualifications follow:

CHARLES S. BURNELL—Appointed assistant city attorney in 1913, served 6 years. Graduate of Stanford University. Special County Council, in charge of flood control district one year. HON. JESSE W. CURTIS FAVORED FOR SUPREME COURT

Reports from every section of California indicate that Judge Jesse W. Curtis, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California and candidate to succeed himself at the primaries will receive the largest poll of Negro votes than any of the other candidates running for the Supreme Court Bench.

This indication was made public today by H. E. Mutchler, secretary of the Curtis Campaign Committee after tabulations of the colored voters had been submitted by estimators. Although there was no official stamps on this estimation the hearty letters and other forms of endorsements being received daily at the Curtis Headquarters from prominent Negroes throughout California point to a sweeping majority in his favor.

Judge Curtis is well known to the California colored people in general and to the Southland Negroes in particular. His high integrity and unbiased decisions on the bench have made him a favorite with the Negroes in every section of California.

Only recently a large and enthusiastic demonstration was given in behalf of the Justice when he visited the Southland for the first time since taking the oath of office recently Many of the most prominent clergymen, lawyers, doctors and other professional Negroes in the Southland have announced their intentions of supporting Justice Curtis at the primaries the 31st inst.

PRATT OPPOSES THE BUILDING OF SAN GABRIEL DAM

"I am opposed to the construction of San Gabriel Dam, because the City of Los Angeles is receiving no direct benefit, will pay 70 per cent of the $35,000,000 cost of construction. I feel that the entire Flood Control Program of Los Angeles County should be reviewed at once by competent outside engineers, and that the County should aid in the construction of those major storm drain projects within the City, that handle County flood control water."

This is the statement of Alvaro Pratt, candidate for Supervisor from the Third District. "I feel," he continued, "that if the City of Los Angeles is to spend any such high sum as this Flood Contrel Dam would involve, that the money would be far better applied to the construction of streets and the maintenance of existing traffic thoroughfares to relieve the terrible conjestion that is holding up the growth and affecting the prosperity of the City of Los Angeles."

THE BETTER SUFFRAGE LEAGUE IN ACTION

Buron Fitts, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of California has been endorsed by the Better Suffrage League of which Dr. J. A. Somerville is president; J. Thomas Norris, vice-president; Walter Gordon, secretary; H. A. Reeves, treasurer, with offices at 3317 Central avenue.

Judge Westover Receives Endorsement of Many Organizations

Judge Myron ——— Low Municipal Judge and running for the Superior Court, long term, has been the fortunate recipient not only of the endorsement of the Central Labor Council, but the Bar Associatoe have also added their approval by placing his name among one of the three whom they have chosen as the last plebecite.

The Westlake Republican League, the United Veterans, and the Municipal League and Civic League are a few of the other organizations who have added their stamp of approval to one of California's ablest Jurists.

Byron Westover, who is a graduate of the Michigan University, Law Department, and former member of the U. S. C. College of Law faculty, received the highest grade in the Civil Service examination for County Council under the new County Charter.

In 1915 he was made trial deputy City Attorney and advisory to the Board of Education, Police, Fire and other Commissions. Since then, he has been doing judicial work, conducting hearings and writing decisions for the Railroad Commission in Public Utility matters all over the State. In February of this year, he was appointed by the Governor as Municipal Judge, after receiving the highest average on the questionaire sent by the Chief Executive to a selected list of attorneys.

Judge Westover's campaign committee consists of over 300 prominent citizens under the leadership of Mrs. George Veach Wright, Executive Secretary.

Dr. Von Kleinsmid of the University of Southern California, Dr. Walter Dexter of Occidental, Dr. Ramsey D. Bird, Dr. George F. Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Noel, head the very unusual list.

This district comprises the entire city of Watts, South of North Boundary lines. Our voters will make no error in voting for Mr. Brown. He lives in Compton. All the other candidates hail from Long Beach which has had the Assemblyman for many years. It is fair and just to elect Brown. Whose record in the Legislature shows him to stand for the Wage Earner, the home owner, rights of women and ALL the people, not a FEW greedy exploiters.

Senator Lewis believes that GOOD WAGES make a prosperous nation. He has always been for the high Boulder Dam, All-American Canal ad Metropolitan water and power bill. He refers you to such well-known citizens as Dr. Geo. Taylor, Dr. Somerville, C. C. Flint, Wm. Boone, A. J. Haynes.

Senator Lewis, was born and raised a REPUBLICAN, but is NOT a YES MAN, and takes no orders from selfish interests.

Race Lawyers Endorse Judge Walton H. Wood

Judge Walton J. Wod was the first poor man's lawyer. In 1914, he established the office of Public Defender in Los Angeles, the first in the United States. His duties were to protect the poor and defenseless, and so well did he serve in this capacity that the people elected him Judge of the Superior Court.

The work of Judge Woods on the Superior Court Bench has always shown a great carefulness on his part in protecting the rights of the weak, against the strong. Many colored people have litigated cases in his Court, and have always had decisions based upon their merits, and for this reason, he is highly recommended to the voters for the August Primary.

WORTHY OF HIGHEST CONSIDERATION

No one is more deserving of the support of the readers of this journal than Judge Harry A. Holzer and along with others, tried and true, we ask for your earnest consideration for a man who will stand every test, and that man is Judge Harry A. Holzer.

PROVED THEIR WORTH

Speaking of Judges, our readers will not soon forget such stalwart friends of all the people as Judge Albert Lee Stephens, Charles S. Burnell, Crail and Valentine.

THE BETTER SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

The Better Suffrage League embryo political organization, which is composed of many of our leading citizens, has our best wishes for a fulfilment of its pronounced ideals.

We say this despite the fact that upon the proposition of the bond issue we are at variance with the organization.

We cannot see wherein we could justify ourselves in opposing the things which stand for our very existence and where it means to sacrifice our standing as progressive citizens and in the end we have accomplished nothing whatever to cure our ills.

Therefore we will depart from the Suffrage League upon this issue. We are in the main with it on almost all other contentions.

TYLER FOR THE ASSEMBLY

Despite the fact that these columns have been freely open to all contenders for Assembly honors, Eagle readers know only W. O. Tyler in the premises.

Mr. Tyler no doubt, will represent this district with rare ability and will bring forth things worth while for the 73rd district.

ALL CROOKS LOOK ALIKE TO US

A crooked preacher will have a harder time getting by the Searching Eye of the "Soaring Eagle" than any other sort of crook. In fact we will give them no quarter. The only way in which they can operate is to do so on the square. We march ahead on our campaign of pitiless publicity against them unafraid. The interest and standing of the race must be maintained at all hazards and in due time the crooked preacher will get in his proper place as a profligate desperado or bum. It matters not to us.

JOE CRAIL

It looks like a run away race for Congress in the 10th District with that intrepid, energetic friend of all the people, the Hon. Joe Crail, as the winner. He has clearly won this fight by his matchless genius and truly we believe with Joe Crail in Congress the old 10th District will be represented as never before.

BILL TRAEGER FOR SHERIFF

True to form the big, good natured Sheriff of Los Angeles County, William I. Treager, is making a record run and we miss our guess if he fails to go over in the primary. Yes we are all for big Bill Treager.

TUESDAY'S PRIMARIES

Tuesday night at 7:00 o'clock will bring to a close in some respects the most remarkable primary campaign ever held within the confines of the State. It has been so from the fact that for the major offices to be chosen that the contenders have not even had what is known as an organized effort behind them.

To select a candidate in the primary is personal to the candidate or in other words, it is a contest between factions. In this contest the factions have failed to perform as of yore. They have fallen short on even getting out propaganda to state their case.

This paper, as a rule, opens its columns for the various candidates or factions to state their case to just whatever extent they desire measured by inches in advertising space. But in so far as the major offices are concerned there has not been any great demand for inches. Therefore being not in a position to donate ourselves no matter how much we would desire to do so, we had at no time an opportunity to call a tune. If we called a tune we certainly would have had to pay the fiddler for doing so. Therefore the columns of this paper have been wide open to all to state their case without running into counter editorials.

In the gubernatorial contest, personally, we have well defied ideas and pronounced opinion and regret very much the fact that for a newspaper man, the exigencies of the situation forbade our active participation via are newspaper route.

Men and measures, however, should at all times receive the serious thought and consideration of the people and summing up the accmplishments and what the various nominees stand for. It is easy indeed to make up the mind as to the candidate of your choice.

This is the voting that makes good governments worth while, when citizens study men and measures for themselves and likewise form their choice without waiting to be told how to vote or following blindly the dictation of others.

JUDGE ALBERT LEE STEPHENS

Urging an eleventh hour whirlwind county wide campaign for the re-election of Presiding Judge Albert Lee Stephens at the August primaries, the Stephens-For-Judge campaign committee has sent a call throughout the County to all Judge Stephens' friends. This call is to advise friends and supporters of Judge Stephens that the only danger to the campaign committee's plan for primary election is over-confidence and every friend must work for the Judge steadily from now on until the primaries.

Pres. Chamber of Commerce Speaks For Water and Power Bonds

Arthur S. Bent, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, in a statement issued yesterday, drew attention to the rapid rate at which this city's water and power requirements are increasing and strongly urged that the people authoribe the proposed water and power bonds at the August 31st primary election as the only means of developing additional water and power resources and facilities now needed by industries and homes in this area.

Mr. Bent pointed out that both the Water Bureau and the Power Bureau are self-sustaining municipal utilities and will meet all interest and principal charges on the bonds from their own earnings, without any cost whatever to the taxpayers.

"Both the $10,000,00 water bond issue and the $11,000,000 power bond issue have been approved and endorsed by the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce," stated Mr. Bent. "This endorsement was given after a careful and detailed study of the needs of the City with regard to additional water and power supplies and facilities.

"Investment of bond money, from time to time, to help finance additional water and power supplies as required by the people of Los Angeles is essential to the progress and prosperity of our city. Such investments of bond money are an orderly and businesslike procedure in expanding the City's water and power systems, and developing additional supplies of these necessities, as required.

"The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, in endorsing the bond issues, feels, and I personally am convinced, that these bonds are necessary at this time; and the work thus to be financed should be carried forward without delay.

"Our City is in the business of supplying its citizens with water, power and light. If Los Angeles' increasing water, power and light requirements are to be met, and this city's continued expansion and prosperity thus supported, we must provide for the development of this vital resources through the issuance of bonds.

"Our Water Bureau and our Power Bureau are both self-supporting utilities. Therefore, it will cost the taxpayers nothing to approve the proposed water and power bonds. All charges on these bonds, as provided in our new City Charter, are paid from earnings of the Water and Power Bureaus, and not from taxes."

Mr. Bent is a member of Bent Brothers, Inc., a construction firm which recently completed the building of the Exchequer Dam on the Merced River in California. This dam, one of the largest water storage structures ever built in this state, has created a reservoir capable of storing 280,000 acre feet of water for the Merced Irrigation project.

Judge Stephens was elected at the primaries the last time he was candidate, scoring a three thousand majority over his nearest opponent. He has qualified his friends point out, by serving in every department of the Superior Court and his record has brought him recognition as one of the leading jurists of the state.

William T. Craig and Ida May Adams, two of the leading attorneys of Los Angeles are chairmen of his general campaign committee and his women's campaign committee, respectively. Raymond A. Nelson, campaign manager, declares that the enthusiasm for Judge Stephens is county wide and that if all of the jurist's friends will go to the polls on election day, his re-election at the primaries is assured.

Among the endorsements received by Judge Stephens are: Bar Association; Blackstone Club; Califirnia Jewish Voice; Central Labor Council; City Attorneys' Association; Civic Endeavor Association; Colored Non-Partisan League; Figueroa Business Men's Association; Hoover Street Business Men's Association; Jugoslav Central League; Lorena Heights Club; Los Angeles County Council United Veterans of the Republic; Public Welfare League; Southwest Improvement Association; State Building Trades Council; The Civic Federation of Los Angeles County; Twelfth District Civic League and by many political organizations.

ing facts. First, it is presumed Dr. Hudson must have received his information about the eloquent speech of Mrs. Bethune from a person who, like himself, was not present when the speech was made at Douglass Temple.

Mrs. Bethune did not thank the Governor for his appointment of Negroes to any position, notwithstanding the fact that he has had appointed three members of the race to the Harbor Commission employment.

The issuance of two permits to conduct boxing contests in the State.

The issuance of a concession in the Ferry Building at San Francisco to a disabled World War Veteran of our group; also, the very liberal and broad attitude that the real estate commissioner, Building & Loan Commissioner, the State Veterans' Welfare Board have shown in many of our group in the last three and a half years; secondly, Mrs. Bethune did she had listened attentively to his address.

The statement that Dr. Hudson dorse the Governor's candidacy after made, viz., that Mrs. Bethune praised the Governor for what he SHOULD HAVE DONE is not alone an INSULT to this leader of the Women's Federated Clubs of America, who in her absence from our community is without an opportunity to defend herself or reiterate the statements that she made on that occasion, but is also an insult to the intelligence of the leaders of the Women's Clubs of California and to those present on that occasion. There is no doubt but that the actions of Dr. Hudson will have a tendency to cement and unite the women, not alone of Los Angeles, but of the whole State, in carrying out the advice and counsel given them by our most capable leader in America today.

Gans Defeats Callahan

NEXT LIGHT-WEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD, BABY GANS, BEATS CALLAHAN IN THRILLING BATTLE

Packed from pit to dome and with hundreds standing, Doyle's Vernon Arena, scene of historic battles fought by the "Old Master", saw his name sake, Baby Joe Gans, uphold the famous name.

Two colorful gladiators, both hard hitters, both game and fast, there was never a better picked match than Mushy Callahan and Baby Joe Gans.

But Callahan must have been overestimated for Gans out-fought, outgeneraled, and out-punched him to a well earned decision. Gans was first to enter the ring as thousands of fans white and colored cheered wildly. They were introduced, the gong clanged and the fight began. And boy! boy! what a scrap. Gans led landing two straight lefts and pushing the fight. After less than half a minute rapid mixing, Callahan shot a hard right to Gans' jaw.

The blow whirled Gans across the ring and into the ropes. Groggy and badly shaken. Callahan tried his best to finsh him but using his head, Gans saved himself by clinching and covering till he could get his bearings, and partly recover.

In the second he was more careful and Callahan more confident, carrying the fight to Gans, but Gans had recovered and held him even.

In the third Mushy landed three hard lefts t oGans' wind but the game little fighter took them all and more than out pointed him the round through.

In the fourth Gans came out like a whirl wind chasing Mushy all over the ring knocking him half through the ropes and staggering, Gans hitting him with rights and lefts at will.

From then on Gans piled up his big lead till the referee raised his hand in the tenth, while the thousands of fans white and colored yelled, screamed and went wild long afterward.

Central Avenue was crowded with well wishers late in the night and an impromptu dinner and reception was held when Gans ate his supper at the Entertainers Cafe.

Matchmaker "Wad" Wadhams will undoubtedly sign the battlers for a return match. It's a cinch the house will be packed again. It was a whale of a scrap and there is no reason why the rematch shouldn't be even more exciting.

GIVES $100,000.00 TO Y. M. C. A.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Matthews of this city have just endowed the local branch (colored) of the Young Men's Christian Association with a fund of $100,000, the income from which, about $6,000 a year, is to be used in work among the colored population. The gift is said to have been made on the condition that the association enlarge its building plans in anticipation of a 100 per cent increase in the colored population of this city. A year ago, Mr. Matthews gave $25,000 to the building fund.

The donor is president of the Niagara Milling Co., Buffalo was one of the principal cities to increase its poplation as a result of the Negro exodus from the south, the workers being attracted to the industries here. For a long time very little of a social service nature was done for them.

DEMSEY'S NEW CHAMPIONSHIP

By: WILLIAM PICKENS
(For the Associated Negro Press)

Dempsey was Champion Boxer, then Champion Dodger, and now, according to Harry Wills, he has become the CHAMPION LIAR. Through all this rotten lying and dodging, on the part of the boxer and some members of the boxing commission, Wills has kept dignifiedly silent. But there comes a time when silence is a weakness, not a virtue.

It is time for all of us to speak plain language. Here goes: if Wills were Champion and Dempsey challenger, and the black champion had dodged the white challenger as much as Dempsey had dodged Wills, the Negro would have been uncrowned, not only by the New York Commission, but also by every other boxing authority in the New York Commission, but also by every other boxing authority in the Union, and there would not be a place left where he could box for an orphan's milk fund. Any such dodging black champion would have been called "yellow" in so many different dialects that he would stand as a disgrace to his entire race.

Harry Wills was not talking rashly when he questioned Dempsey's veracity. For example, Dempsey had the brazen face to say that for five years he has been trying to get Harry into the ring! We must at least compliment Dempsey's nerve; it certainly takes nerve to say publicly, boldly, and in big print something that everybody knows is untrue. Wills has been the one chasing Dempsey, since the memory of the fun runneth not to the contrary.

A few questions will make that clear? Has the boxing commission ever had to threaten Wills to try to make him contract with Dempsey? Has the commission ever had to order Wills to set a date for a bout with Dempsey? Has Wills ever forfeited $50,000 just to keep from meeting Dempsey? Has any promoter ever had to get an injunction against Wills to try to make him live up to contract to box Dempsey? Has Wills ever pretended, as Dempsey has pretended, that the lack of financial inducement stood in the way? Wills has been willing to leave all the money to Dempsey, if only Jack would fight. If money were the consideration to Harry, believe us, he could get more money by agreeing to "lie down" to Dempsey, or to sell out in some way, than he could ever get by licking Dempsey.

WOULD MATCH JOHNSON, CARPENTIER

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 25.—Promoter Dick Donald, impresario of big time mixed bouts at Ascot Park, has been wiring daily to Jack Johnson in order to match him against Georges Carpentier at Wrigley Field here next month. The two have never met though there were several attempts to bring them together in England some years ago when Jack was at the height of his career. The bout would probably draw the biggest crowd ever attending a fight in late years here.

Mrs. A. M. Brown, president of the State of Alabama Federated Women's Club and wife of Alabama's most prominent srgeuon, with Mrs. R. Nealey, also prominent in club work, Mrs. Nellie Green teacher and president of Oklahoma State with her newly wedded daughter-in-law, wife of Dr. J. H. Green, and also a teacher of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mrs. Paul A. Brothers on a sightseeing trip while in the city. They were house guests of Officer and Mrs. Homer Garrott.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Brothers, accompanied by their brother, Mr. Paul Brothers, left last Sunday for an extensive motor trip, planning stops and lengthy sojourn at Victoria, British Columbia.

Monarchs And Giants Deadlocked For Leadership On Foster Loop

AMERICAN GIANTS LEADING LEAGUE BY SCANT MARGIN—MONARCHS HANGING ON AND THREATENING TO DISPLACE THE FOSTERITES

(For The Associated Negro Press)

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 15.—The American Giants managed to hang onto the lead in the Foster lop the past week, but it was by work of the hardest kind. The Chicago pets journeyed to the lair of the Indianapolis A. B. C.'s and engaged the Bingoites in a five game series. They managed to win the first four games and then j nthe rush t ocatch a train, dropped the fifth and final tilt, 5-3. By losing this last game the Giants slipped back just 40 points towards second place. Kansas City is close on the heels of the leaders with a percentage at this time of .896 while the locals have a percentage at the close of the week of .917. The Giants have been depending on the other clubs to take a few games from Kaw Valley champions, but to date there doesn't seem to be any such animal as a game being taken from the Monarchs—excepting the Cubs who always get away with a game from the champs.

The Alverado Tennis Club, just two months old and whose members live in the Temple and Alverado streets neighborhood have already located a splendid tennis court site at 234 North Westlake Ave., and will soon get busy constructing a modern tennis court that all local club members will be invited to play on as soon as the new club becomes a member of the Western Federation of Tennis Clubs. On Friday, September 17th charter members Mack Murphy, Paul Smith and Alvin Scott will entertain the "North Westerners" with an elaborate house party to which their many friends will be invited.

QUESTIONAIRE

Q. What is the correct size of a tennis court?—Miss C. B. G.

A. A doubles court is 36 by 78 feet, the net posts should be 42 feet apart, the enclosure should be at least 50 feet wide by 100 feet long, and 60 by 100 feet for a standard championship court enclosure.

Q. How far did Ballinger Kemp go in the First Annual Los Angeles County Championships Tournament last Thanksgiving Day at Pasadena? Are there any names of players mentioned in the 1925 rankings who did not play in 1925? Why is David Sands ranked 2nd and Philip Davis 5th, etc?—R. W. G.

A Kemp played Eddie Myers two sets, winning the first 6-4 and defaulted the match in the second 6-6 because of pressing business in the city. All players mentioned played last year. Using champion Jimmy Stocks as guide, he is the only player who went through the two tournaments last year; Sands beat Stocks 7-5 in the first set and lost 6-2, 6-3, which is more than any other of Stocks' opponents have done since he began playing. Davis met defeat twice, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2, and 6-3, 6-1; 6-0. Alva Garrott 6-2, 6-2, against Stocks.

"THE CRUISE OF THE CHIAPAS"

By: S. Barron Brown

The trade possibilities between Liberia and American shippers and manufacturers are unlimited and most attractive. But in spite of the fact fact that (according to Professor Pittman) the Liberians are most anxious to establish a preferential trade with the United States, most every other white government of the world is represented and as yet very little trade with America has developed. American goods in large varieyt are much in demand and there seems to be no donubt that the Liberian Republic officially would welcome an expansion of trade with this country with especial reference to California grown and manufactured products. Not only does Liberia welcome American gods in competition with Europe's products, but she stands in need of the financial and moral encouragement and financial and moral encouragement and support which a closer relationshiu between the two nations would surely develop. As is the case with any growing concern whether individual or govrenmental, capital is needed, is most welcome, and can be assured of Protection. Professor Pittman has brought a challenge to the commercial enterprise of the United States to come and trade for and develop the great natural wealth of Liberia under the auspices which are favorable as any other on earth.

In view of th eforegoing trade resume it is especially creditable to Afro-Americans in general and to the organizers and sponsors of the Liberian Transportation S. S. and Excelsior Mining Company in particular that this company takes the initiative in establishing direct trade relations between Liberia and the United States through the port of Los Angeles. Like pioneers in other fields who have nothing to start with but a vision, a dream, and an unalterable purpose, the above company has had difficulties to overcome and skepticism to combat. But gradually the vision has been vitalized into actuality until now they have a modern steel freight and passenger ship under contract of purchase due to sail in the near future with cargo and passengers to Monrovia and Harper, Cape Palmas, the latter being the headquarters for the company's large agricultural, mining and industrial holdings. In addition to a general shipping and trading business with Liberia this company plans to develop and market the great natural resources on and in its immense land grant which extends from the Atlantic seaboard back into the interior for many miles covering practically every sort of natural wealth and topography of the Republic from the rich coastal agricultural belt where rubber, coffee, etc., can be produced in abundance, to the uplands where mineral wealth abounds. It does not require a great deal of imagination for one to estimate the prosperity that will accrue from the commerce indicated and from the development of land which is so richly endowed with the natural products which the world cannot do without. Nor is it difficult to imagine the added stimulous which will result to the manufacturers of this section of the United States and to the prestige of this port through the establishment of a direct line to West Africa and Liberia.

In addition to the direct development of its own holdings the company will do all in its power to encourage colonization by all who desire to live in a land of actual as well as theoretical freedom and where the rewards of labor are so large and certain. Settlers and home builders are most welcome to Liberia. The Liberian government not noly welcomes new settlers and builders but Professor Pittman is authority for the statement that as good agricultural land as there is in the whole continent of Africa may be had in fee ownership for a comparatively trifling cost and for practically any purpose, from the warm coastal lands where tropical products can be grown in abundance to the cool and rolling uplands where live stock thrive in rich and unlimited pasturage. Nor are the opportunities limited to those who wish to engage in agriculture. Monrovia, the capitol, is destined to become a thriving and modern city under the stimulous of the country's new commercial life; the villages thriving towns and ports. There are opportunities for all the trades and professions that pertain to such a development of urban life. The Liberian Transportation S. S. and Excelsior Mining Company will most heartily co-operate with htose who desire to establish new lives and new homes, and comparatively low rates can be obtained by prospective homeseekers and professional men on the initial trip of the CHIAPAS which will sail in September. The ship now is docked at pier 87 near the P. E. depot, San Pedro, where those interested are welcome and where they may secure information from the office aboard the boat. The company is disposing of only enough of its stock to the public to finance the sailing of the CHIAPAS and the opportunity of sharing in the wealth of the company's shipping and development activities is a limited one which is rapidly being taken advantage of.

This, in brief, is an outline of the "Cruise of the Chiapas." She will sail back toward the cradle of the race laden with merchandise, settlers for HOME, and the heartfelt prayers and good wishes of millions of Afro-Americans whether in the pastoral sections of the South or the teeming cities of the North. This will be a precious cargo she will carry out from the port of Los Angeles, taking on another precious cargo of merchandise and good will from Liberia on her return. The little Republic located on the great continent of Africa at a point nearest the Americas, too proud to ask for the friendship and support she so richly deserves, is stretching forth her hands of welcome to this modern argosy of business romance.

NOTICE! N. A. A. C. P.

The Los Angeles Branch will go to court on Sept. 19th with the famous Long case. There are six other suits similar to this where efforts are being made to dispossess Negroes of their homes because of clauses in deeds restricting sales. Few of us realize that importance of this suit. Should this fight be lost no one can foretell the number of people that will lose their homes. This is your fight. Stand by the N. A. C. P.

MRS. DAVAGE HONORED AT BEAUTIFUL LUNCHEON

Of the number of attractive affairs given in honor of Mrs. Davage, wife of Dr. M. S. Davage of Clarke University, Atlanta, Ga., by Angelenos during their stay of several weeks in Southern, Califo..., the seven-course luncheon arranged by Mrs. A. E. Duncan at her beautiful and spacious residence, 1308 West 35th street last Saturday, was one of the most elaborate. The house was profusely decorated with flowers and greenery and the table showed the work of an artistic hand, while the exquisite lighting effect added the final touch of consummation to a scene of unusual beauty.

The guests were ladies only whose gorgeous gowns lent a picturesque animation that is rarely seen.

Those present were: Mrs. Mathew S. Davage and sister, Miss Hattie Davage; Mmes. Jenkins, Harris, Naily, Wiltz, Willis, Hopgood, Roan, Everett, Wicks and the hostess, Mrs. Duncan.

A delightful afternon was spent exchanging compliments with the honoree. Music and kodaking were also pleasant features of the evening. Mrs. Duncan, whose amiable personality is unsurpassed, proved herself a charming hostess. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Jenkins.

Prof. J. P. Brawley, son of Mrs. Duncan and Dean of Clarke University, the only male present, performed the duties of "waiter" very efficiently. He was also ably assisted by Mrs. Story, sister-in-law of Mrs. Duncan. The guests departed with the pleasures of the evening stamped indelibly upon their memories.

NE PLUS ULTRA ART CLUB

One of the warmest affairs of this season was a winnie bake given by the Ne Plus Ultra Art Club at Huntington Palisades on Friday, August 13, 1926.

The guests met and left from the home of Miss Dorothy Johnston at 1418 Hooper Ave., arriving at the beach about 9:30 P. M. The fire was started and the dogs began to bark. The guests enjoyed themselves by eating buns, winnies, pickle, mustard, roasting marshmellows and drinking lemonade until 12 P. M., at that time the party went wading. The guests reported that they had never spent a pleasanter evening. There were forty present. The chaperones were: Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Perdue and Mrs. Webb.

The Ne Plus Ultra Art Club gave a winnie bake at Huntington Palisades on Friday evening, August 13, 1926.

Hot dogs, mustard, pickles, buns, marshmellows and lemonade kept the guests busy until 12.

At 12 the guests went wading. At 12:30 the guests departed declaring that they had never had a more wonderful time.

JOLLY ANGELENOS

By: Harold Lloyd

Mr. Randolph Solomon, widely known among the ladies of the social set as the sheik of sheiks was the host to the Jolly Angelenos Social Club on the evening of August 12. It was another case to having too much fun, the kind that will remain within the minds of those present for years to come. Mr. Solomon always puts forth his best effort when it comes to entertaining the Jolly Angelenos. Mrs. Lenard Howard, another prominent man of the social set was enrolled in this wonderful society to assist us in carrying on the spirit of California pleasure. On the following evening, August 13th a birthday party was given by Miss Willie Jones at her residense, the club responded with tokens of birthday remembrances, and also to say goodby to the hostess before she departs for the East.

The Butterfly Girl's Social Club entertained the Wilshire Olympic Athletic Club at a buffet lunch and dance August 13th at the home of one of its members and according to all reports, everybody had one scrumptuous time. Some folk even forgot about going home. The fact that there was a lake for every kid might not have had anything to do with that, but then again, it might have.

Each gallant Athlete had the pleasant duty of serving and the pleasant privilege of eating with the social butterfly whose name he drew by chance ballot. And it did not happen that either of the two maidenaes present ate with her husband.

Bruce Steams, of the Wilshire Olympics treated the party to a bit of real athletic entertainment doing the old time buck-and-wing and Charleston; and Thelma Porter, of the Butterfly Girls serenaded the members of the men's club individually, thereby provoking most comical exhibitions of infatuation or regret.

Plenty eats, plenty room, plenty music furnished by Haven Johnson and cards for those who wanted them. That is how things were.

THE BACHELOR GIRLS CLUB

By: M. E.

The Bachelor Girls are at last to be recognized as being among the moneyed clubs of the city. At the last meeting, held at the home of Miss Mary Earles of Council street, the club voted to raise the weekly dues and joining fees, which will automatically increase the treasure.

If you didn't attend the KID PARTY given by the Bachelor Girls on last Friday evening ,then ask your best friend all about it for he was there and had a jolly good time.

Did your favorite Bachelor Girl invite you to the next Monday evening club meeting? If she didn't then you are out of luck, for the meeting which will be held at the home of Miss Louise Alexander is social. So long, see you there.

GOLDEN STATE CLUB

The Golden State Club held their weekly meeting at thir new hall, 4621 Compton Avenue, Thursday night, August 19, 1926. This meeting was of a business nature and plans were talked on about their school opening dance to be given at Eagle Hall, September 10, 1926. This dance promises to atract the largest crowd ever to attend a dance in Los Angeles.

Saturday night, August 21, 1926, the members went on a trip to Ocean Park, about 16 members enjoyed this event. About twelve or one o'clock luncheon was served and the special desert was watermelon. Our vice-President, Warren Brown, murdered many slices. The party returned home at 3:30 A. M.

James Garcia, our trap-drummer, says he has found out why girls like to look at the moon. ((There is a man in it.)

Don't forget to attend our school opening dance at Eagle Hall.

CORRECTION FROM DOUGLASS TEMPLE

DEAR MR. EDITOR:

We the members of Douglas Temple, 1434 E. 21st St., take this opportunity to correct the article which appeared in last week's issue, as regards the meeting held in the above named Church, Sunday, August 15th. The occasion of which Governor Richardson and Mrs. Mary L. Bethune were our honored guests. Let me say that Mr. Sanders, nor Mr. Alberger, were in any way responsible for the arrangements of this meeting. The arrangement of the above stated meeting and all other meetings held in Douglass Temple is the work of our very efficient Chairman of Suffrage and Civic Committee, Mrs. A. E. Walker, to whom all credit is due.

DENTIST SLAIN

(By A. N. P.)

New Orleans, La., Aug. 25.—James McCoy, well-known dentist, was shot and instantly killed by Toby Turner, who is now in jail charged with murder. It is said that McCoy, while under the influence of liquor went to the home of his wife, Rhoda McCoy, who had been separated from him for the past six months and demanded her return. On refusal he struck her with his fist. Her screams brought Turner to her assistance, who shot McCoy four times. Turner claims self-defense, as it is said McCoy made a motion as if to draw a gun.

Hanged For Assault

(By A. N. P.)

New Orleans, La., Aug. 24.—Willie Johnson was hanged at the parish prison Friday, being found guilty of a charge of criminal assault on a white woman 62 years old. Johnson, a few weeks ago, escaped from prison but was recaptured as he climbed down the wall.

They all got in. They arrived on time. They were surprised how little it cost. Now whenever they go they ride in a "Yellow" and divide the fare.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER By Chas. L. Upton

ARTICLE I.

Ever since Adam and Eve had such a wonderful romance, it has been said, that man shall not live in peace with a woe-man, or without a woe-man. So, according to that, poor man is in a ticklish position. Man, being the stronger of the two, is supposed to be woman's master; but it brings a laugh when you think of him as such. The average married man in Los Angeles, is in many cases afraid to speak above a whisper, although he is a past master at talking at the big gate.

Woman has gradually come to the front in a most forceful way, exercising her rights with a rolling pin physically, and by casting her vote politically, the latter can best be testified to by talking to some poor, down-trodden man, who has sought a divorce. When he gets through singing the blues to you, there will be no doubt left in your mind as to her power with the biggest majority of domestic court judges. Why, Judge Summerfield will almost hang you on a woman's word, so what chance have you got. You might as well step right out and take one of the innocent things for life, and try to do as she says, or curl up and die. The only man who have any reasonable amount of success in securing a divorce after they are once hooked, are the ones who live in Hollywood, where they marry today and get a divorce tomorrow. However, there are a few left who have not succumbed to the pre-eminence of woman. They stand in a manl, as the rock of Gibralta, boldly in defiance of the feminine sex, with good jobs, and fair incomes, they go unmolested in their care-free way, no one to tell them they must stay home, and no one to bounce a rolling pin off their heads. But it has been said that even a rock can be worn down by the constant dripping of water, and though they appear hard boiled and unconcerned, SOME DAY THEY WILL FAIJL; to this end, I am writing this article, in order to let the women of Los Angeles know that in their very midst, there are no less than fifty Pullman Porters, who are cheating some good woman out of a home and the comforts of life by staying single in defiance of olden traditions—if the right woman comes along, at the right time and puts up the right kind of battle, the spoils will be hers.

Next week, in the next installment of the Matrimonial Chart, I will publish the names of five free, single, and disengaged Pullman Porters, operating on the best train on wheels between Los Angeles and San Francisco, who will fall and fall hard, when the right woman comes along. Don't let them fool you ladies, but go after them and remember the writer is with you, because misery loves company.

MT. ZION CHURCH OF SEATTLE, WASH., SEES LAST OF DEBT

The congregation of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church turned out en masse last Sunday evening to celebrate the final payment on their new building which was erected in 1920 and 1921. More than 800 people atteded the ceremoy which was presided over by the Rev. Dr. J. Sterling Moore.

Rev. Dr. W. D. Carter, pastor of Friendship Baptist Church in Pasadena, Calif., reviewed the history of Mt. Zion Church which was organized in a little frame building on Eleventh avenue more than fifteen years ago. He also explained the ways in which funds of the new building had been raised. A feature of the service was the burning of the mortgage during which ceremony the members waved hands and hats and shouted in their joy. Rev. Moore, Rev. Carter and all the officers of Mt. Zion officiated in the mortgage-burning ceremony.

"This is indeed an auspicious occasion," said Rev. Moore as Dr. Carter touched a match to the $6,500 cancelled obligation. "It not only symbolizes the splendid progress we have enjoyed, but is a favorable omen of future development as well." The total amount raised in the church rally is $7,893.60. The church membership was organized into groups under leaders who raised the following amounts: Ninth Calvary Club, Mrs. Lula Williams, captain, $1,592.-80; Tenth Calvary Club, Mrs. William Chandler, captain, $2,864.86; Twenty-fourth Infantry Club, Mrs. H. Hood, captain, $1,886.50. From other sources: Western Washington Baptist Convention, $1200; public offering $161.74.

Mr. Bernard Jefferson says it wouldn't be a bad idea if each and every guest would wear a bumper when dancing at a crowded party or on a crowded floor.

The Sparks Editor wishes to express sincere sympathy for himself and many sparks readers for the serious accident that happened last Saturday afternoon when the life of Mr. Wesley Griffin, Jr., was taken and five other young men who accompanied him were seriously injured. The sextet of boys including A. W. Parish, Al Vennis, Moredy Williams, Frank Qualls and young Anderson, Jr., were all members of the Ladies Club. Frank Qualls was the most seriously injured out of the five and is now in the county hospital. All of us are wishing him a speedy recovery. Let us hope that not only these involved in the accident will be more cautious, but that all of us will be. Remember that little sign—BE CAREFUL!

REASONS WHY

Los Angeles, Calif., July 28, 1926.

DEAR MR. EDITOR:

We note in one of your issues of this month, that the colored chauffeurs are not organized, and that they are losing out on that account, being replaced by the little brown man, the Phillipine. That may be true in some instances, but until the colored chauffeurs learns how to give service he will always be replaced by someone.

In the first place when he brings his employer to his office or the magam to the show or on a shopping tour down in the city, he is instructed when to return for him or her—and then he is not there, but rather down on Central Ave., with some of his high browns in the car.

This is the reason that our colored chauffeurs are losing out. When the boss steps out of the office to go home, the little brown man is there waiting. When the mistress steps out of the store or show, he is also there waiting—but the colored chauffeur is down on Central Ave waiting. Learn to give service then you won't lose out.

I am in favor that you be organized but remember that service comes first.

UNUSUAL BUT TRUE

(By A. N. P)

Los Angeles—In applying for a divorce, Mrs. Jessie Kenneth Schloss handed the Judge a note found tacked to the garage door. It read: "You can have the car, the garage, the house and everything around here. Keep them or sell them; I am not coming back." She was granted a divorce.

J.—Mrs. Nellie Stefanick, wife of a farmer, told Vice Chancellor Ingersoll that her husband made her plow, hoe, milk the cows, and do other manual labor during the day, and do the washing and housework at night, under threat to break her leg if she tried to leave. She was granted a divorce.

Wilmington, Del.—John Pochvatile was held without bail on a charge of attacking Theresa Schlor, bridesmaid at a wedding where he was best man. Pochvatile said the bridesmaid kissed him at the wedding and he simply went "crazy about her."

TUSKEGEE DOCTOR WEDS

(By A. N. P.)

Tuskegee Inst., Ala., Aug. 23.—In one of the most fashionable and beautiful weddings ever witnessed at Tuskegee Institute, Dr. Eugene H. Dible, Jr., Institute Medical Director and Miss Helen Anita Taylor, daughter of Vice-Principal and Mrs. R. R. Taylor of Tuskegee Institute, were married in the Institute chapel at 8:00 Wednesday evening, the Rev. John W. Whittaker, Institute chaplain, officiating.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the receiving line were the bridal party and Mrs. R. R. Taylor.

Hoodoo Hits Voodoo Doctor

(By A. N. P.)

Camden, N. J., August 23.—George O. Gains, formerly of Philadelphia, a "voodoo doctor", was sentenced to six months in the Camden County jail by Judge Cleary. He was charged with practicing medicine without a license. Several girls testified he had sold them salves which he declared would break spells cast on them by their mothers-in-law. One girl said the "doctor" had charged her $100 for the ointment.

DeMille Producer Praises Pickens' Book

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Aug. 23—Work is going ahead on "Porgy," the photoplay to be based on the novel of that name, involving Negro life in Charleston, S. C., according to word sent to William Pickens, contributing editor of the Associated Negro Press, by Bertram Millhauser, director of DeMille productions. Millhauser writes:

"We are going ahead with "Porgy." I have Miss Olga Printzlau making my first rough adaptation. We hope to be shooting in September or October—although I have so many things to do between now and then that I can't honestly set an actual starting date. I hope Paul Robeson is interested in the character Crown. He'd make a splendid CROWN and Gilpin a great PORGY."

Millhauser is the man who described Pickens' "Bursting Bonds" as "the sort of hard, stark writing that can only be done when a man has something to say—and he creates his own style.

Pickens' latest book is "American Aesop," a collection of jokes.

Cheats Electric Chair

(By A. N. Y.)

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 24.—In order to cheat the electric chair, Thomas Stribbling, 56, condemned to die for the alleged murder of a man last year, went on a 65-day hunger strike which ended in his death at the penitentiary Wednesday afternoon.

Stribbling had told jail officials that he would never die in the chair, and had deceived guards who brought him food by throwing it in a sewer. Two weeks ago he became so ill that he was taken to the prison infirmary. There he confessed his fasting, but it was too late for him to be saved. The warden of the prison declared that Stribbling's is the first instance of a prisoner who refused to eat his food.

LeBLANC'S BOYS BAND HOME AGAIN

Oh boys; Well, all we can say is that we certainly had a fine time, and we wish to express our appreciation to the people of Los Angeles for their hearty co-operation in attending our concerts, etc., in order that we may raise money for our trip. Although the public's co-operation was nothing near a 100 per cent this time, but we expect it to be much better next time. The band shall immediately begin preparing for a much better trip for next summer. We shall do our best to induce the public to co-operate with us in order to make our plan a success. Owing to the fact that we had a day's engagement before us, our trip had to be shortened in order to face the Los Angeles public with full force and plenty of pep.

Negro Addresses Klansmen; Denounces Order

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23.—The unusual action of a Negro being taken to a Klan meeting then asked to speak, occurred to Titus Alexander, candidate unopposed for assemblyman of the 76th district for the next election. Mr. Alexander was asked by a white Klansman friend to attend a meeting of the klan as his guests. It was held out in the open in the hills, and was attended by hundreds of the hooded knights. During the course of the meeting, Alexander was asked to speak. He mounted the rostrum and lashed forth in a vindictive tirade denouncing the klan as un-American and cowardly.

THE U. N. I. A. AND NEGRO LABOR

By: WILLIAM PICKENS

(For the Associated Negro Press)

On the night of August 5th, we went to look in on "The Fifth Convention of the Negro Peoples of the World" in Liberty Hall, on 138th street, New York City. And we went on the invitation of the officers of the Convention, who also urged us to address the assembly. It had been about four years since we had been in Liberty Hall, and at that time we had been forbidden even to take notes in the place. When we had taken out our pencil and notebook and begun to take down some of the truly remarkable lagic being hurled down from the platform by Garvey and others, half a dozen soldiers of the "African Legion" had rushed to our seat in battle formation and shouted: "You are not allowed to write in this hall!" It was the first time we had ever been forbidden to take notes at a public lecture.

It is noticeable that in the present convention there is no autocracy and no bullying control from the platform—and consequently there is more honest expression from the floor. We observed that some of the more active thinkers who quit in disgust years ago, were now back among the delegates. There were men like Lovett Fort-Whiteman, of the Negro Labor Congress, and local intellectuals like Edgar Gray, Richard B. Moore and Wm. H. Ferris. The majority of the delegates, it seems, represent the more active minds among the laboring class of Negroes.

The subject for the evening was the industrial and economic advancement of the Negro race, and all were discussing the organization of Negro labor. Will you believe it? I spent one whole evening in Liberty Hall and never heard one bit of hot air about Africa! They were discussing the most fundamental thing in all race problems—LABOR—and they were sticking to their subject.

If the U. N. I. A. will influence the organization of Negro Labor, they will seize their biggest opportunity. Not only is labor the best cement of the common people, but the U. N. I. A. has among its membership a bigger percentage of Negro laborers than has any other organization. The present organization is evidently much fewer in numbers than was the Garvey organization, and its parades are much shorter, but its influence may be much longer if it will promote a practical program of this world.

AT THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Sunday night, August 29th, Evangelist P. G. Rodgers will answer the great question "Are the Ten Commandments out of Date?" Mr. Rodgers finds it necessary to preach on this subject because of the growing tendency to include the Moral Law in the code of laws that the Jews of old felt were essential to their righteousness. The speaker promises to show that any man in Christ Jesus will not turn away from the standard of heavenly government which has been given to heaven-bound creatures, hence all who love the ways of the LORD are invited to be present at the BIG TENT—located at 20th and Central Ave., at 7:30 P. M. to insure a good seat. The Big Choir is an added feature to these services and the question and answer hour helps every honest seeker for the truth.

Every one is welcomed to this BIG Evangelistic Series of plain Bible sermons.

ELKS ELECT WILSON

SENATOR SAMUEL SHORTRIDGE GOES OVER BIG

EDITORIAL FORE AND AFTER THOUGHT

By C. A. B.

Mrs. Hicks of the Parent Teachers Association, gave a most interesting personal glimpse of the segregation scheme as it is being worked out in the Public School System of this city, last Sunday afternoon at Eagle Hall.

Miss Vivian Temple, in the creation and presentation of the drama, "Easy Money", brought to light the fact that the average young Negro was not asleep as to his real position as to citizenship. In striking contrast she painted two pictures, one of Hope and the other discouragement.

Hope showed that the young Negro was willing to even fight for the high ideals of citizenship, while Discouragement, on the other hand, easily explained that the way of vice was the only avenue not fraught with prejudice open to him. In other words th eplot was a plea for justice.

Last Friday evening, Atty. Willis O. Tyler appeared before the Republican Study Club headed by Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert in one of the most remarkable political speches in behalf of his own candidacy that it has ever been our privilege to listen to.

In fact the Republican Study Club is one of the most alive organizations in the city, and is destined to do a great work for political uplift in this community.

A few weeks ago Los Angeles had a distinguished visitor, Miss Elizabeth Carter of New Bedford, Mass.

Miss Carter is one of the most respected school teachers of New Bedford where she has taught for more than twenty years. She is one of the first and best presidents that the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs has ever had, a quiet, but conscientious civic worker, and a humanitarian of first rank in her own city and state.

Miss Carter was accompanied to the Pacific Coast by Mrs. Hattie Taylor Jones of Boston, and Miss Alberta Dunbar of Providence, R. I.

Elder Rodgers of Evangelistic fame, who is holding forth at the big tent at 20th and Central, presented to his hearers last Wednesday evening an original Fiji Island chief, who could not speak a word of English, but nevertheless thru his interpreter, delivered a message to his hearers.

Elder Rodgers is one of the most outstanding Christian characters in our midst, and his voice is being heard and heeded by the masses. Thank God for an undefiled gospel.

BUILDING A RACE

The Board of Directors through the charitably inclined have undertaken the responsibility of father and mother for the dependent orphans of the Negro race. A responsibility that we regard as an opportunity. To provide a home for those little ones who, by the providence of God, have been deprived of the one which God gave them is to carry out the work of the Creator who gave them existence.

MAKING LIFE

We are in a life-making business, we provide a home for the purpose of bringing to useful futurity the lives God has made and which He has placed in our charge.

MORE THAN A COMMISSARY

A home is more than a commissary; its table more than a messboard; its wardrobes more than lockers. These things exist for a definite purpose, and are auxiliaries of the home. Physical necessities must be met in order that the higher episdeses of the life may be supplied. The need of the orphan child is more than that of food and clothing. The life is more than meat and the body than raiment.

INSTITUTION ESSENTIAL

The care of the orphan as the ward of a sane civilization, distinctly Christian, cannot be provided for in any other way than in an institution which supplies the home atmosphere and environment in which the young life can be trained up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

NOT AN ALMSHOUSE

Hence the Home is an institution rather than an almshouse. The State educates its citizens because it will make them better citizens, less liable to become wards on its bounties and more apt to become contributors to wealth. The Orphan's Home is or should be a part of our general system of education and should be so regarded. It differs from other schools only in that an entire support is afforded the pupils; it is not different from them in the underlying purposes for which it exists. The products of the Home will repay the donors for the contributions they make in its support.

GREATEST INVESTMENT

What a paying investment to put money into human lives. To get results even in one case out of ten would be incomparable returns. A life of usefulness is beyond comparison in value to money of any amount, and yet in our orphanage work at St. John, it is easy to make a relatively small amount of money count in the training of a life for its highest usefulness. We have just begun the work of educating orphan childhen. The equipment and plant are far too small and inadequate for the present needs, and the needs themselves should be multiplied and more imperative.

Dr. T. L. Griffith, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, left the city last Wednesday with Mrs. Griffith, en route to points in Iowa, Kansas, Illinois, and Michigan, where they will visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Esther R. Sims, and Mr. and Mrs. James Chancy have returned from a most delightful trip to the northern part of the State, including Oakland, Sacramento and San Francisco.

APPRECIATION

We want to express our highest appreciation for the thousands of expressions of endorsements for our expose of the recent situation in which the brazen exploitation of a race was handled in no mincing words in the columns of this paper. We desire to state that in the future as we have in the past we shall be on the watch tower looking out at all times and will surely do our utmost to circumvent those who would despoil us.

For every movement worth while for public weal, with sincere devotion we will ever do our part for its advancement ad success. With malice toward none and charity for all we will ever maintain the position which we have assumed.

We realize that we have the untinted support of race loving and law abiding citizens. We depreciate the very idea of the garbeled newspaper regorts given in the Chicago Defender, in which it was heralded throughout the country that the editor of this paper was seriously injured, beaten up, etc., when as a matter of fact no thing was further from the truth, for we have never been even struck by our assailant. We were assaulted on the public streets of the city, with language unpritable, our life threatened and by the said preacher L. B. Brown trying his best to do us bodily injury with his finger in our mouth and inflicting a slight injury to our eye, which for a day or so was blood shot thereafter.

Even one of our local contemporaries in defiance of all ethics of journalism of friendly newspapers, wrote that we had a black eye, were beaten up and followed with a whole lot of hog wash given them by our assailant without at least asking for our version of the same.

Thirty years of journalism has yet found us in a position where our column's could not be used against any individual who was contending for a great moral principle at the behest of anybody—no matter how barren the flour sack or how short the pay roll.

To newspaper men our position would always be, "brother you have got to show me."

NEGRO OBJECTION PREVENTS WEDDING

Brockton, Mass., Aug. 29.—The marriage of Miss Edythe H. Willen, 17, of Montello, to Clarence F. Aiken, 18, a Negro of Boston, has been indefinitely postponed because of the failure of the Negro boy to obtain his guardian's consent to the marriage.

The parents of the white girl had consented.

Preacher, Former Slave, Dies

(By A. N. P.)

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 28.—The Rev. Paul Haynes, 79 years old, and a former slave, is dead. During the Civil War, he was owned by Gen. Wade Hampton, and white people in this section were proud of Haynes' boast that Gen. Hampton was one of the best masters who ever lived. Rev. Haynes worked with the southern white in the war for freedom. He had been a preacher for 55 years and built several churches during the early years of his ministry. For the past 30 years he had been a servant at the South Carolina State Fair.

Juliaetta Harris Gives Hard Battle to National Tennis Title Holder in 3 Hard Sets

CALIFORNIA GIRL EXPECTED TO GIVE ALL TITLE HOLDERS TROUBLE SHOULD SHE RETURN NEXT YEAR

St. Louis, Mo., August 19.—Miss Julia Etta Harris, the girl wonder who made her first appearance in the National Tennis Tournemtn this week at Sherman Park, almost took the title back to California by winning in the first round against Miss Lula Ballard of Philadelpnia, the present champion.

After this spectacular match was called on Monday morning on account of rain about twelve o'clock Tuesday the contestants again took the court in a drizzling rain and on a firm but rather slow surface.

The first set had been won by Miss Ballard 7-5 and Miss Harris led the second 2-1. The nights rest and the boast of Miss Harris that she was going to carry the battle through three sets to victory seemed likely of realization when she began driving those long sweeping forehands, to the corners of the court, keeping a good one game lead on the champion who by this time was bringing all her court craft and decisive volleying to the fore in order to stop the baseline attack of the Pacific Coast star. The crowd was being carried along by this new flash of the West with the Helen Wills drive and under the stimulus of the gallery in spite of the rain, the advantage Miss Ballard's low chopped balls gave on the wet ground, this young unknown from the far West inumpire soon called 3-6, second set won by Miss Julia Etta Harris.

sisted on being heard from and the

Then, everybody was excited and as the third set began it looked like a new champion was about to be born right in the first round and first match of the tenth annual A. T. A. Championships to survive and beat old Doc Pluvius himself. At three games all (3-3) in the third set the break came as Tilden says the psychological game is the seventh and Miss Ballard's experience here bested her younger opponent.

It was not over, however, as Miss Harris rallied again after Miss Ballard had brought the score to 5-3 in her own favor and took the next game. With things going her way it looked like a deuce set, but just then a line decision seemed to affect Miss Harris and she netted an easy return. Miss Ballard passed her twice with a sharp volley and an overhead smash and on the set match point, one of those perfectly placed shots of the champion just hesitated for a moment on the net cord and fell over dead on the Californian's court. It was a heart-breaker, but Miss Harris hurried forward like a true sportswoman and heartily reached across the net and congratulated the young lady from the East who won in their first meeting by her all court game. Miss Ballard with her usual charm and unassuming manner reciprocated the warm felicitations of her opponent who is destined to become her most formidable rival.

Many were the gentlemen who envied the skill of these two young ladies.

The Virginia Press Denounces Wythe County Lynching

Although there is little prospect of anything but a superficial investigation of the recent lynching in Wythe County, Virginia, in which the mob stormed the jail and brutally murdered an imprisoned man, newspapers of the State have been emphatic in their denunciation of the outrage.

The N. A. A. C. P. has received clippings from a number of the leading newspapers in which strong statements are made. The Richmond News Leader in an editorial headed "A Dark Disgrace to Virginia," declared:

"A drunken mob of savages on a South Sea Island could not have been more brutal. Russian reds in the maddest frenzy of their irreligious revolution would have hesitated at such treachery. Done in the name of 'white supremacy' this crime disgraces a commonwealth that has boasted the patient honesty of its justice."

The Richmond Times-Dispatch, heading its editorial "Law and Order Outraged," writes:

"In permitting—or in failing to prevent this lawless execution of a prisoner—Wytheville has openly outraged law and order and it has betrayed its lack of confidence in its duly constituted courts. That is the real pity of this latest lynching, the real danger in such mob murders. It is an attack upon the courts which in Virginia is not justified."

Still another editorial admonishes the white citizens of Wytheville not to bemoan the bad advertising given to their town but to set themselves resolutely to discovering and punishing the lynchers. The editorial goes on:

"Reports from Wytheville are to the effect that neither the town or county seems to be particularly perturbed over the outrage upon law and justice of which a mob of its citizens is guilty. If those reports be true then Wytheville will not be able to re-establish itself in the esteem of law-abiding people by pleading the injustice of its publicity. . . . . "

Mr. and Mrs. J. Barker of Watts, Calif., nee Miss Edgar Hall, entertained with a dancing party Tuesday evening at Christian Tavern in honor of their house guest and Mrs. Perry of Kansas City.

"BLACK PANTHER" IS EXECUTED

(By A. N. P.)

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 29.—Death was meted out to Charles Barr, the so-called "black panther" criminal Friday morning, for the alleged murder of three white persons in 1921. Barr's battle for his life was fought through all the courts of the state. He went to the electric chair without a whimper. Barr's habit, according to police, was to attack white "petting parties" on lonely roads at midnight. In many cases he was said to have robbed them, and in others, to have murdered one or the other of the parties. Three years after the crimes had been committed, Barr was traced through a ring which had been stolen from one of his victims and pawned by Barr's wife. He confessed but later repudiated his confession. Barr's father was a minister.

THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Sunday night, September 5th is scheduled as the Big Night of the first series of sermons preached by Evangelist P. G. Rodgers under the Big Tent at 20th and Central Ave., the subject "Four Angels Holding the Four Winds," is another one of those thrilling topics which Mr. Rodgers is constantly giving to the vast crowds that are present every night. Men, whose hearts have been hard as steel break down under the pleading of the Gospel; lukewarm Christians are finding their first love; old and young alike are being revived and it is hoped that many thousands more will be present at the BIG TENT every night at 7:45 P. M.—Adv.

DOINGS OF THE FEDERATED IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

On last Sunday P. M. at Eagle Hall the Association held a very enthusiastic meeting. These meetings are purely educational and very beneficial to each and every Negro citizen.

Each meeting there will be a different president chosen from the audience. Last Sunday Dr. Ruth Temple very ably presided and proved to everyone present that she was not only a talker but a doer.

When we yield to the temptation of selling our race for a paltry dollar, easy positions, or a big name we never stop to think of the thousands of years it will take to tear the result away. Thank God the race has one in its midst that was able to withstand the temptation in the faces of hundreds of Caucasian women—this was Mrs. Hicks the Past President of the Parent Teacher's Association. You who missed the remarks of this woman indeed missed a rare treat. We could make mountains look like mole hills if we had just ten persons like Mrs. Hicks, for the fight is not only with the other race but also among ourselves.

Words cannot explain the good thought that our own Mrs. C. A. Bass brought to us, for as you know, she is always brim full of wonderful information. In a few words she told us of the value and need of a complete boycott to stamp out segregation.

The board members are working on a program that will be interesting and educational thus we can fully assure you that you will not regret one spare moment spent with us.

Father Cleghorn is going to be the speaker for next Sunday, 3 o'clock P. M. at Eagle Hall.

Mr. Page, our own composer will render several selections.

The little talented May sisters will also favor us with many numbers.

Mr. S. B. W. May will act as president for the afternoon. Now, don't sit idly by and wait for trouble, let us pull together now in the one thing that concerns us, Racial Problems.

We are in receipt of a card from Wm. Roberson, Secretary of the Elks from Cleveland, that he is having a wonderful time and that California goes big. Secretary Roberson was a strong booster for Wilson who won out in the election.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 28—The local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, through Neval H. Thomas, has protested to the district commissioners, against the proposed Ku Klux parade in this city. A previous klan parade, two years ago, was permitted. Wood Wilson Leads All

WOOD WILSON

The voters of the 78rd Assembly District have again expressed their confidence in the integrity and fine political leadership of Wood Wilson by giving him the largest vote accorded any candidate standing for Republican County Central Committeeman in that District. There were nine candidates for committeemen—six white, three colored. Mr. Wilson carried every precinct in the eastside by a handsome majority and polled a heavy vote throughout the entire district. Wood Wilson is one of the cleverest and squarest politicians in Southern California and richly merits the high esteem in which he is held in the political world.

BOY MEETS DEATH BRAVELY

(By A. N. P.)

Moundsville, W. Va., Aug. 28.—Philip Euman, 18, the youngest person to ever be hanged in this state, walked calmly to the gollows Friday where he paid with his life for the alleged murder of a white grocer. As he left the death cell for the gallows, other prisoners sang spirituals, to which he listened unmoved. Throughout the last hours of his life he displayed absolutely no fear.

PERFECT ARTISTS IN A PERFECT PLAY WITH A PERFECT MESSAGE

BY: HARRY LeVETTE

"The play's the thing" said William Shakespeare, putting the words in the lips of Hamlet, the melancholy Dane, who sought to expose the misdeeds of his unscrupulous mother, and scheming father-in-law, the king, and thereby he meant to alleviate the "stings and arrows of outrageous fortune" that so beset his shadowed life.

Such could be said of the play, "Easy Money" which was presented at the Gamut Auditorium on Monday night, August 23rd. For as was remarked by a member of the other race, who witnessed its performance, It were well if the four corners of the earth could see it, as it would do more than books, oratory, and radical argument toward placing our case from an economical standpoint before the world, and tending toward the alleviaton of interracial affairs. It was beyond any doubt the strongest drama ever given on a local stage by local talent.

The writer has witnessed many spoken dramas played by many great actors and actresses such as Mantell, Mrs. Leslie Carter, Mrs. Fiske, Sothern and Otis Skinner, but dares to say that n the beginning of their careers, none of them showed more the ladies and gentlemen who make promise and natural ability than did un the "Neighborhood Players."

To our regret space will not permit a full resume of the evening's entertainment nor a critical dissection of the play of soul stirring but suffice to say much was lent to it by the atmospheric prologue. It was in two parts with a juvenile chorus under the direction of Mrs. Neosha Bartleson, and an adult chorus by New Hope Baptist under the able direction of Mrs. Viola Brandon, the "Female Creatore" in the first part. The second part depicted the struggle of Negro Youth up a ladder whose steps were the various difficulties the Negro must meet only to find the door of employment closed against him, succumbing at last to drink, vice, and intemperance that harpy-like dogged his foot-steps.

The play told the all too realistic tale of an 18 year old girl graduate of the U. of C. and her disheartening fight to gain employment to support her sick and widowed mother. Rebuffed on every hand because of color she answered an ad for maid only to find the inevitable offer to be mistress to a white man who had refused her as stenoprapher. Repulsing his advances, she works in the house for his sister under many humiliations but some what encouraged by the kind words of another maid widow of a soldier hanged for the Houston riot. Finally discharged for alleged impudence toward a white former schoolmate visitor, she is just about to accept the offer of the rich but dissipated Wellington, of a bungalow, fine clothes, easy money, when returning home, finds her mother has died in her absence and is beyond the need of earthly comforts worthily or ill-gotten. Reviling Wellington who arrives in the midst of the sad scene to claim her, she inhales chloroform and joins her mother in death. Somewhat sordid some might say, but not more so than Ibsen's "Ghosts", but carrying a far greater and more important message in its intense dramatic appeal.

This wonderful play was written by Miss Vivian Temple, a young Los Angeles author of unusual literary ability. Miss Marcia Pruitt was a pretty and very natural Anita Selma, the college girl in the lead. Mr. Banks played opposite as Mr. Sam'l Wellington, Miss Thelma Brown was Mrs. Ramer, the soldier's widow; Miss Portia Pruitt was Elsie, the white school mate of Anita. Ms. Hazel Temple was Anita's mother, Miss Ettaford Sanders was Mrs. Wellington, the typical clannish Southerner. Mrs. Sarah Garrott was Mrs. Turner; Mrs. N. Hawkins was Elsie's mother and little Jane Christian, a child neighbor and friend of Anita. Taken all in all each player lived the character he sought to portay before the foot-lights that will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to see it. The production was staged by the Propaganda Committee of the Federation of Improvement Associations.

KEEPING ALONG WITH THE GRASSHOPPERS

The following were elected: Roy Johnson, Pres.; David Floyd, Vice-Pres.; Willie Middleton, Secy.; Eardly Gauff, Treas.; Sherman Hudnell, Athletic Manager; Kenneth White, Program Man; Marvin Johnson, Yell Leader and Kenneth Levy, Pub. GOLDEN STATE CLUB

It is an old story when the bell rings and children get their books and start to school, but one that never loses its significance, for what a realm does the modern day school open to the inquiring mind of the intelligent, ambitious youth. Every boy and every girl who is now about to enter school may have the satisfaction of knowing that his or her work may shape itself toward participation in very great events, for the world beckons from ten thousand points to those who have the requisite knowledge and equipment, therefore this coming week will be a full one, socially speaking, because Friday, September 10, 1926 at Eagle Hall, 822 Central avenue, the Golden State Club will give their school opening dance, admission 35c. Everyone is invited to be present to the greatest event of the year.

BEAUTIFUL GARDEN PARTY

Last Wednesday evening, August the 25th, the beautiful Azusa Gardens, just about two miles the other side of Moarovia, Cal., was the scene of one of the most brilliant dinner dances of the season, at which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duvalt Conner were the host and hostess, honoring Mrs. John Howard Butler of San Francisco, Cal., and Miss Jane La Conte Smith of Baltimore, Md.

The Azusa Garden Inn was beautifully decorated in a varied floral motiff, while the soft colored lights produced a magnificient glow upon the many charming and distinguished guests that glided over the smooth hardwood surface of the Inn to the syncopated and melodious strains of Mr. Verne Floyd and his Sunkissed California Orchestra.

Dancing, Rabbit Chasing and a miniature early Fall fashion show, displaying the latest thing in fur coats provided special entertainment for the evening. There were two beautiful prizes awarded to the two persons who caught the rabbits first, after they were released from their cages on the floor among the guests, and the first prize which was a unique Bohemian Sandwich Tray was won by Mr. Stanely Curty, while Mr. Curtis Smith took second which was a Bohemian Serving Bowl with a crystal ladle. Poor rabbits! The scene was most interesting too.

About 11:30 a trio of California's most charming young belles including Misses Gwendolyn Diggs, Ruth M. Carr of Oakland, Cal., and Miss Lorain Price, stepped out in these fur coats and displayed them to perfection after which dancing was resumed until twelve o'clock when in a very novel way Mrs. Charles D. Conner requested that the honorees including Mrs. John H. Butler and Miss Jane La Conte Smith, stand upon one of the tables to be introduced. Everyone declared the two honorees made a beautiful picture, as they were dressed in gorgeous evening attire. Delicious frappe of which there was plenty was very refreshing.

At 12:15 everyone was served in cafeteria style, the tasty supper of the evening. Sporting attire was the feature dress of the evening.

The guests numbered nearly 500, many of them out of town guests including: Mrs. T. B. Williams of Chicago, Ill., Miss Helen Back, Mrs. Fredericka Sprague Perry, Mrs. Myrtle Foster Cook, Mrs. Stokes, all of Kanssa City, Mo.; Mrs. Grace Craig Simms and Mrs. Albert Bass of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. Garland Anderson of San Fansisco, Cal.; Mrs. M. Evyln Mason of New York City; Miss Cornelia Zender of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs Douglas McFarland of Sacramento, Cal.; Mrs. E. H. Dickson of Shreveport, La.; Mrs. Laura P. Allen of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Minnie P. Johnson and Miss Ruth M. Carr of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Louise Reynolds Kenner of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. A.

JANE GARROTT REVIEWS "AESOP"

(For the Associated Negro Press)

"The funniest book on earth" is praise not too extravagant for the new volume by William Pickens, entitled "American Aesop." In this book there are dozens of first-rate Negro stories, besides other comical tales, and a preface by Mr. Pickens which is one of the best essays on the function and essence of humor that has ever appeared.

"Like the flash of white light used to take photographs at night," says the author, "Humor enables poorly sensitized minds to register what might otherwise be for them blurred spots or dark passages in the discourse. . . . Good humor attracts sympathetic response as naturally as the sun attracts a flower . . . even the abstruse may be discerned through sympathy, while clearness itself may fail to penetrate indifference." Here we have a scholarly analysis written in fresh vigorous style.

The stories are as good as the preface. They are practically all new, or, if a trifle worn in a few cases, they are cleverly rehabilitated. Everyone of them winds up with a "bite"—a spice and a tang that leave you chuckling for a few minutes as you ruminate before turning over the page. Like all such collections the "Aesop" should be taken gradually, say twenty pages a day.

Mr. Pickens, who is spending his life trying to bring about fair treatment for the colored race could not have found a better way to open our eyes of understanding for his people than by compiling this collection of witty and philosophical sayings. Many of the stories show a good-natured shrewdness and a worldly wise power of analysis not generally credited to Negroes; indeed, we plainly get an intimation that some day the tables may be turned and these folk will be holding us "whites" up to the searching light of their ridicule, if, in fact, they have not already begun to subject us to a somewhat discerning glare.

There's a good lesson for the laboring man of any color or race in this episode taken from Mr. Pickens' book:

"A little Negro boy was hired by some white men to dig fish bait for them. The little fellow also liked fishing, and when he saw that he had secured such a fine lot of earthworms, he really longed to have them for his own hooks. He eyed the worms covetously as he handed them over to the white fisherman, and one of the men asked: "Well, what do you want for this fine lot of bait?"

BROOKS BROS. DRUG STORE PULLS OFF SUCCESSFUL SALE

In true metropolitan style the Brooks Bros. Drug Store, 18th and Central Ave., conducted a monster sale last Friday and Saturday, when they conducted what is termed a 1-Cent Sale. All stock articles in various lines were put on sale and for only one cent more the same article was duplicated. The manager, Mr. Clarence Brooks, put out thousands of page posters enumerating the various bargains and on Friday and Saturday the customers came in by the hundreds to partake of the offerings which this progressive firm had advertised.

We say progressive because of the fact that Brooks Bros. essayed an advanced step in their line of endeavor. And in their niche there were big things doing and no one would deserve ought in the procedure from any other big down town drug store.

Bishop I. B. Scott will be the morning preacher at Wesley this Suday morning. Hear the pastor's Labor sermon in the evening.

VIOLA BAUCOM IN RECITAL AT SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH, TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 7TH

EDITORIALS

HORN TOOOTING

Some of our zealous and effervescent political thimble riggers have ceased this day and time to toot their own horns, despite the fact that they know full well that their only way to get a sound is to toot it themselves.

MADE A GREAT RACE

We want to say of Mr. Tyler, that in the 73rd District he made a most splendid race. This was his first time up and he should by no means feel disconsolate, he will yet earn his spurs on the field of political conquest. There were some untoward situations in his bailiwick, they must be expected and means devised to overcome the same.

Sixty years of civilization has failed us thus far, let's hope that day by as time passes that all of our forces can vizualize the terrific handicap of envy, malice and self aggrandizement to the progress and advancement of the group.

FOUND WANTING

Four years ago the Colored voters en masse voted for the nomination of Governor Friend Richardson in protest against Governor Stephens, who failed absolutely to accord to them recognition in the affairs of government. After four years of faithful waiting they had to resort to the same tactics and for the same reason against the man they supported four years ago. Not all of them voted for C. C. Young, but it is certain and sure 80% of them voted for someone other than Richardson, for he had been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

Therefore they are eternally on the job and hope that someday, oh, someday a real exponent of the people, as they hope of Lieutenant Governor Young will give to them the recognition which is their due.

LAW AND ORDER

It should be the duty of every legitimate newspaper no matter how mighty or humble, to unhold the law. We can say without fear of successful contradiction that we have ever maintained this position and for that reason we have from time to time called attention to flagrant violations of both the written and unwritten law.

Quite twelve months ago, we called attention to the unlawful activities of the Ku Klux Klan in Watts, California. This hooded band of bushwhackers engages us not in physical combat, but essayed to punish us for our audacity in the courts. Their zeal went for naught when we won in the contest.

Now at this time a man who calls himself a Messenger from the Holy Nazarine, when we call attention to his depredations to an unsophisticated public, attacks us physically, with this uncivilized and degenerate exhibition, he gets nowhere and loses at the bar of public opinion.

Even had he been our physical superior, pummeled up or even killed us instead of putting on a hugging match and getting his finger in our mouth and eye; he would have but accentuated the spirit of courage in others to come forth, stand up, denounce and put a curb upon all highbinders in the future.

We held no malice against any individual then, nor do we now, but we stand firm for law, order and common decency and no matter who seeks to exploit a race of people and put them in a shameful light, we shall not fail to speak up in the premises, without fear or favor.

HOLIDAY SPIRIT EVER

Holiday time has always been the time of good cheer and good will toward man.

Why should not this spirit prevail in the holiday time of summer vacation.

Paradoxical as it may sem, August, which breathes of rest and vacation, of fishing and boating and hiking, is just the time for reflection upon those things we dread most to think of, the miserable, with its sick and poor and unfortunate men, women and children.

Yet, in the relaxation and joy which comes with summer and vacation, it is just the time to think of one's duty to one's fellow men, and of the largest contribution one give to the Community Chest in its forthcoming appeal.

In the busy work-a-day life of men and women, there is little time to think of those in need, for there is so much to be done in one's own life. Therefore, in leisure one has really time to be sympathetic.

Sympathy is akin to love, and love for one's brother in need can only be expressed in service to him, in order that he too may rise from out the ranks of the miserable and the dependent.

The Community Chest, which financially maintains 143 charity, relief, social and welfare agencies, which in turn care for the community's sick, needy and unfortunate, is preparing for a huge appeal for funds, from November 9 to 23.

Citizens must not lose sight of the fact that the Community Chest is one of the greatest social and civic assets of Los Angeles; that it is purely humanitarian, and that it is filling a need long felt in the community.

ONLY TOO TRUE

The sentiment expressed in the following editorial from the "Detroit Independent" has not only been called to our attention in the last few days by expressions from others, but so aptly expresses our opinion that we are reproducing the same for the consideration and thought of readers of the "Soaring Eagle".

"A SAGE AND A SHEIK

"Within the past few days, two celebrities of international fame have pessed from life's stage. One was a young man, the movie sheik, Valentino, whom women adored and jealous rivals despised. The other was Dr. Charles Elliott, former President of Harvard and one of the world's first citizens. The one was a sheik, a movie idol, handsome as a Greek god. He earned and squandered millions; he was spectacular and always in the lime light, and even in death he is headlined on the front pages of newspapers all over the United States, and column upon column of publicity is being given him. On the other hand, the death of Dr. Elliot has received but brief mention in the newspapers. In fact, the average individual is barely conscious that such a man as Dr. Eliot ever lived. Yet, for the past thirty years, this sage has wrought wonders in the educational, economic and political life of the American nation. He performed a constructive task for humanity.

"In a few months, the public will have forgotten that Valentino ever lived, but the name and influence of Charles Elliot will grow more luminous with the years.

"When truth gets a hearing, the fundamental things of life will be considered more than superficial. We shall come to realize that in every human being there is depths of the soul. When the world catches this great vision of truth, it will realize that the color of one's skin is a superficial, unconsequential thing, and that all men are brothers. Character and achievement are the things that count."

CALIFORNIA EAGLE AUTOMOBILE SECTION

LOS ANGELES THE AUTO HUB

Nothing is causing more regrets in autodom than the passing of summer and with it vacation time. Hundreds have enjoyed outings this year made possible in part by the auto. Los Angeles has been the hub and sent away and received more vacationists than any other burg. They have gone to Elsinore and San Diego in droves, to the Yosemite by the hundreds, to say nothing of San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Coronada and Yellowstone. They have come from Arizona, Mississippi, New York, Chicago, Denver and all parts of the West and departed sold on our climate, our hospitality and conitions in general.

No few have arrived and decided to indefinately or permanently remain.

Now that we are on the eve of autumn, with its twitch of cool weather everyone is talking of the wonderful summer we have had and of their trip to somewhere next year, and it looks like a big time ahead with Elsinore leading the procession.

BOOK CHAT

By: MARY WHITE OVINGTON
Chairman Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

"BLACK HAITI"

By Blair Niles. Published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, 2 West 45th St., New York City. Price $2.50. By mail $2.60.

"There are two Haitis. There is the Haiti that goes to market, that pounds clothes upon the stones of the river, that harvests the cane and the coffee, that, having had revolutions and too many Presidents, now has an advisory Nordic Occupation. But the dream Haiti has nothing to do with this. It is the Haiti of drum and of dance."

Blair Niles is able to see the whole of Haiti and reveals it to us in a book written as though it were a traveller's desultory story but that in reality is accurate, scholarly, with a clear picture of conditions today and a dramatic, historic background. When one is through, one has learned much of Toussaint L'Overture, of Dessalines, and of Christophe, whose marvellous citadel will before long become one of the show places of the world. Christophe is by all odds the most intriguing figure of the three with his great palace, his punctilious, inflexible court etiquette, and his passionate belief in the greatness of the African. Like many another brutal despot he left a magnificent monument, and when his countrymen turned against him, he shot himself in his palace that he might die a King. But the most fascinating part of the book is the dream Haiti, the Haiti of the drum and dance.

Like so much that is interesting in this world, the Haiti of the drum and dance will before long pass away. The "Creation Dance," which the author vividly describes, is performed by the peasants to the long Voodoo drum, "the voice of which so profoundly stirs them that its use has been made illegal." But the law is a dead letter in parts of the Island and if one is unostentatious and mingles with the crowd, one can still hear the drum and watch the primitive dance that is earlier in this world than man. Besides the sound of the drum there is the chorus of male and female voices and the "high, sweet treble of the flute." And all this in the superb, tropic starlight amid the trembling palms.

Besides the history of the Island and the life of the peasants, we have an occasional glimpse of the former ruling class that has been superseded by the marines. A little is told of our intervention, its crudity and also its good side. That something of the sort would come seems now inevitable. Haiti has potential wealth and no wealthy spot can remain long unexploited. Nor can people be permitted to remain ignorant of the laws of health or unable to read the printed page. So little by little we shall see Haiti modernized, automobile roads will succeed donkey paths, and saxophones will take the place of drums. But before that happens we shall all want to visit the Island. Blair Niles' book makes us long to pack our bags and take the next steamer to Port-au-Prince. We want to see the black women making their way with swinging stride to market, their produce on their heads, delighted at the prospect of a day's joyous clatter and the fun of bargaining. We want to hear the drum and watch the Africans in their strange, swaying dance. We want to see and hear this last before a sophisticated version comes to New York to be produced at Carnegie Hall. There is a brightness today about Haiti, despite its poverty, that Anglo-Saxon civilization will subdue. The Anglo-Saxon, our writer says, to some extent "denatured the African. In the Spanish-American countries, a certain austerity in the conquerors subdued the Negro; but in Haiti the mingling of France with Africa was like giving to Africa a drink of champagne; with the result that the personality of Haiti is singularly vital." Let us make haste to get there before the fizz is gone.

Speaks in High Praise of Colored Women's Convention

By: REV. RIDDLE
Pasadena, California,
August 30, 1926.

MR. EDITOR:

Please give me space in your paper to briefly express myself respecting these clubs as I saw them at Oakland, California, August 1-11th.

First, I have seen all National Conventions and Associations of the Race, religious and secular, of all denominations in this country, but it has never been my pleasure to witness a more refined, intellectual and cultured body than this club woman of the race, having as their motto, "Lifting as we Climb."

Second, the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs were hostess to the National Association, and right well did they do their part in entertaining this noble body of women.

Third, Mrs. Corina Bush Hicks, president of the state, deserves special mention in this connection. Her address of welcome was delivered in fine style and choice language. So generous and eloquent was this welcome address that it brought forth greatest program ever held in the hearty applause from the large audience and high encomium of praise and Hicks with a carve-panel mirror. The comment from the president of the National Association, who continued to say this was the greatest convention ever held by the National, and they had never been so royally entertained in any place before. We are proud of the manner in which this, our own Mrs. Hicks, upheld the women of California. Following the first meeting she held a two days' state meeting completing the business of the convention instead of four days as heretofore. She ruled her convention with smiles. Her annual message was a masterpiece of English, concise and filled with wholesome recommendations that brought forth many complimentary remarks from the floor of the convention. At the close of her address she was presented with the Past President's Pin by Mrs. Etta V. Moxley, Past President, in a very complimentary manner, who stated Mrs. Hicks had put over the

If you have been reading the Clatter, you are naturally looking for me to keep the promise I made last week which was to name five Pullman Porters who are eligible to become some sweet woman's slave, providing she can show him a deep point; so here goes—

We will take the Lark first, which is the best train running between Los Angeles and San Francisco. We have on that particular train for your approval: Mr. S. A. Hopgood, drifting all alone in this cruel world, with no one to bring him his bedroom slippers, or take his check on pay day. What a pitty, poor man! that he should be neglected in such a manner. He is a man of unreproachable character and deserves no such treatment. Disposition as follows: Very positive, in anything he undertakes, must be shown to be convinced, good provider and strictly a home man.

2nd—J. Montgomery. Disposition: Steady, sober, but rather tight, believes in holding a dollar until the Eagle hollars. He's my friend! a man who, if he gets a woman that can stand him, will eventually be worth plenty money.

3rd—J. Ponder. Considered handsome in Atlanta, Georgia; makes good money, but you have to stand over him with a club in order to get any of it; crazy about breaking up his essex. Good man for a woman that has a strong will power. Is over twenty years in the service, and eligible to retire at any time on a Pullman Co. pension, very likely to do so if he gets married, thus becoming a burden on your hands for the balance of his life, which will not be long, once he is retired. Your only hope is to have him heavily insured—take him or leave him.

4th—Johnny Moore. Willing if you can get him to stand still long enough to pop the question. Steady worker, and very fast, but likes to keep late hours, somewhat of a sheik and very popular. If you think you can stand the pressure of being with a popular man, he is your best bet. Will take any amount of abuse, but don't crowd him.

5th—M. E. Jackson. Very rough and hard boiled. Believes strictly in M. E. Jackson supremacy. In the habit of knocken 'em down before breakfast, and can best be handled with a blunt instrument, black jack or lead pipe would be the most soothing. Excedingly stubborn and now eligible for a Pullman Co. pension. Very fond of raw meat for supper. Has great ambitions to be like officer Sheffield, but is too short. If you think you can handle him I will personally arrange a meeting for you, in a lonely spot with black surroundings, address Chas. L. Upton, 2190 W. 30th St., Los Angeles, Calif.

I have named the first five, now hold your breath till next week and I will name five more. Positively not responsible if your sweetie is among the next five named—It's EVERY TUB.

PASSES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After an illness of several months, during which time his wife, Mrs. M. R. Jackson exhausted medical skill trying to effect a cure, Mr. M. R. Jackson departed this life July 14.

Mr. Jackson was a trusted employe at the Pacific Southwest Bank where he had been for the past sixteen years, a property owner, a member of Wesley M. E. Church and a highly respected citizen.

THE FORUM

Mr. Bartow Duncan, accompanied by his sister, rendered a very delightful musical program.

Hello Folks, lamp this 'unt'
Sing a song of sixpence,

We'll grant you everything.

Last Wednesday evening the La Volunte Fair Club honored one of its charming members Miss Geraldine Barton with a unique Birthday party at the home of the honoree, 1538 E. Jefferson St.

Red hot music which was furnished by the Unknown Two kept the jovial pleasure exponents in perpetual motion as it were. Later on in the evening novel favors and much confettie were distributed among the guests, and it being a warm evening the punch was constantly being consumed, while assorted nuts and candies kept our jaws well exercised.

At twelve thirty the guests departed wishing Miss Barton, who was also the recipient of many beautiful presents, many, many more very happy birthdays. At this time the Sparks column wishes to congratulate Miss Barton again.

Uncle Joe says he saw a camel the other day with only one hump and wants to know just how it can be accounted for, because you know most camels have two. Well, Uncle Joe, it's just like this: there is an art in getting humps, so I'm afraid that that camel didn't know his art enough to raise a second one. NO! ! ! !

FRESNO

The populace of Fresno as a whole is pleased indeed to note the rapid progress that is being made in the erection of the splendid new Bethel A. M. E. Church, under the capable supervision of the energetic pastor, Rev. Fred A. Hughes.

Mental Indigestion

By:
OSCAR POLK

Do you remember seeing this column some few months ago start and stop almost as quickly? Tell you the reason. Its editor needed a typewriter, a course in spelling, composition and rhetoric, journalism and a dictionary. Then the little woman at home insisted I show some speed in the way of a pay check. Folks, I'M back In starting once again we feel as good as Mr. Jack Dempsey after he has told the cock-eyed-world he drew no color line, feared no man and would bet a roll of money equal to the war debt he could put away "that certain party."

We have been testing the line to see who was the best entry for executive of California in the coming race. Every newspaper of any note has a perfect man, each man wears his own collar, has no machine to take orders from, and favors everything that you think he should favor. I hereby close my eyes and mark No. I will ask my boss which one carries the most space in our paper and take him for my own for he is a sure winner.

The Grand Lodge of the Order of Elks of the World is holding its annual session in Cleveland. The Elks always turn in a successful score sheet on these occasions. They own a great big monument to the industry of make believe. Smooth running, conscientious, alive with activity and they gave to our group work most of the other studios gave to the sons of Japan. I have nothing but praise of those who imitated they give us this lowly work; it is an act that call for back-bone in these times of un-employment.

School opens in a few more days. I mean the schools for higher learning. Howard, for the first time with a race man at its helm. Fisk with a man who has it to understand that he will have "lead or leave" and not drive as did Dr. MacKinzie Wiley, with a new hall named for its colored president and capital of miss Pe. Tuer. Hurrah! When we get halls named for our people it means we are doing in our pockets and make it possible. My grandfather refused to help on a new church that wasn't a race man big enough to bear its name; of course grandmother was of the "Yellow Peg-ty Type" and just wanted an excuse.

So you see, Carroll, it takes a lot of work to get out of bed go to the office, write [illegible]

BROWN-MILLER ROSE PETAL WEDDING

The many voyagers who have launched out on Matrimony's sweet uncharted seas this summer seems to have vied with each other with beautiful weddings, as the wedding of Miss Jean Brown and Jack Miller held at the home of the groom's parents in Colton equalled if it did not surpass the preceding set by the earlier ones.

The bride was ethereally lovely, in a crepe romaine gown beaded in pearls and rhinestones over satin. A cloud-like veil of tulle trimmed with satin roses, duchesse and rose-pointed lace was bound to her taffeta with circlets of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses [illegible] of the valley, with conventional lace frill.

Summer blossoms transformed the house into a veritable fairy bower. Blue and yellow blossoms canopied the walls and like the soft, slow fall of snow, rose petals floated from the ceiling over the bridal party all during the ceremony.

At the reception which followed Mrs. Jack Miller, mother of the groom received in a gown of orchid sequins trimmed in ostrich. Mrs. Florence Brown of St. Louis, mother of the bride wore taffeta and georgette with slippers to match and carried a wonderful ostrich fan.

The happy couple, thus culminating a romance began in Los Angeles last summer were entertained with a wedding breakfast at Burgess Inn, Elsinore, by Miss Orlean Young and Mrs. Benjamin Decuir of Los Angeles.

Then Sunday, August 15th Mrs. Alice Sneed of Colton served a sumptuous seven-course dinner in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Garabaldi motored up from Los Angeles for the occasion. The bride, a talented member of a well-known St. Louis family is a graduate of M. U. and by her cheerful charm has attracted a host of friends. She and her coterie are among the most picturesque of the younger set. San Diego N. A., and San Bernardino High are alma maters of Mr. Miller.

The newlyweds are motoring north in their new Chrysler roadster and on their return it will be announced where they will be at home to their many congratulating friends.

Negro in Sports Discussed By Nation Editor

(By A. N. P.)

New York City, Aug. 27.—According to the editor of Nation, the Negro athletes' only alternative is to develop their own associations and organizations. Discussing this subject editorially, the editor declared:

"One hundred Negro tennis players fought for the Rhetta cup at St. Louis in the tenth annual Negro tennis tournament of the United States. Why should these tennis players be segregated in a race tournament? Is national tennis a white man's burden? Why should not the best of the Negro players be entered in the national tournaments at Forest Hills? Many Northern colleges make a contribution to racial understanding by welcoming Negro players in football, baseball and track; last year the University of Chicago had a Negro tennis play on its team. But in professional baseball, none-collegiate tennis, and in most other sports Negroes are barred from competition with whites. The major leagues never admit even the most brilliant colored baseball player; the National Lawn Tennis Association is made up exclusively of white members. Even in pugilism Dempsey has been able to use the color line to evade meeting his most powerful rival, who happens to be a Negro. The colored athletes have only one alternative, to develop sporting events of their own. There are already Negro baseball circuits throughout the country; near Westfield, New Jersey, the Negroes of New York have their own country club and golf course, and a new club is opening near Boston."

Mrs. Lula B. McCabe has returned to her home in Billing, Montana. While in this city she was the house guest of Mrs. E. E. Major, 1406 E. 16th St. Mrs. McCabe came as a delegate to the national convention of Colored Women's Clubs. She is very active in club work and is also an talented musician and daughter of one of Montana's pioneers and capitalists.

AN INTERVIEW WITH EMERY B. WILLIAMS OF LAS CRUCES, N.M. WHO IS VISITING LOS ANGELES

Between Albuquerque, New Mexico and El Paso, Tex., is located the Elephant Butte Dam, which is the largest irrigation project constructed by our government to date. However, there has been but a small portion of this land reclaimed that was not in cultivation at some time in the past.

Under this great project are three beautiful valleys, Rincon, Mesilla and Rio Grande. The Mesilla is the queen of the three, she has an area of about 75 miles long by three to five miles wide, it is divided by the river from the North to South. About the center is located the beautiful little city of Las Cruces, with its 6000 population; with an adjacent population of about 25,000, with plenty room for more.

Las Cruces has the State College of Agriculture and the Mechanical Art High School worth $125,000, six grade schools, twelve churches, two theatres and two beautiful parks.

Las Cruces is the shipping point for the products of this great valley, there being some three or four thousand carloads of melons, cabbage, spinach, lettuce, green beans and many cars of mixed vegetables, also apples, pears, peacheed grapes, alfalfa and cotton shipped to the Eastern points.

There are small grain of all kinds raised in great quantities, oats, barley, hard and soft wheat, corn, milo, cane, fruits—apricots, berries, plums, pears, peaches and apples.

Next to cotton, one of our main industries is Dairying. I, personally know eight or nine families who came to this valley just a few years ago without enough money to pay for a good meal, today they count their money by the thousands derived from this particular line of endeavor.

It is not very hard to understand how one can say, "Out of the Woods," here, any man or woman, black or white that will work and use good judgment in this wonderful valley, can make good. First, we have an almost unlimited market for our products in the beautiful city of El Paso, with its 75,000 population, being 300 miles from the main belt; there is no limit to our Dairy products and nearly all Grain and Foodstuff, we can produce in three valleys, finds a ready market at our very door—El Paso and Juarez, Mex.

Our climate is ideal, there are 320 sun shining days in the year. Nights are cool enough in the summer. Just cold enough in the winter to kill most of the undesirable germ life, with an elevation of 4,000 fet, and in about the same latitude as Brunswick, Ga., or San Diego, Calif.

Las Cruces, offers some wonderful opportunities aside from the agriculture field, there is an excellent opening here for Poultry Raising, canning factory, a first class Hotel and many opportunities for other enterprises.

There are hundreds of acres of government land open to homesteaders, adjacent to Mesilla Valley.

There are fifty miles of hard surface roads and about the same amount of gravel roads. Las Cruces is the County seat of Dona-Ana County.

THIS FINE HOME CAN BE BOUGHT FOR $500.00 DOWN PAYMENT.

White's Job on Penn. Commission In Jeopardy

(By A. N. P.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 28.—According to reports being circulated here, Charles Fred White has jeopardized his position on the Pennsylvania Boxing Commission by voting against holding the proposed Dempsey-Tanney bout in Pennsylvania. White's action in this matter, which placed justice above the dollars that would come to the state, is said to have angered governor Pinchot to such an extent that he is ousted a successor to White.

For several years, Mr. White has been the only Negro on the Pennsylvania Commission and has gained the reputation of dealing fairly, justly, and impartially with all problems coming before the commission and his race's nation was no surprise to those who knew what a high type of manhood he represented. While his vote against the bout which New York drove from its boundaries might have displeased Gov. Pinchot, it has certainly gained the approval of thousands of fair-minded Pennsylvanians who want to see justice meted out regardless of race, creed, or color.

H. Brown Haberdashery Moves to New Quarters

Henry Brown, well-known Tailor, who has for many years conducted a Tailoring business, cleaning and dyeing establishment in this city, keeping step with progress has moved to larger quarters and further south to 1223 So. Central Avenue.

For years Mr. Brown was located on Ceres avenue, near the Southern Pacific station. He out-grew this section, moved on East 9th St., near Central Ave., where he put in connection with his Tailoring, Cleaning and Dyeing business a up-to-date haberdashery department. His business grew and to branch out he moved to his present location as mentioned above.

Mr. Brown and his faithful wife are both energetic and progressive; they have not only from the ground up established a highly creditable business, but are alert to the advancement of the race and pay out weekly quite a pay roll, which is the main spring for real progress.

NEGRO ART IN DANGER

(A. N. P.)

Paris, France, Aug. 28.—In a current issue of Life, Julian Maigret has a highly significant article entitled, "Josephine Baker and Negro Art," in which he speaks of the danger run by Negro art from the influence of whites, especially inexperienced white musicians.

The person most injurious to Negro art, according to Margret, is the gentleman who, at the expense of the government, with diplomas and certain awards from "Machines to make artists, has been delegated expressly for the renovation of local arts. One is always compelled to receive this class of performer with a feeling of dread. With the support of the state, a diabolical patience, the enthusiasm of a secretary and the boldness of a professional, threatens in a couple of years to destroy all originality in art.

"In sculpture, continues Maigret, it is undeniable that there are specimens of Negro art which show all the primitive originality and which will remain a silent witness to the sagacious of the artists who fashioned them. The genius of this sympathetic race for certain expressions, has been due in an unmistakable style from the most remote times.

"But while this religious sculpture shows unmistakable types, there is now evident yet, which destroys more surely than the wanton work of the white artists are with them to the point where nothing remains but a pale imitation of our own academies."

COLDS AND YOUR BABY

Colds and summer diarrhoea are very prevelant among babies at this season. Here are two primary causes for the same. Improper feeding first, and poor hygiene second. During summer months many parents think that ice cream should form an integral part of the diet of their children. This is a grave error. It will ruin the stomach of any child on earth to eat ice cream cones, candy and other sweet meats at random. The stomach becomes irritated, the bowels become disordered and the whole system deranged. Intense sweets over long periods are definite poisons to the system and no child can withstand colds or other diseases in this debilitated state.

Not only do sweets disorder the body, but the eating of sweets takes away the desire for wholesome foods and for this reason again, the body is greatly weakened. Regular meals are absolutely necessary in order to insure good health to your child.

TOO MANY CLOTHES AND TOO LITTLE AIR

Most mothers dress babies too warmly and their little over-heated bodies easily take cold. Put just as few clothes on the child and infant as possible. Feel the little toes and the end of the nose, if these are warm your baby is alright even though it has on only a diady and little shirt. Do not neglect the daily bath for baby during these hot days, above all other things. A warm bath followed by a cold pail pour is the ideal form of cleansing.

And lastly, let the child have fresh air. Bathe baby and then put it out-doors. To stay there all day long—until the sun goes down. Real fresh air bathes and almost immune to colds. Their skins are hardened and their lungs are filled with pure air which nothing the miracles of nature.

To start it all up—bunch of tomato beginner meal, fried potatoes, fried meat, wholesome food REGULARLY. Bathe it daily. Do not coop them up. Let it live in the fresh air. And you will indeed have a "million dollar" baby with perfect health. Taken them in some natural environments where small children are with their mothers to perform their duties.

NEAR RIOT OVER CHICKEN

Excitement prevailed at the Greenspan Poultry Store last Monday morning when one of the understrappers of the Greenspan place got fresh and stepped up to Rev. Emanuel Hall and told him he had heard enough from a "Nigger". As good as Mr. Hall felt about the remark he very promptly knocked the scullion down. Hall stood his ground while the excitable Greenspan, his wife and employee raged. One of them got a meat cleaver. A crowd gathered by this time and some one just politely dispossed the man of the dangerous weapon and put him in his place.

To an Eagle reported was told the story by Mr. Hall and Mr. J. H. Eades who conducts the barber shop next door to the poultry house, and for whom Mr. Hall works.

Mr. Hall stated that he went into the place in quest of a Chicken the evening before, priced one, and Greenspan named a price. Hall asked him to put it on the scales, this Greenspan refused to do, claiming that his word was just as good as the scales. Hall demurred and left the place. The next morning Greenspan approached Mr. Hall and inquired why not take the chicken. Hall proceeded to tell him a few things and in stepped the understrapper as related above.

Strange to relate in connection with this disturbance that 90 per cent of Greenspan's trade is colored, yet the insulting remark of "Nigger" was a common expression last Tuesday morning. It is said that even Greenspan's wife hysterically yelled out she would poison the poultry which she sold and kill the "Niggers".

Lye Kills "Husband"

(By The Associated Negro Press)

New York, Sept. 7.—William Jones, 26, who lived at 1760 Third Avenue, died in the Mt. Sinai Hospital. Physicians say that his death was due to the effects of lye said to have been thrown on him by his common law wife, Ophelia Winston, giving her age as 27 years, during a fight. The woman claims that she threw the lye in self defense as Jones was beating her.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 7.—Featured by a parade of Shriners, Templars, and blue lodge members of the Masonic order, numbering more than 10,000, this city has been host to a gathering that goes down in histroy. The parade was directed through the downtown streets, and it is said that it will probably be among the last on account of the congestion of traffic.

EDITORIAL FORE AND AFTER THOUGHT

By C. A. B.

Lauretta Butler and the Kiddies Minstrel

On Monday evening, August 30, Labor Temple was the setting for the second staging of the Kiddies Minstrel for this season.

Without a doubt this entertainment is the most unique of its kind that we have ever been privileged to witness. Each child was a character and in many instances to the far seeing, a future Rucker, Black Patti, Charles Gilpin or Bert Williams appeared on the Dramatic Horizon.

From the first ascent of the curtain until the very last act each participant retained stage ease and graces not uncommon in the seasoned artist and in every act each character seemed especially designed for his and her part. And as we looked on in keen appreciation, and even now as we soliloquize the unselfish love for child life of Lauretta Butler forms the background for this traiing of the youth in our community.

Miss Butler has either consciously or unconsciously made a psychological study of child life—her appreciation for this stage of development in both body and mind is pronouncedly keen, and highly sympathetic. She herself is clever and first of all gains the respect of the children because they realize that she knows what she would have them know—children are your best critics.

But what we are wondering is this: Do the parents of these "Kiddies Minstrel" children realize and appreciate what this young woman is doing for their children when she seeks to develop the artistic side of their lives? It is said by Europeans that this grace of American life has been seriously neglected. Is she leading? Then help her to help the little ones.

Lose Another Pullman Case

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Washington, Sept. 7.—Recommendations were made this week that the interstate commerce commission dismiss the complaint of J. P. Harden, Chicago, who sought $25,000 from the Pullman Company for alleged failure to furnish him accommodations, by Burton Fuller, the commission examiner. Mr. Hardon claimed to have been ordered away from the ticket window in Atlanta when he sought to purchase Pullman accommodations two years ago, but the Atlanta Pullman agent blandly protested that such was not the case, that he had not ever denied a Negro Pullman privileges. Of course,the word of the white man outweighed the insult and inconvenience to Mr. Hardon, who is an attorney in Chicago. All those who believe the Pullman agent may try to buy Pullman berths out of Atlanta.

FOURTEEN YEARS' RESEARCH TO PERFECT BLEACH

The skins of various Races are anatomically different in texture and formation as well as in pigmentation. All skins may be bleached but a preparation though scientifically perfect may work with one skin but not with another. The cuticle of the Afro-American skin is much thinner and of finer grain than that of the Latin Races and some other branches of the Caucasian, somewhat finer than the Indian's and much more than that of the Esquimaux. To this end a famous chemist experimented and worked for fourteen years until he hit upon the formula most suitable to the skin of fastidious colored ladies. This wonderful preparation is called QICK, its treatment, fineness, smoothness and perfect absorbtion makes it the best proven bleach and one absolutely guaranteed to remove the blemishes that retard one in society.

YOUNG COLLEGE MAN PRAISES EDITOR FOR STAND ON NEGRO EXPOSITION

MR. J. B. BASS,
Editor The California Eagle,
Los Angeles, California.
Sir:

Your fearless attack upon the recent "Negro Exposition" is well worth continued praise from all Black Americans who have an ounce of manhood. The subsequent personal encounter into which you were forced is proof enough of the questionable procedure of the "Exposition."

But, aside from an attempt to make the Race appear as the cheapest kind of a circus clown, the "affair" was scheduled to include two men of color, along with others, who have won the applause of the world—Professor Carver, scientific wizard of Tuskegee and Charles Gilpin, dean of Black exponents of the Historic Art.

Nor were Angelenos overlooked in the pernicious mess, among them, myself. I was asked to direct the "Literary Exhibit," several weeks ahead and set aside other business to lend a hand. I received no communication from "headquarters" in the meantime and was surprised and chagrned to hear on the streets after the opening that what had been conceived an array of Black folks' achievements, had been born a grotesquely mocking country carnival with whites gathering in the financial sheaves.

Surely those who thought the services they were asked to contribute were for Racial aggrandisement, must have felt the same white-hot resentment that I did at the presumptuous affront. When an individual has accomplished anything, he does not wish it exploited and cheapened by those who would sell their souls for a mess of pottage.

Betrayers of the man and womanhood of Black Americans, ravenous wolves in sheep's clothing, those who ply a dastardly traffic in Black souls under the spotless cloak of Religion, those who would prostitute Christianity, should be compelled by public ostracism to quit the community.

I repeat, Mr. Editor, your unmasked denouncement of the burlesque 'Negro Exposition," is highly commendable and, like the proverbial bread cast upon the waters, must return to you, for Truth belongs to the eternal years.

Respectfully,
LeROY S. HART, M. A.
Room 258, Court House,
Los Angeles, California.

Boy Killer Given Respite

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Cleveland, Ohio., Sept. 7.—A two weeks' stay o fexecution was granted by Gov. A. V. Donahey because attorneys, representing Emanuel Ross, the 17 year old killer who was to have been electrocuted Friday, contended that his conviction and sentence were faulty inasmuch as he was not first tried in the Juvenile Court, but indicted by the county grand jury and brought before the court of Common Pleas.

"Appearances", Production Of Garland Anderson, To Be Staged On Coast

The wonderful play, "Appearances" which created such a furore in New York, and has the unqualified endorsement of all the greatest talent in the country, will not be sold for the screen before its pproduction on the stage on the Pacific Coast.

The author of the play, Mr. Garland Anderson, has made arrangements to stage it here in this city, and has so provided that the people who desire to become part beneficiary of the proceeds of this remarkable play may do so on the easiest possible terms.

To stage the play for its initial production will cost something like $30,000. The author is staking his play and giving his note as security, for loans until that amount has been realized, and in addition to the regular interest will give each creditor share and share alike on each dollar advanced.

The people who appreciate genius and the great moral effect that this play will have where ever it is shown are rallying to the call and supporting Mr. Anderson in this effort. We most assuredly endorse the proposition as one worth while and "Appearances" will pay out, without doubt with a very choice dividend on the side. By all means get in touch with Mr. Anderson and do your best for the advancement of this laudable opportunity.

The office of Mr. Anderson is in the office of Attorney W. O. Tyler, 224 So. Spring Street, where any desired information may be obtained.

Echoes From the Original 4 Harmony Kings

Blackpool, England,
August 21, 1926.

My Dear Mrs. Bass:

I trust this will find you and family well and enjoying good health. In receiving the "Eagle" I noticed the mention about our "Baby" and Mrs. Browning and I want to thank you so very much in letting our Los Angeles friends know about the arrival of our darling little girl. She and "Maurine" are fine as can be and send their love to you.

I noticed in the last article there was a reference as to our being from New York. I do love to feel that Los Angeles is our real home, regardless of where we are, for we do love you people out there and think of our dear, dear friends there all the time. And we hope to come home some day with our daughter and live in our little home there, for after all, there is no place like California and no friends like our Los Angeles friends.

I gues my "Daddy" is so proud these days until he can hardly walk and we are so happy that he is so proud of his granddaughter; I have just received a most beautiful letter from him in regards to the baby. She is indeed a very, very popular little Miss and has received many beautiful things from our good friends here—Germany, Ireland, France and America. Our English friends say she is English, but regardless, she is a little American right on and has been registered as such.

We are playing a very beautiful summer resort here this week and there are people of all kinds, and thousands of them. It is the most interesting place we have been since we have been over, excepting maybe Scotland. This time of year, however, is indeed pretty all over here. The reporter on this paper here called to interview me, and in so doing I found that he, like nearly all of these people over here, seem to really abuse the term "Coon." Their idea is that a "Coon" is realy a Negro blacked up; of course the White Southerner brought that Idea over here years ago when introducing Negro songs and made fun of them.

This reporter was very, very nice and really seemed to appreciate the information I gave him. Nevertheless he varied to an extent and in writing it up, put it in his own way. I think the "Negro" press in general should comment on the ideas that these people have as regards to "Negro" songs, because to a great extent they are all wrong.

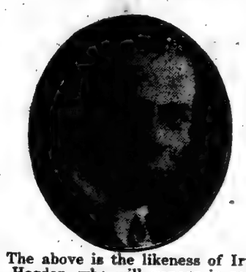
We are still as busy as can be and we are away from London for a fortnight after having just finished a nine weeks' run there.

We do enjoy the "Eagle" so much, as it does keep us in touch with our dear friends out there, and I want to congratulate you on the progress it has and is making, for it is truly a lovely paper.

Kindly remember me to Mr. Bass and the entire staff.

Each member of the Quartett wishes to be remembered to you, and certainly wish you continued success at all times. If I can be of any service to you while over here, the pleasure will all be mine.

I am most sincerely your friend and a real Los Angeleno.



IVAN H. BROWNING.

Whites Renew Attacks on Chicago Negroes

Chicago, Sept: 6.—Protesting that he fought to keep from being lynched, Willie Woods, 13, who was captured in the cellar of his home from which he had shot 3 white persons, was escued by policemen who were part of a detail of 100 men that was rushed to Maxwell St. District to prevent a riot. Woods tolds the officers that the whites in the neighborhood picked on him. One of the white men claimed that Woods had struck his five-year-old son.

The Maxwell Street District is the most thickly populated section of Chicago. The white element is composed largely of foreigners of whom the most are Jews. Trouble between them and the Negroes has become increasingly frequent. Three years ago a Negro was lynched on one of the corners. Two weeks ago, flaming rag-wrapped bricks were thrown through the windows of a Negro home. Negroes who go into the district from other sections of the city immediately note a spirit of antagonism.

IRVING L. HARDON IN RECITAL

The above is the likeness of Irving L. Hardon, who will appear in recital Thursday evening, Sept. 16th, at Chickering Hall, Dept. of the Southern California Music Company at 808 So. Broadway.

Let all Los Angeles see to it that this young artist has a rousing ovation upon this occasion.

Mr. Hardon's splendid baritone voice brought forth the deepest emotion from Roland Hayes, who after hearing him sing, immediately subscribed to a fund that this recital is intended to augment with which he is to go to Boston to further study under Mr. Arthur J. Hubbard, ex-teacher of Mr. Hayes.

All who have heard young Hardon including Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, James Weldon Johnson and Prof. W. E. B. DuBois, pronounce him a genius.

A Great Success For A Great Man

MR. A. J. BARNES
Who Has Just Closed One Of The Most Successful Campaigns

Rev. Rozier, at this time we wish to thank you and your congregation for your efficient and loyal support. We feel that you were the right man in the right place for without your wonderful cooperation we could not have given to the public this efficient and trust worthy man, Mr. A. J. Barnes for Supervisor, which we feel we will never have cause to regret.

To all of our workers of the 3rd district, we extend thanks for their splendid work, and especially do we thank Mrs. Thornberry, who worked among and with us so lovingly.

Mrs. ROBENSTEIN HAMMOND
Of 73rd District.

By: W. J. WHEATON

The political pot simmered, boiled, and then for some boiled over and in slang parlance, "Burned the Beans." C. C. Young and his pregressive program has carried the first trenches of the battle and according t the strategist will win the ultimate contest in November. The National forces represented by U. S. Senator, Samuel M. Shortridge caused a debacle in the ranks of the opposition and, if we are to be led by the comments of the press on previous primaries, is California's endorsement of the administration of Calvin Coolidge, for Senator Shortridge was an avowedly Coolidge adherent.

The defeat of the present State executive was to be expected. The Race vote to a man and woman—with the exception of those who had received some minor favor at his hands—were against his retention in office. The Governor's inability to see without the pale" as far as the Race vote of the State was concerned. The inability of the Governor to distinguish between the dignity of a judgeship and "boot shining stand" carried far in the aleniation of racial support.

Designing politicians will allow nothing to hinder them in the attainment of their end, so the splendid lady who made the cat's paw of unscrupulous men in carrying out their political designs is more to be pitied than censured, for being a character beyond reproach, she could not conceive of duplicity in others. Although the Governor had never before deigned to appear before a Race audience it was arranged that he should appear at one of the churches. The splendid woman, who was imposed upon, was invited also to meet him. Words of praise were put in her mouth, and being a stranger, unacquainted with the political life of the State, eulogized the Administration for its impartiality in the matter of appointments. Of course, not being acquainted with the nature of those appointments she could not enumerate them. MAYBE IT WAS BEST.

The tabulation of the vote, state and national, proves one thing and that is, that a consolidated Race vote can elect or defeat a candidate. It would be well to scrutinize with care every aspriatnt for legislative honors, state and national, and give our support to those men and women who can vision clearly and who can discern ability under whatever color or complexion. We have great faith in the forward looking policies as enumerated by candidate C.C.Young and look forward to a successful admiistration of the state when he is finally elected in November. It is rumored that former Supervisor Eugene Schmidt will make an independent race for Governor. What we want to see is every race voter in San Fancisco get behind Judge Walter Perry Johnson and vote him over the top!

Remember that we are still calling your attention to the desirability of purchasing farm land and becoming producers. Our observations the past several weeks have more and more convinced us that the mediums of production and agriculture seems at present to offer the best opportunities, will be the means of breaking down many of the racial barriers and the eventual solving of many vexing racial questions. The man who can raise the best potatoes is the MAN.

GORDON MANOR

• ——AND as we have told you before, Folks, we purchased this ground, 213 acres, by option, agreement to buy and finally Deed in Trust to the Commercial National Bank on February 18, 1926—NOW we shall tell you more about GORDON MANOR.

In the absence of DR. WILBUR C. GORDON, we have been instructed to write facts as they concern the people.

In syndicating this project the initial cost was $572,046.60; the second stage of our financing program involved $458,439.16 more as a protection for roads, lights, gas, ornamental street fixtures, fire plugs, water system, sewers, etc., another step brought $1,000,000 to secure building material and $2,500,000 for construction work, fire, life and sick and accident insurances, all of which backed up our contract to build 1000 houses, put in lawns and shrubbery, etc.; we were to build these houses in units of 200 beginning May 10th. We had secured an additional $2,500,000 for protection of all houses which might be desired and which after completion would have to sell for more than $5,000.00. In adding these figures we find $7,030,485.76, all of which is still available for the protection of GORDON MANOR.

The Man who had the Guts to back up this idea with every dollar available for preliminary financing was WILBUR C. GORDON to undertake a deal of such magnitude necessitated much vision and plenty of cold steel nerve.

It was the undersigned who worked out this idea in detail and did the pyramid financing—but behind it all folks, it was, Confidence in the people and Faith in our God of supply that gave us the driving power.

All of you know that there has been posted a notice to condemn this property. This long delay has told us many things. We have concluded that it's not your supervisors who brought about this tie up, they are not to be censured too much—they have really helped us—the weight comes from higher ups, but not too high for us to reach so consequently we have gone after them and the same faith and prayerful watching will bring us out victorious.

We are determined to win, we must win, and we will win, because you and all of you are going to stand together as never before to ward off the biggest blow ever aimed at you as a group.

The Black restrictions aim at you individually. Now comes the mighty "Mattoon Act" which is destined to wipe you out in groups whenever and as often as they can prove a public necessity, by condemning your entire holdings for park purposes,

We have ordered these people into the U. S. court (Judge James, presiding) to be heard on September 20th. Whether you have an interest in Gordon Manor or not you should be there.

We urge every Black American to bury your likes and dislikes and stand together with the strength of Gibralta. A victory at this time might mean the saving of West Jefferson District, Furlong Tract, Watts District or Central Avenue Gardens, some day—Who knows?

Respectfully Submitted,

By JOURNEE W. WHITE,

For WILBUR C. GORDON.

ANOTHER BIG SERVICE AT THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Sunday night, September 12th at the Big Tent, 20th and Central Ave., Evangelist P. G. Rogers has promised to present his big sermon, "The Great Feast of Belshazzar." This is one of those out of the ordinary discourses which sets a man to thinking, for it is not merely a recital of the description of the feast as recorded in the fifth chapter of the book of Daniel, but it is presented in such a way as to link the present with the past so as to get the real lesson which it is believed is contained in the story.

If you have never been to the Big Tent, make this service the opportune time to visit. Be there on time so as to get a good seat and to hear every word of the sermon. Promptly at 7:30 P. M. the service begins, so be on time. Every seat is free.

Services every night in the week at the same time. A crowd is always present.

Claim Slave's Son is Not a Citizen

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—The department of labor, through its commissioner of naturalization has just been called upon to determine the status of the son of a slave who recently tried to vote in Detroit. The man's father escaped slavery in South Carolina in 1858 and went to Canada where the son was born in 1859. While the son was still young, he emigrated to Datroit, Mich., and settled there. Now it is contended that the son is not an American citizen.

Are You Thinking?

My Dear Mrs. Bass!

Reading the editorial on remarks of Mrs. Hicks, Pres. of P. T. A. Holmes Avenue School, touching on segregation in the schools of California.

Do you not know that the Holmes Avenue School and P. T. A. is a model example handed to you every time a question arises in the other group concerning the separate schools and the P. T. A. in California. An old saying is true that a still tongue makes a wise head.

Do you not know that we have citizens here that will not let their children go to public schools because of the different mixture of the races in the schools, and they are not all from across the Mason and Dixon Line, either.

Don't you know that so much agitation on a thing that you do not wish will come if you keep at it. The wise thing for Negro mothers and fathers to do is to be real active citizens in everything and in every way that comes up pertaining to American citizenship. Be boosters for your school and your P. T. A. instead of knockers.

Do you know that there are not half a dozen of Negro mothers and fathers who make weekly or monthly visits to their school. I have visited over a hundred schools in the past year. That is what every Principal tells me—"You folks don't visit the school. Why don't you? What's the trouble? How can you tell who is going on in the schools if you are not on friendly terms with the teachers and Principal."

In the past year there have been letters written from persons in our group and from persons representing organizations and some have gone personally to the officers and P. T. A. saying things that were not just right. That does not make peace—only confusion instead. Don't you know that all the School Board are members of the P. T. A.? and all the leading women and men in California are members of the different local P. T. A's. Organizations like the Chamber of Commerce and other civic bodies are up on all questions pertaining to the schools in California. Behind all questions pertaining to the schools in California. Behind the closed door meetings you still have a few friends who are helping to guide the school question. Stop so much idle gossip and aline yourself to the upbuilding of your community. There is nothing in cheap notoriety. Be real doers. A person that is doing worthwhile things does not have to get a hammer to knock someone else to be seen. If you are an active worker in civic affairs, you don't have to live in a town for twenty years before you are eligible. When a person moves into a city, town, or community, you have as much right as a woman or man born there. Your usefulness depends on your willingness to serve others. Working in public life is serving others. A real true-blooded man or woman enjoys it. There is sweet that comes with the bitter, but it is the service you render that counts after all.

THE FORUM

Sunday's meeting was very interesting. Several important committees made reports of success.

The Forum appointed a committee to arrange for a banquet to be given in honor of Mrs. C. A. Bass just before she leaves the city on a six months' vacation.

The Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters assisted by the Women's Economic Council will render an interesting program Sunday, Sept. 12, it doubtless will be worth your time to witness this program.

Gives Good Advice

(By A. N. P.)

Shreveport, La., Sept. 4.—Dr. W. R. Perkins, dean of the L. S. U. College of Agriculture, in an address before several hundred at the community fair, urged the workers to live at home, grow more food crops, produce more cotton per acre, have bank accounts, own homes, educate their children to become better citizens, and to make themselves solid members of the community in which they live.

Valet to Four Presidents Is Dead After Illness

MAJOR ARTHUR BROOKS RAISED SARTORIAL SPLENDOR OF TAFT. WILSON. HARDING AND COOLIDGE

Washington, Sept. 7.—Major Arthur Brooks, Negro valet to Presidents Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson, Harding and Coolidge died here today at his home after a long illness. He had been suffering from valvular heart trouble and his death was not unexpected.

His end marks the gradual passing of the old White House retainers. He was particularly beloved by the entire executive official family for his kindliness and obedience.

President Coolidge was particularly pleased by Major Brooks' services, and only last week the presidential spokesman took occasion at the summer White House to extol the virtues of the aged retainer.

ONE OF 'FINEST MEN'

"Major Brooks is one of the finest men in Washington," he declared. The title "major" is now a misnomer. Brooks is a lieutenant colonel, or was when he passed the age limit for the reserves.

"He is every inch a soldier, and a hell of a good valet," one of the President's military aides commented once on the strange combination of "dog robber" and commander. Brooks came to the White House under the Taft regime, and President Taft became one of the smartest dressed men in the capital, despite his then unstylish girth.

President Wilson, like most college presidents, was not a very smart dresser. But when he visited Europe, his elegant taste in clothes was the subject of favorable comment.

HARDING AIDED

President Harding likewise underwent a change for the better in the matter of clothes when he was elected to the presidential office, though he always had a reputation for sartorial elegance. But perhaps Brooks' most difficult subject was the present occupant of 1600 Pennsylvania avenue. Mr. Coolidge's stature and figure are of the type to give bad nights to clothes designers. While he was Vice-President, his clothes were subject to considerable friendly criticism. Now he is considered one of the best dressed men in the country, and one of the few short men who can wear a silk hat with dignity.

Brooks has been in retirement, more or less, for the past year, due to ill health.

PASADENA YOUNG MAN RECEIVES IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

Arthur E. Prince of Pasadena has been elected to teach history and civics in the East Side School, El Centro. He will also assist Prof. Stewart in physical education for boys.

Young Price is a splendid young man and well known in Southern California. He is a graduate from Pasadena High School and took his A. B. from U. S. C. Since graduating from the University he has taken post graduate work in education and will prove a valuable assistant to the already very strong faculty of the East Side School. Mr. Prince and family will leave for their new field of labor about the 16th, his work beginning September 20th. Mrs. Prince is a splendid musician and will no doubt find ample opportunity for her talent in the several fields of activity that the community affords.

R. H. Hicks and wife report a very gratifying trip to the Elks Convention. They returned home via Nashville, Tenn., and New Orleans, La.

Reception To Sidney P. Dones And Bride

The Christian Tavern, 1318 East Vernon Avenue, was all aglow on last Wednesday evening when the friends and acquaintances had arranged to honor Mr. Dones with an elaborate reception in honor of his home coming and his bride.

The affair was formal and many stunning gowns were worn by the ladies and the men wore conventional black.

The bride is the daughter of one of Tennessee's foremost and prominent business men. The groom is one of the hustling citizens of Los Angeles, and has been prominent for years in the Realty and Loan Business, and various enterprizes have rated him as energetic and successful in his various lines of effort.

The reception was given under the direction of Mr. Wood Wilson, Chairman and J. A. Bush, Secretary of the Committee of Friends who gave this very elaborate and successful affair complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Dones.

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dones took place at the bride's home in Memphis, Tenn., September the 1st.

Love Nest Inn, Elsinore Mecca For Pleasure Seekers and Tourists

Far-famed Elsinore with its invigorating and health giving climate, noted for the medicinal qualities of its abundant supply of water, only a two and one-half hours' drive from Los Angeles has in its wake one of Los Angeles business men who, with an eye to see to it that the people of our group in their daily, weekly or monthly pilgrimages to this resort shall have the very best accommodations possible and Mrs. J. Strider and son, suiting action to the thought sixteen months ago, opened what is known as The Love Nest Inn. Since that time steady but surely this enterprise has grown to gigantic proportions and today is the cynosure of all eyes when a visit is made to this famous resort. From nothing sixteen months ago The Love Nest Inn rises up in gigantic form and can accommodate fifty or more guests. It represents every modern convenience; every room is furnished with the latest designs. With bath and showers where the customers get the fullest benefit of the wonderful sulphur water bath—hot and cold.

The management specializes in parties and furnishing entertainment for those desirous of the same by calling 552 Elsinore, California, or HUmbolt 8303-W, Los Angeles, Calif.

The outstanding feature of the Love Nest Inn is its culinary department and super service rendered, under the supervision of Mrs. Strider.

The entertainment feature for Saturdays, Sundays and holidays when the management furnishes high class music draws immense crowds from all sections and surrounding towns.

Truly on these and all other days all roads lead to the Love Nest Inn at Elsinore and no visit to California is complete without a visit to this unique, novel and worth while hostelry.

The big days of this season attested the popularity of Love Nest Inn, when great crowds gathered to hear and partake of the gorgeous entertainment furnished. No other place in Southern California enjoys or had a greater representation or prestige as the Love Nest Inn enjoys.

ELSINORE ALIVE WITH VISITORS

Big Sunday And Labor Day Throngs

Elsinore, the health resort and placid Lake Shore, was the spot where out group sought on last Sunday and Monday for recreation and pleasure. They went in their own cars and in the busses. Reservations at hotels and private homes were at a premium. Long before midnight on Sunday the "Nothing Doing" sign was posted at Coleman's Hotel De Luxe. The Love Nest Inn and other less pretentious places where they accomodate visitors were also filled. Countless numbers camped out or were content with the luxury of canvas cots, lounges and Morris chairs. The crowd was a good natured one which journeyed here for two days of recreation and were glad to get the same at any cost.

Lake Shore beach did a thriving business as the crowds showed a partiality to the exuberance of shade trees and cozy nooks. To this feature was the added attraction of music from which the younger set seemed to get a real kick, as they danced within the huge pavillion.

While the Coleman De Luxe hotel was a special center of interest and a gathering place for all during both day and night, the Love Nest Inn shared honors and a great multitude indeed was present all evening at this place enjoying the hospitality therein.

Other places of interest were Tuckers Place, the Silvia Lax Springs and others more or less interesting were given the once over by the visiting throngs.

Elsinore is a dandy place to go for a wee kend, a vacatiin, or a rest. We would suggest that on the big holidays, such as last Monday and the Fourth, that Elsinore business men who benefit by the crowds should have some sort of program at a stated place and time. We only suggest this feature for we really believe it would benefit the visitors equally so as the business man.

We say to Lake Shore people doll up your beach, make it convenient to the patron, and as attractive as possible. There is no good reason why Elsinore should not provide the year around a most wonderful and popular resort.

SILVIA LAX SPRINGS, ELSINORE, CALIFORNIA

Opportunity indeed is now knocking at the door of Messrs. Taylor & Co., who are the owners of the great medicinal springs at Elsinore. As we heard Mrs. Taylor unfold to us the many miroculous cures wrought at this fountain of health we could but marvel at the oportunity at hand.

Right in the heart of Elsinore, bubbling out of the earth the waters of Silvia Lax Springs come forth and have sent henceforth scores of persons who have been made happy.

Right here with an inexhaustible supply of water, we should say our people along with even all other people who could rejoice in benefitting mankind, should give to these people such a support that they can establish here a monument dedicated to the helpfulness of mankind. We are informed that men with means are offering great sums of money for this proposition and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have thus far turned a deaf ear to such offers as they want this opportunity to go for the benefit of their own group.

Having come into personal contact with the famous Silvia Lax water, we are strong boosters for the efficacy of the same.

Dr. R. C. Anderson in charge, is an adept in its application and when he has finished his diagnosis and professional treatment, it is in order for his patients to go forth as men and women.

SUDDEN DEATH A SHOCK TO COMMUNITY

James T. Buchanan, well known and respected citizen of Sacramento, was found dead on last Friday at the Tuesday Club House quarters.

Mr. Buchanan's death was a shock to the community for he was apparently in the best of health and humor having but recently returned from a month's vacation which was spent in the bay cities and Los Angeles.

Leaving home for the Tuesday Club after enjoying a hasty noon day meal, he failed to put in an appearance toward evening at his home. His tardiness caused his relations to start an investigation which resulted in the finding of his body as stated. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Buchanan was a resident of Sacramento for over 23 years, during which time he acquired a large circle of friends.

Recently his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, arrived in the city from Indiana to make their home with him and he seemed much elated.

Mr. Buchanan was a member of long standing in Sacramento Lodge 2189 G. U. O. O. F. under whose auspices the funeral services were held on last Tuesday.

Five Friends

Tom is the leader.

It looked as though they'd be late for the ball game one Saturday afternoon.

Tom stept to the curb and hailed a passing Yellow cab.

They all got in. They arrived on time. They were surprised how little it cost. Now wherever they go they ride in a "Yellow" and divide the fare.

Five ride for the price of one.

HABERDASHERS MOVE INTO LARGER QUARTERS

The steady growth of business has brought about another removal to large quarters for this progressive firm which has indeed enjoyed a most splendid support from the people who trade in the section of the city where this firm is located.

Quite five years ago the firm opened up very humble quarters at 948 Central Ave. They installed a small but good quality of mechandise, kept the place clean and up to the minute. The firm prospered and grew. It sought larger quarters right across the street, kept growing and added on by taking the adjoining store room and now it has leased the large and commodious corner at 12th and Central avenue, and be it known there is no more highly creditable business of its kind in the city than this one. The firm deserves the highest credit and the support which is their's.

Here is demonstrated the possibilities along business lines which might well be emulated by others who are seeking opportunities along the various lines fo effort.

Mrs. Sadie Reed of this city became bride of Ross Wood, a successful business man of Chicago. The couple are at home at 5817 Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

No great scramble will result over the vacancy in the diplomatic service for Liberia. Budding statesmen, when they remember the fate of Dr. Crum, Capt. Young and others in fever ridden Africa, will hesitate to put up any strong fight for the position to succeed Minister Hood.

SPIRIT OF LaFOLLETTE

News from returns in Wisconsin primaries on last Tuesday unfold the fact that the spirit of LaFollette still rules in that state.

CRAIL'S VICTORY

For many days the people will talk over the remarkable campaign which brought Joe Crail under the wire so far in the lead for Congress from the 10th district. This is a demonstration of confidence in the integrity of a man who has at all times proved his worth.

"APPEARANCES"

The play of the San Francisco bell hop, Mr. Garland Anderson, "Appearances", should receive the heartiest support of the people of our group. It has stood the test of the greatest critics of drama and not the least fear is at hand for its ultimate success in every way. It is up to our people to support to the utmost their own propositions of merit.

WEIGHTS

Some people fail to recognize the weights on their progress when as a matter of fact they are themselves loaded down to the guards with envy, malice, and hatred against their fellow man.

Take the Southland with its age, environment products. Great are the weights holding down its progress. It will never come into its own unless it unloads its ignorance, superstition and hatred of one man towards the other.

RAN FIFTH IN FIELD OF TWELVE

The Veteran editor and lawmaker, H. C. Smith, ran fifth in a field of twelve contesting for the republican nomination for governor of Ohio, and we are sure that this feat is not to be cast idly aside. The consensus of opinion is that he would have easily won the nomination had his own group evinced enough interest to register and vote.

NO AID UNLESS YOU GO STRAIGHT

Crooked preachers may find an obscure and sparsely circulated newspaper in Northern California to print their lies and help them on their way of exploitation; crookedness and brow beating, but they will not for one moment get the chance to do business in this bailiwick unless they go straight.

ELKS ARE REAL FELLOWS

Bishop Sampson Brooks, great divine, will tell you that the I. B. P. O. E. of W. are real fellows. They demonstrated their worth and gave the good bishop $1,000 for the prosecution of his great work on the continent of Africa.

PRAYING

It is reported in St. Louis where base ball enthusiasm is running high, that the white folks are praying at their churches for the home team to win and the black folks are just as fervently praying for the home team to lose. Behind these prayers there is a story and that is in relation to the Jim Crow methods of the management of the home team wherein they will not sell a black man a ticket to any other portion of the park than bleachers which are far, far away. It will be interesting to watch this contest of prayer.

POPULAR IN ALL SECTIONS

The many expressions in the race journals commending the voters of California for re-nominating Senator S. M. Shortridge, discerns the fact that the Senator's popularity is universal in all sections of the United States.

SHIFT TO DEMPSEY GENE

Colonel Tunney, by his declaration of drawing the color line in the event of his victory over Colohel Major Jack Dempsey, has aleinated the support and good wishes of all fair and square men and, the wish of this people has quickly shifted and all are pulling for Dempsey to win.

GOVERNOR RICHARDSON REMINDED

In our issue of several months ago we told Governor Richardson that unless he had a change of heart and would give some sort of recognition to his loyal constituents who by their votes had assisted in placing him in the governor's chair, that they would just as surely vote to take him out. How true this prophecy as Lieutenant Governor Young was nominated by only about 10,000 votes.

WHITE MAN LYNCHED IN GEORGIA

The lynching of a white man in Georgia should occasion no surprise for the mob spirit is contageous. If people will lynch, mob and burn black men and women, the day will come when it will lynch, mob and burn white men and women. The blacks have had their day, there perhaps will be other days for them, but surely and truly the people who do and tolerate lynchings are but pulling the house down upon themselves. For the day is surely coming when they will repay for their deeds a hundred fold.

DEPENDABILITY

The interview with Prof. W. A. Payne in this issue is significant from the fact that it demonstrates the fact that unless our workers measure up to the point where they can be depended upon, opportunities for service will gradually fail them. Take the situation in El Centro where as fast as one of our workmen fail them; the big hotel, which has heretofore employed our workers exclusively, is employing the Filipino.

With the situation of changing in the last 20 years from almost a monopoly in filling hotel positions, we are fast slipping and nearly all the big hotels of this country are now manned by others.

We are told by Prof. Payne that the trouble lies in the fact that while our men are most excellent workers, and have the preference, their propensity to leave their positions on short notice, oftimes puts the management in the hole and hard put to handle the situation.

It is well known that when some of our workers can save up a cool hundred or more, job or no job, they are going some where to spend that money.

Therefore these are the barriers in our path of progress and it behooves our best thinkers to see to it that men who can be depended upon are those who should be on guard.

MR. HENRY W. CARTER

Who made such a remarkable and winning campaign for reelection from the 71st Assembly District.

Principal El Centro School Interviewed

W. A. Payne, principal East Side School, El Centro, paid the Eagle office a visit prior to leaving to begin his year's work. He expressed himself as very happy over his wife's recovery from the very serious accident encountered while she was enroute to Santa Barbara. He had all words of praise for the very excellent professional care given her at the Dunbar Hospital by the efficient nurses and the attending physician, Dr. R. S. Whittaker. Said Mr. Payne, "We have a wonderful institution in the Dunbar Hospital and with the proper encouragement and patronage, it will be the equal of any race enterprise in the country."

To the inquiry as to the progress of his school and the community in general, he reported a faculty of 11 persons, all graduates from reputable Universities and Teachers' Colleges. The entire plant is being renovated this year, additional equipment being put into the machine shop; new play ground apparatus being installed; a lawn put in and new walks laid. He predicts a banner school year. Mr. Payne is enthusiastic over the addition of Arthur E. Prince to the faculty, feeling that in the securing of the young man it will have an inspiring effect upon the boys. Miss Maymie L. Pilkington of the Fresno State Teachers' College will substitute for Mrs. Payne during her illness, teaching art and geography in the grades.

John Culberson who was appointed mail carrier in El Centro is making an enviable record and has been given one of the most important deliveries in the city. At the primary election, an election board composed entirely of Negroes was appointed in the Eighth Precinct. This precinct has a registration of 336 and polled one of the largest votes of the day. However, the returns from the board were exact and were in early.

There is a great need in El Centro for a Physician, Dentist and Pharmacist. The Barbara Worth Hotel is building a $300,000 annex and additional opportunity will be given race men who follow this line of work. It is to be regretted that the actions of so many young men who have gone to this hotel to work has been such that Filipino boys are making great inroads. Long since, these painstaking and efficient workers would have monopolized the entire service at this hotel had it not been for the loyalty of Harry Copeland, the manager of service who has insisted that this door of opportunity remain open to race young men. Imperial Valley and especially El Centro offer the progressive and industrious Negro many opportunities.

THE PASSING OF IRMA BANKS

While yet a young girl in the blom of youth, Miss Irma Banks, in W. 35th Street succumbed to pneumonia last Sunday, September 9th, after a week's illness.

Miss Banks was a graduate nurse, and occupied a position in the ward of contagious diseases at the Los Angeles General Hospital for upwards of three years.

Miss Banks was well known in the social circle of the younger set where she was quite a favorite. She was also very active in church work, being a member of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, from which place the funeral services were held on Thursday.

She leaves to mourn her loss a mother, a father, three brothers, and a host of friends.

The Passing Of M. R. Jackson

Mr. M. R. Jackson, who departed this life some weeks ago, was one of Los Angeles' most respected citizens. At his death he had lived in Los Angeles over thirty years and had been employed by the Pacific South West Bank for 16 years, and was a staunch member of Wesley Chapel.

Forced Man To Kill Father-In-Law

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 10.—Clyde Reese Bachelor, according to a dispatch of the Associated Press, has signed a written confession admitting that he plotted the murder of his father-in-law, Judge Lamar Smith, and hired Hayes Leonard, a colored farm hand, to shoot the aged jurist. Leonard explains that the white man held a gun on him, compelling him to shoot Smith. Bachelor says his motive was to get money because of financial difficulties he has been having.

This is the third recent instance of Negroes being the "goat" for whites in crimes of violence in this section. Ed. Glover in Macon, Ga., was sentenced to hang a few weeks ago for the alleged killing of a white man and his sweetheard. Glover admitted his guilt, but protested that he had been hired and forced to do the deed by a white man who is still being held in custody. A short while before the State of Alabama was aroused when it was learned that in the notorious McClendon murder mystery which sent six Negroes to jail for life the real killer had ben Mrs. McClendon, white, the wife of the slain Hugh McClendon.

SHERIFF BITES MOB MEMBER

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Douglas, Ga., Sept. 10.—Authorities here base their hopes of catching the parties who took Dave Wright, a white man, from the jail here and lynched him, on a bite which Sheriff Tannor is said to have inflicted on one of the men in the mob reluring a scuffle to prevent his keys being taken from him. Wright was charged with having murdered a white woman. He was taken to a spot three miles from the jail, hanged to a tree, and his body riddled with bullets. Sheriff Tanner claimed he was in bed, unarmed, when the lynchers came.

WRITES ON RACIAL DIFFERENCES

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 10.—Nathaniel D. Hirsch of this city has just had published through the Clark University Press of Worobester, Mass., a volume entitled "A Study of Natio-Racial-Mental Differences." Commentators say that it ought to cast light on the Nordic theory and considerable effect upon our immigration laws, although the trend of scientific investigation now is in the likeness of the human family rather than the differences which are not held to be fundamental.

Mrs. Fay Allen entertained at dinner honoring Mrs. Romaine Seals of Oakland, California and Mrs. Philetus Norris of Washington, D. C. Covers were laid for eight. The table was beautifully decorated with white and pink carnations. After dinner the afternoon was spent in 500, whist and Mah Jongg. The two honored guests had not met in fifteen years and all guests were school chums in Denver, Colo.

From 1911 to 1914 he was connected with Tougaloo College in Mississippi.

RACIAL GOOD WILL CLUB DOES FINE SERVICE

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10.—A few more organizations, in this and many other cities, of the types of the Highland Park Americanization Association of this city which hold classes in Americanization and racial good will would go a long way towards overcoming the strained relations between races. Five hundred men and women, students and graduates of the association classes, representing twenty-five nationalities, held a celebration, in honor of the fifth anniversary of the work of the association, on board the Steamship Put-In-Bay, at which time they extended the ideal of brotherhood of nations. One of the white dailies of Detroit had this to say:—

"Old world racial, national, and religious rivalries were forgotten and Christian and Mohammedan, Caucasian and Ethiopian, Nordic and Latin—all united by common ideal of Americanism—sang and danced and played together till the boat brought back to Detroit late in the evening".

JACK JOHNSON WRITES THE EAGLE SPORTS EDITOR; FIGHTS CHIEF METOQUAH

Former King of the heavyweights Johnson and at his best, given to be the fastest and cleverest in history is still successful in staging his comeback. In a letter to the Eagle he states:

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 25, 1926.

FRIEND LEVETTE:

Several business deals have been taking up so much of my time I could not write you earlier. Am at road work in mornings and gym in afternoons preparing for my fight next week. Am in excellent shape and expect to make a fine fight next week. I was in communication with Dick Donald some time ago but nothing has been arranged yet. Best regards to all my friends out there, am expecting to be out there soon. I am,

Yours, "etc,"

JACK JOHNSON.

Metaquah vs. Johnson

Chief Metaquah, a heavyweight boxer who has appeared at many Southern California areanas, has bee signed to box Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, next month. They will meet over the 10-round route at Maryland, Okla., on September 5th.

Among other women of note and interest who have enjoyed our beautiful scenery and whom we have appreciated having in our midst were Mrs. Elizabeth L. Davis, founder of Phylis Wheatley home in Chicago, historian of the N. A. C. W. C. and past president of the Illinois State Federation; Miss Lena Perry, Secy. of Phylis Wheatley home, Mrs. Estelle Davis, a teacher for many years in the Chicago public schools, Mrs. Julia Gibson, an old resident of Peoria Ill., Mrs. J. H. Cotton, wife of a prominent physician of Peoria.

Mrs. Eva Monroe, founder of Lincoln Home of Springfield, Ill and Past President of Illinois State Federation and Mrs. F. A. Allen of Chicago who marveled at the tremendous growth of Los Angeles during her absence. By old residents Mrs. Allen will be remembered as Mrs. Chester Mitchell who was in business many years ago on 630 South Main St.

The above mentioned ladies made their home, while in the city, with Mrs. Hosman of 760 W. 17th St.

Dempsey Prefers Wills Says Tex Rickard

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Sept. 6.—With a fistful of telegrams to corroborate his statement, Tex Richard declared that Jack Dempsey who holds the heavyweight boving title of the world, would rather fight Wills than Tunney.

Rickard's statement, in view of Dempsey's consistent and successful efforts to evade meeting Harry produced quite a laugh in boxing circles, as did his further statement that he had essayed diligently to stage a Wills-Dempsey bout.

Wills' popularity with the fight fans has been established and the opinion of the powers that be relative to a bout with Dempsey is clearly evidenced by their refusal to sanction the Dempsey-Tunney fight.

Battling Gahee Being Overlooked

Battling Gahee is not getting as many fights as a mitt artist of his calibre deserves, and why we do not know, unless the fighters anywhere near his weight want none of his game. For his manager Charley George of Toledo, former partner of Walk Miller, states that Gahee will fight anyone over his 175 pounds.

Everyone knows how he can fight, fast, tricky, and a sleep potion in each hand.

We'll talk more about him later on but right now here he goes.

WM. "BATTLING" GAHEE
Colored Light Heavyweight Champion Of The World
Fought Tiger Flowers 4 times.
Fought Johnny Risko—Draw.
Fought Bob Lawson—W.
Fought Kid Norfolk—W.

Others he fought are Sam Langford, Gorilla Jones, Glem Johnson and Rajos Hegas of Mexico.

GANS AND O'BRIEN ARE READY FOR GONG

OLYMPIC STADIUM TO BE PACKED

Trained down now to a fine edge, both Baby Joe Gans the coloed lightweight champion and Tommy O'Brien the fighting Irish king-pin of the coast could step into the ring right now and battle through the ten rounds that will settle the long disputed supemacy between them.

O'Brien has been in the lime-light for some time through a string of knock-outs while Gans has made a meteoric rise in a few months by his wonderful cleverness and hard hitting. It is an equal match so take your choice; but Gans with greatest boxing skill, equal gameness and equal hitting power should take O'Brien in if not by a knock-out at least by a sound beating.

Matchmaker Joe Levey and the entire Olympic Staff have made preparations for a standing room house only, for the bout has aroused more interest than any of the classy string of fights that has been staged at the Olympic this season.

Mexican Champion Shows His Wares at Main Street Club

Mateo Magdaleno, champion of Aguas Calientas and other places in old Mexico is going to take an awful chance Saturday night when he gets inside the ropes with the boy who held the great little Clever Sencio to two hard-fought draws. They top the bill with six rounds at 118 pounds and somebody's going to drop Jimmy Martin meets Henry Mende in the curtain raiser, Eddie McDonald is going to throw a lot of leather at Joe Fenton. Sandy Garrison wants Shepard Hardy in his bag, Frankie Forbes has an old grudge to settle with Charley Pipes, Harry Romero is going to tame the "wild man," Paul Carvillion and Bernardo Arres, known as "Battling Siki" will fight Harry Reiter in the semi-windup.

A good manager is half the battle.

Many a fighter's appetite has whipped him.

* * * *

And many another's worried mind has done the same.

* * * *

A real promoter doesn't want all the dough, a real fighter doesn't want it all, and a real manager is willing to sacrifice.

Do your best, you only have a few fighting years.

Fisherman Having Plenty Of Sport

Fishing on the deep sea barge Lahaina, which is anchored off Redondo Beach, has been very good, large catches of mackerel and bonita being brought in daily to the Menstad landing and pleasure pier by fishermen returning on the speedboat Chief.

Captain Menstad states that fishing on the barge has been exceptionally good this year, many catches of rock cod, sand dabs and barracuda being made.

The all-night service to the barge Lahaina on Saturday nights is proving very popular with Los Angeles anglers.

Rube Foster's Illness A Loss To Negro Baseball

At last reports the great figure in Negro Baseball and president of the Negro National League had been moved from the Psycopathic Hospital to a Sanitarium in Illinois. Whether it is true or not, all sport circles the nation over feel deep regret for the misfortune that even temporarily removes him from his life's work, that of building up and holding in tact the great Negro Baseball League. Business worries and a recent severe sickness have no doubt had the effect of undermining his mental equilibrium.

Pray For Baseball Team to Lose

(By A. N. P.)

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 6.—Although nearly every hamlet in Missouri is pulling for the St. Louis Cardinals to win the pennant in the three cornered national league race, several Negro churches in this city are reported to be holding special prayers that the Cardinals lose out to Pittsburgh because Negro fans are refused seats in the grand stand at Sportsman's park.

It is reported also that a number of prayer circles or "progressive prayers" are praying for the Cardinals to lose. A number of brownskin fans have been told flatly that Negroes cannot buy grandstand seats. The section for Negroes is in the rearmost corner of the bleachers, far, far from the diamond.

Two Jockeys, Trainer Suspended After Race

Cumberland, Md.—At a meeting here the stewards, Galoway Brooks, W. F. Brown and H. H. Blunt, announced that Jockeys Dave Sterling and P. Talbutt and Trainer Danny Lauder had been suspended and their case referred to the Maryland racing commission. It is understood that this action is the outcome of the sudden passing in the paddock of "Chief Uncas" on yesterday's program.

First Catalina Swimmer Fails In Attempt

John Radowich who recently tried to negotiate the swim, had to give up the attempt after battling the currents for two hours and 40 minutes. He had covered six of the 30 odd miles that constitute the distance.

John is a sailmaker on the U. S. S. Maryland and was doing his stuff for the well known "honor". Take it from John that the swim to Catalina is no pink-tea affair. "The water looks placid enough from the deck of one of Wrigley's pleasure boats, but get into it and you will change your mind", says the gob.

Girl Will Attempt Long Swim Sept. 12

Dodie Blewett, Club Casa Del Mar mermaid, plans to attempt to swim the Catalina channel on September 12th, under the auspices of the A. A. U. She will not try for the $25,000 prize, preferring to retain her amateur standing. She is taking two eight hour swims a week under the eye of her brother-manager, John Blewett.

Vernon Jackson, one of the most promising little colored youngsters ever seen in a local ring had a little set-back by breaking his hand on the Filipino champion Tony Palascio. It is about well now and he will start trafning for some of the fights his manager Si Mulrey has lined up for him. He is at the Main St. Club every afternoon.

YOUNG JACK THOMPSON TRAINING FOR STRING OF FIGHTS

Several of the leading promoters and managers were in a discussion the other day at a down-town gym as to the merits of Jack Thompson in comparison with Baby Gans. All agreed on the fact that Thompson has a real future before him which he will shine out in no sooner than the opportunity comes. Most of those in the discussion considered him equal to Gans and expressed the great wish to see them matched.

Now, that would be a dandy match, both fast and clever, but it would not draw like either of them in a mixed bout.

Thompson has all the marks and style of a real fighter. Cool as a cucumber, accurate in his timing and speak about his fight like it was ordinary work. And hit? Can a mule kick. Thompson is training daily now and is in good shape.

FEDERATION BANQUETS FRISCO-OAKLANDERS AT CHRISTIAN'S TAVERN

(By: WILLIAM MELLS WATSON)

The Western Federation of Tennis Clubs last Tuesday night wound up the biggest tennis meet in its history with an elaborate banquet for the visiting Frisco and Oaklanders at beautiful Christian's Tavern, 1318 E. Vernon, there being 30 club members seated after which the ten visitors with fifty couples of late arrivals danced until exhausted. After resting two days everybody had recovered and were happy.

Although Mrs. M. Stewart, Attorney Richardson, Dave Sands, Albert Johnson, George Gatliff, Harold Summers and Hollie McClelland of the recently organized Bay Cities Tennis Club of Oakland played a most brilliant brand of tennis, they failed to lift any crowns of the domes of the Pasadena athletes, whose exceptional ability added one more to the seven cups they won last year.

Semi-final—Miss Stocks pulled Miss Lee's hair 6-1, 4-6, 6-0; overcome by heat Miss Thelma Overton defaulted to champion Juliaette Louise Harris, 6-0, 3-0. Final—The Tennis Organizers Club Trophy became Miss Harris' personal property when she won the third leg on it from Miss Stocks 6-1, 6-0.

Men's Doubles, 1st round—Gatliff and McClelland defeated Pickett and Lester 3-6, 6-4, 6-0; Stocks and Ford punished oldtimers William Bunch and Herbert Raney 6-3, 6-0. Round two—Sands and Richardson beat up Fulcher and Salisbury 7-5, 9-11, 6-1; Gatliff and McClelland defeated Summers and Johnson 6-4, 9-7; Stocks and Ford lambasted Davis and Carlisle 6-1, 6-2; Gladden and Roberson manhandled William Martin and Leslie Banks 6-2, 6-2. Semi-Final—Sands and Richardson hammered Gatliff and McClelland 6-1, 6-3; Stocks and Ford pickled Gladden and Roberson 6-2, 6-1. Final—Stocks and Ford won their second leg on the Castaic Country Club Trophy by blowing fog in the faces of Sands and Richardson so densely that they defaulted the third set 6-4, 6-1.

The complete scores of the other four events will appear next week. Briefly: Jimmy Stocks and his sister, Geneva Stocks won in mixed doubles; Miss Corrine Lee and Miss Geneva Stocks won in women's doubles by default; Lydia Thompson very sweetly defeated her little sister, Florence, for the girls (under 18) championship; and her brother, Alexander Thompson took the Boys' Singles championship.

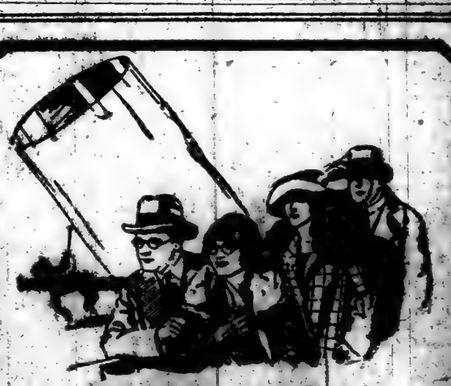
Deer and bear will be plentiful this fall, if the signs of the summer are to be relied upon. The streams abound in trout and mountain quail are numerous. The season for deer opened September 1st and closes October 15. The bear season will open October 15 and will close March 1st.

MAIN STREET GYM BANK AS FIGHT CROWD ANY AFTERNOON



Talk about your "Three Ring Circus" and trying to watch everything at once, if you happen to step into the Main St. Gym most any afternoon after 2:00 o'clock you'll get dizzy trying to watch so much going on at once.

Two six-round fights with the fighters doing three rounds each, then giving way to two short, a bout of four-rounders, four preliminaries of three rounds each, and the main bout, all scrapping at the same time, with numerous workouts on the sidelines, makes the place look like a beehive.

NINE COLORED KILLED IN AUTO MISHAPS

STATISTICS SHOW CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS

That auto accidents has no regards as to races or creed is seen in the latest information issued concerning accidents.

Within the past 30 days nine colored have been killed and twelve seriously injured.

Several popular beliefs regarding the cause of automobile accidents are punctured in an analysis of more than 50,000 motor vehicle accidents, just received by the Los Angeles Traffic Commission from an Eastern State. While weather conditions are different in the East, other conditions would be about the same in Los Angeles.

Many persons believe that speeding and drunken driving cause most accidents. As a matter of fact, but 6.4 per cent of all accidents result from excessive speed, and but 2.2 per cent from intoxication.

It is also generally accepted that more accidents occur during wet weather, when streets are slippery. The figures show that when conditions are dangerous, drivers are more careful and accidents are avoided. Of all accidents, 71.3 per cent occur when the weather is good.

The principal cause of motor vehicle accidents is carelessness. More than 73 per cent of all crashes result from carelessness of the operator, and of these, 48.6 per cent are due to inattention of the driver, failure to grant right of way and failure to give proper signals.

The figures show that most accidents occur on Saturday or Sunday, when motorists are usually pleasure bent. The most likely time for accident is between five and six o'clock P. M., when drivers are hurrying home, tired with the day's exertion, and paying but scant attention to their driving.

It is also disclosed that drivers under the age of 20 are most prone to be careless and that accidents decrease as the age of the drivers increase. More than 62 per cent of all accidents occurru. ETAO SHRDL ET accidents occur at intersections.

This survey, the Traffic Commission points out, may be used as a lesson for the automobile driver.

"Be careful. Watch the road. Watch intersections. Don't take chances."

"When you are tired, or in a hurry, or not paying particular attention to your driving—remember, that is the time when accident, and possibly death, hovers near your car."

Mr. Shirley Freeman absented himself from the line of duty long enough to visit Elsinore over the week-end. He reports having some time and the young radio expert looks it.

Improvement Association Girds for the Fray

ATTACKS ENEMIES WITHIN

BY HARY LEVETTE
For A. N. P. and Eagle

There would have been no more enthusiasm nor intensity of purpose if held in a packed coliseum or Shrine Auditorium than that displayed by a small gathering in Eagle Hall on Sunday afternon last, September 6th. The occasion was a meeting by the Progressive Federation of Improvement Associations of California, an institution organized by Miss Vivian Temple.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. S. B. W. May of the Citizens Home Investment Company who made brief but fitting and encouraging remarks. Mrs. T. M. Johnson, Secretary read the minutes of the last meting and program of the present meeting, which was begun by a wonderful rendition by Mr. Eugene Page of the "African Fantasie" an original piano production, with which he took the prize at the National Colored Women's Convention in Oakland, a few weeks past.

The talks by the various speakers though touching on various phases of the work in hand for the Federation yet all stressed the fact very forcibly that not only must we as Negro citizens prepare to fight and fight and continue to fight but must also destroy those things within us that make towards our retardment.

On this subject Mr. Cole launched a tirade against the prejudice within our own ranks which is greater than that exerted against us by the white race, and specified that we must first attack the pretense, the foppishness, and lack of sincerity that is hidden within our fortress, before we can wage war on the enemy without. At get six to meet regularly it will be a torney, Macbeth stated, "If we can get six to meet regularly it will be a battle won and will be six more than meets regularly in any other part of the U. S." He made a dramatic point when he stated, "We are asleep. We are waiting for a big lynching, a drastic step, in segregation or some such deed to arouse us." He explained that to really make a fight we must get funds, and set the goal at $100,-00. Mrs. Coven, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Morris, all added their quota of wordjewels enriching the need of necessary advice and call to conquest. Miss Vivian Temple came to the fore with a full and careful explanation of the purpose of the organization.

Miss Temple is sincerity personified and with the clear voice and expressive eyes lit with earnestness she made a great impression on her hearers. "We cannot be the same as the white man" she declard. We are not constituted the same, do not think or feel the same. For the white man is at the apex of his success; we are still struggling. He has unhampered advantages; we have none. But the white man has reached the peak of his achievement and is now starting down. We have a great advantage in being Black Americans and should be proud, for the heights are before us and we can go up, and up."

Concisely the object and purpose of the Federation was explained and booklets issued bearng more explicit information. Some of them are:—"Complete Freedom for the Negro in California, never giving up the Fght." Freedom to buy homes anywhere and live in them. Equal money value in theatres, restaurants, etc.; ecua lprivileges in Public Schools, Librararies and Parks. Then for our selves; cleanliness and sanitation; business building for larger race employment, Civic Education and general co-operation among ourselves.

It is well this movement is begun now. We have a glaring example of what it means to supinely sit by, while the enemy works, by what is going on now in Kansas City, Mo., There the whites have formed a Home Owners Mutual Benefit Association, including hundreds of business men and holding regular mass meetings advertised as a move to stop the invasion of colored people into their district. They have been trying to condemn all the Negro homes, from 28th street South to Linwood Boulevard between Troost Park and Spring Valley Park, turning the whole district into a great elongated park. This includes some of the finest homes in the city of the most representative Negroes. The colored citizens under the able leadership of Editor Franklin of the K. C. Call fought fire with fire by organizing strategy, proving that the $2,000,000 cost to the city would be but gratification of personal spite, and taking members of the C. of C. on tours through some of the squalid, sordid, over-crowded Negro districts. They have a fight on their that this organization may have to make it our time but they are determined to win, and as the whites bring up new forces they do the same knowing that their very future is at stake. Up to the present time their battle is bringing results. This is only an example of similar conditions, which the Neighborhood Improvement Association will be prepared to fight here.

Before Sunday's meeting adjourned announcement was made of the next Sunday's meeting and also that the Program Committee would meet at the Palm Inn on Tuesday night to arrange programs three months ahead. Everyone should attend next Sunday's meeting and bring at least one friend to discuss these matters that mean so much to all.

Card of Thnks

TYLER APPRECIATIVE OF FRIENDS' EFFORT

To the voters of the 73rd Assembly District, and to scores of friends in other parts of the city who aided our campaign!

The fight for the Republican nomination for Members of the Assembly in the 73rd District is over, and the present incumbent is renominated. We went into this fight because we felt that the needs of the District required that we make the sacrifice necessary to be made for the Republican nomination. The people have registered their wishes. We were only 444 votes short of the nomination and still feel that the underlying sense of the people in the district is for a change of representatives.

We received nearly 2400 votes, which were as many as the total vote cast in the 1924 primary. To these voters, who supported our candidacy, we wish publicly to express our deepest appreciation and to beg of them that they never give up the fight for Progressive Republican representation in the interest of the people of this district.

To the Citizens Committee, to the Women's Progressive Club, to the Central Labor Council, to the Republican League, to the German-American Federation, to the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, and to the Eastside Independent Voters League, as oganizations, we beg to say we are happy to have had your endorsement, your fine support, and to have fought with you in that campaign.

We have no means of expressing fully our adequate or sincere thanks to the individuals who aided us in the campaign with all possible human effort. Placards were posted, letters were sent, meetings were organized, friends were telephoned, houses were visited, automobiles were offered on election day, and the District was canvassed in a thorough painstaking way by many persons, men and women, and even children in an effort to secure for us the nomination we sought. Limited space in our weekly papers does not permit us to give each name, but we wish to assure the voters and the workers that they were fighting for themselves, in that a principle was at stake, and that principle for which they fought, was not even retarded, for it is still alive, vigorous, and seething with power to fight for the right and against wrong at the polls on election day.

May we not mention the vanguard without offense to those, whose names we do not publish here, but who will receive from us a personal letter? The Rev. H. B. Gantt; Rev. J. H. Wilson; Bert McDonald ad wife; W. M. Austin; Hon. J. B. Bass; Hon. F. M. Roberts; Hon. Fred Williams; Mrs. Clara Hulbert; Mrs. Hattie Baldwin; Mrs. B. Strode; C. W. Brooks; Mrs. R. Hammitt; Mr. and Mrs. Lee; Mrs. Alice Wilson; Mr. R. Baker; Mr. B. Chase; Mrs. Credit; Mrs. Thornberry and Col. Thornberry; George Block, a lad of 12 years and Rev. E. T. Hubbard, who invited us into the fight and who never 'ceased firing.' Our more immediate fighting force—Wood Wilson; Mrs. L. M. Tyler, my devoted wife; Helen Wheeler and Mrs. Ella Cassells, who was secretary to our committee, very much deserved, from the fight they made, a better candidate, one with whom they could have overcome the opposition. Every voter that expressed a choice against us from his own judgment and free-will has as much of our admiration and regard, as the citizens and the neighbors in the district, who voted for us.

Finally, with such friends and with 2400 voters in our favor, why did we loss? We propound the question, and we answer it freely:

A campaign is a battle of wits, of men, of slogan, and of money. That veteran politician, W. H. (Pop) Sanders, and that able and experienced political leader, C. H. Alston, were the generals who led the opposition. We were not able to overcome their masterful opposition to us, or their political aid to H. M. Davis. We have never felt that either Sanders or Alston had any personal animosity against us. They opposed us because they had supported Davis in 1924, became he was a part of their "combine" and because they preferred him as a candidate with either Sanders or Alston on our side, we would have won by a big majority.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 7.—Van Reeves and Willie Miller, two Pullman porters, were seriously wounded when shot by a maniac who entered a restaurant outside the Illinois Central station here and began firing. One of the cooks was killed and two policemen injured before the crazed gunman was shot dead by a barber, Charles Danloff.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

Upton's Matrimonal Chart

ARTICLE THREE

Whenever I go to a dance or chitterling supper, I try to make a study of human nature. Some people call it psychology, I call it putting two and two together, and using common sense; nine times out of ten, I can pick out the married couples from the ones who are courting; it is the same way on the street. Half the males when they are out with their wives, especially if they have been married any length of time, forget to be gallant, as in the days when they were trying to win her. On the other hand some of the women have that worried look on their fac which makes them appear like they want to fight all the time, and I guess some of them do, maybe the man is the cause of it, you never can tell.

Getting on and off of the street cars, is another good place to detect the married couples who have been traveling the rough seas of matrimony a long while, and are broken down from holding all-night arguments; the man, in this case generally jumps up on the street car first and tears out for the front end, while the wife is left to get on the best way she can. Yes! you can always pick out the married from the single. That is the reason that I am going to name five more single men and give you widows a chance to get a fresh start. So here goes:

C. H. Drish, now operating on the Padre, owns his own home and is well prepared to take on some more weight. Disposition: Inclined to be fussy, obstinate and contrary, but a good provider, buys his groceries in the old fashion way, once a month; if you run out it is just too bad.

2nd is H. K. Blackstone, operating on the Sacramento line; getting along in age, but still full of pep, likes to go all the time in his Essex Sedan, not responsible when he is behind the wheel, subject to climb a telegraph pole any time. In fact, has already done two on Central Ave., good man if heavily insured, lives next door to C. H. Drish, so you can kill two birds with one stone.

3rd—C. Smith No. 2. Very mean own cooking, has been keeping bachelor and cranky, in the habit of doing his lor quarters for some time, and living his own way, very neat around the house, and you better be the same way if you want to have any luck with him, good provider; take him if you think you can stand him.

4th—Dave Rosemond. Runs on a good train and makes good money, but is absolutely impossible, and I cannot recommend him.

5th—C. Crain. Even disposition, but a bad egg when he gets riled up, runs on the Owl Limited so much that he hoots in his sleep, a good provider because he likes to eat himself. Now ladies, there are five more, and it's up to you to pick 'em out. You ought to think a whole lot of the writer, as I am subject to being murdered any time for giving this valuable information. In fact, I have already received several threatening letters, but I turned them all over to Mr. Sheffield, and Sheffield says it's "Every TUB and next week—well, I hate to think about it, but do not miss the next issue, order your copy now.

FRRESNO

Mrs. I. S. Wilson, wife of Dr. I. S. Wilson, Presiding Elder of the Denver Conference, left last Sunday night for her home in Denver, after spending several weeks in our city as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ed. Jones. She will stop in Salt Lake while en route to attend the Annual Conference. Many brilliant affairs were given in her honor during her visit.

Mrs. Addie Waite Hunton, noted lectuer of the N. A. A. C. P. and past president of the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, spoke before a crowded house at Bethel A. M. E. Church last Thursday night. Mrs. Hunton is a forceful speaker and a race woman of brilliant attainments. While in our city she was the distinguished house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Calhoun at their luxurious home in Madison avenue.

The Negro Citizens Advancement League played quite a dominant part in the primary election, and with but a few exceptions, were successful in putting over their entire slate. J. E. G. Knicholls, the field marshal of the day, is to be highly congratulated upon the way he manouvered his small army of workers.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield had with them over the week-end, the former's distinguished brother and wife, Police Officer and Mrs. Sheffield of Los Angeles. In compliment to their honored guests Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield entertained at an elaborate dinner last Sunday afternoon, in which the pronounced culinary ability of the hostess was brought into its fullest evidence. The after dinner hours were given over to cards. Encircling the immense table were Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield, Officer and Mrs. Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans Trigg, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kennedy, Mrs. Joseph Wilhoit, and William A. Bigby, Jr.

SANTA BARBARA

BELATED NEWS August 16th, 1926.

WESTERN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION IN SUCCESSFUL SESSION

The Moderator called the Association to ord eat 10 A. M., Tuesday, August 17th and within a few minutes had the delegation assigned to different committees and instructed to work and complete their tasks so as not to delay the working of the different departments.

The Convention was one of the most successful in the History of the Association. Rev. Thomas and membership of the Church, also all other churches worked early and late so as to supply every comfort for each delegate and visitor, Santa Barbara has set the standard for entertaining conventions.

The first day of the convention the delegation was thrown into deep sorrow over the most unfortunate accident in which a car on the way to the convention loaded with delegates from Pasadena was run into by a locomotive in which two persons lost their lives.

Rev. Gordon preached the Educational sermon which was well prepared and carefully delivered with much new thought. Missionary sermon preached by Rev. Holt and as usual Rev. Holt holds his hearers spell bound. Rev. A. T. Hines and Rev. F. James preached the two outstanding sermons of the Association, both are young men, successful pastors and the products from our Theological Seminary and the Dean Dr. Young was all smiles when his "Boys" had delivered their wares.

Dr. Rozier, the moderator, knows how to keep all delegates busy; he demands that delegates work without ceasing.

Mrs. Eva Solomon delivered an address which was an inspiration to all workers to return home for better organized efforts among young people. The Women's Convention under the leadership of Sister C. D. Robinson showed much progress. The address of the President, Mrs. Robinson was carefully prepared and well delivered, and many of her recommendations were accepted.

Prof. Payne, President of the B. Y. P. U. Convention delivered a well-prepared address and was listened to by delegates without losing interest. The address was delivered in the interest of the young of the church, and his plea was the necessity of the Church and the pleasure of the young people, and if this was not done that our young people would be used by the evil influences to the detriment of both the church and the young people. It was remarkable how Prof. Payne delivered this address especially under the great mental strain he was under with his wife struggling between life and death in a nearby hospital a victim of the above mentioned accident.

Mrs. Johnson delivered her annual address to the Sunday School Convention, and later made her report of her trip to the Sunday School Convention, and later made her report of her trip to the Sunday School Congress. This young woman is a great asset to our work and a real example for the young matrons of our Race to follow. The Moderator, Dr. Rozier delivered his annual address to a crowded house. Rev. Rozier never speaks to tickle the ears of any one nor any group, but speaks the truth just ac it is revealed to him, and he never makes any apology after speaking what he is convinced is right. In his address he made it very clear that the Western Baptist Convention stood for everything that our Great National Convention stood for, and that we must not stand by luke-warm, but be active in developing the program of that convention.

Dr. Cooper of Riverside is to the Western Baptist Convention what a governor is to an engine, he keeps the brethren in the channel of the Baptist rulings and doctrines. Dr. Griffith is very much absofbed in the work of the Old Folks Home and is placing the home on a sound business policy, and he has through hard work about recovered from the fire, paid all back taxes, and the Old Folks Home is looking better today than it has looked in many years.

The Officers of the Convention are as follows:

Dr. W. H. Rozier, Moderator; W. R. Knox, Rec. Secy.; Rev. L. M. Curtis, Executive Secy.; Rev. F. James, Missionary; Sis. Beatrice Johnson, Pres.; Sunday School Dept.; Prof. W. A. Payne, Pres. B. Y. P. U. Dept.; Sis. C. D. Robinson, Pres. Women's Dept.

LeRoy Calhoun motored up to the Bay Cities in his Essex coach to pass the holidays.

Business League Leaders Discuss Outlook

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Confident that the National Negro Business League has embarked upon a year of accomplishment was generally reflected in the expressions of men active in the work of the organization after the adoption of the proposed program for the oncoming year which would put workers actively in to the field.

"Business men the country over must take an active interest in the Business League; it belongs to them, and must be made to function along lines most beneficial and stimulating to Negro Business", said C. C. Spaulding, Chairman of the Executive Committee and President of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. "The time has come for a constructive effort by the League to be of practical service and the fine spirit exhibited by the executive committee together with the support given by members of the League to the suggested program and the outlook of the National Negro Finance Corporation convinces me that we are headed for a year of worthwhile achievements."

John L. Webb, First Vice President, and head of Woodmen of Union, said: "This new program means organization from the ground up. We now have local leagues scattered about, but only four states are thoroughly organized. Every state can now be organized."

Prof. R. B. Hudson, National Baptist Convention, "It will sell to Negro Business men, as never before, the patronage of the race group."

A. L. Holsey, Secretary. "The program adopted by the National Nego Business League at Cleveland will enable the League to function twelve months in the year. By offering business stimulation through ragional directions to the local leagues, the small enterprise as well as the large corporations will receive definite constructive assistance. The program assures economic security for the race and the eagerness of business men to subscribe to its budget is a testimonial of their approval and confidence.

Anthony Overton, President of the Douglass National Bank of Chicago, "The new program adopted by the league, if put into vigorous effect, should be of incalculable benefit to our economic development".

R. H. L. Rice, Secretary of the Dallas, Texas League, "This new program will mean much to the business men of Texas, because of its educational and co-operative plan. It will assist Texas in its effort to study the underlying principles of business and all Texas welcomes the plan and will co-operate."

J. Turner Hall representing the Associated Business Clubs of Chicago, "The New Program means a better opportunity to speed the real propaganda of co-operation and to incite in the minds of members of the race the importance of confidence in and patronage for Negro Business."

President Abernathy of The St. Louis League, "If the National League carries out the progressive program outlined, it will mean a perpetuation of a much needed organization. If it fails there will develop associations in different cities separate from the League who feel the need of a real live red blooded functioning organization, and who will do business in a way to meet the demands of the hour. Let us hope that the old organization will recognize the value of and permit the infusion of new blood and progressive ideas who feel like stepping on the gas when she is in high, or go prepared to go down in history as it has been for we must have action."

J. O. Thomas, Atlanta, Transportation Agent, "It can so serve each local league as to demonstrate the advantage of the collective intelligence that will come from the field workers' contracts and co-operation with the officials of the local leagues in a semi-supervisory capacity."

J. T. Ferguson, Standard Life Insurance Company, "It means a solidifying of the interest of business people in the direction of not only inspiring those in business, but creating interest and inspiration in those who ought to enter the business world."

Negro Bankers' Association Stages Big Meeting In Quaker City

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 7.—The National Negro Bankers' Association will begin its sessions here September 15th. Business meetings will be held at the Citizens' and Southern Bank Building.

That members of the opposite race are thoroughly interested in the Negro Bankers' Association is manifest. Wednesday, September 15th, has been set aside by the citizens of Philadelphia as "Business Men's Day". Quite a number of the leading banks, including the Philadelphia Girard National Bank, the Bank of North America and Trust Company, and other leading financial institutions have agreed to assist in the entertainment of the National Negro Bankers' Association.

Eminent Bankers To Address Meeting

The program contains the names as speakers, such as the Hon. George W. Norris, governor of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank; S. Howard Wolf, banker of the Philadelphia-Girard National Bank, who speaks on "Bank Loans and Investments".

There will be round table discussions on such topics as "The Difficulties of Banking Among Colored People", "How Can Banking Among Colored People Be Made To Pay?", "The Relations of Colored Banks to The Community and to Negro Business", "How Can the Banks of Our Group Best Co-operate for Their Good?"

The Importance Of A National Organization

Anthony Overton of the Douglass National Bank, Chicago, Illinois, will speak on the "Best Plan for Increasing Deposits"; C. C. Spaulding, of the Mechanics and Farmers' Bank, Durham, N. C., will speak on "Life Insurance and Thrift"; Wilson Lovett, of the First Standard Bank, Louisville, Ky., will speak on "Loans and Discounts". "The Difficulties of Banking Among Colored People" will be discussed by W. F. Boddie of the Citizens' Trust Company, Atlanta, Ga., and John H. Mason, senior Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Bank of North America and Trust Company, will also speak on some phase of the bank proposition. Alphonso Sixto; of the Virgin Islands, will speak on "Business in the West Indies."

The Citizens' and Southern Bank & Trust Company, under its Board of Directors and its noble and energetic president, are laboring to work up an interest in business and financial institutions, and the Negro Bankers' Association aims to increase the confidence of all the colored people throughout the country in Negro banks.

Affiliated with the Association are one hundred banks and banking institutions. The Frederick Douglass National Bank is leading in resources, while the Citizens and Southern Bank is the leading institution in title insurance as a part of its banking business. This phase of commercial life will be stressed at the coming meeting, as a very few banks now conduct title insurance and trust business.

Swimming Pool A Menace

Disgraceful Conduct At 22nd St. Swimming Pool

Two important and very surprising reports were made to the Progressive Federation of Improvement Associations of Califonia at the meeting at Eagle Hall on Sunday, September 12th last.

Mr. Saffold, chairman of the School and Playgrounds Committee, made report on the 22nd St. swimming pool after an impartial investigation which has been the policy of the Association as it endeavors to combat the evils in the actions of our people as well as those in treatment of us by the whites. To this end he stated that the conduct of the girls and boys aging from 15 to 25 at the pool were simply disgraceful; bad language; uncouth conduct and frequent fights, causing the arrival of police at times.

This was reported to him by some of the neighbors. He reported also that the conditions at the 15th St. School at 15th and Santa Fe were very deplorable.

Dr. Gordon gave a talk on Gordon Manor explaining the necessary coordinate steps to forestall condemnation of that or any tract.

Saturday night, September 18th the Program Committee will meet at Christian Tavern and the regular meeting will be held Sunday at Eagle Hall. Mrs. Morris presided over Sunday's meeting with Mrs. T. Johnson, Secretary, and a fair-sized crowd present considering the many counter meetings.

Dr. Ruth Temple was also present giving an interesting talk and helping in perfection of plans for the future.

ELMER C. BARTLETT, Pres.

Dr. Gordon in Address Sunday Afternoon

On next Sunday afternoon at Eagle Hall, Dr. Wilbur C. Gordon will address an open meeting of the Neighborhood Improvement Associations on the question of the Mattoon Act, an act, which if passed, will work a greater injustice upon our race than any other law, passed in the United States to date. Also every phase of the gross injustice of the proposed condemnation of Gordon Manor and the steps which we as a race must take to check this condemnation will be discussed by Dr. Gordon. Every thinking colored man and woman in Los Angeles is requested to be present at this meeting and bring others with him. Meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, September [illegible]

PIONEER ANGELENOS RETURN FROM EXTENSIVE TRIP INTO CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, pioneer and highly respected citizens, have just returned from Canada, where they went several weeks ago on their annual vacation.

The Grays report a most delightful trip and Canada a very beautiful and hospitable country.

The Grays own one of the most beautiful property sites on Compton Avenue and Mr. Gray is one of the S. P. trusty employees, having been with the company for upwards of twenty years.

In order for one to realize what Mrs. Gray stands for, you would have to visit their home and see her in action. As a housewife she is practical in the true sense of the word and yet a most generous provider of culinery delicacies. If ever you dine with the Grays, ever afterwards your one desire would be to dine again.

We take pleasure in presenting Mr. and Mrs. Gray to the reading public not because of their popularity as social leaders but as genuine, thrifty citizens, who make up a part of what is actually known to be the better part of the community in which they live.

JAPANESE CONSUL MEN'S DAY SPEAKER AT FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

BISHOP MARTIN TO PREACH

Men's Day, which is one of the important annual occasions at the First A. M. E. Zion Church, will be observed Sunday, September 19th.

The Zion Church, at the corner of Pico and Paloma streets, is famous as the center of public gatherings for civil as well as religious betterment, and the Men's Day program on the 19th will be the most attractive ever presented.

BISHOP MARTIN TO PREACH

At the 11 o'clock service, the Right Reverend J. W. Martin, Bishop of the Eleventh Episcopal District, African Mthodist Episcopal Zion Church, will preach the Men's Day sermon. Hundreds of people will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear the distinguished prelate.

JAPANESE CONSUL AT NIGHT

Special signficance will be attached to the night service, beginning at 8 o'clock, because of the address to be delivered by the Honorable Chuici Ohashi, Japanese Consul at Los Angeles. This brilliant representative of the Japanese government will discuss some of the social and political problems now affecting the races and nations of the world. This will be the Consul's first appearance at such a meeting in Los Angeles, and he will have a message which no colored citizen can afford to miss. A master of social and political science as he is, it will be a privilege extraordinary to hear him on the 19th. It will be an education on matters of vital importance, and the public will appreciate this fact. Pastor I. Albert Moore, Prof. J. C. Banks and others of the Men's Day Committee anticipate an unusually large and representative audience on this occasion.

The program for both morning and evening service will be featured by specially selected music rendered by male singers and instrumentalists under the direction of Prof. W. M. Bynum.

(By A. N. P.)

White Watchman Attemts Assault on 18 Year Old Girl

(By A. N. P.)

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 10.—Clarise Myers, 18, living at the McCadder Hotel, Hollywood, was driven to wild Laurel Canyon under protest where she was attacked by J. D. Newman, 62, of 950 East 45th street early Tuesday. Miss Maves, a dancer at the Madame Zucca Inn, was waiting for a car at 1:30 A. M., after leaving her work. Newman, a watchman in uniform, met her at Santa Monica and Highland streets and offered to drive her home. Instead, he took her to the canyon, brutally attacking and bruising her. She managed to fight him off, and he left her on Hollywood Boulevard, where she was found by Lieutenant Hollowell, Hollywood detective, and treated at the Receiving Hospital by Police Surgeon Dunsmore. Newman was found and arrested and after identification placed in jail on a charge of attempted rape.

County Republicans Organize

ASSEMBLYMAN F. M. ROBERTS AND ATTORNEY AFUE McODWELL HONORED

The Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee, in an old-time Republican "get-together", enthusiastically launched its campaign, at a meeting held Tuesday, in the Hall of Records.

OFFICERS

The permanent organization was formed with Chairman Arnold being re-elected chairman; and Mrs. Koverman elected secretary. Attorney Afue McDowell was appointed on the resolutions committee; and Fred Williams, editor of the Pacific Defender, was appointed the Credentials Committee. Wood Wilson and Rev. Mitchell, of our group, were members of the County Committee, having been elected from the 73rd Assembly District.

SPEECHES

Lt. Gov. C. C. Young, candidate for governor, was, on the order of the chairman, ushered into th assembly by a committee of three, including Mayor Geo. Cryer and Assemblyman Frederick M. Roberts. Young spoke eloquently and pointedly of the party affairs, and impressed the audience that he will be the proper man in the governorship which he is sure to fill during the coming edministration.

RESOLUTIONS

The most important business transacted was the adoption of resolutions presented by the Resolutions Committee headed by C. A. Ballreich, and composed of Attorney Afue McDowell and a representative of each of the fifteen assembly districts in the county. Among the resolutions were those relating to commending Gov. Richardson's leaning toward economy; favoring the Boulder Dam Project; endorsing prohibition laws; urging harbor improvements; pledging support to all Republican candidates; and urging amendments to primary law so as to return the former convention plan.

EVERY MAN

Every man is invited to be present at the Special Men's Day Services at Peoples Independent Church of Christ, Cor. 18th and Paloma Sts., Sunday, Sept. 19, 1926, 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

BAPTISTS HOLD MAMMOTH CONVENTION IN TEXAS

L. K. Williams Again Heads Organization

By: ROGER DIDIER

(By A. N. P.)

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 11.—Amid tumultuous and prolonged acclaimation, the Rev. L. K. Williams, for four years president of the National Baptist Convention, was unanimously re-elected here this afternoon at the conclusion of his annual address, described as the most marvelous in the history of the convention, and by virtue of a motion instituted by Vice-President J. C. Jackson of Hartford, Conn., who asked that the rules be suspended in order that the action might be admitted.

Rev. Jackson's motion was made very shortly after Dr. Williams at the conclusion of his address had given first expression of his sentiment concerning rumors that he was to resign. These rumors had flown on wings out of Chicago and had invaded the President's magnificent special train to Texas. His closest advisers did not know what he would do, knowing that earlier this year in Brooklyn he had announced his intention to resign. But they knew further that as soon as the intention had been announced, letters and telegrams of protest had clogged his mails—enough to cause him to healtate. And until he ended his address this afternoon, no one had known how his course might be altered. This afternoon he told the delegates he wanted to resign.

"I was sincere when I said I had no desire to continue in office," he emphasized, after describing the rigors and burden of his position, "and I say now if you desire to elect anyone else and do so, I shall be perfectly satisfied. So do whatever seems best to you."

Then he read, as if in prayer, those famous words of troubled men for many years, contained in the immortal hymn, "Lead Kindly Light."

The effect of his announcement was to stun the ordinarily voluble and volatile delegates. For thirty seconds they did or said nothing. Then a young woman, clad in bright white, took her position before the microphone. She was a member of Dr. Williams' church, Olivet, and while the women cheered, she presented him with a large basket of flowers. Another young woman followed with a beautiful quilt from the young women of the convention. Pennick of Milwaukee, but formerly of Olivet, then presented a Hamilton gold watch on behalf of the men of the church. It was all done beautifully, touchingly. Wisely and mercifully, they did not require the convention leader, tired from his previous efforts to acknowledge these expressions of fealty.

Then, Jackson of Hartford and the motion and pandemonium. Noise such as only Baptist preachers can make, wild, glad, powerful, determined acclaim. As they yelled, a spare figure rose at the left of the microphone. On the train from Chicago he had not been able to eat so sick had he been. He held up his hand and bowed his head to get the chairman's attention. Eyes in the audience saw him.

"Austin," a voice cried, "Give us Austin. Hear him! Hear him! Let Austin speak!"

The cry filled the great tent, was echoed and re-echoed. A half dosen other men were on their feet, on the platform, demanding to be heard. For two minutes (it seemed like an age) the chairman hesitated.

"The chair recognises Dr. Austin," he finally announced.

They had called this man Austin to second the nomination of Williams, because the powerful voice of this frail man is majestic music in the ears of the Baptist host. They expect him to "clean up." He did in terms of glowing tribute to Dr. Williams, who, he declared, had been brother and friend to him in the work he is now doing at Pilgrim Church in Chicago. Others to second the nomination were Pinkston of Atlanta, and the Rev. W. H. Moses, who dubbed himself as a representative of the United States.

Dr. Williams' address dealt comprehensively with problems confronting American today, the work of the church in respect to these problems, and the internal construction of the Baptist Church.

He viewed the social and economic ills of the day, and the [illegible] ican war of church and state.

"In our country we have felt the impact of a crime movement," he asserted. "Eighty-five per cent of our criminals are below twenty-one years of age. One out of every eleven persons who marry get a divorce. Our young people seem to be increasing in their disregard for parental authority."

But he declared America's most important domestic problem to be the problem of the Negro. The blame for it he placed at the door of the white man.

He demurred at one stage of his address against calling it a problem, because, as he said, a problem is something the solution of which is either difficult or unknown.

"But those with whom this problem rests," he cried, "know what to do. They lack courage more than they lack wisdom. They have been playing with the question. Proper race relations depend upon the attitude of the head and heart. The church must preach of the sanctity of human rights, that big men mean more than big banks."

Announcing that the Negro is no specific creation, but in all respects just like all other men with the same background, he scored the southern system of cheating the Negro in his school allotments, and poked fun at those whites who seem to believe the Negro can do as much with little as the white can with much. He then apostrophized those Negroes who, though "born on credit, dying in debt, and buried on the installment plan" had made in sixty years the progress of which the race boasts.

Other important general pats of his address called for support of the Prohibition Amendment, because to nullify it would discourage nullification of amendments which protect the Negro's citizenship, and took issue with Clarence Darrow on his famous charge that Negro is too bloomin' pious.

"The trouble is that we are not bloomin' pious enough. We've got to get closer to God," protested Dr. Williams.

It was no wonder when he had concluded with his sound recommendations for various beards, the brethren shouted their praise. They were plumb happy.

Verily, these men of God are gathered in a sweltering city of tents. Picture, if you can, two city blocks, oddly vacant on the periphery of the business section of this town of near two hundred thousand souls. Less than five hundred feet from the Texas and Pacific terminal into which the trains bearing the gospel delegates pulled, lies this expansive reservation like a gently rising plateau. On its surface is laid out the convention city. Shops of all kinds, selling sandwiches of chicken, fish, pork, boiled dinners, cool drinks, watermelons, gospel literature, haberdashery, stationery, and so forth, line either side of what is the well-lighted temporary Main street. Back of this main avenue are others, and crossing it are lanes for the egres sand ingress of the delegates.

This huge canvas church spreads like a giant still turtle over twice the area of the average armory. Silently, thousands are swallowed in its vast confines. So that the voices of even these sturdy preachers might carry to the outer rim of enclosure, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, local daily and the largest paper in the south, installed apparatus for a microphone which lifts the messages of these leaders and throws them forcefully against the exits.

Baptist conventions are noteworthy, because of the great amount of order they bring out of disorder, the large number of accomplishments they achieve from apparent lack of direction. President Williams felt compelled at the opening session to declare that order itself was going to be a feature. The sessions have therefore lacked some of the customary noise and other impediments to smooth functioning human law.

Conventions to whom like this are differently received from those which may pitch their tents in the cool cities of the north. Hiss not only the sun shade down rays which burn the body, but the hearts of the people are warm and their spirits [illegible]

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

Some years past a cartoon, we think that it was by the famous Tom Nast, depicted an Irishman on an isolated island concentrating his thoughts on his own misery and wrongs when all about him lay the rotting corpses, victims of human hatreds. That cartoon was labeled "Why Not Think of the Misery of Others?" but continued oppression caused Irishmen to concentrate upon themselves until, today, they are in a partial position to have a thought for the miseries of others.

Oftimes we have thought that American Negroes were becoming oblivious to the sufferings of others by undue concentration on the wrongs from which they suffer through the machinations of racial prejudice and hatreds. But, in view of the following, which is being used for the purpose of propoganda, we have come to the conclusion that it is the better part of wisdom to consolidate forces and batter down those barriers after which we will be able to help ameliorate the conditions of others less fortunate.

Prof. Kirby Page, in advocating a Natinal Peace Department in the government, among other things, says, "The peoples of the various nations are dangerously ignorant of each other. Out of this lack of knowledge grows the suspicions, fears and hatreds which cause peoples to endure the staggering burden of armaments and which place the rank and file of citizens at the mercy of governmental propaganda in hours of crisis."

H. G. Wells, the historian, writes, "I am convinced myself, that there is no more evil thing in this present world than race prejudice, none at all; I write this deliberately—it is the worst single thing in life now. It justifies and holds together more baseness, cruelty and abomination than any other sort of error in the world. Now read what a Vanderbilt University professor writes in a book published by "The White American Society," 1923—

"After spending three years in graduate work at the University of Chicago travelled six years among the countries of the darker peoples . . . . that the Negroes are an inferior people is regarded as axiomatic thruout the white South and many other sections of the country. . . . . The white race has founded all civilizations . . . . the Negro has not had and cannot have a part in progressive civilization. . . . . That the colored races do not originate in the most solemn fact of human history, the only fact that bodes ill for the future. . . . A race devoid of creative genius is an unfit type so far as progress in civilization is concerned. . . . Civilization has never survived intimate and prolonged contact with colored races. . . . . If we do remove the Negro our civilization is to decay. If we do not remove the Negro our civilization is to increase and our future belongs to GOD. . . . The white man is the sun that lights the world; the lustre of other races is but reflected glory. The white man is in fact what the negophilist is in theory—the voice of the ALMIGHTY upon the earth."

You remember Bran, the Texan Iconoclast, how he lived and how he DIED. They have exhumed his decayed carcass to quote his putrid distribe against the Negro. Bran wrote hats. "We have hunted the black rape fiend to death with hounds, bored him with buckaroos; fricaseed him over slow fires and burned him alive; but the despoilment of white women by these brutal imps of darkness and the devil is still of daily occurrence. The baleful shadow of black hangs over every Southern home like the sword of Damocles, like the blight of death—an avatar of infamy, a decree of damnation. . . . In the name of Israel's God what shall we do? . . . . Drive out the 'Nigger' young and old, male and female—or drive him into the earth. . . . It is better that a thousand good Negroes, if so many there be, should suffer death or banishment than that one good white woman should be debauched."

Those things are quoted as "Racial Dangers" in advocating a department for National Peace. In doing so it has given to the world an indisputable fact that this United States of America—at the least the greater part—is far without the pale of civilization as gauged by the standard of humanity. The recent committee of 9 professors who were killed by the daughter of the governor [illegible] has been almost saying "good morning" to the governor's family in the library of all countries.

EUREKA VILLA

To all purchasers of lots in Eureka Villa we are pleased to announce the completion of your trust on August 24th. It required nearly three months to put your deal in shape so that we could proceed to protect you against all foreclosures and law suits, ultimately giving you your titles through escrow. It has been a very trying job but an extremely pleasant one because everyone has cooperated so nicely.

It is true that you were in a bad condition, should we use the expression of those who live in fear, but who need live in fear no longer, because you have passed that stage and to those promoters and salesmen who pioneered Eureka Villa, cannot be given too much praise for having struggled courageously on to where it was necessary to work out new means of proceeding further. Courage and faith have worked out that way for you through the undersigned who is nothing more than a medium through which we hope to build a paradise in those canyons by exercising more courage and faith, backed up by concentrated effort and much thinking—right thinking. We must think harmoniously.

Those who stop to dwell in the past with malice and hatred and with criticism and accusation of their fellow men—oh well—they just stopped, that's all—they make no progress whatever. So in reference to your previous conditions or predicament at Eureka Villa, just promise yourself to forget the mistakes of others in the past, it matters not who made them, and let us all together press on to greater achievements in the future.

When we shall have finished with Eureka Tract, it will be yours for keeps. We are trying to really fix it for the sake of posterity. The only person who stands to lose will perhaps be the undersigned, but as a group it will always be yours. In two months time we have raised for the development of our tract $100,000.00, in units of $20,000.00. To operate under this plan of proceedure we will be forced to get rid of your present contracts either by cancellation or deed, and we prefer of course to give your deeds, and to figure in every possible way to prevent a cancellation. To avoid cancellation we shall extend your time limit to October 1, 1926, by which time any of you will be able to get your title, provided you are in position to demand the same. For the duration of this extention we make you the following proposition in order to encourage you to pay up by September 20, 1926, we will discount your balance to 25%. Should you pay up by September 25, 1926, you will get a discount of 20%, and by October 1, 1926 a 10½ discount.

Now folks, remember you must do your part and always be sure that you are right and have lived up to your obligations before you can demand the other fellow to do his. I want everyone to get in a position to demand a deed and title by October 1, 1926, and therefore have offered to make these big concessions to help you. You will understand this better bye and bye.

We have no secrets in this new deal. Our contracts, agreements and trust can be seen at any time by those who might be skeptical yet interested and willing to do. Come into our office if you wish at any time, and we will be glad to show you every courtesy. At the same time we beg your indulgnce, because this deal has been like a Chinese Crossword Puzzle—and remember we have nearly 800 of you to straighten out—co-operation will do it—fighting among yourselves will destroy you, not us.

Water? Yes! We have brought in a wonderful well for domestic purposes. We are told that it is the best drinking water in the valley. We rebored and put a 10 inch casing in the old wind mill well, and have 37 feet of water standing in same at present. Those of you who remember the old wind mill will know the meaning of this.

Respectively,

JOURRNEE W. WHITE.

Great Evangelist At The Tabernacle Baptist Church

Rev. W. F. Pascael, Atlanta, will conduct a series of meetings for the Tabernacle Baptist Church, commencing Sunday, September 19. Dr. Pascal comes highly recommended as an Evangelist of great power and no double Tabernacle Church will be a great center of religious activity during his stay.

THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

The Seven Last Plagues, will be the subject of Evangelist P. G. Rodgers at the Big Tent, Sunday night, Sept. 19th at 7:45 P. M. From the 16th chapter of the book of Revelations, Mr. Rodgers will explain the meaning of the WRATH OF GOD and also show from the scriptures the ways that the Great God has to protect His people from His fierce anger. So many people forget that even though the wrath of the Lord is promised against the opposers of His word, yet His great love is revealed toward His servants. Every night during the week these special evangelistic services are held and the public is cordially invited to be present promptly at 7:45 P. M.

Old time Bible preaching straight from the Word of God. Clear, plain explanations of what has been thought to have been mystical portions of the scriptures. Don't miss a service.—Come!—Adv.

PLAIN FACTS

By:
DR. RUTH J. TEMPLE

NOTE: The wife of one of our leading ministers said to me last week, Dr. Temple, I appreciate your articles in the Eagle so much. I just wish, O, I do wish, that I had kept every one of them so that I could have them for my children to read and study as they get older." Then this very intelligent mother went on to say how well acquainted she was with the great need of women and girls for knowledge concerning the mysteries of life. Because this plea for greater information, and more enlightenment is pouring into my ears on all sides, and because in my work as a special doctor for women and girls I constantly see in ruined lives the results of ignorance, I am interested more than ever in getting "Plain Facts" before my people. My very heart has been wrung during the past few weeks as I have seen so many girls of all races—white, black and yellow, bowed down with sorrow because they had fallen under temptation.

Friends, it is not because girls are that they sin. It is because they are ignorant. Fathers and mothers are heart-roken and greatly agitated over the terrible number of girls that go astray year by year in our city. But parents being worried is not enough, being alarmed will not help the condition. We must make a real sacrifice to get the truth to girls and boys which will save them from themselves. We are making some very definite plans for the propogation of this true knowledge to our young people, and in the near future your column on Plain Facts will have a special surprise announcement to make, first to the women and girls and then later we hope to boys and men.

Now that the summer is almost over and the irregularities incident to vacations and other interruptions are passed we will begin back again on our regular series of articles on Maternity or Motherhood. Because so many men and women both are intensely interested in the great subject as a whole and because no one can remember all of the points taken up from week to week; I again suggest to you the great advisability of filing every single copy of the Eagle from now on. For I shall try to so arrange these forthcoming articles that anyone who has each of them as they shall be given from now on shall possess a series containing practically all of the information that is absolutely essential in order for either sex to be informed on the practical issues of every day life, with its temptations and with its needs.

Now, in a special sense we ask our readers to send in their requests and suggestions that as we are outlining our new series of articles we may cover the special questions that each one has in mind. So if you do have a subject which you wish talked on, or if questions thus far unanswered are in your mind, please feel free to address such to Dr. Ruth J. Temple, 3556 So. Western; Phones: VA. 1221, UN. 1255 EM. 9981. And I assure you that we will do our best to answer everyone's inquiries to the very best of our ability in this column which is dedicated to meet the real needs of our men and women and boys and girls.

L. A. HAS LYNCHING

HUNDREDS SEE SPECTACLE

Los Angeles the city of Angels was the scene of a scalping and lynching party on last Monday, the 13th inst, at the corner of Twelfth and Central —the center of the black belt.

The victim was an innocent chap who came walking idly down the street when he was suddenly grabbed by several husky men warming the curb and bitterly accused of having committed a most dastardly crime. Pleading innocent proved of no avail. The screams and shouts of men and women that crowded the busy thoroughfare on their way home from their daily occupation did not have any effect.

The poor boy was knocked down, stamped upon and scalped and to make sure that there would be no repetition of such an unpardonable offense as he was accused of, a rope was procured and the gentleman tightly fastened to it and strung across the sidewalk in sight of all.

Today the body of Straw Hat still dangles in the air, a solemn reminder to those guilty of committing the unpardonable sin of strutting a Straw Hat on the 13th day of September and who were fortunate enough to escape the mob not to get caught next year.

Several husky officers of the law, including Detective Captain Glenn, Frank White, Officer Kelly and a couple of others were hurriedly rushed to the scene and after considerable effort quelled the disturbance, cleared the street for traffic and restored order, but left the corpse of some 53 Straw Hats hanging high and dry in the air.

The Ever Merry Wedding Bells

One of the most beautiful house weddings of the season was that of Mr. Stewart Richard Simpson, and Miss Julia Pauline Taylor, solemnized at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mamie Thompson of Hyans Street.

Mr. Simpson is recently of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. Cornelius B. Taylor, elevator starter at the Broadway Department Store, and the late Mrs. Maggie J. Taylor.

By the strains of Mendelsohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. A. C. Billbrew, Mrs. Clyde Freedan, sister of the bride and Matron of honor, marched in, attired in beaded white georgette crepe and carrying a bouquet of pink buds. Following Mr. Jessie R. Johnson, best man, with the groom. Little Miss Vivian Holly in embroidered and laced trimmed peach mull, scattered petals before the bride, who looked beautiful in crepe back white satin embroidered in floral design of irridescence, beads and a flower of chantely lace, the veil being draped with orange blossome. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds and sweet peas. Mrs. Wlda Carter of Santa Monica in embroidered peach crepe, acted as train bearer. Under a bower and bell of white and pink carnations, ferns and tulle ribbon, they were united by the Rev. R. W. Underwood. Many beautiful and useful presents were received, and the couple left under a bombardment of rice, predicting joy and happiness.

FIFTH CONVENTION OF THE NEGRO PEOPLES OF THE WORLD, HELD UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE UNIVERSAL NEGRO IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION REPUDIATES GARVEY'S ADMINISTRATION

CENSURES HIM SEVERRELY FOR SCANDALOUS EXPLOITATION OF THE ASSOCIATION AND THE MASSES OF HIS RACE. DISCLOSES TO THE WORLD THE ENTIRE STORY OF HIS MISDEMEANORS

120 West 138th Street,
New York City,
September.

The Editor, The Eagle,
847 Central Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.

DEAR SIR:

Inclosed herein you will find "Press Release and Manifestos" adopted at the Convention of the Negro Peoples of the World held under the auspices of th Universal Negro Improvement Association in the City of New York during the month of August.

The past administration of the Association was denounced and elected in its place are the following officers:

G. O. Marke, Potentate; William L. Sherrill, Supreme Deputy Potentate; George A. Weston, President General; William Isles, Chancellor; Wesley MacD. Holder, Secretary General; Rev. John C. Simons, Chaplain General; Eduardo V. Morales, International Organizer; Dr. Curtis T. Skeete, Surgeon General; Alfred L. King, Director Juvenile Activities; William H. Ferris, Commissioner of Education and Propaganda; W. O. Smyer, Commissioner of Economics and Industry.

Respectfully submitted,
WESLEY McD. HOLDER,
Secretary

LIBERTY HALL, Aug. 24, 1926.—The extraordinay misconduct, misuse of official power, and swollen ambition of Marcus Garvey, the late President General of the Universal Negro Improvement Association have been responsible during the past 6 years for the squandering of funds of the organization, the disruption of its work and the abortion of its policies. Unfortunately also the public has up to now seen only Garvey and knows little if anything of the organization which he has so gravely misrepresented. At this time therefore the organization is faced with the immediate task of setting its house in order and re-establishing itself in the esteem and respect of the world.

Marcus Garvey was convicted and sentenced to serve a term of imprisonment in the United States penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., after a fair and impartial trial. During this trial his ludicrous antics would have aroused the laughter of the Negro Peoples of the World had they not been so humiliating to the organization of which he was a high Executive Officer and whose funds he was lavishly misappropriating in a grandiose effort to keep from paying the penalty of his crime. In the same fashion as he had before misused the funds of the Association and abused the power of his office to advertise his name, he attempted to centre the entire control of the Universal Negro Improvement Association in the hands of certain personal satellites. He appointed uneconstitutionally to the position of control a man whom he had thrice before denouced before the orgaization as dishonest, immoral, inefficient and totally unfit for executive office.

By these measures he planned to maintain his despotic control of the organization until his release from prison, when by posing as a martyr he again hoped to victimize and exploit the organization and the illiterate masses of his race. To this end records of the organization have been removed, its program disrupted and its funds diverted to the purpose of propagandizing to arouse sympathy for and to cover the misdemeanors of Garvey, even the official organ of the Organization, the Negro World, being prostituted for this purpose.

After reasoning vainly with Garvey and his henchmen, the organization has been compelled to take definite steps against him. As a result, certain misguided elements have withdrawn themselves from the Association and calling themselves "Garveyites" are holding meetings and carrying on a mail and press campaign in the interest of Garvey, using for that purpose the misappropriated funds of the Universal Negro Improvement Association.

Liberty Hall, 120 West 138th St., New York City, continues to be the Headquarters and general meeting place of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and it is planned to erect here the executive offices and Convention Hall of the Organization. Funds for this purpose were placed in the hands of Garvey 5 years ago but were misappropriated by him to other purposes.

The two manifestoes attached to this release were today sent out by the Fifth International Convention of the Negro Peoples of the World in session at Liberty Hall. Copies of that addressed to the Races and Nations of the World have been sent to the League of Nations and to the various governments of the World. Copies of the manifesto to the Negro Peoples of the World have been sent to the Abyssinian, Liberian and Haitian Governments, to all Negro Congresses and Assemblies, to the Tribal Chiefs throughout Africa, to all important Negro Organizations in the United States, the West Indies, South and Central America and Canada, as well as to the Negro Press.

WILKINS PIANO ACADEMY TO BE HEARD AGAIN

The Wilkins Piano Academy intends to present to the public and its many friends an excellent, short and well-balanced program. It will be assisted by Mrs. Viola Brandon and her great choir. Prof. Thomas Johnson's pupil, Mr. Elihue Sloan will sing, also Miss Margurite Robinson will sing Gilbert Allen's song which he composed for the Harmony Class of Jefferson High School.

The following pupils will play —Amelia Hester, pupil of Miss Myrner Shivers; Mr. Elihue Sloan, pupil of Gilbert Allen; Olivia Lewis, pupil of Delphenia Jackson; Wilkins' Pupils: Francis Curry, Irma Jones, Aven Blanchard, Iona Logan, Anita Webb, T. Estes, Delphenia Jackson, Charlotte Shimidzu, Gilbert Allen and Mr. Wilkins has been requested to play a number with Samuel Brown at the organ.

Although many of the advanced students and graduates of the Academy have entered the universities, the majority have majored in Theoretical subjects and remained with Mr. Wilkins for piano, which is a very high tribute to his standing as a teacher of piano. Among the Wilkins' pupils entering both universities this year are Miss Thelma Lowey, Mrs. Claude V. Pitts and Gilbert Allen. Mr. Wilkins has recommended that Samuel Brown continue his Theory and Organ studies at the U. S. C. and piano with the master teacher Herr. Becher of this city, but Samuel will continue to teach and coach under Mr. Wilkins at the academy.

When the Academy is settled in its new location it intends to offer free scholarships, whole or partial to talented students.

Avail yourselves of the opportunity to hear these wonderful pupils taught by one of our race and one who is recommended in highest terms by all the best colored and white musical authorities, both universities also.

Come to the 2nd Baptist Church, 24th and Griffith next Tuesday evening, Sept. 21st at 8:20 P. M. Admission 35c and 50c.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Knox of 10324 Wilmington Ave., South Los Angeles, was the scene of an enjoyable birthday party on last Thursday evening when Misses Eva and Ever Knox and Mrs. E. Overr-Solomon were the honored guests.

The evening was very interestingly whiled away in games interspersed by musical numbers. Mr. Freddie Skinner, a soloist of particular accomplishment, rendered "Until" by Trachemoeher and "Bye-Bye," by Burleigh, which was quite inspirational and the violin renditions by Mr. Arthur Molton of the Rosary and Adoration by Nevin-Kreisler and Robrowski respectively both of which were masterpieces and wonderfully delivered. Mr. Moulton is very recently from the Arizona school of Musical Technique and is known as a virtuoso in his performance on the violin. Mr. Moulton accompanied Mr. Skinner and Miss Hampton presided for Mr. Moulton.

A bounteous repast was served at a late hour when all departed for their homes acknowledging the Knox family as ideal hosts.

The following persons were present:

Miss Myrtle Anderson, Attorney, recently from N. Y. City; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Skinner; Mr. and Mrs. Lawes; Miss Isadore and Hattie Hampton; Harriet Jones; Mrs. M. R. Caviness; Mrs. T. A. Torrence; Mr. Arthur Moulton; Mrs. Emma Surray; Mrs. Nole Billard; Mrs. Nickerson; Mrs. Huwen; Mrs. Mattie Henderson; Mrs. Bethel; Messrs. Elmer and Herman Henderson, Johnnie Braggs and Leon Edwards.

Mr. Knox is a very progressive and successful real estate dealer of Watts, California. Mrs. Knox who sponsored this unique affair is to be highly commended for making it possible for all to have thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

HALL OF RECORDS JANITORS PICNIC AT ECHO PARK

By: LeRoy S. Hart

Los Angeles County Janitors, accompanied by their wives, sweethearts, mothers, friends, automobiles, Fords, flivvers, etc., journeyed to picturesque Echo Park, Thursday of last week, Admission Day, for the annual Janitors' Picnic.

Games of many kinds, including time-honored pitching of Old Dobbin's footgear, were enjoyed by all, the winners receiving attractive prizes.

After partaking a generous lunch from the overstuffed baskets prepared by the janitors' wives, races for all ages and weights were held, which provided additional merriment for the spectators and valuable rewards for the successful contestants.

The main attraction of the day was the annual baseball game between the old rivals, the janitors and elevator operators. Hundreds of holiday visitors to the park, attracted by the excitement, joined the picnickers to witness, as they said, one of the best games they had ever seen on a local diamond.

The janitors dubbed themselves the "Cats," while the elevator boys assumed the role of "Dogs." And at the start of the scrap, it looked like the "cat's meow," but the final score of 13 to 12 in favor of the up and down gang, proved it to be the "dog's bow-wow."

The Cats got away with a 4-run jump in the first inning and kept a good lead. But "every dog will have his day" and this bunch got theirs in the eighth when they tied the score and had the last chance to swing the stick in the ninth.

Easily goose-egging the now sick Cats, the yelping Dogs grabbed the winning tally right quick and said: "Let's go home!" while the felines looked around for some fresh grass and untied their bags of alibis and "its" to account for losing.

All in all, it was a game well worth seeing, both teams playing an excellent brand of ball, the breaks and errors, being about even.

And Chief Janitor, L. G. Robinson, President of the Angelus Funeral Home, who was on hand with his usual enthusiasm, believes he can muster a mine among his boys that will entertain any team in the Winter League.

Hear Viola Baucom and County Supt. of Schools at 8th and Towne, Monday, September 24th. Fine program.

Miss Harris, a recent arrival from New Yrok, charmed the party with her wonderful voice, singing, Indian Love Call and I'm A Little Blackbird Looking For a Bluebird.

EDITORIALS

WILL ALWAYS MOVE FORWARD

J. Finley Wilson was elected Exalted Ruler for the 5th term strictly on his record of accomplishments and this fact should ever guarantee for this great fraternal order a record of activity regardless of who is the executive head.

TIMELY REMARKS

You don't have to have the biggest paper in the world in which to make a concree expression or say the things worth while. This fact is evidenced by the snappy expressions and sage reasonings which come to us from time to time through the columns of the "Western Outlook."

"CALIFORNIA VOICE" CANNOT SAVE THE CROOKS

Aside from our mission to curb the activities of the crooks who would despoil us and exploit a race for selfish aggrandizement we are faced with the problem of a newspaper in Oakland putting a premium on crooks allowing them space to assail us in its columns at will. This will not save them, however, for the forces of righteousness have been awakened and the crooks must be on their way.

BUSINESS LEAGUE AND BUSINESS

With the optomistic reports from the National Negro Business League and its determination to delve even deeper along the lines of business effort. It is high time that our own local organization would get busy for the year's program of progress. We have an abiding faith in the officers of our local organization and are assured that they subscribe most heartily to the program of progress as laid down by the National body and that we will soon be on the move in this section.

There should be first of all, an educational campaign to inform the people what it is all about. This is surely so for the masses do not know. Take this past year, when the local League put on a drive for a "Negro Business" week which was fostered for the purpose of stimulating "Negro Business," or in other words a week of intensive activity for Negroes to help themselves, some of our citizens took the wrong angle of the situation and predicted all sorts of things excepting the promotion of Negro Business. Such instances as this must be remedied and all hands go forward the present year for a greater, bigger and better business for our group.

THE TELLING LINE OF PODUCTION

It is the telling strokes of production which count and raise us up along the lines of business effort and demonstrates beyond per adventure the capacity of our group to do the things worth while.

One black man by thrift and industry, a scientific treatment of the soil, gained from a painstaking study and research, produced in South Carolina more wheat from an acre of ground than any other citizen in that state, black or white. His accomplishment was outstanding from the fact that his nearest competitor was quite 15 bushels shy of the production of A. G. Pressley of Greenwood County, who raised on one acre, fifty-one and one-half bushels of wheat, his nearest competitor raised 36 bushels.

Coming on out on the plains of bleeding Kansas, a black man named Tom King became disgusted with city life and living from hand to mouth. He sought the fruitful plains, set camp thereon, himself and family. Today he is hailed as the wheat king of Kansas; his advice is sought from far and near and he has raised up his people many notches in the estimation and consideration of the people of Kansas and the world over.

GOVERNOR RICHARDSON SADDER BUT WISER

Of all the words of mouth or pen, the saddest is—What might have been.

Governor Friend Richardson can now look back in sadness as late as August 16th the files of this paper will reveal that we implored him to be not like Pharoah of old but give the Colored voters due consideration to appoint some of them to representative positions. We told him in this issue and others scattered along for the past two or three years, pleading and asking for due consideration for the voters who came to his rescue 4 years ago and made him the Republican nominee. We further told the governor that should he fail to give to them this recognition, they would surely fail him when he needed them the most.

In the light of recent events we are sure the Governor can now discern the logic contained in our advice, for he needed urgently so the Colored vote which he failed to receive and the only reason that he did not receive this support was the fact that the Governor had absolutely turned his back upon it by his refusal to give to it any sort of recognition in the affairs of the state government.

Of the facts mentioned above there is not one question of the fact that the Governor's defeat was brought about by his failure to receive any appreciable suuport from the contingent of colored voters. In other words the self same vote which assured his victory four years ago, caused his defeat at the recent primaries.

WOMEN AND THE BALLOT

To interpret the defeat of Mrs. Ferguson as a slap at women in politics would be both unfair and ungallant. It was not, indeed, a slap at women at all, but at a man. Jim Ferguson was the real target of the voters of Texas, and that his wife suffered the flip of the blow was of her own choosing. She was a candidate for re-election, not on her own record, but on her husband's. She sought to vindicate his acts, not her own. Jim Ferguson was the person repudiated.

The charge that women are a complete failure in politics is, to say the very least, premature. Good judgment would not venture such an opinion. It is true that woman suffrage has not brought about all the reforms its enthused proponents promised. That was to be expected. Where it served only to increase the percentage of foreign-born voters (as in the large cities), immediate beneficial results could not be looked for. But out through the country where the population is American. the effect has been marked. Those states in which women have had the ballot longest are generally credited as having the cleanest governments.

The machinery of the ballot is still new to women. They do not fully understand its uses. Where men have had the vote for years, women have had it for months. The general apathy of American citizens toward the ballot affects them as well as it does men. The hope inspired when the ballot was given to women should not be relinquished too soon. The common sense of the American woman may be expected to surmount all obstacles to a registry of her will for the nation.—The Dearborn Independent.

High Points of Interest During the Biennial Convention of the National Association of Colored Women and on the Return Trip of President Mary McLeod Bethune

By: REBECCA STILES TAYLOR

Railroad authorities said, "It is the largest, most dignified and gracious delegation to ever cross the continent."

At each stop, delegations of resident club women, bearing greetings and flowers, met the long train which consisted of 18 Pullman cars, two diners, club car and observation car to whose rear end was attached in electric lights a blazing sign entitled, "National Association of Colored Women."

The train being late on reaching Colorado Springs, the daily organ recital at the Morman Tabernacle was over. A wire sent ahead, asking that a special Concert be arranged for the N. A. C. W's. delegation brought a quick response and for the first time, this special honor was granted. A group picture of the delegation consisting of nearly four hundred women with four men and a goodly number of children, was made on the grounds of the Tabernacle. The "Garden of the Gods" was visited also.

The whole of Oakland's Colored population, seemingly, turned out to meet the delegates. The spacious Civic Auditorium afforded ample room for all meetings and with a kitchen and dining room and an able staff of male cooks, the delegation, now numbering more than five hundhed was splendidly cared for. Local club women served as waitresses.

The Checker Cab Company engaged by the local club women rendered exceptional service and deserves special mention for their most courteous attention.

The "Sky Line" drive in Oakland which took the delegation by the Greek Theater of the University of California where President Bethune spoke, as well as the wonderful drive in San Francisco were of intense interest, both being carefully escorted by delegations of motorcycle policemen who semed to thoroughly enjoy their work and saw to it that everything cleared the way for the long string of automobiles, the use of which was a gift of ambitious politicians and local friends. The luncheon served at the Club House of the white club women of San Francisco along with the special program were interesting and enjoyable affairs.

On arriving in San Francisco the siren was blown, the order being given by the Mayor that the whistle be blown in honor of the President of the National Association of Colored women and her delegation just as it was done for the Princess of Sweden two weeks prior.

Through the kindness of the colored male citizens of San Francisco an interesting boat ride was arranged during which a spectacular demonstration of a fire boat was made and many points of interest were pointed out to the delight of the visiting ladies.

The welcomes of the Governor, Lieutenapt Governor, the Mayor of Oakland who sat through the formal opening program of the Convention, the Mayor of San Francisco who presented a United States flag on the steps of the City Hall, of Senator Shortridge recently re-elected and much admire dby the colored citizens of California, of Senator Karns (a woman) of an official of the General Federation of white women, of the men, women and children from all walks of life the welcomes were beyond description. Everything in California is so big, so bright, so hearty, so luxuriant.

Los Angeles—Wonder city of the Pacific Coast. Everyone in Los Angeles lives either in a spacious house or a beautiful bungalow. Flowers, big, gorgeous, colorful, green velvety lawns, bright red geranium hedges, low squatty sage palms, immaculately clean streets, brightest of sunshine, all lend a magnificence and charm peculiarly their own.

Angelus Temple and Aimee McPherson baptizing one hundred and thirty men, women and children, whole families at one time, in one dip. We watched her methods to see how she did it. She work "from the known to the unknown," and, she uses the object method which is used in every day school. We shook hands and talked with her and marvelled at her power She works "from the known to the thousands of converts. Truly, woman is coming into her own! Visited Hollywood and the Hollywood Bowl and was presented box seats free of charge because we represented the National Association.

Los Angeles of all places in California meant more to Mary McLeod Bethune than any other spot, for it is now the home of Miss Mary Grissman, the modest, little school teacher who gave a tenth of her small earnings to the education of Mrs. Bethune and who, as she said, "Backed it up with prayer." After a lapse of thirty years, Mrs. Bethune and Miss Crissman met face to face and the gentle white woman, still humble in circumstances but comfortable graced the platform on which her former protege stood and plead with the multitude present, rich and poor, white and black—TO INVEST IN A HUMAN SOUL. Who knows, it might be "A Diamond in the Rough."

On receiving a bouquet of flowers from the local club women at the end of her dramatic speech which brought tears from the eyes of all present, as she presented herself as a living example of such an investment, being highly wrought up herself because of the peculiar circumstances under which she was speaking and because at that very hour her oldest brother, and influence over her thousands and being quietly laid to rest in the old her parents sleep, Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune presented that bouquet to Miss Crissman who in turn gave the whole credit for the making of her and Mary McLeod Bethune to her Christian parents who had taught her to present unto God through charity one-tenth of all her earning and who in doing so, elevated from the race fields of South Carolina this little Negro girl who is undoubtedly THE MOST OUTSTANDING NEGRO WOMAN IN THE WORLD TODAY. The scene was dramatic, 'Twas sublime! 'Twas true!

Simple but elegant was the breakfast tendered the President at Christian Tavern by the local branch of is a member. And many and elaborate were the breakfasts, luncheons, teas and dinners given by the citizens of California and the West.

We have read of the Underground Railway of the dark days—Our return trip was a veritable Overground Railway very similar to the Underground of other days for at the below listed cities we simply wired ahead and were met by an escort who placed us (one time seven in party and another fourteen) in the hands of club women who fed, sheltered and entertained us most graciously.

At Pasadena and Monrovia, California; Portland, Oregon; Seattle, Wash.; Victoria and Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. At each place our President addressed men, women and children who in turn pledged themselves to the entire program of the N. A. C. W. and especially to the President's plank—National Headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Stopping at Lake Louise in the province of Alberta, Canada, we viewed the snow-capped mountains at whose foot lay the blue waters of the most picturesque lakes in the world. One who has seen the lakes of Switzerland, declares that Lake Louise truly rivals any in natural beauty.

From Lake Louise we visited St Paul, Minnesota, where again the President spoke to a large group of club women and men.

When Chicago was reached we were cordially entertained in the hospitable home of Mrs. M. C. B. Mason, preparatory to our return to Florida the land of flowers which in many ways rivals Golden California, and equally affords oportunities for the survival of the fittest.

The one ripple of discord to enter into the work of the Convention was, Where shall we place National Headquarters? Whether at the Frederick Douglass Home in Anacostia, Washington which is controlled by the National Association or in Washington proper?

In their zeal for the welfare of the Douglass Home many states sent their delegates instructed to vote for the Douglass Home Site as Headquarters but on hearing the plans of President Bethune and realizing the growing importance of the National Association in the affairs of the Nation and knowing also that the headquarters of all other National Organizations are in Washington proper—like the mist before the noon day sun, all opposition faded away and unanimously the National Association voted far headquarters in Washington proper and in so doing gave the President a limitation of $50,000 to secure headquarters and equipment.

The Constitution and By-Laws were revised so as to provide a flat rate of fifty cents per years per woman or one dollar per two years. Out of each dollar 15% will be placed to the credit of the Douglass Home, 15% to the National Scholarship Loan, 70% to the National Notes for the administration covering the National Notes.

All monies collected for all purposes must be placed in the hands of the treasurer of the Association and disbursed by her to all boards.

All monies must be disbursed in the name of the National Association for all boards.

The "Drive" for Headquarters with the Presidet in charge is the ONLY DRIVE to come before the club women of the country for the next two years.

We have on hand more than $10,000 in the National Scholarship Fund and an equal amount of $10,000 for the Douglass Home's repair and upkeep.

To ecourage and conserve the strength of our Young Women graduating from our Colleges and High Schools yearly, who find it hard to adjust themselves to the ways of the women of more mature years. the Young Women's Deprtment was organized with a National Chairman and pledged its unswerving support to National Headquarters.

The program of the President was carried out in its entirety and the Convention adjourned to meet in Washington, D. C., 1928, when we shall view the improvements to the Douglass Home and dedicate our National Headquarters.

Allain Locke in his book "The New Negro," writes, "No sane observer, however sympathetic to the new trend, would contend that the masses are articulate as yet, but they stir, they move, they are more than physically restless. . . ." Yes, that restlessness is seen on every hand, wherever we have been it is observable. A seething under mass, like the disturbing process of the geyser before it spouts or the inward battles of the volcanic forces before the eruption, it is there: an awakening of race consciousness which no amount of oppression can suppress, no shackles of ignorance forever bind. When will the United States awake to the fact her success in the future, as in the past, is intwined with that of the Negro? His growth in wealth and intelligence is necessary to the growth and prosperity of the nation. We repeat again, the restlessness was discerned in recent conversations held with men who were gathered from all parts of the Union in the city of Cleveland. That big demonstration was in itself a great representation of racial consciousness.

Let the automobile agent know that you are a prospective buyer and he will be at your door before breakfast to demonstrate his wares and try to convince you that God made a mistake in giving you a good pair of legs and did not foresee the coming of the automobile. Yes, you are encouraged to buy expensive "machines." Why? Who manufactures them and where does the money go? Has the Negro any automobile factories? On the other hand: you want a home in some desirable locity. Does the agent haunt your waking hours to show the desirability of buying in some section worth the living? No! That home will stand for something in the years, an asset to your responsibility as a citizen in your community. It would be well to think of those things. Build the barn and then purchase the horse.

BABY JOE GANS WINS WITH KNOCK-OUT OVER BURNS

Baby Joe Gans lived up to his name and local reputation Wednesday night Sept. 15th at the great Olympic Auditorium by knocking out Bobby Burns, the New York top notcher who substituted for Tommy O'Brien, prevented from keeping his date with the "Young Master" by an injured hand. Said hand must have been doubted by the fans, as O'Brien received a chorus of "Boos" when he steped into the ring to be introdupced as a challenger of the winner.

Burns was first in the ring, receiving qute an ovation. Gans followed and the roof-raising cheers showed the popularity of the clean-cut colored boy. Burns loked much heavier than Gans as they stepped forward for final instructions.

The bell, and fight is on.

Round One—Burns rushes, land first blow, a left hook to face and clinched; Gans breaking out of clinch they exchange rights and lefts..

Round Three—Burns starts jabbing with left. Burns countering, Gans misses a haymaker but lands another hard right to head, left to wind that puts Burns down for a seven toll.

Round Four—Burns has swollen eye. Rushes Gans. Gans counters two hard rights left hook, right upper cut, then in clinch on the ropes punishes Burns with rapid body blows.

Round Five—Gans misses left hook at bell. Burns ducks in with left and right to body. They fight in close; Burns hits low; no damage. They mix in rapid flurry. Burns is outclassed but game. They are both careful at bell.

Round Six—Gans seems over-anxious to finish the groggy Burns. Misses left swing, left uppercut and several swings. Burns fights back gamely but misses often. Gans has been landing two blows to one all through. Keeps punishing Burns' bad eye. Clinch at bell.

Round Seven—Gee! but that boy Burns can stand some punishment! Out at the bell he misses three left lands right to Gans' jaw—that's all. After that it was just a careful job of systematic murder. Gans' uppercuts with right staggering Burns, then a fast series of rights and lefts. Burns helpless, Gans hold him off with left and measuring him shoots over hard right that finishes him and floors him for the count. Gans was cheered and cheered.

Otey Spencer, known as "Whitey Black," is built and fights like Sam Langford. He beat Tiger Robinson in a four-round prelim.

Billy Adams beat Jhnny Reisler in their six-round bout. Billy had a powerful left which he knew how to use and which Reisler didn't know how to stay away from.

Joe Pimenthal took an unpopular decision from Frank Boldt.

Patey O'Flannigan beat Al Neff in the opener.

"Strangler" Lewis Crushes Big Munn

At the end of 32 minutes and 19 seconds, in which both gentlemen forgot their wrestling etiquette from time to time, Lewis leaped for a headlock, clamped it on and tossed his opponent to the mat. When both arose —Munn groggy—the act was repeated and on the third time, Munn offered no resistance. The fall was completed.

Coming back in the ring Munn was still a bit glassy-eyed and fell before the same offensive in 23 minutes and 5 seconds.

In the curtain raiser, John Evko won from Haas Bauer with a crotch hold and half nelson. The time was 21 minutes, 46 seconds. Mike Romano lost to "Toots" Mondt, who took the fall in 33 minutes, 50 seconds. He used a jack-knife and scisses hold.

Young Jack Thompson Makes Chopping Block of Charlie Pitts at Culver City Stadium

JACK THOMPSON

Tuesday, September 14th, with his left eye closed, lip and nose split, and big red blotches over heart and kidneys from a terrific body drubbing, the much touted Charlie Pitts was saved from a knock-out at the hands of Young Jack Thompson by a towel thrown into the ring in the 8th round.

Thompson was first in the ring, waiting so long for Pitts' arrival that Joe Rivers, who refereed, remarked from his seat, "Wonder who is Jack's opponent?" Delay did not get Pitts anything though for at tap of the first bell Jack was on him with two left jabs to the head and right uppercut to the stomach. Jack took the first easily.

Second round. Pitts evened matters up till last minute when Jack cut loose and rocked him with a flock of wicked uppercuts.

Third round. Jack commenced jabbing Pitts' eye and soon had it red and half closed. He took this also.

The fourth showed Jack chasing Pitts around the ring landing short right crosses to head and working rapidly on body in clinches. Pitts was anxious to break clean from each clinch. He didn't like the in-fighting.

In the fifth Pitts had the only chance to get a look in when he landed a light left to Thompson's jaw and managed to get two more light ones there, then a couple of rights and lefts to body. But Jack was undisturbed and kept right on, the Easterner taking the fight to him.

Through the sixth and seventh, Thompson had Pitts at his mercy and almost out on his feet until the towel saved him in the eighth.

Jack showed he has the real stuff in him the way he worked his opponent all over from every angle and Pitts is no slouch as he has fought Benny Leonard, Rocky Kansas and a lot of other good boys.

Dick Brower landed a lot more blows to Jimmy Fox in the semi-windup and was a great deal cleverer but lost the decision in the sixth round.

Joe Cardoza knocked out Jack Lanson in the second round of the special event.

L. A. Playgrounds and Recreation Centers

A new playground is to be added to the municipal recreation facilities through the approval of the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Commission of the purchase of a site of approximately five acres in Hollenbeck district, provided the land can be bought at a price not to exceed a maximum fixed by the commission.

Some months ago the playground commission set aside $75,000 for the purchase and equipment of a playground in the vicinity of Whittier Boulevard and Fresno street, subject to the condition that residents of the Hollenbeck area inaugurate district assessment proceedings to acquire an adjoining acreage for park purposes. No agreemtn having been reached by Hollenbeck residents on this matter, the playground department has decided to proceed with the development of a much needed playground, without reference to a park project.

The past week had broken all records for attendance at municipal playgrounds, with a daily average of approximately 7,000, mostly boys and girls. This is a daily average of more than 600 over the previous record established late in August. South Park had a daily average f near 900 during the week, and Expsitin with 776 and Each with 706 daily average came secnd and third, respectively. Every playground but one showed a great increase over former established records.

For the first time in the history of the Girls' Camp maintained by the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department in Griffith Park, the camp has been opened to groups of women. The first of the women to spend a night in the well-equipped camp were the members of the Arroyo Seco Women's Gymnasium Club. It is believed that this innovation will bring many applications from women for the privileges of a brief vacation in the outdoors.

Steps toward the improvement of 4,000 feet of sea shore at Cabrillo Beach, San Pedro, have been taken by the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department in giving official approval to the acquisition of a shore frontage that will facilitate the development, by filling, of a large water front playground and bathing beach. The matter is now in the hands of the city attorney to determine the most expeditious method of securing the desired frontage, whether by waiver of present owners or condemnation as eminent domain.

A survey of the facilities provided by the churches of Los Angeles for the recreation of boys, girls and young people has just been completed and when the mass of data has been summarized an effort will be made by the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department to co-operate with these institutions in providing more comprehensive programs of athletics, dramatics, and club activities. Appreciation of the value of such programs is expressed by practically every minister of the city, and many churches are preparing to increase their activities along these lines.

AUTO RACES A THING OF THE PAST
Where Is The Racing Association?

By: START SOMETHING

Considerable excitement was displayed a year or so ago by the announcement that the citizenry of Los Angeles was to be treated to the sight of seeing some real auto races with Negro pilots at the helm. An elaborate advertisement campaign was put on and the event went over big with several thousand paid admissions on hand to cheer and urge some dozen or more Negro drivers on to victory.

The affair went big and was town topic gossip for several months. Several of the drivers as a result of being on the winning end strutted out street outfits such as new suits, cadies and canes with shoes to match. The sweetshops, restaurants and what-not business along the Avenue reported an increase in business for several days after.

Even the contribution departments of the church complained of excess donations.

The Colored Auto Racing Association was formed with Mr. Somebody as President and Johnnie I'll-hold-it was selected or elected as secretary-treasurer.

Fine! Everything was going nicely with the exception of the fact that everybody did not get in on the money because someone announced the financial river had run dry. It didn't rain enough dollars & cents to fill the stream and right here the ghost of the famous Bert Williams appeared on the scene long enough to state the fact that "Somebody Lied."

Somebody heard Bert's echo and got out an injunction on Johnnie I'll-hold-it and made Johnnie turn loose all except what a Mr. Premoter, smart man from the Negro capitol of America, Chicago, had departed with announced the day following.

Well, that's all history now, and lots more that hasn't been spoken of but what the public wants to know and is most interested in is, are there going to be any races this year? Have the differences that arose last year been ironed out and cannot some hero be found to take hold and put it over.

Boys, get busy. Folks are just starving for to digest an auto face. Los Angeles has plenty of honest promoters without having to wait for the East to donate you someone, so let's go. Auto Drivers Association, what say you?

Sidney Dones is a benedict, also an improved driver. His er-er-er-er-wife is the reason. Some things just make a man careful.

Twelve Year Old Girl Steals Three Diamonds

(By A. N. P.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 11.—After fishing for about two hours in a sewer at Tenth and Edgely Streets local police succeeded in recovering a diamond valued at $150, which the police say was thrown there by Lillian Blackstone, aged twelve years, residing on North Warnock St. It is said that the child has confessed that she stole three rings earlier in the day from the home of Mrs. Edwin Swift. Two of the rings were found in a pawn shop. The child was sent to the House of Detention.

BILKING THE AUTO PUBLIC

Within recent years the big tire credit concerns have made their appearances on the automotive horizon.

Equip your car and drive off. No down payment. Six months to pay is the sign that greets your eye. But therein lays a McPherson Hoax. Hundreds have been and are being daily stung because of the fact that they see the sign and in rushing in allow themselves to be talked into purchasing an inferior article. A tire that is only worth generally about less than half of what you agree to pay and on which you have difficulty securing an adjustment providing you have paid as some do in 30 or 60 days.

Tires are an important item in the upkeep of one's car and care and precaution should be used in purchasing and selection. Be sure its a standard tire to start with. It don't pay to buy grips. Be sure it's fresh stock—the serial number tells you. Be sure your rims are not rusty. Rim rust is an enemy.

Last but not least don't pay exhorbitant prices for gyps when you can get standard makes for the asking.

"Opportunity" Editor Organizes Forces for Great Survey

Charles S. Johnson, Editor of Opportunity, and Director of the Department of Research and Investigations of the National Urban League, of New York, has come to Los Angeles at the invitation of the Community Welfare Federation and Community Chest of this city, to direct an industrial survey of the Negro population. This study, which is an attempt to provide a complete factual basis for the program of various organizations for increasing the industrial opportunities of Negroes, is being made under a special Research Committee composed of representatives, Negro and white, of such agencies as the Urban League, Y. W. C. A., St. Victor's Social Center, Y. W. C. A., the N. A. A. C. P., the Welfare Federation and others which are, at the same time participating through the release of workers.

Mr. Johnson has made similar surveys successfully in some fourteen other cities. He was a secretary of the Chicago Commission appointed by Governor Lowden of Illinois to study the background of the Chicago riot. He is a graduate of the University of Chicago, author of several studies on the Negro migration and was in charge of the compilation of the voluminous commission report, "The Negro in Chicago." He is also secretary of the Division on Industry and Immigration of the National Conference of Social Work and a frequent contributor to sociological and literary periodicals.

The present study will inquire into the industrial experiences with Negroes of several hundred plants, the individual experiences of Negro workers and the full economic setting of a hundred Negro families. There will also be a brief survey of physical factors in the areas of Negro residence. About twenty-five persons are assisting on this survey. The headquarters are in the offces of the Research division of the Community Chest, Chamber of Commerce Building and the offices of the Los Angeles Urban League, 1325 Central avenue.

Members of the special Research Committee include: Mrs. Katherine Barr; Dr. J. A. Somervill; Mrs. C. A. Bass; Mr. T. A. Greene; Mr. I. Irving Lipsitch; Mrs C. B. Hicks; Mr. Fred C. NO MORE REDDENED HAIR

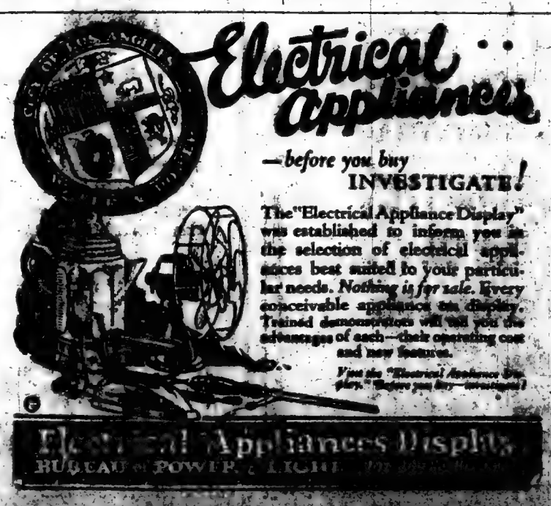
YOUNG LOS ANGELES MAN PERFECTS PREPARATION AND REMEDY

Statistics of the past six years show that over 2347 heads of hair of colored people have been ruined by unscrupulously prepared hair straighteners. To this end Mr. A. J. Allen Los Angeles man, having investigated thoroughly the cause of this regrettable and unsightly effect on the hair has with the aid of reputable chemists perfected a preparation that will safely make the hair straight, soft and glossy black.

A company has been formed called the Allen Mfg. Co., with laboratories at 1069 E. Jefferson St., Los Angeles, California.



The Diamond Hair Straightener and the Diamond Hair Pomade are the two hair productions, others are following shortly. Both are positively guaranteed and are backed up by reputable scientists to produce the desired result or correct the damage already done. The Hair Pomade needs but a trial to assure itself a permanent place on dresser or dressing table.

Mr. A. J. Allen is president of the company and Miss Charlotte Strain of 1069 E. Jefferson St. is the very able secretary.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

BOB FISHER STAGES COME-BACK

Robert Fisher, better known as Bob Fisher in this district is now back to work on the Padre, Bob has been sick for over a year and several times has had the experience of hovering between life and death, doctors have given him up and predicted his end on this earth quite frequently; but Bob has always looked them in the face with a determined denial that he was here for a long time yet to come; some of his own co-workers even went so far as to go to the office and insist that his line at that time on the Lark be put up for bid. This was refused, the office contending that even though they never expected to see Bob return to actual service, he was nevertheless still alive, although the agitation resulted in the office posting the run up for bid under certain stipulations that in the event that Bob should perform the miracle of recovering his health the line should be forfeited in his right. We are glad to say that with many odds against him he won his battle and is once more again in our ranks looking the picture of health.

KING ZULOO RETURNS

Ed Gary, better known as the Zuloo King has returned from a two weeks' vacation during which time Mr. and Mrs. Gary had the pleasure of visiting the following places by motor: The Grand Lodge of the F. & A. M. at San Jose; Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, Oakland, Calif.; from there they motored to the famous Allam Rock which is noted for producing several different kinds of mineral waters with Mr. Wells, a 33rd Degree Mason who knows the ins and outs of northern California and its many historic places. While in this section of the country they were shown through the Leland Standford University Chapel viewing its wonderful hand-painted inlaid marble of the Feast of Christ. The Zuloo King and Mrs. Gary have returned home much richer in the mysteries of their own state than they were before. They made the entire trip in their new Hudson sedan.

ED. HOGUE AND H. J. PRESCOTT BACHELORS

Up to the present time we will not be so bold as to state that the above named gentlemen are running wild on account of the absence of their wives BUT when Prescott got off the Lark in San Francisco he was dressed in a red hot gray suit and a new pair of tan shoes, why in Frisco we will not venture to explain. Ed. Hogue always writes that letter to his wife as soon as the train stops, but from then on it's just too bad.

A certain bachelor porter operating on the Coast pool put on a rather wild party last week; better be careful, C. S., Sheffield is just screaming for those wild affairs.

Johnny Moore operating on the Lark is now enjoying a much needed vacation up in Elsinore. Some say he went up there in retreat from the girls.

John Holt has returned to work from a two weeks' vacation the biggest part of which he spent on Central Ave.

'NEGRO SPIRITUALS' PLAYED IN CATHEDRAL

London, Sept. 11.—(A. P.). American Negro melodies have been introduced into the musical program of the old Southwark Cathedral, just across London bridge on the south side of the Thamesd. Nooriday recitals are given there for the benefit of the porters at the Hops Market and other workers from nearby establishments.

The selections are from "Negro Spirituals," or plantation hymns, and are expected to prove a potent drawing card for luncheon hour audiences in this busy district.

MAIDS

Well, it's out at last. They tell me that Maid Hazel Lewis has gone and really done that thing. Yes, she married Lawrence Cloys, a waiter on the Union Pacific. May the wedding bells ring long and loud.

The writer met Allien Matthews in Salt Lake City going East some time ago and she says it won't be long now, that he has popped the question and she has willingly consented.

The Maids are anxious to know whether they are going to operate the new De Luxe train or Chicago Maids.

Some of the second section Maids have just been going as far as Cheyene and laying there all day for the West bound train, they have to make their hotel in a pullman car which lays over at this point. Such is the life of a Pullman Maid.

Maid E. Jasper has returned back to her regular line after a lengthy absence on account of sickness.

One of the new Maids from Chicago operating out of this district is Miss Anna Eckton. She formerly ran between Chicago and Florida.

Maid Pickens is still operating on her regular run to Chicago.

Maid Tenie Upton doubled back to Chicago from San Berdoo in order to be in Chicago to be present at an operation to be performed on her sister.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

This man, Wm. Bachelor must be some Shaik, according to the latest gossip. It seems to be parties all the time with the clever Mr. Bachelor. Last week he apparently was the host liner at a Weinie bake at the beach with the Jolly Angelenos and in Frisco. Oh well, he is a popular man that's all.

Kid Aaron, popular chef cook on the S. P. was seen in Frisco with a red hot, light brown suit and a pair of tan shoes that wouldn't behave. It is getting so now adays you cannot tell the cooks from the waiters.

S. D. Forest is still trying to keep up that swift pace the boys are setting but is uncertain just how long he is going to last. Stay with 'em, Sam!

It is really too bad about Walter White, he would be a sheik if the boys would let him.

J. J. Johnson who formerly operated on the S. P. is now with the U. P.

Douglas De Vaughn is on the Lark and is getting his in the same old way.

Derby hat walker is also on the Lark and says he went there to duck the Daylight. That's right Walker, I guess father time is creeping up on you.

The diner that feeds the Lark into Frisco from Watsonville has quite an innovation in the form of Chimes which they play in the sleepers in order to notify the passengers that FOUR—breakfast is being served. It is the only diner in the country with this feature and is bringing forth much favorable comment from passengers.

They say this man Bachelor sells Flints for a past time when he is in town. Some class to him.

Our old friend Harry Levette is now Editor of the Sports page for the Eagle and you can see the improvement in last week's issue. He covers the Sports like a blanket of snow does Chicago in January.

MATRIMONIAL CHART

Last Installment

Well folks, this is the last chapter of the Matrimonial Chart. If you have benefitted by reading it, I will consider my work well done. Of all the good men that I have named, I feel sure you will be able to pick out one and make him miserable for the remainder of his life. As far as their dispositions are concerned, what do you care? They will have to dance to your music after you have once got the papers, so you should worry about that.

It's a pretty nice thing to sit down in your own home and wait for your faithful bread-winner to bring home the bacon. And with a Pullman Porter it is pay day every trip. You do not have to even fret about new furniture. Just step into the Eastern Outfitting Co. and pick out what you want, and Daddy will pay for it, even if he does have to spend the balance of his life paying for a parlor suit. Why worry, you're using it. Any store down town will extend you credit if you tell them your husband is a Pullman Porter. They know that hubby will never quit shaking sheets until he gets it paid for; so that's another point in your favor. And it beats getting old before you are ready to do so. It is a certain thing that it beats falling out of bed in the morning before day and breaking your neck trying to catch a Hooper Avenue car for the Wilshire district. It beats busting suds, don't it?

You will never have to worry about rent. And when he's out on the road you can strut your stuff at 15th and Main just the same, can't you? He don't want you to sit up in the house and look at the four walls until he comes back. If you can keep his uniform pants from busting out at the knees, so he can pass inspection on pay day, he will be satisfied.

Don't ask him how much he made as soon as he comes in off his run; that will make him hot. Take your time here, go slow, then way late, after he goes to sleep, just politely help yourself; he hardly ever knows how much he has got. Do not fuss with him about the P. P. B. A. Insurance, that's not his fault, it is Mr. L. A. Coffin's fault, so pick on him. If he should happen to get ten day's for some minor offense on the road, do not fuss with him all the time he is in on them ten days, it's bad enough for him to have to serve them. Try taking him to a show once in while, and you pay the way even though you pay it out of his own money that you have held out on him the trip before, he will never know the difference and he will get a big kick out of it.

Use discretion and don't get careless. Have his bath hot when he comes in and by all means have his breakfast ready, especially M. E. Jackson. If he plays the Chinaman, well, what of that? Better let him do that than pick the papers up and read about where Sheffield got him in a raid. Help him to save. Nothing is more encouraging to a railroad man than to see his bank account growing. You're going to get it all anyhow. There are many ways to save; for instance, if hubby comes in this trip with only $4.60, you pay the telephone bill with $3.75 of it, buy 50 cents worth of hamburger, give him the remaining 35 cents to go out on and you have dinner with the neighbor next door.

The next day make the balance of the hamburger do, and by that time he will be back home again, and you will be off for a fresh start. That's what I call SAVING, and if you get Jim Montgomery, you are very likely to have to do it.

I think I have given you about all the best tips that I know, and in the event of you finding that these plans do not work, just write, let me know, and I will get C. W. Murdock to get you a divorce in less time than it takes in Paris. You know nothing beat a trial but a failure, so you can pick on the following men if the others that I have named do not suit you:

H. L. Armstrong, now operating on the San Diego Owl. Never misses a trip. Cross as a bear when he comes in, but meek as a lamb when he goes out. Tight at times. Ten years in the service and gets a free uniform. On the market for a woman weighing about 115 Pounds. Very fond of sweet potatoes.

R. Hicks, also operating on the San Diego Owl, owns a nice Paige car and a nice quite quiet man, steady and reliable. One girl has already got her eyes on him, but you can never tell.

E. Sorsby, running extra, tighter than Dick's hat band. The last time he opened up his pocketbook was when he bought H. K. Blackstone five gallons of gas and at that particular time a MOTH was seen to fly from his pocketbook.

Joe Howard: Good man, if you can get him, but he is rather shy at present and would need an awful lot of coaxing. Good provider and steady.

Big Bill Williams: Owns a barber shop at 35th and Central Ave., and has been a bachelor for a number of years. Still runs on the road, and needs a woman to look out after his interest while he is out on the road. A little stingy but will open up if the right one gets a hold of him.

G. W. Betha, wild as a young Mustang. Liberal and likes a good time. Has a car and every facility for enjoying life. If you get him, you plan for the present and let the future take care of itself. Arrangements can be made by telephone.

H. W. Weeks: Just go on down town and buy a license and meet the train when he comes in and ask for Mr. Weeks; then tell him he belongs to you, because you bought and paid for him. You will not have any trouble, and he will follow you home like a little lamb.

W. Jones: The boys all know what the W. stands for. Hard egg, and rather shy. Been bit once, and will have to be convinced that it is a good bargain the next time. Steady worker. Gets free uniform and knows more about Chinatown than the Mayor of Los Angeles. A member of the Chinese Tong and speaks the language; likes rice and is an artist with a pair of chop sticks.

This is the end of the Matrimonial Chart. I have arranged to be out of town while these articles are being published, as I am afraid it will be too hot for me here. I sincerely hope that none of the boys whose names are mentioned will take these articles to heart, and waylay me with a club—but the girls have been repeatedly writing me, inquiring about who is single in the Los Angeles District, and it had to be——EVERY TUB.

FRESNO

The walls of the new Bethel A. M. E. Church have reared themselves skyward and the new edifice when completed will be one of the most beautiful in West Fresno. The building is being erected under the personal supervision of the energetic pastor, Rev. Fred A. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy of Los Angeles, the former a clerk in the postal service, and Police Officer and Mrs. Randolph, composed a congenial party who motored up from the Southern metrplis to join Police Officer and Mrs. M. B. Sheffield, who were spending Labor Day with the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield. Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans Trigg entertained a large dinner in compliment to the distinguished visitors, the guests motoring out to their picturesque country place on Olive avenue. The after dinner hours were given to whist.

Mrs. William A. Bigby, Jr., returned home last Sunday afternoon, after spending the summer at Santa Cruz and the Bay Cities. Returning in the same observation car were Mrs. Sam C. Hannibal and her daughter, Miss Rose Hanibnal, who is convalescing from a recent severe illness.

"The Foxettes," a recently organganized whist club among the younger married contingent promises to becomes a very interesting exclusive clique. They will meet an afternoon of each week to while away the hours over the card tables and tea cups.

Otis Edmundson has returned from an extended engagement in Oakland, where he played in one of the orchestras.

A large number of the young set motored to Sacramento, Labor Day to attend the picnic.

The Labor Day Ball given by the Drill Corps of Pilgrim Rock Lodge, No. 10335 at Garibali Hall was a grand success.

A party including Mrs. RoRbeRrt Walker, Hugh Dangerfield, Mr. Whitmore and Royce Gilham motored through last Sunday en route to Bakersfield from Oakland.

ERECT STATUE TO UNDERGROUND RAILROAD HERO

(By A. N. P.)

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.—It is quite singular but true that instead of erecting a "black mammy" statue as a monument to the Negro slave as some cities are wont to do, a tablet was unveiled here a few days ago which marks the spot where once stood the famous old Seymour Finley's Hotel which was the Detroit Station of the "Underground Railway" through which many slaves passed to freedom.

Seymour Finney, proprietor of this hotel and station in defiance of the Fugitive Slave Law, housed and fed and secretly passed hundreds of runaway slaves who were able to reach this town over the border into Canada and freedom.

It is said that when a bunch of escaped slaves arrived in Detroit or vicinity usually at night, they would be concealed in outlying woods or forests until Mr. Finney could be notified, then they would be brought to Finney's barn and kept until the next night at which time they would be carried through various alleys to the river front and rowed across to Canada.

This formed a part of what was known as the "Underground Railway," so called because of the underhanded way used to "bootleg" slaves to freedom. The Underground Railway was a secret society organized for this specific purpose, and was not a secret passageway trunnelled under the earth as many have supposed.

Lynching Inquiry Starts

(By A. N. P.)
Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—Gov. Byrd has directed the attorney general to be on hand to represent the State at Witheville when the special grand jury summoned by Judge Sutherland is sworn in to begin investigation of the lynching of Raymond Byrd, the young colored youth, several weeks ago.

Attorney General Saunders has designated Leon M. Bazille, one of his assistants, to proceed to Wytheville, and the governor has named Joseph H. Chitwood, former United States district attorney now at Roanoke, to aid the prosecution. Criticism has been directed at the alleged dilatory manner of the officers dealing with the case.

ARREST OF LYNCHERS WILL BE PAID FOR

(By A. N. P.)
Atlanta, Ga., Spet. 10—Gov. Clifford Walker has announced a reward of $500 for the arrest of the first member of the masked mob which stormed the Coffee County jail Monday morning and lynched Dave Wright held at Douglas, Ga., for the slaying of Mrs. Zalphia Rollins two weeks ago. An additional reward of $100 was made for the apprehension of any member of the mob. It is said that the sheriff was overpowered at the jail from where Wright was forcefully takep, and that he was carried a distance of about three miles and his body riddled with more than fifty bullets.

No Substitute for Water

Some folks constantly admonish us that the Colorado River water and power project is not any sort of an issue. Bah! How does it happen then that they pay enough attention to it to see that every possible obstacle is thrown in the way to prevent the passage of the proposed Boulder Dam Bill? Who engineered the fight against the ratification of the Colorado River Compact? Who was responsible for the defeat of the Metropolitan Water Bill? Who wanted to tax our municipal water and power systems for the obvious purpose of raising our water and power rates and thereby further hinder and delay the building of the Boulder Dam by the Government for the benefit of the people?

There is no substitute for water. The building of the Boulder Dam project is a vital issue. Don't let anybody fool you on that score.

Why even think of supporting men for public office of any sort who pack a monkey wrench around for the express purpose of throwing it into our water and power machiney at every opportunity?

Do you believe that our municipal water and power plants should be taxed? A bill was introduced in the legislature for this very purpose. One of the gentlemen who voted for it wants to be elected to an important office in November. Investigate before you vote.

RISKY BUSINESS

Voting a man into office simply because someone says, "he is a good fellow," is risky business. It is highly important that we inform ourselves as to the qualifications of those who seek office and get a line on their past and present attitude toward important public questions if we are to have less of waste and mismanagement in the conduct of public affairs.

Frequently we vote for men who are opposed to the very things that we stand for simply because we fail to inform ourselves. Risky business!

Size 'Em Up

Would you say that a member of the legislature is a supporter of and friendly to our municipal water and power enterprises, including the Boulder Dam projects, when that member voted against California's ratification of the Colorado River Compact and voted against the passage of the Metropolitan Water Bill? The member referred to also supported and voted for the Assembly Measure that provided for the taxing of our municipal water and power plants. The passage of this sort of legislation would have brought about an immediate and substantial raise in rates. Size 'em up before you vote!

"FEMALE CREATORE" TO DIRECT AT RECITAL

Mrs. Viola Brandon whose dynamic power and fire of expression gained for her the name of "A Female Creatore" at the recent Choir Contest will direct the New Hope Baptist Choir of which she is directress at the Wilkins Recital which will be held at the 24st at 2nd Baptist Church. This Choir which made a natiqually discassed impression in its rendition of Dett's "Listen to the Lambs" has been developed by Mrs. Brandon into a wonderful aggregation of voices.

L.A. FORUM HONORS EAGLE MANAGING EDITOR

GREAT OUTPOURING OF PEOPLE TO BID THE GUIDING HAND OF THE WEST'S GREATEST WEEKLY BON VOYAGE ON HER TRIP TO THE ATLANTIC SHORES

Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass

The Los Angeles Forum on last Sunday was gorgeously decorated and all dressed up in bib and tucker, to honor one of its members who had announced her intention of taking an extended vacation on the Atlantic shore.

No princess or potentate ever received greater homage than that given to Mrs. Charlotta A. Spear-Bass by her fellow citizens on this occasion under the auspices of the Los Angeles Forum.

The Forum gave this testimonial to Mrs. Bass in appreciation of her service as a public spirited citizen in this community, as stated by the Forum and the various speakers, for services rendered.

Every seat in Masonic Temple was occupied, standing room was at a premium and many were turned away for lack of seating accomodations, it was perhaps the greatest testimonial ever given an unofficial citizen in state, church or fraternity that turned out on this occasion.

Mr. Noah D. Thompson, Member of the Municipal Housing Commission and of the Urban League, who first originated the thought to pay this honor to Mrs. Bass, and proposed the motion, was chairman of a special committee on arrangements; he was also selected by the committee as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion. This committee indeed presented one of the most excellent programs possible for the affair and were complimented on all sides for the very splendid day. The rest of the committee all of whom rendered yeoman service to make the event what it was; were: Miss Anna B. Williams, Miss Gladys Harris, G. W. Snell, Mrs. Enola Chisum, F. M. Roberts, and President Duncan.

N. D. Thompson

At the conclusion of the progam a bevy of beautiful young girls dispensed in generous proportins, punch and bon bons. The young misses were: Misses Delia Joiner, Thelma Brown, Della Howard, Marguerite Jackson, each one was attired in a fetching afternoon frock beautiful to behold. They were highly complimented by the secretary of the special committee. Very gallontly did Master Albert E. Chism, Jr., keep the young Misses supplied with punch to serve.

Special mention is due for the work of the decorating committee which converted the temple into a veritable bower of flowers.

It just seemed that everything was in complete harmony and every number rendered was a star. The music and the words spoken all fittad in with that exact nicety indeed unfolded probably the greatest program and testimonial ever given to any individual outside of official life.

The following program was rendered:

Introduction of Master of Ceremonies by Mr. Duncan, President.
Musical selection by Bilbrew Ladies Quartette.
Mr. E. L. Dorsey, "Mrs. Bass as a Successful Business Woman".
Prof. T. A. G[illegible], "Mrs. Bass and the Y. M. C. A."
Miss Dietta Given, the Sweet Bird [illegible] Soloist.
Introducing the collection by Mrs. Elnora Chism, Mrs. Williams and others.
Atty. Lewis K. Beeks, "Mrs. Bass as an Inspiration to Young Folk".
Mrs. Eloise Bibb-Thompson.
Rev. S. M. Beane.
Musical number by the Duncans, Miss Ellen and Mr. Bartow Duncan.
Mrs. Katherine J. Barr to introduce Editor Chas. Johnson of New York.
Two minute remarks by others in the audience.
Presentation to Mrs. Bass of memento by Mrs. Chisum.
Response by Mrs. Bass.
Address by Dr. J. F. Gernhardt.
Address by Louis Michael.
Address by Mrs. Sadie M. Cole.
Address by Thos. Norris.
Refreshments.
Mrs. Loretta Butler and Kiddies.

The full account of the monster reception given to Mrs. C. A. Bass by the Progressive Women's Business Club will appear in our next issue.

All these and more you will have the pleasure to hear by attending Women's Day at the Independent Church of Christ Sunday, September 26th.

Corner Stone Baptist Church Showers Pastor

While Rev. Gipson was reading an article under the heading of Special to the Eagle in the last issue of that paper telling of the Gospel on Wheels, the special National Convention rolled across the valley and over the mountains, taking his co-workers to the National Convention, and his mind was completely absorbed in the thought of the Convention so that he could hardly realize he was still in Los Angeles, as the Lon Star State had completely captured his mind until there came floating on the evening air a sweet old song "Steal Away To Jesus" by a score of voices on the front porch of his palatial home on 16th Street. On opening the door there stod the members of the Corner Stone Baptist Church, giving their pastor the surprise of his life, with groceies of all kinds too numeous to mention, and wearing apparel. He was made to know it is good to stay at home some times.

After serving refreshments and having a few vocal numbers, they departed to their several homes. When Rev. Gipson was last seen he was still smiling and saying, "God be with you till we meet again".

EPISCOPALIANS START MOVEMENT FOR LARGE AND MODERN CHURCH EDIFICE

Rev. Walter T. Cleghorn, vicar of St. Philip's Church and one of the leading divines of our Race throughout the country, has launched a campaign to raise money for the construction of a handsome new church edifice at 28th and Stanford streets. The new building will be located on a corner lot in a fine residential section of Los Angeles, and will be of Spanish Mission design. Its location in proximity to the beautiful new Y. M. C. A. building, soon to be dedicated, will make a civic center group of which the people may well be proud.

The first plans for this building fund campaign were discussed at a meeting of the Vestry of St. Philip's Church at Father Cleghorn's home about two months ago, and it was the concensus of opinion that Father Cleghorn was deserving a larger and finer church through which to perform a greater service in the Diocese of Los Angeles, and in the communities where he is so well known.

Father Cleghorn's tentative plans for a building fund campaign were heartily approved by the Vestry, and the congregation of St. Philips. Since that meeting the organization for the campaign was carefully worked out, but no definite steps taken until a group of prominent men and women were called together at a dinner meeting at Christian's Tavern Tuesday evening.

The general campaign plans were announced and Father Cleghorn asked those present if they would serve as the Executive Committee during the period of the campaign. The response was unanimous. Dr. J. A. Somerville, the well known dentist, was elected chairman of the men's division, and Mrs. Nellie V. Conner, wife of C. H. Conner, of the firm of Conner and Johnson, undertakers, was elected chairman of the Women's division.

Dr. Albert Baumann was elected campaign treasurer.

The executive committee was then organized as follows: Dr. J. A. Somerville, Mrs. Nellie V. Conner, Mr. Carl Roark, Mr. H. A. Howard, Dr. R. L. Williams, Mr. S. Herbi, Mr. C. H. Conner, Atty Charles H. Alston, Mr. Wallace Clark, Mr L. M. Blodgett, Dr. Albert Baumann, Mrs. Zora Williams Mrs. Georgia Harris, Dr. Annie J. Leggett, C. E. Patterson.

Under the inspirational leadership of Father Cleghorn, this committee will have general supervision over the campaign work. Additional committees later will be organized, teams captains appointed and the teams organized. After a very fine dinner and a pleasant evening, the committee adjourned to meet again at the call of the Vicar.

The formal announcement of the Building Fund Campaign was made by Father Cleghorn at the services in St. Philips' Church last Sunday, when he preached from th text: Nehemiah 4:6—"So we build the wall for the people had a mind to work". Te said:

"I came to Los Angeles sixteen years ago from Arkansas because there was a need for a church of this faith. There was no money, no building. With a few communicants, and outside assistance I built the little wooden church we are now using.

"The infant St. Philip's is now a healthy youngster, not crawling or creeping, but holding on to a chair. Beginning with barely ten communicants and $14 in money, God has brought up this church, though small in building, to stand upon its feet, known, recognized, loved, respected by the city at large. I will not say that what has ben accomplished has been miraculous, but I will say it is most encouraging.

"The present church is too small to accomodate my congregation, inadequate for recreational or social service and contacts. It is located in a section of the city not as desirable for a church as the one in which we intend to build.

"If we were not certain this campaign would succeed we would not attempt it. During the sixteen years since St. Philip's was established, in and out of the church it has been my privilege to render such services as I could, and as well as I could with the facilities I had. In all that time I have asked nothing from those outside of the church except their goodwill, and their confidence in my desire to help all people. I know I have their good will and confidence.

"Now, however, I need help to build a new church, one that will be a credit to the people in and out of the church; a building that will make possible a greater service, a broader service. I know all those people who can and will help you and me in this work. Like Nehemiah's people, we will succeed. Preparedness is a good word. Back it up with unceasing effort. Pray and work and work and pray."

Father Cleghorn has established and built eight churches since he was ordained a priest in the Episcopal faith, twenty years ago. These churches are located in Hot Springs, Pine Bluffs, Fort Smith Little Rock, (two churches), Helena, Texarkana, and Los Angeles. All are in a flourishing condition, and are a credit to those communities.

As we go to press we learn that Judge J. A. Smith from outside of Los Angeles, but presiding here in the Superior Court, dismissed the petition of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. which sought to prohibit discrimination in the Swimming Pools of this city owned and operated by the City.

Mrs. E. W. Kyle left last week for Kansas City and Chicago for an extended visit to relatives.

EAGLE STAFF REMEMBERS EMPLOYER

The entire staff of the California Eagle presented its leader, Mrs. Charlotta Spear-Bass, with a handsome and useful present on last Wednesday morning. Arriving at the plant and going direct to her private office she found herself unexpectedly surrounded by her employes.

Mr. Kyle stepped forward and in a few well chosen remarks presented to her in behalf of those gathered a beautiful monogramed hand bag.

Mrs. Bass was greatly overcome and in a few well chosen words expressed her appreciation and hoped that the little vacation she was taking would give her a much needed rest and that she would return inspired and determined to build up a greater paper and larger business.

N. A. A. C. P. ON GUARD IN TIA JUANA

Anywhere in America the watchful eyes of the N. A. A. C. P. are busy detecting indiscrimination and injustice.

It remains for the San Diego Branch led by Pres. D. V. Allen and his executive board to cross into Mexico and protect the interest of Colored Americans.

As Tia Juana came under control of Americans—signs of "not wanted" were raised against race people. Mr. Allen and his San Diego board protested to Mayor and Chief of Police of Tia Juana without success. They took their grievance to the Governor of that state with results that all signs are removed and no discrimination shown in the border city. Los Angeles thanks San Diego for this service.

ORGANIZATIONS TURN BACKS ON SOUTH

(By A. N. P.)

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Southern hospitality is fast losing its charm for those large organizations of Negroes who annually gather in great conventions. More and more the cities of the north and west are being heard as they beckon for the patronage of the thousands who hold these yearly councils.

The chief reason is a growing resentment against the type of hospitality accorded by Southern whites. As the Southern Negro is remade in the spirit of his brother of the north, the sting of southern white indifference and contempt is felt more keenly and even those conservative Negroes of the south who have waited to hope for the best are bowing their heads in surrender to the demands of a militant and righteous manhood.

This fac twas frantically demonstrated in Fort Worth, Texas, at the recent convention of the National Baptist Convention. Official white Fort Worth and Texas stood back as these ten thousand preachers and their friends gathered in the Texas metropolis. At the opening session various local and state officials had been invited to welcome the delegates. These officers did not come. They sent neither substitutes nor regrets. They, like many of the white townspeople, preferred to stand by, curiously and contemptuously disdaining to recognize the importance of the great convention.

The Rev. D. A. Holmes of Kansas City had been chosen to respond to the addresses of welcome which the delegates had expected from white officials. He proved to be the right man. In words, chosen for their bitterness and stripped of all softness, he courageously and eloquently excoriated these absent whites. Delegates sat with their mouth agape as this tall brown man of God lashed and lacerated the responsible whites of the state for their dereliction. Even "Ma" Ferguson came in for hers.

Rev. Holmes, who once refused a position on the Chamber of Commerce of Kansas City because the chamber refused to endorse other Negroes, later explained his feeling. Said he:

"We have come here nearly 10,000 strong. In five days we shall spend at least $150,000. We deserve some considerat on for this in addition to what human decency demands. In the future we are going where we shall be appreciated. Even our southern brothers feel this thing and are becoming less insistent that we come into the land of prejudice."

But Holmes is not the first one to feel as he does. Many delegates recall the prophetic remarks of the late president, Elias C. Morris, who warned that Baptists who built in the south were making roosts for swallows and nests for rats. Baptist influence and life is traveling north with the fast-moving southern Negroes, and there are Baptists who go so far as to question the wisdom of placing the great publishing house in Nashville. Chicago is looked forward to as the head city of the Baptist world into which the southern sons of God shall eventually make their way.

Flint Automobile Company Promotes One of Our Energetic Young Men To Position as Regular Salesman

Mr. F. B. Gates who has for the past eight years been an employee of this organization, located in this city in the capacity of head Porter, has so efficiently applied himself and learned all about the Flint Production of cars, that he has attracted the attention of the management, and in appreciation of his effort, this broad-gauged concern has seen fit to promote Mr. Gates to be one of their regular salesmen.

Mr. Gates started in on his newly acquired position on the 1st inst. and to demonstrate just how much he appreciated the management in the promotion toward him, he has sold and delivered five cars for his company.

This accomplishment stamps Mr. Gates as a wide-awake and competent man, who as time goes forward no doubt will continue to rank high in his line of effort.

To be front line representative of the great Flint concern is an honor which is only gained by service, and members of our group will no doubt so appreciate the justice and consideration given to Mr. Gates, one of its faithful representatives by this company, that they will give to Mr. Gates every consideration possible toward assisting him on his way in marketing the sturdy Flint product.

Mr. Gates can be found at the Company's offices and display rooms 1630 So. Figueroa or 1629 S. Figueroa. Phones: WEstmore 3[illegible] or Bet. [illegible]

September 8th, 1914 the tide of war was turned and the soldiers of the Kaiser turned back at the Marne. Many of the historians date that period as the ending of the World's War. On that date, twelve years after, Germany takes her seat at the council table of the League of Nations as one of the recognized World Powers. The way was paved for the admission of Germany by the pact signed at Locarno, Switzerland, October 13th, '25, when it was decided by a committee representing fifteen nations that the German Republic should be given one of the permanent seats and be on an equal basis with the powers of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. Two seats are being held open. One for Russia, the other fo the United States of Ameica. There are a number of non-permanent seats, and when one was offered Spain that government, indignantly, withdrew.

The political and economic affairs of Germany are so necessary to peace and progress of Europe that her entrace to the Councils of Governments was only a matter of time. It was a matter of reciprocation. "If Germany suffered through absence of the League, so the League suffered through the absence of Germany." Nations are but overgrown individuals. The success or failure of individual committees is as dependent upon the thorough understanding of the people comprising them as is the peace of the world through the proper understanding of nations. There should not be, neither will there be, serious misunderstandings between races of people when a closer contact brings about a better understanding.

We have often wondered why the Race has not sought to develop and train more negotiators and discourage the activities of so many useless agitators. It may be that this suggestion will be cause for argument, but the fact remains that the negotiator generally gets, at the least, a part of what he seeks. And the agitator? Well! they have served their day and time. Here is a little story, and we will vouch for its authenticity. The relative usefulness of two Race characters was being discussed, one of them has passed to his reward, the other is still alive and battling for equal rights for the Race. A Jew was present and followed the argument with great interest. "And you say that Mr. "T" gave the President a piece of his mind? Yes, I presume, to him, it was a source of great pleasure to "speak his mind" to the President, but, did he accomplish his object? Did he get what he went after? No! I think that Mr. W. would have done different. He would have probably negotiated in place of demanding, and in all probability would have received some consideration, in part if not in whole.

We remember a case in point where a young woman was refused service at a soda fountain. She reported it and a "Mass Meeting" was held to demand redress. A chance was given the orators to orate and the "whereas and wheretofores," to resolve. Great indignation was voiced and a boycott, now mind you, BOYCOTT, ordered on that place of business, though the case in point was a refusal to accept patronage. One cool headed lady proposed the idea of investigation before condemnation. She proposed that a committee wait on the proprietor and ascertain the facts. That committee or the proper person connected with the business and found out that there was not then, or ever had there been, the drawing of a color line in that establishment. After due interrogation it was discovered that the only grievance was that she thought the clerk was slow in serving her. Sometimes we jump to conclusions too quickly.

We must ever keep in mind of the fact that as our needs are felt in our various communities so will our value to that community increase. We heard an employer speak of one of his employees as one of the most valuable of the men in his employ. "He is a thoroughly dependable, and can be relied on." That man was making himself an indispensible asset to that employer. When you become as smart you will receive better treatment. It is told by a good prelate that when he was traveling through the South that he came upon many evidences that that section was greatly missing the greatest asset it ever had, Negro labor. Everywhere were evidences of decay; rusting plows and ungarnered crops. As the train was speeding along he saw [illegible] ing cotton. "Well, they have not all [illegible]

EUREKA VILLA

To all purchasers of lots in Eureka Villa we are pleased to announce the completion of your trust on August 24th. It required nearly three months to put your deal in shape so that we could proceed to protect you against all foreclosures and law suits, ultimately giving you your titles through escrow. It has been a very trying job but an extremely pleasant one because everyone has cooperated so nicely.

It is true that you were in a bad condition, should we use the expression of those who live in fear, but who need live in fear no longer, because you have passed that stage and to those promoters and salesmen who pioneered Eureka Villa, cannot be given too much praise for having struggled courageously on to where it was necessary to work out new means of proceeding further. Courage and faith have worked out that way for you through the undersigned who is nothing more than a medium through which we hope to build a paradise in those canyons by exercising more courage and faith, backed up by concentrated effort and much thinking—right thinking. We must think harmoniously.

Those who stop to dwell in the past with malice and hatred and with criticism and accusation of their fellow men—oh well—they just stopped, that's all—they make no progress whatever. So in reference to your previous conditions or predicament at Eureka Villa, just promise yourself to forget the mistakes of others in the past, it matters not who made them, and let us all together press on to greater achievements in the future.

When we shall have finished with Eureka Tract, it will be yours for keeps. We are trying to really fix it for the sake of posterity. The only person who stands to lose will perhaps be the undersigned, but as a group it will always be yours. In two months time we have raised for the development of our tract $100,000.00, in units of $20,000.00. To operate under this plan of proceedure we will be forced to get rid of your present contracts either by cancellation or deed, and we prefer of course to give your deeds, and to figure in every possible way to prevent a cancellation. To avoid cancellation we shall extend your time limit to October 1, 1926, by which time any of you will be able to get your title, provided you are in position to demand the same. For the duration of this extention we make you the following proposition in order to encourage you to pay up by September 20, 1926, we will discount your balance to 25%. Should you pay up by September 25, 1926, you will get a discount of 20%, and by October 1, 1926 a 10½ discount.

Now folks, remember you must do your part and always be sure that you are right and have lived up to your obligations before you can demand the other fellow to do his. I want everyone to get in a position to demand a deed and title by October 1, 1926, and therefore have offered to make these big concessions to help you. You will understand this better bye and bye.

We have no secrets in this new deal. Our contracts, agreements and trust can be seen at any time by those who might be skeptical yet interested and willing to do. Come into our office if you wish at any time, and we will be glad to show you every courtesy. At the same time we beg your indulgnce, because this deal has been like a Chinese Crossword Puzzle—and remember we have nearly 800 of you to straighten out—co-operation will do it—fighting among yourselves will destroy you, not us.

Water? Yes! We have brought in a wonderful well for domestic purposes. We are told that it is the best drinking water in the valley. We rebored and put a 10 inch casing in the old wind mill well, and have 37 feet of water standing in same at present. Those of you who remember the old wind mill will know the meaning of this.

We are trying to get to press with this information and cannot say more to you this time, but get in touch with Nellie Turner, AX. 5008; she will be glad to explain and help you to get your payments straight.

Respectively,

JOURRNEE W. WHITE.

PLAIN FACTS

BY

DR. RUTH J. TEMPLE

NOTE—We are glad to see that the women are not only reading "Plain Facts" but that they are putting the advice herein given into practice, I find that a large number of women have sought medical aid following the article in this column a few weeks ago concerning the danger of cancer in women of 35 to 50 years. We trust that if there are still other women in this city, who are suffering from old, unrepaired lacerations, resulting in foul or blood stained discharges that you will go at once to your own physician, who has an understanding of women's diseases and get advice and help. Go now! Go before it is forever too late, as it is with a number of women whom I personally know today.

Address all questions concerning this Department to Dr. Ruth Temple, 3556 So. Western Avenue. Phones: VAndike 1221; UNiversity 1255; EMpire 9981.

FALSE CONCEPTION

What is a false conception? It simply means that a woman has either the physical or mental or both physical and mental symptoms which lead her and possibly others to think she is pregnant when she absolutely is not. During the past few weeks I have had four cases of false conception, three colored and one white. Two of the women got in bed all ready to be delivered and had someone phone me to "come quick" if I wanted to get there before the baby was born. One of the women I had never seen before, the other I had not attended for about two years. Both of them I found in bed, having "labor" pains. One had all the neighbor women standing around ready to "catch" the baby if it arrived before I got there.

This was the lady whom I had never seen before. When I walked into the room I knew there was something funny about the expression on the patient's face. She was lying in bed and drawing all up with what she called a "hard labor" pain. I have seen so many hundreds of women in labor that the very expression on the face of a woman in actual labor means something to me. The moment I looked at this woman's face I instinctively felt that there was "something strange about her labor". I walked over to the bed and laid my hand on her stomach. The abdomen was hard and protruding: I kept my hand there quietly for a while, and her abdomen began to change. I felt it carefully and could not feel any outlines of a baby. I told the women sitting by that what ever she did have in her stomach, she did not have a nine months baby in it. After I said that the abdominal or stomach wall began to flatten out and soon it was caved in. Showing that her abdomen was almost empty.

I examined her locally and found the womb small, just about the size of a normal empty uterus. Then I told her that she not only did not have a full term, nine months baby, but that she was not pregnant at all.

The other cases were very similar. One of the other women was all fixed up in bed ready for the baby to be born when she called me. She also had been having "labor" pains for two days. She was not pregnant either.

There are many things connected with false conceptions that every woman should understand. Next week we will discuss the following questions, "How can I tell whether I am really pregnant, or only have a false conception?"; "What are the dangers of a false conception"?; "Does a false conception ever cause insanity?"

It is human psychology that it takes shock, if not ill treatment, to arouse people from lethargy. The people of the United States will be awakened by a shock which will shake the political ship from stem to stern. It will be torn in the throes of religious strife (that is if a certain element has sway) and racial enmities. There is no need for obfuscation, the matter is too patent. According to the Imperial Wizard of the three K's., Hirm Evans, the K. K. K. is going to take a decisive stand in the election of candidates for national office. They will ignore issues entirely and support the man. That is the candidate of their choice must be a member of that organization or an avowed sympathiser. That means that no Catholic, Jew or Negro will have their support. Naturally: when that becomes known the lines of demarkation between the K's. and the Catholics, Jews, and Negroes will be drawn and elections be degraded to the level of religious and racial contests to the detainment of the nation. Talk about your menaces to stable government, it is the K's. Under the guise of patriotism they are undermining the Constitutional government of the Nation and fomenting strife that will sap fully fast the strength of its bulwark than did the struggle of the sixties. It may be that God will raise another Lincoln to steer aright the Ship of State.

THE SERMON AT THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Evangelist Paster P. G. Rodgers will present "United States In Prophecy" Sunday night, September 26, 7:45 P. M., at the Big Tent, 20th and Central Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. Rodgers claims that our great nation is acting its part in the world drama just as much as did Egypt, Babylon or Rome; and those nations occupied much historic as well as prophetic space in the sacred scriptures. So, Sunday night at the Big Tent, the rise of our present American government will be outlined from the book of Revelations and its destiny fully described as revealed thru the wonderful prophecy which is to be the subject of the sermon.

The services at the Big Tent are rated by the thousands that have been in attendance as extraordinary in every respect, and to miss one topic is a serious loss. Let nothing keep you away. Be there on time, for the feast is spread. Servics every night in the week (Saturday excepted) at 7:45 P. M.

WHITE MOB EJECTS NEGRO FAMILY FROM "RESTRICTED NEIGHBORHOOD"

(By A. N. P.)

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 13.—The renting of his house, in a white district, to colored tenants brought about much trouble to Gustav Breitzke. The house itself was damaged by a gang of infuriated whites who "threw the tenants out" and Breitzke himself was knocked down by a leader of the mob. GEORGIANS DEFEAT KLAN CANDIDATES

(By A. N. P.)

Plan Asso. To Study African Languages And Mind

An Association for the study of African Languages is projected according to J. Withers Gill, writing in the British Empire Supplement of The Outlook, of London, of Sept. 4th, and the work of such an Association he holds could not fail to throw light upon African psychology.

"The conditions under which the mind of a typical African Negro works appear to us in a topsy-turvey light", writes Mr. Gill. "In material matters he is shrewd, sullen and childish: in spiritual matters he dwells in a state of panic. But sit down in a Native Court f jurisdiction, where the procedure is i nthe hands of a tribal chief and his counsellors, and where the 'case law' is represented by some oral tradition or more often by a familiar folk tale. You will marvel at the simple, practical justice of the verdict which may frequently be according to what the lion said or the elephant did in some worn out fable culled from the lore of the folk. How much more genuine and effective is the equity of these judgments than those given under th eelaborate procedure of alien courts adapted to a different stage of civilization where a high standard of evidence is imposed! Evidence of this latter character is readily obtained by cajolery or purchase at so much a head. With ease it deceives the European but not the native judge who knows the mentality of his fellow men. Talk to natives in their own tongue, free from the restraints of official etiquette, and the shrewdness of their arguments and the keenness of their insight inte oth mental process. . . . If the superior person would descend from his pedestal he would learn a lot about African mentality which would profoundly modify plans designed for his moral betterment".

JOLLY ANGELENOS

By: Harold Lloyd

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tompkins of 1624 West 36th entertained the Jolly Angelenos Club on the evening of Sept. 16th. That joyous entry that only Angelenos possess was exhibited to the heights of its integrity.

Many topics of great interest were introduced and discussed by several of the officers and members that caused considerable comment.

Mrs. Harris of New York was a visitor to the club. She expressed herself as being very interested in the activities of the Jolly Angelenos Club.

After th eadjournment of the regular business period we were all served with delicious assorted sandwiches and thirst quenchers.

Mrs. Maupins was complimented by many of the members for her artistic idea of arranging her home for the occasion.

IN HONOR OF OUR BELOVED SON AND BROTOHER, GUS W. DENTON, WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE OONE YEAR AGO, SEPT. 19, 1925

You have gone on dear brother, gone on your way,
We all are sorry, so sorry that you could not stay.
The evening of your life came early too early for us to know
That when once you departed we would miss you so.
Sweet memories of you are always with us;
These we cherish,
These we shall always have, until we too, perish.
Be of good cheer loved one, of us do not worry,
For when we are called home, to you we will hurry.
If we could but have our wish, we would bring you back to us,
But He who makes us all has returned you to the dust.
Good-bye, dear son and brother, good-bye, forevermore,
Again we all must say that we shall always love you so.

Mr. and Mrs. M. DENTON and Family.

L. A. HIGH NEWS

The peaceful quiet of the agricultural class has been ruthlesly broken by the entrance of Miss Anita Monroe. Mr. Walter Gregory has been much affected by the actions of this brilliant young lady.

We, at L. A. are very proud of petite Miss Edith Keyser who is the only one among us who is a Periclean.

We are proud and honored to have Turner has to bid farewell to Mr. Frank Watkins who is returning to school.

Those who expect to leave us this February are Misses Velma White and Celestine Bailey, Messrs. Lawrence Johnson and Harry Johnson.

We are proud an dhonored to have with us this term the newly elected president of the Dodecagenian Art Club, Miss Pearlita Johnson.

Have you heard the latest? No? Well, Miss Velma White has lately captured a most romantic Chicago sheik. "Oh! get it fixed", Miss White.

More'n more scandal:—Miss Agnes Johnson was seen Friday night without that one and only Mr. James Bridge. "What's gonna' happen, folks".

Warning, No Trespassing!!! Miss Eugenia Grant has recently declared that she will let all boys alone until after Christmas.

Everybody at L. A. wants to know where Walter Gregory's hat is. "Can anyone help us out?"

APPRECIATION

The signal honor conferred upon the Managing Editor of this publication by the Forum, the Women's Business Club, kindred organizations and individuals as well, is appreciated to the highest degree. It demonstrates the fact that after all, efforts to do the things worth while are appreciated by the public and in this instance to the utmost.

JUDGE CARLOS HARDY

One of the grandest characters we have in our midst is the good and just judge Carlos Hardy and no aspersion upon his character as a part and parcel of wrong doing will be for one moment entertained by those who know him. Out of his large and generous heart he is truly the friend of man.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE IT MAKES

At Santa Monica when the Negroes planned to build the City Council of that city promptly passed an ordinance which prohibited the erection of other than a one story five room house on the same. This thwarted their progress. They failed, the property passed to white ownership, and the same Council proceeded immediately to repeal the ordinance and on the same site there now stands the famous Edgewater Club. There is a vast difference in the color of skins.

KICKING OUT THE KLAN IN TEXAS

Governor elect, Dan Moody, of Texas, took everybody off their feet when he issued the order for all members of the Ku Klux Klan who were attached to the pay roll of the state to get from under. This statement caused a sensation among the state employes and attracted the admiration of law abiding people all over this broad land. Very truly day by day there is being unfolded that in the not far distant future, a new leadership will rise which will take hold of the situation of prejudice and hatred and bring about a new day, a greater day for the cause of justice and humanity for all peoples of this great country.

GETTING TOGETHER

We often hear much advice from our own as well as our white friends about getting together. We appreciate the thought and have striven to that end and after all find hat as a group we are together on all lines of effort, saving possibly the business lines, equally so as any other group, and in some instances we are more closely together, because we are forced to be so.

Take in a local way, the Swimming Pool on 22nd St. Negroes are together in that pool in great numbers. The white people themselves are way short on getting together except on business, and on this phase they are together in the highest degree. On all other propositions they are as far apart as any other group, possibly more so. In religion and politics they scatter their forces to the wind. Therefore the charge that the Negro fails to get together in common weal does not stand out as an exception to the status of any other group.

We must, however, pool our interest especially along the line of business and production if we expect to get anywhere as a group.

WHO SAID OIL SHORTAGE?

Mining experts estimate that only from one-third to one ninth of the oil in the ground is extracted from even the best pools, under the present system of oil pumping; the remainder stays where it is. The young man who laments that there isn't anything valuable left to discover can consider this oil residue. It might make him as many billions as there are states in the Union.

Oil companies have already done wonders, in procuring constantly increasing amounts of gasoline out of every barrel of crude oil.

"ALARMING HEALTH STATISTICS

"In another column of this page will be found an article concerning the maternal death statistics prepared by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Health Bureau of the S. Health Department which shows that the death rate among Negroes in the U. S. during 1925 was 67 per cent higher than among whites.

"These figures are alarming to be sure. They will undoubtedly be the subject of many articles by those who contend that the Negro is weaker physically and otherwise than the other races.

"But there are just three things which may easily account for these high death rates all of which may be eliminated.

"First, during the war and especially since the war hundreds of thousands of Negroes left the warm sunny south and settled in the cold cities of the north. Most of them unaccustomed to the trying long winters became victims of colds, flu and pneumonia often developing tuberculosis thus accounting for many deaths.

"Second, many of these people were poor and were forced to accept unfavorable housing conditions, and in their attempt to keep warm shut themselves off from the fresh air which they were accustomed to breathing in the southland.

"Third, there are about 67 per cent more Negroes, according to population living under poor housing conditions than white people.

"As a matter of fact the first condition will gradually eliminate itself as the years go by. But the others simply mean that these conditions must be corrected if this proportion is to be materially reduced."

—The Bystander.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

With bumper crops reported over the country in general, it speaks for better financial conditions to the east of us and consequently more people are coming this way to see for themselves the land of sunshine and flowers. Seeing this mighty land many cannot resist the temptation to pitch their tent and await developments.

With this situation in view we can well speak of the many opportunities on all sides of us to do business. The man who has sold out back yonder, will not sit down and see the sale price of his home absorbed without striving to enter some sort of business. We have tried in the past and even now, to point the way to the soil for in production is the future welfare of all peoples.

Opportunities along business lines for the members of our group have only been scratched at in California. We want men and women seeking a place in the line of business efforts to know that we have openings along all the various lines which will give to them an opportunity to enter business which will grow as the days, weeks and months pass by.

Therefore if for business and you are prepared and can qualify, come on for the water is fine.

AIMEE McPHERSON CASE

There has been so much chaff thrown around the Aimee McPherson case that it has been extremely hard to form any sort of analysis, which appeals to ordinary folk.

The authorities from the outset to our way of thinking have been set to get something on Mrs. McPherson and have not even attempted seriously to fathom any other angle which would bear out her story. It was never thought to be just as unreasonable a story, for her to go into the ocean to hie herself off to a love nest with a man, when she could just as well have stepped out from her own home to d oso.

So now here comes a self-evident crazy woman, a money hyena, a notoriety seeking lawyer and divers of other persons who seek to crucify Mrs. McPherson. Crucify her! Away with her! is the cry from this motly aggregation of notorious uplifters.

We believe in fair play, this is what everybody should believe in. This is all that Mrs. McPherson is asking for, and though humble as we may be we shall not for one moment form prejudices against this woman nor condemn her on the flambouyant assertions of a woman of questionable sanity, notoriety seeking lawyers nor a whole procession of discredited malcontents who cry, CRUCIFY HER!

We shall wait patiently until she has had her day in court on the charges brought against her and when twelve individuals—good and true—have passed upon the facts of the case and until such time all who stand fo fair play and a square deal should hold in abeyance the passing of judgment in the premises spoken of.

SOME UNDERSTANDABLE TAX FACTS

The state of California has issued its annual report of financial transactions of municipalities and counties of California, for the year 1925. The publication of such a report was inaugurated in 1911, for the purpose of collecting statistical data concerning the cost of county and municipal government. The purpose was to enable public officials, charged with the expenditure of public funds, to compare costs between various cities and counties, thereby serving as a check upon expenditures.

California has been a rapidly growing state, but the financial conditions of its cities and counties as well as cost for its stat egovernment probably runs closely parallel to many states. Therefore the California method of checking and comparing public expenses and this annual report for 1925 are of vital interest to many communities. The report states flatly that even the great state of California with its remarkable resources cannot continue to increase public expenditures at the present rate with impunity. The chief danger lies in increased bonded indbtedness. Governmental luxuries purchased from current revenue can be curtailed when the burden begins to stagger the taxpayer. Bond interest and redemption is inflexible in its demands, and must be met.

A state may mortgage its future by bond issues, but the future continually overtakes the present generation on which the tax burden becomes heavier and heavier. The business of government has become so complex that it is difficult for the average citizen to have an intelligent grasp of its ramifications, but a sumary of the facts contained in this annual report can be understood by all citizens.

The total bonded indebtedness of all forms of government in California as of June 30, 1925, was $609,549,227.62, an increase of over 549 per cent over 1911. During the same period the assessed value of non-operative property, which is liable for the interest and repayment of bonds, increased 160 per cent. In considering the bonded debt of every form of government, separately, the cities show the smallest percentage of increase since 1911, being 331 per cent as compared to 905 per cent in the counties, and 1650 per cent in the state government. Theprincipal reasons for this increased cost of government have been greater demand for educational facilities, highways, increased expenditures for interest and bond redemption, the cost of municipal service enterprises and police protection.

Anyone can read a lesson from this report, namely: if the aggregate of government overhead in city, county and state is increasing nearly four times as fast as the value of non-operative taxable property, a change in the system must be adopted or disaster is certain.

Such facts as these can be understood by every individual. They have a very direct bearing on the cost of living. Everything that goes into a home, everything that we eat and everything that we wear, is produced from raw materials that originate from property which is responsible for all taxes and bonded indebtedness. No man can escape increased prices and rents which result from constantly increasing taxation. The burden falls on our farm lands, our timber lands, our mineral lands, our manufacturing, our transportation, our facilities, our insurance and our homes—necessities of life. The California report furnishes a text and a basis of comparison for every city, county and state in the nation to consider.

EDITORIAL FORE AND AFTER THOUGHT

By C. A. B.

Boston, Mass., and Dallas, Texas, are both important cities in the United States—one in the extreme East, the other in the Southwest, in actual milage not so far apart but in thought strangers in the extreme.

A few weeks ago when the Los Angeles Baptist delegation went into Dallas, Texas, they were confronted with "Niggar" signs, unsanitary, unkempt rail station conditions, and the whites in that section still entertain the keenest prejudice for the blacks.

Boston daily papers this week are agog with comments concerning nuptials of a beautiful blue eyed white girl, and a very respectible colored lad. They speak favorably of both.

Jack Thompson Trains For Fight

SCRAP TO BE STAGED AT OLYMPIC NEXT WEEK

Several fistic scouts have been seen at the Main Street Club all week watching Young Jack Thompson, the pile-driving colored boy who is matched to trade science and wallops with the great San Francisco light-weight, Jack Silver. They meet at the Olympic Auditorium next Tuesday night, as the Olympic date has been changed from Wednesday to Tuesday. The experts are watching his style to get dope on next week's fights while the scouts are figuring on some great fights for this climbing youngster in some big clubs back east. All agree on these points about "Young Jack".

He is always cool, very few wasted motions. Don't box mechanically, but plans each round separately. Doesn't waste accuracy in flashiness. Is good either on offense or defense, and hits with the kick of a mule. After he trims Silver which he probably will though Silver is the best out here, he is slated for the few other scraps that lie between him and the top.

HAIL TO THE GRIDIRON GODS !

Big Fight Returns At Main Street Club

As is usual with all the best for its patrons the Main Street Club and Gym had preparations all ready to receive the news, blow by blow, hot off the wire from the ring side at Philadelphia. So long before time to start the big auditoium and galleries were crowded, and more standing in line.

All the boys who both top and fill the bill of the local arenas and surrounding cities have been training there all week and for the usual Saturday night bill the following card is lined up:

Along Fisticuffs Row

Battling Gahee won on a foul from Jimmy Byrne at San Berdoo last week, but had him beat badly up till then and would have won anyhow.

Ran across three old friends and former god fighters on the stroll the other day; Walter Peters, "One Round Norman" and "Rufus Toles". Those boys really used to "step" back east and out here on the coast too. All three are fat, prosperous, and not thinking about fighting anymore now.

Pinkey Mitchell, who worked out at the Main Street Club for his fight with Mush Callahan, said that Jack Thompson, who acted sparring partner with him is the best boy he has met for a long time, that he has a style something like the great Freddie Welsh and is sure to have a great future.

Watts Monarchs on Way To Big League Calibre

The Watts Monarchs, a local aggregation of pill swatters that have been playing some real ball all summer are going to play what will practically be the first gme of the winter season Sunday, Sept. 26th. Their opponents will be their bitter rivals, the L. A. White Sox and the battle royal of these two strong teams will take place at Watts Monarchs Park.

South Paw Shaw, who goes East next year on big time stuff will pitch against either Johnson or Green of the Sox. The Watts Monarchs under the management of Mr. J. E. Hunt has been rounded into a splendid machine that has the principles of proper support and "inside ball" down pretty "pat."

They are well outfitted having new uniforms, plenty of tools, etc., and intend to give a good account of themselves the season against the various teams they met here. Toward the last of the season it is understood they will hit the road for a time.

The admission is only 50c Sunday, so all should turn out and not only see a good game but give the boys support.

AMERICAN GIANTS WIN 2ND HALF OF NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

(By A. N. P.)

St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, Sept. 12.—The St. Louis Stars handed the Kansas City Monarchs a 9 to 3 defeat here this afternoon before the largest Sunday crowd of the season and by so doing the locals handed the championship of the second half to the American Giants of Chicago. The Chicago club ended its season last week with a percentage of .806 and today's defeat even if the Monarchs should win ALL their remaining three games would leave them with .788.

Hensley was sent to the bound to bear the brunt of the battle for the Stars. William Bell, the stingy hit king, was on the mound for the locals.

St. Louis scored in the first only to have the visitors tie the count in their half of the second.

In the third Suttles who had appeared weak at the bat yesterday, fanning three times, poled a home run scoring two men ahead of himself.

Kansas City got one more in the fifth on a single by W. Bell, two outs and singles Torrienti and McNair.

In the ninth William Bell blew up. Creacy walked and scored on Suttles long triple. Murray beat out a hit to Mothel. Redus singled scoring Suttles. J. Russell tripled scoring Murray and Redus and scored himself on Hensley's single.

Duncan's homer on top of the car barns gave the Monarchs their final tally in their half of the ninth.

The playoff between Kansas City, winners of the first half of the Negro National League and the American Giants winners of the second half will open in Kansas City on Saturday, Sept. 18, continuing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The balance of the nine game series will be played in Chicago starting on Sept. 25. The winers onf this series will meet the Eastern League champions in the colored world series.

According to those close to the workings of the western organization, Kansas City is picked to beat Chicago. They point out the fact that Jackson is weak at short, Williams is not playing such a great game at second, and that the Chicago Club has only Willis Foster and Harney to depend upon. Curry's wrist is weak and McDonald lost a 11 to 10 exhibition game Saturday against a white club after having in 8 to 0 lead in the first three innings.

Kansas City on the other hand have Cooper who goes south to finish school; but Joseph is fast replacing Mr. Smith and will go back to third with Newton switched over to second. Also the captain is well filling the shoes of Moore and the outfield is intact with Torrienti, McNair, and Johnston. Both Duncan and Young are good receivers and hitters. Rogan, Brewer, W. Bell, Cliff Bell, Miller, Dean and Mendez comprise the pitching staff.

The first three pitchers are in tip top shape. Rogan fanned six St. Louisians in yesterday's game in five innings and Brewer fanned eight in four innings. In detroit, Brewer fanned fourteen men in one game. He has a fast curve that really breaks well and fools all batters.

Where will the camp be next summer?

When will the new "Y" open?

How big is the new Gym?

Will the new plunge have a diving board?

What kind of Lobby games will we have?

How many stories is the new "Y"?

Where is the new "Y"?

How much will it cost to join the new "Y"?

There is a possibility of the above being answered at the Activity Program Sunday afternoon, October 3rd.

FROM AMERICAN LEGION, BREAKFAST CLUB AND MINNIE BARTON SIDE-A-WEE HOME

One of the biggest boxing shows of the season is announced for the Olympic Auditorium, Saturday night, Oct. 16th. It is to be known as "The Cradle Fund" and will be made an annual affair. It is under the direct sponsorship of the Breakfast Club and American Legion Post, No. 384, and the net profits will be divided equally between the latter organization and the Minnie Barton home now maintained by the "Side Sisters" league.

Announcement follows that the largest civic organizations of Los Angeles are standing solidly back of the project. Following are those in direct control of the plans: Maurice DeMond, President of the Breakfast Club; P. T. Kinsella and J. H. Sullivan of Legion Post and Minnie Barton, head of the Side-a-wee home with Frank Karwin of the Olympic as managing director.

Capt. Seth Strelinger, head of the State's Athletic Commission is in hearty accord with the big show and readily granted a license for that night. The Olympic Club itself at once stept in with an invitation for the new organization to occupy the big Grand Avenue Building free of charge and Charley Baad and Jim Woods of the Biltmore Hotel, upon hearing of the show, insisted that headquarters be opened at once in their hostelry.

The main event of the show will bring together two of the best boxers in the country and there is a strong possibility that a bout of championship calibre will be staged. Kerwin said this morning that he had been in touch with five of the country's leading battlers and that already he has telegraphic opinions on two of them.

Men directly behind the show want nothing of the ordinary nature and product that with the solid support of the strongest organizations of the city, that it wil be the greatest affair of its kind at least in the West and rival even the now internationally known Milk Fund show in New York City.

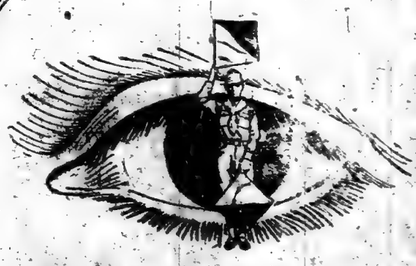
FRESNO

A large number of Fresno people motored to Bowles last Sunday afternoon to attend the rally at Price's Chapel. The Rev. Fred A. Hughes preached the sermon and a very enjoyable service was held.



Over a half hundred of the younger married set enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Leroy Calhoun last Tuesday evening, when she was a charming hostess at a surprise birthday party in compliment to her husband. Their luxurious home was given over to dancing and cards, and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves to fullest. At 12 o'clock a sumptuous midnight luncheon was served. Mr. Calhoun has been on the staff of the Owl Drug Co. for quite a few years, and is a member on the Executive Board of the Negro citizens Advancement League. His host of friends have voted him an all around good fellow, and he and Mrs. Calhoun are familiar figures at all the smart affairs.

Mrs. William A. Byron, Jr., has returned from the summer's sojourn in the bay cities where she was lavishly entertained by the younger exclusive set, the largest affair being a farewell party given in her honor by a group of the college set. It consisted in the girls taking Mr. Byron automobiling, a picnic supper at Venice beach, dancing at the Venice Ballroom, and the evening was brought to a close with a midnight swim.

CALIFORNIA EAGLE AUTOMOBILE SECTION

DEFEAT GAS TAX INCREASE

Motoring Public To Fight Issue

"Don't tax the motorist out of existence" is the warning being sounded by economists of the nation. According to various trade journals, it is pointed out that the law makers in many states still cling to the idea that the automobile is a luxury, owned only by the rich and fair game for any size tax that may be imposed.

Just the contrary to this viewpoint is true, according to economists. The automobile has become a utility and has entered so intimately into the lives of all the people that today there are more automobile than there are telephones. The auto is used by the farmer, the mechanic, the schoolboy, the peddler, and scores of other citizens who are far from rich. Taxes imposed upon them merely because they own a motor vehicle is class legislation of the most vicious type. It violates the fundamental principle of all taxation, that taxes should be levied in proportion to the ability to pay.

INCREASE BY HALF

California motorists are confronted with a proposal to further tax the motorist $16,000,000 annually for the next twelve years. This will be presented to the voter at the general election, November 2, in amendment No. 4. This proposed amendment would increase the existing gas tax by 50 per cent, which, it is estimated, would provide $120,000,000 in the next twelve years for new construction exclusively in the State highway system. No mention is made of where when and how this vast sum is to be expended. No budget is provided and no restrictions are made. This proposed tax will raise the largest sum ever given to any state commission without restrictions of any sort.

Economists point out that every business of any consequence is operated on the budget system. Yet the proponents of the added gas tax are planning for the largest sum in the state history to be turned over to a commission of three, without instruction from the taxpayers as to how the money shall be used.

VALUED AT BILLIONS

The motor vehicles of California have an assessed valuation of $1,000,000,000. The total taxable wealth of the State is $10,000,000,000, so that motorists naturally inquire why all of the funds for new highway building should be derived from taxes on one-tenth of the State's wealth. They point out, further, that already they are paying $37,000,000 annually in taxes. The excise tax, the property tax, the gas tax, and license tax bring the motor vehicle into first place in paying taxes. The proposed additional gasoline tax would force the motorist to pay annually almost as much as the annual budget of the entire state of California.

NEW AUTO EQUIPMENT

The firm of Connor & Johnson have just purchased a new Packard hearse. It is the last word in auto equipment. Every feature and improvement convenient for its perfect functioning has been installed. The firm now has the most expensive and elaborate equipment west of the Rockies.

GASOLINE DROPS

Gasoline, that liquid fluid so necessary to the automobile, has taken a drop to the 17½ cent level.

It has been a long time since it socialized on this plane with the public, and now that it is back why every cobwebbed auto is running over time. Union Oil started the fuss and Julian Petroleum joined in the fight. Just where it will stop one cannot tell. But every one is hoping that it is still headed downward.

Pickens Answers Professional Southerner In N. Y. Tribune

TWENTY
(N. A. A. C. P. Press Service)

William Pickens, Field Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has written a letter, printed on the editorial page of the New York Tribune for September 16th, in which he slashingly rebukes a "profession Southerner", who had declared that white women did not dare leave their houses in the South, even in the daytime, for fear of "attack" by Negroes. Mr. Pickens' letter in the Tribune reads as follows:

called on Mrs. Stanley Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. City and his famous Dodge were seen in Monrovia last week.

—00—

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson passed through Los Angeles from Fresno on their way to Mexico via San Diego. Both looked the picture of health and complained of enjoying themselves.

Mr. E. C. Jennings presented his wife with a new Dodge sedan for her birthday recently, as the Page was in poor health.

RAILROAD CLATTER

J. E. STAFFORD QUITS OWL

Porter J. E. Stafford, a familiar face on the Owl Limited for years, has forsaken his old standby for line 3485. The Owl has in the last few years lost many of its old time crew. C. H. Drish stepped down some time ago. It is gradually undergoing a complete change, such as the Lark will do and is doing at the present time. Every ten to fifteen years a complete change of the best trains and hardest trains takes place. The cause of which could be explained in many different ways, such as declining in health, old age, and better runs. The passengers who have been patronizing the Owl for years are bound to miss the smiling face of porter J. E. Stafford, for he was one of the best porters operating on this train. A man who knew what service was and rendered it.

ARGUMENT CLUB FUNDS UP FOR INVESTIGATION

The paid up members of the Argument Club which is now disorganized, have called for a showdown by the treasurer, J. Montgomery, and have started a special investigation in regards to an accounting of a large balance which was in the treasury at the time the club was disbanded. Montgomery insists that his books balance corectly and is prepared to meet the auditors face to face. Should this not prove true however, he will of course have to forfeit his bonds under the ruling of the law of the State of California.

C. CARTER No. 2, JUMPS SPECIAL CAR

About a week ago, J. Carter No.2 was pulled off the Lark where he was running extra and given a special car to Ft. Worth, Texas, chartered by some prominent colored residents of Los Angeles. He swelled up like a ball frog when they pulled him down to go to Texas. He had a regular gold mine and did not know it. Prescott's wife was in the party and Daddy started him off with a 2 spot. Some Press came down to the train and time after they left L. A. they ran into a washout and the Lark's baby boy Carter switched off with another Porter. NOW dada Press wants his 2 spot back. "How about it Carter?"

SAN DIEGO OWL JUMPS TRACK

The San Diego Owl, which we thought was too slow to run, put a stare int othe crew last week when she jumped the track at Fullerton, and did not arrive in San Diego until 8:00 A. M. which goes to show that you can never tell what a slow horse can do.

J. R. Woods had his ford in the main office last week, that is part of it anyway. We spied the gentleman with the pump and fan. Maybe this is the way he locks it us. But you can't trust a ford, Woods. They can run without a fan or a pump.

The following porters left Los Angeles last wek on the G. A. R. Special, J. Pitts, C. E. Lair, J. L. Kirkland, and P. J. Grenwood. May they fare well.

COMMENTS ON MATRIMONIAL CHART

I feel that I must tell my readers that I have reasons to believe that my efforts in writing the Matrimonial Chart have not gone unrewarded. On returning home and looking over my mail I found a letter post-mark Dudley Georgia, from a maid who wishes to become united in wedlock to a Los Angeles railway man. The letter does not bar a waiter, and the young lady requests me to mail her the names and addresses of several such single men residing in Los Angeles. It am writing her a letter asking her for her picture and, in the event that I receive it I will publish it in this column, in order to secure her the right kind of a man. This is on the square. They read the Eagle in Dudley, Georgia. Why not read it Here?

MAIDS

MAID HAZEL LEWIS NOT MARRIED

In last week's Clatter it was reported that Maid Hazel Lewis was married to a prominent young man of this city. Miss Lewis informed me in no uncertain terms that the rumor is without foundation and to correct it at once. Miss Lewis's sister, Allen Matthews, also a Maid played the terrible joke on Miss Lewis. Friends have read the article and the 'phone has been kept busy busting and Miss Lewis has found many trying to refuse congratulations that were far from being in order. The writer wishes to humbly beg Miss Lewis' pardon for the error as this column wishes to embarrass no one intentionally.

MAIDS FIGHT FOR DE LUX TRAIN

The Los Angeles Maids are putting forth every effort to obtain the run for Los Angeles Maids on the De Luxe [illegible]

that the train be entirely operated out of this District. No reply has been received as yet but they are living in hopes. It would be a good idea for some of the maids to take a little more interest in changes that affect them. Show the Office that you really want the train and when you go up there ask about it. The Office will never know if you do not ask them. Chicago is after all they can get, and the best do why sit idly by and let the best get away from you who have worked so faithfully to make it what it is. Wake up and speak up. More work, more maids.

J. L. HILL ADDS FIVE DOLLARS TO WRIGLEY CHANEL SWIM PRIZE

J. L. Hill, popular Angelus Funeral Manager and undertaker, that is if an undertaker can be classed as being popular, has decided to add five dollars to the Chanel swim prize of twenty-five thousand offered by Wm. Wrigley, the chewing gum magnate, in an effort to get a Pullman porter to enter the contest. Mr. Hill is rather lavish and says he does not care about the money so long as he is allowed to accompany the entrant and that is that the entrant starts at dark. He sure is a business man.

They tell me that when Wm. Asbury went up to Elsinore he bought the lake. I wonder what he bought in St. Louis?

J. Ponder, the Georgia beauty, is on the sick list.

S. B. Forsythe is still on the sick list, having been off for about a month.

LIBERTY SOCIAL CLUB DINES HUSBANDS

Southern Pacific Retires Faithful Employee

After twenty-three years of faithful service, the Southern Pacific Co. has retired Red Cap, Mr. Taylor Morgan, who came to Los Angeles twenty-four years ago from Chicago, and entered the service of the S. P. as janitor, but was transferred to the Station Master's Department as red cap where he has served faithfully ever since, and with great credit to himself and branch.

M. Morgan was born in Huntsville, Ala., seventy years ago, and was married in Nashville, Tenn., at the age of twenty-six. He came West in search of better opportunities and found them with the S. P. He has been the witness to many notable departures of prominent people and also arrivals during his long period of service with the S. P. Mr. Morgan was given a rather pleasant surprise last week by his co-workers and members of the Red Caps Association, who went to his house in a body tendering Mr. Morgan a hearty farewell, after which Mr. Jas. Gray presented him with an envelope containing a token of long remembrances. The following members were present on this surprise farewell: Mr. Jas. A. Gray, Pres. Red Caps Association; Chas. Marshall, F. Brown, W. H. Bacon, E. Baldwin, and T. Hugrier.

RED CAP PORTERS PROGRESSIVE CLUB ORGANIZED

A social club was organized last week at the residence of red cap Geo. Taylor, 1759 W. 36th Place, in which the following officers were elected: Earl Baldwin, Pres.; B. J. Landry, Vice Pres.; T. J. Irvine, Sect.; J. A. Gray, correasponding Sect.; Geo. Taylor, Treas. The club plans to be one of the head facts in social functions in this city, and have already formulated plans for a red hot dance in November, the date which will be announced in the Clatter in the near future. So keep your eyes peeled for the latest, and don't be surprised if they succeeded in getting the cocoanut grove at the Ambassador Hotel. You never can tell what these red caps can do.

Red cap A. C. Brown won the first prize at a whist party last week, and although the boys were looking right at him, some say that he had a couple of trump cards sticking in his shoe. We wouldn't be surprized.

A red cap by the name of Murray, stepped off into the other world last week and gave himself up for life, lonesome, he said, so he took unto himself a sweet woman and got married. Don't you know better than to try to do like red cap Glover?

Poor boy, he must have been reading the Matrimonial Chart.

The wife of Dany Roberts is still sick and confined to bed.

Red cap Chas. Foley is busy planning for his trip down in the old country. Oh, yes, Texas.

Red cap Gus Conway is wearing a pair of black specks, and we can't tell whether it is tohide a black eye or not. Pull 'em off, Guss, we want somethin' to talk about.

Howdy, folks!!! Paul Witeman, who is igniting the Million Dollar Theatre with his jazz hounds, has a double in him, and I'm thinking it wouldn't be a bad idea if he would donate one of 'em to the famous Andy Gump, The Chinese Wonder.

Then there's the absent minded soda jerker who told the rushing customer to come back of the fountain and make her own malted milk.

Another candidate for the poison Ivy Club is the salesman who tries to use a straw hat this time of the year.

Uncle Joe says "The Roller Skate factories" will not be able to fill their orders fast enough if the girls keep buying 'em like they are".

This wek's prize which was a jar of Pickled Flea Toes, was won by Mr. Chopstick X. Mc Boomerang, who said that Eskimaux pies had to be baked in an oven before they would taste right.

Aha! Messrs. Curtis Moore and Kenneth Levy are among the many Trojans rushing the charming daughters of Troy this year.

The next number on the program will be played by Professor Saitshaker, who will play the "Bean Song" from the Soup Scene.

Everybody's wondering who is rushing Miss Velma White, one of the charming dodecs. Oh,; No!!!.

S'long folks, see ya later.

ERECT STATUE TO UNDERGROUND RAILROAD HERO

(By A. N. P.)

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.—It is quite ingular but true that instead of erecting a "black mammy" statue as a monument to the Negro slave as some cities are wont to do, a tablet was unveiled here a few days ago which marks the spot where once stood the famous old Seymour Finley's Hotel which was the Detroit Station of the "Underground Railway" through which many slaves passed to freedom.

Seymour Finney, proprietor of this hotel and station in defiance of the Fugitive Slave Law, housed and fed and secretly passed hundreds of runaway slaves who were able to reach this town over the border into Canada and freedom.

It is said that when a bunch of escaped slaves arrived in Detroit or vicinity usually at night, they would be concealed in outlying woods or forests until Mr. Finney could be notified, then they would be brought to Finney's barn and kept until the next night at which time they would be carried through various alleys to the river front and rowed across to Canada.

This formed a part of what was known as the "Underground Railway," so called because of the underhanded way used to "bootleg" slaves to freedom. The Underground Railway was a secret society organized for this specific purpose, and was not a secret passageway trunnelled under the earth as many have supposed.

NEGRO INDUSTRIAL SURVEY COMMITTEE

The Negro Industrial Survey Committee met in the office of the Community Welfare Federation on Tuesday, September 7 at 10:30 A. M.

Those present were: Mr. MacWatters, Acting Chairman; Mrs. Katherine Barr; Mrs. George H. Clark; Mr. Charles S. Johnson; Mr. I. Irving Lipsitch; Father T. J. O'Dwyer; Dr. J. A. Somerville; Mr. Noah D. Thompson; Mrs. Katherine L. Van Wyck; Mr. Fred C. Williams; Miss Agnes E. Wilson; Mr. J. H. Shackleford; Mr. William C. Mathews, special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, was also present.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. MacWatters, acting chairman in the absence of Mr. Moore from the City. He stated that the purpose of the meeting was to give Mr. Johnson and the members of the Committee an opportunity to exchange ideas in regard to the Survey and to allow Mr. Johnson to present his plans for continuing the same.

Miss Wilson gave a resume of the work accomplished in connection with the Survey since the last meeting. She stated that 17 of the 20 workers desired by Mr. Johnson to assist in the Survey, had been pledged by the following organizations: County Outdoor Relief, Dept. 2; County Probation, Dept. 1; the Y. M. C. A., through the 9th St. Branch, No. 1; the Y. W. C. A. through the 12th St. Branch, 7; 2 staff members and 6 volunteer workers; the Urban League, 2; the University of Southern California, 2; Miss Wilson also stated that 600 questionnaires had been sent out, one to each industry employing over 50 persons, according to the list compiled by the Chamber of Commerce, and that each had meen accompanied by a letter from Mr. Arnold of the Chamber of Commerce, and one from Mr. Babcock, asking for co-operation. At the suggestion of Mr. Arnold, a letter had also been sent to the heads of factories and other business organizations having branches in the city, explaining the nature of the Survey and asking for the co-operation of the branches under them in obtaining the desired information. They were signed by Mr. Babcock. A letter signed by Mr. Johnson was also sent to housewives employing servants. In view of the fact that it was impossible to have a meeting of the Committee before this material was sent out, the approval of Mr. C. I. D. Moore had been obtained.

As more works were needed to complete the quota desired and to allow for possible vacancies, Father O'Dyer promised 2 workers. The use of some of the Agents of the Golden State Insurance Co. was suggested and such co-operation was promised by Mr. Shackelford, a representative of that company who was present. The School Department was also suggested, and Mr. B. T. Washington, Mrs. Burke of the Home Tract School and Mrs. Bradford of the Nevin School were mentioned as being of possible assistance. It was also suggested that more students and teachers might be interested and capable of helping in the Survey, and that the Health Department might wish to be actively co-operative. It was estimated that an average of 2 days per week for 4 weeks would be required of the workers.

Mr. Johnson than gave an outline of his plans for the Survey. The study should be along four lines, namely—1. The industrial opportunities of the Negroes, including domestic and personal service; 2. The number of skilled Negro workers in the community, gained by questionnaires answered directly by the Negroes; 3. The attitude of the average Negro family toward the industrial situation, to be obtained by an intensive study of 100 Negro families chosen at random, this information will be obtained by the Negro workers; 4. The relation of Negro labor to organized labor. Information on the first point is to be gained from the 600 questionnaires previously mentioned. About 70% returns are expected by the end of the week, and a second letter will be sent if necessary. About 100 of the most interesting returns will be followed up by direct interviews between the workers and the Managers, and a longer questionnaire, including information as to wages, comparison of Negro and others workers, etc., will be used.

A block canvass of the outside limits of the Negro centers of population is also to be made with a view to ascertaining the approximate Negro population and its character. The question of endeavoring to obtain information as to the relation of Negro labor and organized labor was thoroughly discussed. In view of the fact that the subject is a sensitive one in Los Angeles, it was decided that, while this information was necessary to a well rounded study, it would be necessary to proceed with a great deal of care and tact. It was suggested that a certain amount of information along that line would be gained through the questionnaires. It was also deemed advisable that Mr. Johnson interview the heads of industrial organizations himself as far as possible, and that members of the Social Welfare Committee be asked to help him on this definite task.

The question of publicity was next discussed. Mr. Johnson favored a very conservative policy. It was agreed that Mr. Johnson should approve all publicity. A motion was made by Dr. Somerville and seconded by Mrs. Barr: That all notices given for publication be given through the publicity director.

The question was raised as to whether or not there were any plans for acting upon the information when gathered. It was suggested by Mr. MacWatters that such plans could be better made at a later date. It was moved by Mr. Lipsitch and seconded by Father O'Dwyer that the Negro [illegible]

MISS FARMER HAS NEVER BOUGHT A BUSHEL OF CORN

(By A. N. P.)

Starkville, Miss., Sept. 16.—William Ellis, who operates a farm near this city, boasts of the fact that during his 36 years of farming he has never bought a bushel of corn. Ellis further makes practical the slogan "Feed Yourself" by raising all of the food stuff for his family and in addition holds the record of being the first Negro farmer to ship a car load of hogs to the St. Louis market, and makes his own flour.

FIVE ARRESTED ON MURDER CHARGE

(By A. N. P.)

Chester, S. C., Sept. 13.—Bill Mobley, Eli Hintin, Carrie Jackson, Janet Feaster, and Lorem Worthy are in jail here charged with murdering and robbing Ben Wilkes on the Wilkesburg road a few nights ago. The first four were carried to Columbia to have their finger-prints made.

obligations in regard to the Survey until the facts obtained have been duly considered and acted upon. It was decided that a full report of the findings should be read to the Committee in session and the number and size of the final reports should be decided by the Committee.

After some discussion it was deemed advisable to have a representative of the Federation of Women's Clubs on the Committee. It was moved by Mr. Lipsitch and seconded by Father O'Dwyer that: The chairman be authorized to ask the Secretary of the District Federation of Women's Clubs to represent, or to appoint someone to represent, the Federation of Women's Clubs on this Committee.

The chairman closed the meeting with an expression of appreciation of Mr. Johnson's work.

SWIMMING POOL DECISION STIRS HORNET'S NEST

Mrs. Mary McCleod Bethune Felicitates Former President, Mrs. Corrine Bush Hicks

BETHUNE COOKMAN COLLEGE

Daytona Beach, Florida,
September 10, 1926.

My Dear Friend:

The doors of our school opened two days ago. Everything moved off quietly and harmoniously and already the teachers and pupils, young and old, are fitting in their grooves and I am now able to breathe freely and write you, to truly express to you my appreciation for your kindness is no easy task.

I was and am overwhelmed with the hearty reception given me throughout the Golden West and tenderly do I hold you in my memory with a feeling which will help to cheer me when the clouds hang low and the days are darkened. There ar estill many pressing duties which must hold my attention for a few days longer, but I shall be indeed glad to hear a word from you, and I promise you herewith to answer you, telling of our return. We must nevermore lose each other.

My best regards to all who ask for me I send, and when kneeling at the the throne of God, I pray remember me in your prayer.

Sincerely yours,

MARY McCLEOD BETHUNE,
President.

Famous White Dr. Evans Discusses Negro Hair in Chicago Tribune

Dr. Evans a famous white physician of Chicago in a Tribune article recently expressed himself as follows,

"I am convinced of the possibilities in the line of growing hair, through the success I have seen colored girls attain, by faithfully washing, greasing, combing and brushing, some using one kink removes some others. I have never seen it demonstrated under the microscope as to whether the flattened hair shaft of the hair is made round by this, but I do know it can be combed straight and remain straight even when formrly short, and stubborn."

H adds that "when treated properly it is long, lustrous, glossy and possesses much more tickness and vigor than the hair structure of the white." "This," he says, "means to Negroes better jobs, new fields of emloyment, higher wages and better social standing—so it is not only commendable but necessary to improve one's hair.

The Diamond Hair Straightener and Diamond Hair Pomade manufactured by Mr. A. J. Allen at his laboratories at 1069 E. Jefferson St., is endorsed by eminent physicians like Dr. Evans as being the only articles that will bring the best results quickly, safely and at a reasonable price.

MOB WHIPS NAKED WOMAN

(By A. N. P.)

Gainesville, Fla., Sept. 22.—Col. J. D. Adkins, state's attorney of Putnam County, in outlining the accusations he will lay before the October Circuit Court, told the story of a pretty owner of a beauty shop, a white woman, who was taken naked by a mob of thirteen white, and despite her pleading, whipped. He charges that the men who whipped this woman are responsible for the flogging of a number of whites and blacks. The state's attorney is also going to ask for a first degree murder indictment against a young white man in connection with the death of Willie Green who was shot to death as he was bringing his mother back to Palatka after she had been beaten by a mob of white men.

Meet the Social Few Club at Christian's Tavern, Friday night, October 15th. Beginning a series of Bourne nights. "Nuff Sed."

Georgians Lynch Another White Man

(By A. N. P.)

Americus, Ga., Sept. 25.—Authorities here have so far been unable to obtain any information to dispute the theory that S. E. Pittman, a white mechanic, who was arrested for an alleged attack on a young white girl, had not been lynched after he was taken from Marion County deputies who were taking him to jail.

Sheriff Cosby of Webster County said he had arrested Pittman, Thursday and had given him into custody of the Marion County deputy sheriff. He said this deputy, together with a companion, left Preston during Thursday night and traveled the direct road via Church Hill toward Buena Vista. Later, Sherriff Gosby said he received information that the Marion County deputies had reached Buena Vista with their prisoner.

Becomes Despondent; Takes Poison

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22—Miss Nilma. Bundy, a young woman twenty-three years old, became despondent and attempted to commit suicide by taking poison while in the grounds of the United States Soldiers' Home. Florida Governor Acts Against Mob Rule

(By A. N. P.)

Tallahassee, Fla., Sept. 27.—sixty three recent floggings, added to the general spirit of unrest created by lynching and nightriding in this section of the state have forced Governor John W. Martin to issue a statement which is meant to hold to strict accountablity law enforcement officers of Florida who permit mobs to rule. Sheriff R. J. Hancock of Putnam County was recently warned that if he did not get the upper hand of the mob, he would be filled with other men until a man came who was strong enough to cope with the spirit of lawlessness now existing. The possibility of proclaiming martial law was also indicated.

The names of the hostesses for the whist tournament to be given at Christian's Tavern, Thursday evening, October 14th by the Auxiliary of Benj. F. Bowie Post will be published next week. Tickets are going fast.

BUILDING PROGRAM OF THE ST. PHILIPS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

DR. ALBERT BAUMANN
Treasurer of Building Fund

Under the spirited leadership of Father Cleghorn, Dr. J. A. Somerville, chairman of the executive committee, and Mrs. Nelle V. Conner, chairman of the women's division, the selection of team captains and workers for the St. Philip's Building Fund Campaign is going forward rapidly.

Since the first announcement that there was to be a campaign to help Father Cleghorn build the new church he needs so badly, his project has received hearty commendation from all over the city and from nearby cities. Father Cleghorn's friends are legion, and the prospect of a new church edifice, which will be a credit to the Race throughout the country, has been contemplated with pleasure.

Voluntary offers to assist in collecting the funds are being received daily, and the group of men and women who will do this important work will be the most representative in the city of Los Angeles. The social, business, professional, political and religious life of the city is thoroughly represented. At no time in the history of the Race in this state has such an organization been conceived and built, and the success of the project is assured. The badge of this work will be a mark of distinction and the reward for this service such as to make every work glory in his or her labors.

Blessings of Segregated Schools

By WILLIAM PICKENS

(For th Associated Negro Press)

Arguments seem to count little with some people. But certainly facts ought to count with any sane man. Those who want to find out for certain just how blessed it is to Negro children and teachers to be in "their own" separate schools in the South, or elsewhere, should read the article in September Crisis on the schools of Georgia. Georgia is a typical southern state; segregation is well established there. Just let any Negro "leader" who is trying to lead his people into separate school systems in Ohio, Illinois, or anywhere else, read those facts and figures in the September Crisis and see what he is leading toward. Read those figures on page 258, or on any other page of that remarkable disclosure of facts and see that the "separate" Negro schools in Georgia, where the colored people and children are nearly half the total population, get less than one dollar out of ten for their education. The proportion is much worse still if the Crisis had counted the money paid to white school superintendents, supervisors, and to other state and local administrators of the schools. All of these management and mismanagement salaries and expenses go to the whites.

Where there are segregated schools for Negroes, the Negro school property usually becomes a school only in name—a sort of excuse to say to the outside world: "Yes, we have schools for the Negroes. The only reason why they are not up with the white people in intelligence and education, is their natural inferiority, you see." They know that they are lying, and that in truth they are so robbing and limiting the Negro schools that even if blacks were superior by nature they would still have to remain inferior in educational attainments. Where there are separate schools for Negroes, those Negroes enjoy just one equality in the school system: the equal right to pay the taxes for the support of the whole school system, and mainly to educate white people.

Signal Honor for Major Brooks

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—During the time for the funeral of Major Arthur Brooks, which was held at the St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, of which he had been a vestryman for over thirty years, the executive offices of the white house were closed as a mark of the profound respect in which he was held by the chief executive. The executive offices at Paul Smith's, N. Y., the summer White House, were also closed. President Coolige sent a special representative to the funeral. The Rev. G. J. Mitchell officiated at the funeral services. Full military honors were reported to Major Brooks.

Chicago Pastor Tells Texans Slavery Was Divinely Inspired

(By A. N. P.)

Ft. Worth, Texas., Sept. 14.—Junius C. Austin, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist Church of Chicago, filled the pulpit of Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the first Baptist Church of Fort Worth, Sunday night and before a congregation of 8,000 white people, proclaimed "that the slavery of the American Negro was divinely inspired." "You American whites," he declared, "played a noble part in response to the demands of the Divine Program." The audience was deeply moved and voiced its approval of the black minister's stand. Comment has been rife all over Texas as the speech was widely broadcasted, the Sunday evening services of Rev. Norris' church being a regular part of the Radio program here. Rev. Norris, who is widely known throughout the country, as an evangelist, gained widespread notoriety recently when he shot and killed a man in his study.

SWIMMING POOL CASE AGAINST US

Just as we predicted the Swimming Pool Case was decided against us after the primary election when it was too late to register our protest at the polls.

Mayor Cryer's Playground Commission, however, took it for granted that the suit would be in their favor when a letter from the Secretary was read before our Committee stating that they were carrying out the instruction of the Court in restricting the Central Avenue Pool to Negroes only. On investigation this statement was denied by the Court.

Those "Gentlemen" who continually boast of their political influence and high connection with the powers that be, who are paid to struggle every movement for the good of the race and barter our birthright for a few dollars, will they come forth and protest against the City Administration for this injustice? Or will they crawl back to their masters to get more blood money to stem the avalanche of our protest?

Colored men and women now is the time for organization and unity. Join in one great movement to use your ballot to save the remnant of your rights that is left. Do not wait till Jim Crow policies have stripped you of every vestige of citizenship, that feeble ballot is the only weapon you have in your defense.

PLAYGROUNDS WELL PATRONIZED

Nature studies conducted at the municipal playgrounds through the summer and arousing the interest of thousands of children in botany bird life and kindred subjects are to be continued through the autumn under direction of Mrs. Estelle Hart Robbins. A schedule of classes that does not conflict with school hours on regular days and will have left with the children sufficient "tasks" in nature study to last them until her subsequent visit. Not only children but parents have been greatly interested in this feature of playground activities.

W. S. He was born in Macon, Ga., studied and was graduated from Oberlin College. He was the president of Wilberforce University for twelve years. In the political life of Ohio he was a power. His suggestions and advice were eagerly sought. The late president Harding appointed him as an assistant in farm studies in the department of agriculture.

Some folks become obsessed with an idea and be it ever so ridiculous try to foist it on others. Los Angeles seems to be burdened with some of that class. Two-thirds of the migrants who make that city their adopted home, left the South because of inferior conditions. Chief among them was the lack of educational advantages. Now, according to reports, a group of the kind that cannot shake off that "Jim Crow Cloak" are petitioning the Board of Education to separate the races in the schools. "We want colored teachers," is their plea, although Los Angeles has any number of colored teachers who have qualified and are NOW TEACHING in the public schools. The people of California are not, do not, and will not give welcome to any persons who bring such perversive ideas into the community. Better that they would stay DOWN THERE as fuel for the MOB.

From all accounts by the press, that greatly heralded demonstration of the 3 K's. held in the city by the Potomac, was a veritable FROST. The hundreds of thousands dwindled down to bare thousands, and their descent on the Capitol of the Nation was marked by the little interest manifested by the citizens of Washington. As a demonstration of political strength it was an abject failure. Perhaps Lloyd George had the Klan in mind when he said, "You cannot found but you can founder a party on personal squabbles." The Klan has been torn by personal squabbles from within and that in spite of its boasted Americanism. It was founded on hate, which is like a recurring decimal; you can spend a life time writing its figures, but as you write each figure becomes of less value. The Klan is busy writing the "recurring decimals."

In St. Louis, Mo., they captured a fellow who blacked his face and then assaulted white women and children. He confessed to crimes running over a number of years, which he had committed in Louisiana and for which a number of Negroes suffered. The information comes that in South Carolina the terms of the county schools in the rural districts will be cut from five to three months. This does not apply to the WHITE SCHOOLS. And yet, there are idiots who, here in the North and West, advocate "Jim Crow" education.

We are burdened with self-imposed leaders who are a mercenary lot, and care more for the DOLLAR than for their fellow man. We are blind followers of blind leadership. We are too glad to shift the burden of race responsibility onto others shoulders and pay no head to where the path may end. Blind followers of blind leaders just as long as we are not shocked from our lethargy by some astoundingly atrocious act we plod along contented with our lot. No difference if it be following the leadership of some fanatical religious cult or lulled by Siren song of some scheming politician, it's all the same until the awakening comes and then it might be too late. Wake up brother! Do some thinking for yourself.

We are boosting the re-election of JUDGE WALTER PERRY JOHNSON to the bench of the Superior Court. A legal luminary in this constellation of Juriet.

EUREKA VILLA

To all purchasers of lots in Eureka Villa we are pleased to announce the completion of your trust on August 24th. It required nearly three months to put your deal in shape so that we could proceed to protect you against all foreclosures and law suits, ultimately giving you your titles through escrow. It has been a very trying job but an extremely pleasant one because everyone has cooperated so nicely.

It is true that you were in a bad condition, should we use the expression of those who live in fear, but who need live in fear no longer, because you have passed that stage and to those promoters and salesmen who pioneered Eureka Villa, cannot be given too much praise for having struggled courageously on to where it was necessary to work out new means of proceeding further. Courage and faith have worked out that way for you through the undersigned who is nothing more than a medium through which we hope to build a paradise in those canyons by exercising more courage and faith, backed up by concentrated effort and much thinking—right thinking. We must think harmoniously.

Those who stop to dwell in the past with malice and hatred and with criticism and accusation of their fellow men—oh well—they just stopped, that's all—they make no progress whatever. So in reference to your previous conditions or predicament at Eureka Villa, just promise yourself to forget the mistakes of others in the past, it matters not who made them, and let us all together press on to greater achievements in the future.

When we shall have finished with Eureka Tract, it will be yours for keeps. We are trying to really fix it for the sake of posterity. The only person who stands to lose will perhaps be the undersigned, but as a group it will always be yours. In two months time we have raised for the development of our tract $100,000.00, in units of $20,000.00. To operate under this plan of proceedure we will be forced to get rid of your present contracts either by cancellation or deed, and we prefer of course to give your deeds, and to figure in every possible way to prevent a cancellation. To avoid cancellation we shall extend your time limit to October 1, 1926, by which time any of you will be able to get your title, provided you are in position to demand the same. For the duration of this extention we make you the following proposition in order to encourage you to pay up by September 20, 1926, we will discount your balance to 25%. Should you pay up by September 25, 1926, you will get a discount of 20%, and by October 1, 1926 a 10½ discount.

Now folks, remember you must do your part and always be sure that you are right and have lived up to your obligations before you can demand the other fellow to do his. I want everyone to get in a position to demand a deed and title by October 1, 1926, and therefore have offered to make these big concessions to help you. You will understand this better bye and bye.

We have no secrets in this new deal. Our contracts, agreements and trust can be seen at any time by those who might be skeptical yet interested and willing to do. Come into our office if you wish at any time, and we will be glad to show you every courtesy. At the same time we beg your indulgnce, because this deal has been like a Chinese Crossword Puzzle—and remember we have nearly 800 of you to straighten out—co-operation will do it—fighting among yourselves will destroy you, not us.

Water? Yes! We have brought in a wonderful well for domestic purposes. We are told that it is the best drinking water in the valley. We rebored and put a 10 inch casing in the old wind mill well, and have 37 feet of water standing in same at present. Those of you who remember the old wind mill will know the meaning of this.

We are trying to get to press with this information and cannot say more to you this time, but get in touch with Nellie Turner, AX. 5008; she will be glad to explain and help you to get your payments straight.

Respectively,

JOURRNEE W. WHITE.

HONOR MANAGING EDITOR

PROGRESSIVE WOMEN'S BUSINESS CLUB ENTERTAINS MANAGING EDITOR ON EVE OF HER DEPARTURE FOR THE EAST

We have here in this city a sturdy band of business women who have organized and have for some years conducted an organization known as the Progressive Business Women's Club. This is no butterfly or social organization, but is centering at all times its efforts for better and more business. The club has invested its greatest energy in acquiring land and both agricultural and city income property and we are told is making commendable progress.

Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert is president of this club and Mrs. L. D. Pruitt, Secretary. It was this organization which bethought themselves to give to one of their fellow citizens who had demonstrated her business capacity a genuine, sincere and real send-off on the eve of her departure for an extended visit to the East, visiting her mother, relatives and for a much needed rest, and as a result Eagle Hall swarmed with the members and friends who had been invited by the club for the occasion of honoring Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass.

The Hall was profusely decorated for the occasion with palms and varigated flowers. The ladies were beautifully gowned and indeed it was an inspiring scene when Mrs. McMickens called the assembled members and their guests to order and introduced Mrs. Pruitt, who in a few well chosen and forceful remarks gave a brief but interesting history of the organization and accomplishments of the club. Mrs. Clara Hulbert, the president, was then presented and gave an inspiring address of welcome for the honored guest and declared it an honor indeed for the organization to recognize not only a foremost business woman, but true womanhood as typified by Mrs. Bass as well.

The program proper as presented by Mrs. Hulbert was such outstanding talent as Mme. Marie Overstreet-Jackson, leading voice instructor and director; Mrs. Ethel Winston who charmed with a reading; the latest product and sensational Bariton, Mr. Fred Skinner, a former pupil of Prof. Feuchinger of Chicago, dean of the perfect voice; a masterly address by Attorney Willis O. Tyler in which he paid a high tribute to the honored guest. This being the attorney's first public appearance since the primary he himself received a flattering reception for the very splendid race he made in the 73rd Assembly District. The Ladies Quartette rendered two very pleasing numbers one of which was "Since You Went Away;" the personnel was Miss Clotilde Bennett, Miss Ella Van Vactor, Mrs. Fred Skinner and Mrs. Clara Hulbert. Mrs. Luvenia Patterson and Mr. L. Edwards were the accompanists for the evening.

And then Mrs. Bass beautifully responded to the many words spoken and expressed her appreciation which words failed her to speak for the genuine sincerity and devotion extended to her.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Bass' address Miss Gertrude Chrisman stepped forward and on behalf of the club presented Mrs. Bass with a huge and beautiful box, the contents of which were designed to keep her cheerful on her way.

The club has been the recipient of many special comments complimentary to the manner in which they conducted this very splendid affair. More than 200 persons were present.

Lincoln Lions Begin Preparation for the "Four Horsemen"

(By A. N. P.)

Lincoln University, Penn., Sept. 25.—Coach "Lys" Young and his taff of coaches, began the task of building a machine to meet five different systems of football here Thursday when forty candidates, headed by Captain Grasty, appeared on historic Randall Field for the first practice. The new and old men were anxious to get going and had to be held in check by the coaches.

While it is too early to make any prediction as to Lincoln's prospect this season, it is evident that the Lions will have a hard-fighting and determined team with a 100 per cent morale. If there have been any petty jeaousies or grievances in past years, they have been placed in the background and the men are working hard daily.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

On account of lack of time to look after the business of letting and caring for the Hall, we will lease Eagle Hall, the most beautiful small hall in the city for a long or short period, also the 5-room apartment and office rooms in front. Hall furnished with 200 chairs, piano, etc. This is a real opportunity for some energetic man or woman to make a worth while livelihood. For particulars see the editor of this paper, owner of the California Eagle, 847 Central Ave.

MOTHERHOOD
THE DANGERS OF FALSE CONCEPTION

The main questions which most of our readers have asked seem to be: "Well, what is a "false conception"; what causes it, how can a woman think she is ready to be delivered of a nine month's baby, when in reality she is not pregnant at all?

Let us take these queries one by one. A false conception is a condition usually of the mind. The pelvis and abdomen or stomach is usually entirely free from the presence of any fetus or baby. Does the woman have a tumor? She may or she may not. Generally she does not. The "baby" which she thinks is inside and which she actually believes she feels moving usually is gas. Nothing more and nothing less in the majority of cases, and after a doctor examines them, who really is able to tell that they positively are not pregnant and tells them this; then after the first shock of disappointment—usually the stomach, which has been distended, out like a gas bag; goes down and gets flat like it normally should be.

WHY IS A FALSE CONCEPTION DANGEROUS

For two reasons. First, because in a very few instances a tumor or some other serious pathological condition exists and is the cause of the existence of the wrong idea. Second, the false conception is dangerous because it usually occures in women who greatly desire children, the very greatness of their desire for little ones makes them the more easily believe themselves pregnant. And when this great hope is disappointed it may do a great deal of harm. Some women never feel the same after a false conception. And those who have tumors and believe it to be a baby, put off the removal of the tumor with dangers to themselves.

INSANITY FOLLOWING A FALSE CONCEPTION

Last week a white patient from a very intelligent family came into my office and stated that she had been at the bedside of a friend of hers when I delivered her baby a year ago; and that she was so much pleased with my work that she had come all the way from Edendale for me to take her case. She stated that she was five months pregnant and was just dlighted that the baby was coming. In fact she had given up the chance to to take a trip to Europe with her mother because she had rather stay at home to have her baby. She also said in her enthusiasm, "I do hope its twins". I put her on the table and examined her. She was absolutely not pregnant at all. She was heart broken when I told her. She went home despondent. The next day her folks phoned me and said that the shock of finding that she was not pregnant had completely unbalanced her. She had lost her mind.

A WARNING TO NEIGHBORS

Do not diagnose the case of other women. You can not tell by looking at a woman whether she is pregnant or not. You may think she is when she is not, and then if she builds up false hopes, it may cause serious trouble when she learns the truth. Always advise every woman who thinks she is pregnant to go to the doctor, and be examined.

Next week we will conclude this subject and begin the discussion of the diagnosis of normal pregnancy.

Angry Love

By:
F. P. BOYKINS

From Alpheu's shore in Italy the waters plunged through dark Ortygria to Arethusa's arms. There might I find the hand I'd kissed months hence and plunged with hatred into the mysterious pool.

In Sicily I woke one night in dread, I called aloud for her who was no more. I needed but her hands upon my head, her body sweet, but fainted by my side. I rose and walked to Arethusa's bed. The liquid music semed to hold enchantment, and I stopped and windered if it might not be—when, lo, I saw in the black whirling vortex of the deep, her hand restored, to me. But, ah!

What black and odious thing is this? What pulping joke has pluto played on me? I laughed and quickly snatched the horrid thing, imprinting on its mossy surface kisses and sucking poisonous vapors from the stretched and mutilated fingers of the hand that once had been.—The only means of help to ease my tortured mind;—I kissed it, laughed and cried and sank my teeth in Arethusa's gift.

I threw her hand from Alpheus' gurgling shore and lazily watched the waters suck it in. I thought of her; I'd murdered and I tore a pale leaf from the bush I lingered by. She had deceived me as such women can. I thought her blood to be of noble source. I though her hands could not have come from low. That pallied brain and lively eye might grace even Juna's envied court in Zew's sky.

We had lain together under tree and bower where hot scent laden verdure leafed us round. Her gentle limbs rested on the sod, best envy to the mind of Venus, but a nod. A grim smile played over Pluto's lips, he knew I could not hear her languid love for me. Her eyes withheld the spark true love demands, her caresses given were forced. I understand she gave herself to many as to me. The angry passions strove within my heart. The wrath above deceived burned hot as fire. I smote her and her brown flesh trembled where I beat her unprotected body with cruel hand. Her velvet lips said no words. She knew that such as she deserved no better end, silently pale hands enfolded mine. I gazed at them; my anger was subdued. So pale they were, so fine, enhanced by nails. They were like pink shell that grace ugly snails. They tapered like the easy molded wax that artists bend.

These were her only weapons; these two hands. I stood abashed to see what I had done. I stood abashed and then;—she had deceived me—I struck her, blod gurgled, a throat once soft as tender dawn, a throat so often kissed when, lost in passion, I had loved her well.

And, as she died, these same pale hands that often had pressed my head to her young breast, I severed from her arms, now drained of all life's streams. In frenzied rage I tore them, kissed them, spat on them and then—buried one, the other I threw in Alpheus' deepest whirl and watched it going, sucked and tortured—down.

I knew thenceforth the love of many women whose purity had been stolen. Forevermore I thought I could forget the one who'd died; but real love clung like often reopened sores. My hours of sleep I spent within her arms—I woke with gentle hands that stroked mine. I woke and saw, and realized again and felt my mind grow weaker, and my heart beat harder—then I knew what I must do. I stayed beside her fountain till they brought me here to languish till I die. I hold always above my heart the precious hand, the blessed reward of agony and ask of when I go and join Pluto in his Stygian caves to have this shapeless mass that I press to my cheek, emblamed, and laid above my worthless heart.

So show my faith in woman though I have been deceived, and let no man say of me that I have murdered pale hands, and vanished love or ties not strong enough to conquer pains of wrath within man's broken heart.

TELLS OF EXPERIENCE

September 23rd, 1926.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

Two friends and myself thought we would take in a show last night, so we picked the Forum Theatre, Pico and Norton Sts. To our surprise the Southern Poison is there also. They told us to go in by the door on our right as we could not enter by the main door and there was no usher to seat us, you have to get your own seat. The seats are 75c for all, but the Negro has to go over to the right and that also applies to the new Orpheum also.

I thought I would let you know how the Southern Cracker is spreading his poinson in Los Angeles. I have been here eighteen years and I can see how the wind is blowing.

Now, if any of my people wants to go to the Forum or the new Orpheum they can, but for myself, never again.

I remain,

Yours truly,
GEO. E. LaBOYE,
1046 E. 21st St.

Taxes Are Lower in Los Angeles

Los Angeles has lower taxes than most large cities in the United States. Los Angeles' present tax rate is lower now than it was 15 years ago, and lower than at any time since 1922.

These facts have been obtained by the Traffic Comission through City Controller John S. Myers. They show, conclusively, that Los Angeles property owners are ot unduly burdened, despite the large amount of public improvements that are necessary to a fast growing city.

In 1912, the Los Angeles city tax rate was $1.60 for each $100 of assessed valuation. This year, the rate is $1.53. The rates for the different years, as shown by figures in the office of City Controller John S. Myers, are as follows:

1912, $1.60; 1913, $1.60; 1914, $1.60; 195, $1.60; 1916, $1.45; 1917, $1.52; 1918, $1.45; 1919, $1.51; 1920, $1.60; 1921, $1.45; 1922, $1.26; 1923, $1.58; 1924, $1.63; 1925, $1.54; 1926, $1.53.

Los Angeles is tenth of the big American cities in regard to tax rates. In order to correctly compare this city's taxes with others, it was necessary to place all on an equal plane in the matter of assessed valuation. Los Angeles, for instance, pays taxes on a rate based on 60 per cent of actual valuation, while Boston pays on a 100 per cent assessed valuation.

Chicago pays the highest tax rate of any city in the United States, it being $31.50 on each $1,000 of property. Baltimore, Pittsburgh, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, Buffalo and Detroit all pay a higher tax rate than Los Angeles. In making this comparison, all Los Angeles taxes are included, suh as city, county and flood control taxes.

Los Angeles pays $18.85 for each $1,000 of property. Cleveland, St. Louis and San Francisco are the only large cities with a smaller rate and these are only slightly less.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

A glorious day at St. Paul, it was a feast of Sincerity and Fellowship throughout the day. At 3:30 o'clock Rev. C. H. Hampton in company with Dr. Wm. R. aCrter of the Second Baptist Church preached a soul stirring sermon and good Brother S. P. Johnson was well represented by a member of the congregation, in turn left an appreciative offering. Rev. J. W. Jordan, pastor n charge, is rendering excellent service.

Mrs. C. D. Robinson, President of the Baptist Women's Missionary Convention of Southern California, has just returned from Ft. Worth, Texas. where she attended the great National aBptist Convention representing the Women's Work of Souther nCalifornia. After which a few days were spent visiting relatives and friends, she reports a very excellent meeting and a peasant trip in general being the recipient of many social honors. She was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Brewster.

She Missed a Good Job

Two colored girls applied at a down town establishment for a position seldom open. Both were seemingly equal in dress, air of intelligence and ability, yet the proprietress after looking both girls over dismissed one without examination and after a test employed the other. Why was she dismissed? we wondered, especially since she was first to apply.

A glance at her face as she left told the story. A face that would have been comely was disfigured with black-heads, the skin oily, the shade deepened by the sun's tan.

Colored girls have a hard enough time getting good positions, so every girl reading this should read the ad. elsewhere in these pages that tells of that marvelous preparation for bleaching and refining the skin, so as not to let appearance stand in the way of their busiess or social success. It is called QICK.

L. A. HIGH NOTES

Think this over Harry: Men who live far beyond their station are men who often miss their trains.

Mr. Lawrence Johnson says:
"Women are a paradox
At which we stand aghast;
The fastest women that we know
Will never, never last."

Mr. Walter Gregory says with a sigh:
"Dickory, dickory, dock,
My clothes are all in hock.
It's not a bit funny,
But L. A. women cost money,
So all I've got left is a sock."

Miss Pauilita Johnson, aside from her other accomplishments, informs us she is soon to burst into the ranks of a drummer. Last Sunday at the home of Miss Grace Harris, Pearl took her first lesson and it is said that she does very well.

Mr. Luius Waters of Missouri and Mr. Alton Prueon of San Diego are both attending L. A. this semester.

The students of L. A. High wish to extend their deepest sympathies to Miss Mamie Lee Perkins who lost her mother last Friday.

On these cold days the "Unholy Three" are keeping the campus warm.

Miss Vesta White's Chicago "sheik" will soon return to attend st. [illegible] University. What's doing tall [illegible] niece? Get in line here! Be [illegible] punk?!!!

This item was heard on the campus a few days ago:

"When the skunk gets halitosis,
When the possum falls asleep,
When the chipmunks blow their noses,
When the bear lets out a cheep,
When the trout eat up the salmon,
When the robins leave the state,
When the muskrats die of famine,
That's when I'll graduate."

MISERABLE SHOWING

Some persons say that since the miserable showing made to recall Congressman C. H. Randall that the whole thing was a frame-up to kill Randall in his race for Congress.

AMERICAN LEGION

The spirit of the American Legion for fair play and a square deal and its broad gauged policy toward all defenders of this country is pleasing indeed and we rejoice with them for the remarkable success which they have obtained in the realm of political endeavor even in this short period since the world war.

We have in mind the amazing victory of Buron Fitts for Lieutenant Governor and the remarkable success of W. J. McKinley for State Senator in this county. We like the spirit of brotherhood which abounds with the Legion and may they ever continue to march on for the principles for which they are banded together.

FIGHT ON N. A. A. C. P.! FIGHT ON!

The adverse decision in the Superior Court in the Swimming Pool situation should not deter the N. A. A. C. P. one moment in its fight against discrimination in public places. One thing sure in these perilous times there can be nothing accomplished by laying down on the job even for one moment.

One angle of the case is the strangeness of going out into the sticks and bringing in an outside judge to try this particular case. We are told that after voluminous briefs had been filed and a wait of six months or more that this learned judge from the sticks simply announced that the motion is denied. We are certain and sure that this case was deserving of more consideration than it received, it affects many thousand of people who are taxpayers and loyal citizens and any jurist no matter how exalted he may be, when deciding a case of such moment as this one, owes it, both to the people and himself, to give some reasons for whatever decision he may give.

HIGH HANDED INDEED

We have been informed, reliably so, that a few nights ago two very respectable working men were down on North Main street and went into a public restaurant to get something to eat. The proprietor very obligingly furnished the same and served them. They had hardly started to eat, when in comes the Vice Squad. They questioned the two young men, found they represented themselves as working men. These officers then went over to the proprietor, so we are informd, and told him that unless he kept the d———"niggers" out of there they were going to close the place up.

We certainly appreciate this as a high-handed method by our police and something should be done about this sort of procedure. We have asked Mr. Burns, one of the party, to get the location and the names of the officers in which case this flagrant, unjust and unlawful act will be righted.

PREPONDERANCE OF ARRESTS

The proposition of making a record in the Police Department by wholesale arrests among one group exclusively and winking at petty crime among another group is pernicious and diabolical. We have, however, right here in Los Angeles, a newspaper which declares this situation exists. Our contemporary, the Pacific Defender is making, so it says, a painstaking investigation in the premises.

All violaters of the law, be they white, black, green or yellow, should look alike to the Vice Squad or any other law enforcing agency of this or any other community. As a matter of fact our attention has been called from time to time about the preponderance of trivial arrests made of the members of the Colored race and liken it unto the practice which prevails in the Southland. We would suggest that our welfare organizations, civic and religious bodies, would do well to look into this charge and if true, seek the needed relief.

It has been revealed that in the state of Georgia where the heel of oppression rests strongly upon its Colored citizens and where the population is upon more even terms, crime among the whites far outnumber that among the Colored and how is it therefore in Los Angeles the Colored people with only one-twentieth of the population furnish 75 per cent of the offenders as claimed by the paper mentioned above?

It is unbelievable and a reflection upon the Police Department if this condition exists.

MONEY TO BURN!

$562,751,466!

That was our nation's fire-loss in 1925, accordding to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the country's authority on the subject.

$[illegible]—that was the increase over 1924. The increase in annual fire-loss since 1923 is $403,759,969!

Who pays this tremendous annual tribute to destruction? Not only the owners of the property destroyed. Not only the families of the 20,000 persons who die in fires every year. Every resident of the country pays his share.

For this loss, exceeding half a billion dollars annually, is what keeps insurance rates high. These destructive fires—one dwelling-house burns in our country every four minutes day and night!—are what make it necessary for the taxpayers to maintain fire departments. The national fire-loss is a national problem. For that reason, President Coolidge has set apart this week for public instruction as to the causes of fires and means of preventing them.

Just what this half-billion-dollar drain on our national wealth means may be visualized this way.—Uncle Sam, in taxing the incomes of his people, allows an exemption of $200 for every child. That is exempted, presumably, because it is sufficient to keep a child in school for a year. On this basis, it appears that THE MONEY WE WASTE BY FIRES EVERY YEAR WOULD KEEP MORE THAN 2,000,000 CHILDREN IN SCHOOL.

Yet we go on wasting it—for it is waste because it can be prevented. Insurance experts, fire department officials and engineers firmly state that 75 per cent of the fires that cause this tremendous totall loss are preventable.

How? By being careful with matches, cigars and cigarettes? Certainly; that would help. By keeping chimneys clean so that they don't throw burning embers upon roofs? Surely; that's a wise precaution. These measures—all measures of common-sense carefulness are necessary.

But caution alone won't save our nation $562,751,466. What is more needed is precaution. The reason why buildings burn is that they are built so they will burn. The fundamental way to prevent their burning is to "BUILD SO IT WON'T BURN."

This doesn't necessarily mean that the average home-owner must adopt expensive masonry constructions to substitute the traditional American wood-frame house. It means to build wisely with wood—use wood but protect it at its most valuable points.

The development of modern building materials has made this possible at a cost no greater than that of unprotected construction. For example: A wood frame can be sheathed with incombustible mineral in place of inflammable wood sheathing. On th einside of the frame a gypsum lath—literally a rock lath—can be used in place of tinder-like wood lath. An artistic and beautiful exterior finish can be put on the house through the use of colored stucco. Or brick or stone may be used. The roof can be of slate, asbestos, cement tile or other fire-resistive material. Insulation and fire-stopping can be installed in one operation between walls, floors and over ceilings through the use of dry-fill gypsum.

This is the path to an appreciable reduction in our enormous annual fire loss and protection for yourself and your family: FIRE-SAFE CONSTRUCTION.

How much money have you to burn?

Remarks by Mr. E. W. Fisher, Smith Greer and D. Williams. Much credit is due Mrs. Sims and Mrs. Anglin for the beautiful manner in which they entertained their guests.

Lovely refereshments were served, the tables being beautifully decorated with flowers and favors. Chicken sandwiches, fruit salad, ice cream and cake, candy and punch, were served in abundance. The guests departed at 5:30 P. M. each having a bouquet of flowers and every one was much pleased and thanked the hostess for the lovely afternoon.

The music was furnished by Mrs. Marjorie LaMonte.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS—EASTERN AND WESTERN HEMISPHERES SUCCEED IN FINANCING THEIR OWN TEMPLE PROJECT.

The novel financing scheme concerning the Pythian Headquarters Building (Ruggles Building, Corner of Ruggles and Washington streets, Boston, Mass.) of the Knights of Pythias, Eastern and Western Hemispheres, has been accomplished.

This property was purchased June 1, 1921, at a cost of $310,000, the two original owners taking back a second mortgage of $65,000, each owning $42,500 of same. On June 1, 1926, (5 years from date of purchase) the first and second mortgages had been reduced by $58,000, the second mortgage, owned jointly by the two men holding $42,500 each, had been reduced to $22,500 each. From the beginning, stock had been sold at $5.00 per share to the members of the Pythianity (all Common Stock).

On May 26, 1926, the idea was conceived of the Supreme Lodge buying the remainder of half of the second mortgage ($22,500) and selling same, bearing 6% interest, to the members of the Fraternity in such proportions as the members desired to purchase. On the 8th day of September, 1926, the entire amount of $22,500 had been paid in, notes issued and all transactions were consummated by Thos. G. Schuyler, Chairman of the Trustee Board and Geo. E. Gordon, Sup. Keeper of Records and Seal.

This is believed to be the first instance of a fraternal organization giving its own members the opportunity to buy stock and own mortgage notes on the one piece of property, thereby making the entire proposition financially secure.

The Knights of Pythias, Eastern and Western Hemispheres, was organized January 22, 1889. Its manner of conducting its affairs, keeping its violate vow, promised it its members, thereby holding their loyalty and confidence, has been evidenced in the unhesitating response in this instance. W. Ashbie Hawkins of Baltimore, Md., is serving his 11th biennial term as Supreme Chancellor.

YOUNG JACK THOMPSON KNOCKS OUT JACK SILVER

Young Jack Thompson

Young Jack Thompson's sensational victory over Jack Silver puts him in the very front ranks as a lightweight contender for championship honors. Already the telegraph wires are busy from promoters who are seeking his services in Chicago and New York.

Ma. Spiski, his manager received the following telegram from the Boxing Commission at Sacramento: "Congratulations and best wishes on Jack Thompson's success last night (Signed) Walter A. Varwood, Secy.

Tuesday morning's "Examiner" depicted Young Jack Thompson as raining blows from the clouds on the bold ring bucaneer "Long John Silver."

It was a fair prophecy for Tuesday night, September 28th at the crowded Olympic Auditorium, as "didn't do suthin' else but." Not from the clouds but from everywhere, rained those blows on the luckless Silver who gamely tried his best to weather the storm but in vain.

Jack Silver has been a great favorite on the Coast here, and in spite of a recent loss to Paul De Hate was favored to beat Thompson with odds at 3 to 2 down town.

Now that it is over, a great surprise has been thrown in the camps of those who wanted to know what "good man Jess Thompson knocked out? Can he hit? Is he game enough? What chance has he against Baby Gans, etc.? They are all answered by this:—

Thompson is as good as any boy in the country today and the equal if not the master of Baby Gans. Personally, we hope they never meet till Jack gets a little older in age and experience, but he would take the "Young Master" on at a minute's notice and probably show him how to sock.

Both boys received big ovations as they stepped in the ring. Silver looking tall and well muscled; Thompson looking like a school boy with everybody as usual wondering if his well-smoothed hair would get mussed up this time, which it seldom does.

Teddy Smith, known as "Young Harry Wills" put up a masterful fight against Billy Adams in the ten-round opener, knocking Adams out in the third round. This was good luck for Wills for he has had several hard breaks lately losing two fights to Kelly and his last to Paul De Hate after beating Paul, then having to lay out from his last fight with a pair of broken ribs.

Someone must have put Adams wise to these ribs for he tried from the start to reach Teddy hard about the body but Young Wills beat him at his own game and very easily made short work of him.

In the ten-round semi-windup Teddy Silva boxed like the veteran he is, using all the tricks he knew to keep the crowding determined little Nationalista away. He jabbed, jabbed, and then jabbed some more, constantly at Nationalista who kept following up shaking off those lefts like flies and catching Teddy from time to time with hard left hooks and rights overhead swings that by the seventh inning had Silva worn down and at his mercy. Nationalista knocked Silva down three times in the tenth round and the bell was all that saved him from a complete knock-out.

The colored population was well represented at the Olympic which always takes great pains to make its colored patrons welcome, both for fights and wrestling matches.

Rock Cod and Barracuda Biting Gamely at Redondo Beach

Captain Monstad of Redondo Beach reports that fishing has been exceptionally good of late, many Los Angeles anglers returning to the Monstad pleasure and landing pier on the speedboat Chief from the deep-sea barge Lahaina, which is anchored off Redondo, have been bringing in large catches of mackerel and bonita.

Game fish, including rock cod, barracuda and sand dabs, have also been caught from the barge, according to the captain.

The all-night service established by Captain Monstad on Saturdays to the barge Lahaina is proving to be very popular with Los Angeles anglers.

TENNIS TITLE CHANGES HANDS

The tennis upsets marked by "Big Bill" Tilden's downfall before the French avalanche, found Vincent Richards and Richard N. Williams as the only defenders of major individual titles.

They retained the United States double corn. Helen Wills and Suzanne Lenglen retired because of ill health from the defense of their biggest titles.

New amateur and open champions were crowned in both British and American golf championships. Jones lifted the open titles held in 1925 by Jim Barnes and Willie MacFariane, but failed twice in his own amateur field. The Georgian was eliminated from the British amateur after beating Robert Harris, the 1925 champion, and fell before George von Elm in the final of the American event.

WATTS MONARCHS IN FOR HARD BATTLE SUNDAY

Some day they may be known as "Hunt's Watiamen" all over the country but suffice to say the team known locally now as Watts' Monarchs are receiving the careful attention of their manager Jas. Hunt that it takes to make a winning and famous team. He appreciates the boys; the boys appreciate him. You can't beat a combination like that. Sunday, Oct. 3rd, they owe the Manchester Merchants a beating which they will endeavor their best to deliver at the Watts Monarch Park. They met this strong team twice before; lost one and won the other, so feel they should win again to keep the championship here.

Sunday sees the famous Shaw, the hurler with the starboard list, with Woods and Lewis itchers; Baker and Williams, catchers against Sigelle and others of the Merchants. A good crowd attended the first paid admission games Sunday last at the Watts Park, a doubleheader against the L. A. White Sox. It seems the Monarchs must have underestimated them for though close they gave up both games 10 to 7 and 7 to 8. Some of the Monarchs' new material will be drafted in by Sunday, so the fair is expected to fly. Special transportation facilities will take the fans directly to the park.

MAIN ST. A. C. NOT PROPERLY APPRECIATED BY COLORED PUBLIC

A fighter in the making is like razor steel in the old. It must have the smelting and refining process to bring out the finished blade. And that is what the Main St. Athletic Club is doing and has done for quite a few colored boys. Hosts of colored boys work out on morning there every day but some of them might never get a chance in local ring if it were not for the management that is behind the club and puts out the money for the training them is after. Many of the colored boys, when advertising their cards, show conclusively that they have the goods but are crooked deal in a decision has put a much shadow on the game that has gone before. But it is hoped that the new commission will take steps to remedy matters.

Everyone on the club rolls is supposed to box the boys at the gym, but who attend their workouts regularly, for instance, the president of the club or fails to fill the requirements of the boys do not get a chance to box in the club shows.

Fans who like to spend a Saturday evening for those who really fight there every Saturday night. To see a practically knocked out fighter come back and clinch put his opponent like the bout between Mike Gomez and Antony De Soto is worth going miles to see. Other good bouts are scheduled for Saturday night. This is the whole card:

Main Event—Angel De La Cruz vs. Baltazar Diaz, 118 Pounds; 6 Rounds; Semi-Roundup—William Kneubehlen, vs. Dominick Ogliastro, 153 Pounds, 4 Rounds; Special—Dick Stanton vs. Eagle Thomas (Colored) Flash), 118 Pounds, 4 Rounds; Mike Orosco vs. Anthony De Soto, 134 Pounds, 4 Rounds; Sandy Garrison vs. Jack Barnett, 120 Pounds, 4 Rounds; Mike Gomez vs. Carlos Martin, 118 Pounds, 4 Rounds.

GASOLINE WAR STILL RAGES

The public is still enjoying the benefits of the gasoline war raging between old John D, Union Gas, Richfield and other oil concerns. It's a terrible, yes horrible, struggle and none seem to be able to control the situation. Prices in many instances vary 3 cents. It can't last long. Big concerns don't believe in conducting their business on a losing basis and just now that's what they are doing.

Tomorrow is another day and an overnight caucus may bring many changes. In no few instances big concerns have cut prices and also cut dealers' profits.

This feature looks like some 114 independent stations are going to have to fight for their existence. In the meantime don't let them fool you into believing it's going to last. It can't. Someone has got to pay and as usual its going to be the public.

Make Highway Safe!

By
OSCAR E. FERNBACH

Let me remark—although the "crack"
Your chink-tank may dishevel—
The honest way to cross a track
Is not upon the level!
We aim to motor unafraid
Our lives to chance not tossing;
And bound we are to make the grade
If we keep off the crossing.

When roads we build, that trains must glide
Across, with shaking thunder,
Let's plan to reach the other side
Or over them, or under.
With danger thus we'll do away
And make our life a boon and,
And on the right track ever stay
By keeping off the wrong one!

NEW AUTO RUN WITH WOOD

GAS FROM HEATED CHARCOAL OPERATES GASOLINELESS MOTOR CAR NOW ON FRENCH MARKET

Paris, Sept. 28th (Exclusive)—On the eve of the Paris national auto exposition, a sensation in automobile circles appeared in advance today in the form of huge advertisements in the Paris press by the Berliet Company now offering for sale on the market a gasolineless, wood-buring automobile which has proved a success. Recently a fourteen-seat auto bus of this type made a complete circut of France—3280 miles—at fuel cost of $15.00.

The fuel was simply wood or charcoal heated to a high temperature by a special apparatus attached to the left side of the car and transformed into gas, which, mixed with air, passes on to the motor and is exploded in the cylinders the same as ordinary gas from liquid fuel.

The company's announcement asserts that light motor trucks loaded to capacity can run sixty miles without restoring at a cost 80 per cent less than gasoline-operated trucks. The spectacle is presented of a chauffeur of this vehicle caught short of fuel calmly stopping at the nearest wood pile to gather a huge bundle of fagots, which within five minutes after dumping into a small stove attached to the side of the driver's seat provides gas with which to proceed.

Many reports have been made public in the last two years of the invention of a French machine which would utilize materials other than gasoline motive power for commercial automobiles, but the Berliet announcement today wsa the first knowledge of wood-burning vehicles passing into the realm of a finished, manufactured product ready for the market.

HITS and MISSES

In the belief that a knowledge of highway regulations would do much t ocurb the loss of life on the highway, particularly among the younger generation, the American Road Builders' Association is urging the teaching of traffic regulations in schools the country over.

x—xx—x

It is a wise motorist who carries a can of gasoline in his car, even if it is only one gallon. Although it may be possible to secure gasoline in an emergency by sending after it, it may be difficult to find a telephone.

x—xx—x

Keep all connections on the exhaust pipe packed and tight. Otherwise, the exhaust gases will come through the floor boards, resulting in headaches and often more serious results. Carbon monoxide gases are dangerous and give no warning.

x—xx—x

Brakes should be adjusted whenever the driver is able to push the brake pedal to the floor board. This is not an indication that the brakes need relining, because the adjustment may be made by tightening the bands.

Mr. F. B. Gates who has for the past eight years been an employee of this organization, located in this city in the capacity of head Porter, has so efficiently applied himself and learned all about the Flint Production of cars, that he has attracted the attention of the management, and in appreciation of his effort, this broad-gauged concern has seen fit to promote Mr. Gates to be one of their regular salesman.

Mr. Gates started in on his newly acquired position at the 1st inst. and to demonstrate that hom much he appreciates the management in the promotion toward him, he has sold and delivered five cars for his company.

This accomplishment stamps Mr. Gates as a wide-awake and competent man, who as time goes forward no doubt will continue to rank high in his line of effort.

HENRY FORD STARTLES THE WORLD

With the astonishing announcement of a five-day week for employees of the Ford Motor Car Co., Henry Ford has again set the pace for other corporations and industries. It might be a good idea for The Pullman Co. to watch this new experiment, and then follow suit by giving an extra day layover on one night runs with pay. This woud give the Porter more time in which to do some work at him without being all tired out when he returns to his run. It would cause him to buy more goods from the merchant and by the merchants business increasing he would have to employ more ttraveling salesmen, thus benefitting the Pullman Co. by increased travel and better efficiency from a more rested and contented porter. Yes, we are ready for the five day week, Mr. Pullman Co.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF TRAVELING PASSENGERS AGENTS

Delegates to the fifty-first annual convention of traveling passenger agents have been looking Los Angeles and vicinity over during the past week. "What does this mean to us?" we ask. Well, these are the men who sell Southern California to the Easterners, and by actually enjoying the pleasures of the product they sell, it will naturally have a tendency to encourage them in increasing the sales of that product. And as porters we will benefit by handling a much greater influx of tourist travel. In view of the recent disaster in Florida our nearest competitor, "business should be exceptionally heavy this Winter. We sincerely hope that the Delegates to this convention have seen and been convinced, it means much to us. Following are the names of the porters who handled this distinguished body of visitors:

L. F. Thomas, Chicago East; A. S. Perry, S. Wooten, S. Washington, B. L. Clarke, W. E. Holland, J. Perrie, St. Louis; P. Pernell, Chicago Central; B. Fulford, W. H. Dantzler, Mr. Taylor, Asst. Supt. P. Co. and Mr. Sathern, accompanied the special train to San Diego. W. B. Jones of Kansas City was also among the crew.

G. W. HENDERSON MARRIED

The news has just reached the Clatter that G. W. Henderson has done that thing. It seems as if the boys have been taking the hint that was put out in the Matrimonial Chart recently. They say that music hath charrms, so hath love.

C. SMITH ENGAGED

Another rumor has it that C. Smith is at last engaged. Mr. Smith was another one of them single birds that was mentioned in the Matrimonial Chart. These Los Angeles girls have not been losing any time from the way that things are going. The harder they are girls, the easier they fall; keep up the good work.

Looks like A. W. Starks will get Stafford's place on line 3452, he is the oldest man up so far, but there are many a slip between the cup and the lip.

Line 23½-38 has got a clean sheet on the bidding line, apparently no one wants it.

J. Pitts has jumped line 3472 in search of better fruits, so they sent him out of town with the G. A. R's.

SANTA FE RED CAPS

Red Cap Flemming has left the service of the Santa Fe.

Here they are, instead of red cap, they should be red hot: Dauchey, head red cap; Maurice Felix; Norman Steward; E. G. Brooks; A. L. Brookins; B. F. Spivey; L. Wilson; S. Hanks; Alonzo Day; Joe Daggart and Owens.

The boys are preparing for a heavy racing season, starting on Thanksgiving. A. L. Brookins says he is going to get well this winter picking the winners. He picked Tuney to win and has had all the boys working for him ever since.

Mrs. B. Rease, wife of Mr. B. Rease, head red cap in San Diego, left last week for an extensive trip East, where she will visit friends; while stopping off in this city she was entertained by Mrs. Edna Steward at a dinner party.

The Southern Pacific red caps have now been labled with numbers that resemble something like the ones on the backs of the big football teams.

MAIDS

Sadie Reed Marries

The writer almost got his neck broken last week for telling the public that a certain pretty maid was married, but with this tip I am forced to take another chance. It has been rumored from very good sources that Maid Sadie Reed has at last tied the knot in Chicago. This romance has ben brewing for some time and has had everyone guessing congratulations.

DRAWING ROOM MAIDS

A porter said to the writer the other day that a certain maid was a Drawing Room Maid on the Santa Fe —most of her time is spent sitting down in the drawing room. We hope that there are not any drawing room maids on the U. P. as we are hot after that De Luxe.

Now, the question is, What would you do? He did!

Editor Calif. Eagle.:

I have been trying for some days to just drop you a line of appreciation for the manner in which you handled that false exposition which held forth at the baseball bark,

What we need is more men of courage who will speak out aginst this species of citizens who will take a dollar, no matter what light it reflect upon the race. The dastardly attack upon you, but confirms the charge which you made and makes the attacker most dispised of all men. Keep the good work up; we are with you all the way.

P. T. A. HOLD PRESS CONFERENCE

Thursday at 10:00 A. M., the first Press Conference of the year was held at the Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. E. Voss of Venice, California, presiding. The meeting was largely attended.

The Press Chairmen are to make special feature stories of some child activities in scchool or P. T. A.

Any extraordinary thing that some woman or man has done for some child or family or persons the P. T. A. would like to have it for a feature story in its Buletin.

We have added thirty-two new schools this year and seventeen thousand new children. The P. T. A. wishes everyone to do their very best in the Community Chest Drive as a number of children in school are given milk from this Fund. Fifty-four children were turned down last year because of the lack of the Scholarship Fund, which Fund also comes from the Community Chest.

Enola L. Chism wishes to know anything that has been done for any needy mother or child of our group by any of our group. Whatever you are doing for humanity, let the P. T. A. know it and record it. Just hone me—TUcker 3285—and I will be glad to get the story.

Mrs. E. Scott, Editor of the Tenth District and State Magazine, and Mrs. W. W. Hoops, President of the Tenth District Parent Teachers' Federation, were the principal speakers at the Press Chairmen's Meeting.

Fickens Answers Professional Southerner In N. Y. Tribune

"A FEAR IN THE SOUTH"

"Infrequency of Attacks On White Women By Negroes

"To the New York Herald-Tribune:—"In your last issue of September 11, Thelma Cudlipp Grosvenor, a Southern white woman, says that white women in the South dare not go unarmed out of calling distance from their houses for fear of Negro attack. The(statement somewhat "begs the question". Even if it can be shown that tens of thousand of Southern white women are alone with colored men for hours and even for days without ever being attacked, still that would not prove that they are not afraid. Therefore all that logic can do is to show the unreasonableness of this fear if it exists.

In the South there are more than five million Negro men and more than fifteen million white women. In the last five years the number of criminal assaults (including all the alleged and all the "attempted" assaults) by these men against these women averaged twelve a year. In acommunity where all the officers of law are white, all power in the hands of whites and all newspaper reports made by the whites it is reasonable to suppose that every case of violent attack by a black man against a white woman is brought to light.

The fear, then, is not based on the actual danger or frequency of the attacks, but it is due to the American color- psychology caused by the playing up of this insignificant record of the black man. These sixty attacks by colored men got more feet of newspaper space during these five years than was given to any 600 or 6,000 similar attacks by white men.

Besides, frankly, the Negro is an oppressed people, especially in the South. Men as well as women readily conceive fear of those whom they oppress. In the Britist West Indies the blacks are relatively not oppressed, and consequently a handful of English whites among a multitude of the blackest blacks have no fear.

So far we have granted the existence of this alleged fear. But we know white women who have dived for years in the South and escaped the enthrollment of its color-psychosis, who have gone where they pleased through the country and among the black fold without fear.

By Borothy Scarborough. Published by The Harvard University Press, Cambridge, Mass. Price $3.50.

I must confess to being somewhat late in reviewing this book. I have ben deterred by the fact that it has no index and one has a right to dread a book of research that is not indexed. Oowever, once the first plunge is taken all dread disappears. The book is written in a sprightly, entertaining manner, and if one has to index it oneself, so much the greater familiarity with the cotext. Wisely, it does ot deal with the Spirituals but confines itself to less familiar material though Talley, Odium and Johnson and others have been over a large part of Miss Scarborough's field.

The volume contans 203 songs, 106 of them with the music, and many variations. The author has been years making the collection. She tells of how she has "liafed on side steps, hung guilefully over garden fences, broiled before cook stoves and ironing boards". She went into colored churches and colored homes, she even beguiled old church members to sing long forgotten and forbidden reels! She so bullied the students of Baylor University, Waco, Texas, that they facetiously declared she had arranged that they should not pass their finals unless they procured new folk-songs for her. Evidently she enjoyed her search. "If weary financiers but knew the fun there is in it", she declares, "they would quit their desks to go in search of songs." And f they cannot go themselves she suggests that they endow chairs for folk songs in the universities. "There is no closed season, though if collectors do not hurry up the season will be closed forever as far as many precious old songs are concerned."

The chapters tell of Negro Ballads, Dance Songs or Reels, Children's Game Songs, Songs about Animals, Work Songs, Railroad Songs and Blues, where is even a chapter on the Negro's Part in Transmitting the Traditional Songs and Ballards.

It is impossible for any but an expert to value the importance of the material Miss Scarborough has gathered. As a scholar she must have done her best to determine whether the Negro song is Negro or an adaptation of a white song. Perhaps at times it is impossible to know. It was pleasing to note that many college girls of the last century were Negro in origin. Some of those tired elderly financiers who ought to endow folk song at boys gatherings used to sing a foltisking title, "The monkey married the baboon's sister". They used like to sing, "A grasshopper sitting on a sweet potato vine" very slowly when he was going to the festival very fast when he came back. They used the animals into the dark ages by such lines as "[illegible]". They knew they had a genius for [illegible] and there it [illegible]

[illegible] little sissy will ye marry me", that we hear in New York. Her texts are the newest material to me, and she has a number of good work songs. But it is the lreamess of the music that makes the book not only a repository for the folk lore student but a delightful thing for all of us to have. Here are over 5 hundred melodies. We can dance and play the work to them. How delightful to sneak a child to hammer while he sings, "Who build de ark? Noah build it, cut his timber down."

Miss Scarborough has done much for her section of the country. When a Negro chorus appeared on the platform of Baylor University to sing folk music it was greeted with a riot of enthusiasm. After repeated encores, the program was allowed to continue only if the Negroes returned and sang again at the last. One is grateful for all Miss Scarborough does. But when she speaks of "awakened interest in Negro problems of education and service"; and in illustration notes that Carnegie Hall was lately packed to hear singers from Hampton and Tuskegee, one is amused. The Fisk Jubilee Singers awakened such interest in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, nearly sixty years ago. Hundreds of thousands of people in the North knew the Spirituals before this century dawned, and they knew them because of the white Northern teachers who went into Southern Negro schools and ostracism. They had a beautiful volums of Spirituals at Calhoun Colored School twenty years ago. Miss Scarborough had to study at Cambridge to find out what was at her back door. But she has generously given the Negro his due, and we rejoce at her in bringing him into his own.

NEGRO BUSINESS HOLDING OUT REWARDS

By A. N. P.)

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 6.—That fine reward awaits the man or woman who embarks in Negro business and brings the effort, ability and 100% was demonstrated in a way which all Chicago appreciates when official announcement was made this week of the election of Mr. Edward H. Cary, Director of Agencies of the Liberty Life Insurance Company of Illinois, to the Vice-Presidency of the Company.

This promotion comes in recognition of the wonderful work done by Mr. Cary in building an agency force which put on the books of the company over nine million dollars of business in the five years that the Company has operated. This is the second recognition of Mr. Cary's worth by the company in less than a year, as last March he was elected a member of the Board of Directors. Mr. Cary will now assume charge of real estate department, dealing in insurance, real estate, mortgage and bonds, in addition to his work connected with the sales force of the company.

"There is no finer salesman anywhere than E. H. Cary," President M. D. Bousfield said in announcing this promotion, "Mr. Cary's long and faithful services to Liberty Life entitled him to the choice when we began to look for a man to head this important department of our work."

Mr. Cary's successor as Director of Agencies is Mr. Luther F. Simpkins who has served under Mr. Cary nearly the whole time as Assistant Director of Agencies and Educational Director. Mr. Simpkins has made an enviable reputation as a salesman and a teacher and deserves this appointment.

In these promotions is seen Liberty Life's policy of promoting men in recognition of their merit and service.

This Conference will be one of the greatest in the history of the church.

Special music each evening.

Mrs. H. A. Harrison, one of Los Angeles' pioneers, of 5205 Long Beach Avenue, returned recently from an extended vacation trip through Baton Rouge, New Orleans, Birmingham, Atlanta, Chcago, Denver, Salt Lake City, and Oakland.

She met many relatives and acquaintances of her childhood on this eastern jaunt who lavishly entertained her.

Mrs. Harrison left here on Jul y18, and returned to Los Angeles last Wednesday feeling much benefited mentally and physically. Although much impressed with other sections, yet she is quite unwilling to exchange Los Angeles for any other place visited.

The Negro's Condition in Florida's Storms

AS SEEN BY MARY McLEOD BETHUNE, RPESIDENT OF NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLORED WOMEN, AND BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE, DAYTONA BEACH, FLA.

Having just returned from the storm-swept area of Florida, and having received numerous telegrams of inquiry as to the true conditions existing there, especially as they pertain to our group, I hereby give forth the following information:

Morehaven's condition indescribable. Two-thirds of its inhabitants destroyed. Dead bodies beyond recognition. The remaining inhabitants forced to evacuate town.

Fort Lauderdale heavily hit. Negro's condition here serious. Homeless, foodless, swollen faces, lame limbs from rheumatism brought on from exposure. Homes surrounded by water.

Miami's Negroes very fortunate as to Death Toll. Hard hit as to property. Only one Negro's death reported. Storm swept around Negro section. Almost all Churches destroyed.

In all the history of my life I have never witnessed such destruction and such sorrow. When I got into Fort Lauderdale, it semed that that little town had been swept away. Numbers of men, women and children were still huddled in their little cabins and huts, in ponds of water. Their faces were swollen from exposure, and many of them were lame, having contracted rheumatism. There were mothers refusing to leave their little homes with their children, because they have no place in which to house themselves and were trying to find dry places on planks and fragments of house tops—white people and Negro people alike.

The heroic spirit of readjustment, patience and resignation with which they are accepting conditions was a revelation and a benediction to me.

I found that food, clothing and medical care, as far as possible, were being supplied from the Relief Organizations. The Negro people were receiving the same kind of help that the white people were receiving. We need strong, capable committees of Negroes to work with the Committees of whites, but they are rapidlingly being formed. Particularly in Fort Lauderdale do we need nurses, provided with rubber boots, who can plunge through the water to reach these sufferers.

Hundreds of the refugees are being provided with tickets by the railroad officials and general authorities to any part of the country where they have friends or relatives, until conditions are better.

A tent to take care of the Fever cases is being erected today at Fort Lauderdale.

We brought last night hundreds of service in the work of caring for the refugees. Rev. Evans and the other ministers of the city are doing all they possibly can in this work. The grounds of the Church Rev. Evans pastored, and the remains of the church, are being used as headquarters for a Relief Station for Negro people. Mr. W. M. Mitchell, supervisor of the Peoples Industrial Insurance Co., is rendering most valuable service in co-operation with the city authorities in seeing that workers are not overpaid and all volunteer service possible rendered.

The heroic way in which these people are co-operating with the authorities of the cities in clearing up and relieving those who are worse off than themselves, is commendable.

God has been wonderfully good to the Negro people of Miami, in the sparing of their lives. The death toll in Miami for Negroes, as far as we have been able to learn, is one. We cannot make such a statement, however, concerning Fort Lauderdale, Winter Haven, Morehaven, Liverty City and other smaller towns.

In the congested sections, where the little three-room cottages are almost jammed together and where the poorest classes of people reside, God wonderfully blessed them.

I think the most pitiable conditions that I have seen Negroes in, is in Fort Lauderdale. The condition at Morehaven is indescribale. Two-thirds of the inhabitants went under, and those who were left have been forced to evacuate.

All of our Churches were almost totally demolished in Miami. I cannot describe the destruction. I can only say a great storm passed our way. We are putting forth every ef-

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH PROGRAM MOVING ALONG

St. Philip's Vested Choir Will Aid In Campaign

Endorsements of Father Cleghorn's campaign for funds with which to build a new church edifice at 28th and Stanford streets have been heartily given by Bishops Joseph . Johnson and W. Bertrand Stevens of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles, and prominent citizens of the community.

These men appreciate the service Father Cleghorn has performed in the community and consider his desire for a new church to take the place of the little wooden chapel he has used so long to be so justifiable as to call for generous response from those who have the interest of the community and religious life of the people at heart.

He was a pioneer in bringing the Episcopal Church to California, and he is now pioneering in his method of conducting a campaign for church building funds. (At no time has such a strong aggregation of people been brought together for a common cause. This campaign is considered more in the light of a progressive community movement than a denominational affair.

The letters of endorsement not only commend the building project, but they speak highly of Father Cleghorn whose innate modesty has kept him from asking anything of the community for sixteen years.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Johnson's letter follows:

"To Whom it May Concern:

"I am very glad to commend the Rev. W. T. Cleghorn, Rector of St. Philip's Church, Los Angeles to the churchmen of this Diocese.

"Mr. Cleghorn has done a wonderful work during the years he has been connected with this Parish. His congregation has shown great activity in providing for its needs, but in addition to what they have done, a considerable sum of money will be necessary for the new church building which they are planning to erect on their new site at East 28th and Stanford Streets.

"Mr. Cleghorn is an exceedingly intelligent, well-trained and useful man, whose work has been characterized by judgment and commonsense, and furthered in a way that has shown itself to be very useful to the congregation to which he ministers.

(Signed):
"JOSEPH H. JOHNSON,
Bishop of Los Angeles."

Bishop Coadjutor Stevens wrote as follows:

"To Whom It May Concern:

"St. Philip's Church, Los Angeles, is one of the most active congregations of the whole diocese. The attendance is always large and the enthusiasm great. They have outgrown their present building so much so, that at many of its services people are turned away. A new site has been secured at 28th and Stanford streets, which will be an admirable location for a new church building. I am glad to endorse the plan of the Rev. W. T. Cleghorn, Vicar, to secure funds for that purpose, and commend him to the interest of the people of the church and community.

(Signed):
"W. BERTRAND STEVENS,
Bishop Coadjutor of Los Angeles."

Mr. T. A. Greene, Executive Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., gives his endorsement of the St. Philip's Building Fund Campaign as follows:

"My Dear Friend:

"After thinking carefully over our conversation yesterday concerning your proposed campaign for funds to build a new

It seems as if there is a wave of pessimism permeating the minds of some of our great men, men whose opinions and views of the world's events are read and have considerable bearing in molding the thinking status of the masses.

Dean Inge, St. Paul, London, in deploring the lack of sympathy in the United States for England, says that "he doubts if the United States would come to England's assistance should she be invaded unless the invaders were a black army." Evidently the good Dean is fully cognizant of the attitude of certain sections of the North American Republic in the vicious treatment of its black citizens hence his exception.

Then: Rabindrath Tagore, philosopher, poet and sage of the Indies, says: "Western Christian Civilization is crumbling." Speaking to an audience in Berlin, he said: "You Westerners who possess all material wealth are starving yourselves intellectually." He then added, "And we who have nothing believe we have sensed the mysteries of the Infinite. . . . There can be no lasting peace until you strive to work for the good of all mankind." Then comes Clarence Darrow, within whose bosom beats a heart tuned SIX-A-

Darrow is, no doubt, sickened with the hypocritical tragedies which he has witnessed under the guise of Christianity. He has witnessed the prostitution of justice and the rape tolerance. He has seen manifestations of hatred which has dethroned reason and made of men maniacal brutes. But it is to be hoped that the angel Azreal will long defer his coming for the great counsellor the world has need of him.

In Oakland California a number of white parents caused their children to absent themselves from a school in protest to the presence of some Chinese pupils attending classes there. Although those Chinese pupils were Americans by right of birth and entitled to the full rights of nationals those parents sought to instill racial prejudice in the minds of their offspring by aiding and abetting them in defying the laws of the country. Parents are greatly to blame for the great amount of racial strife which exists. They foster racial [illegible] by encouraging their children to assume a superiority over their fellows. Of course some of those parents are just a few degrees removed from the steerage, but realizing and having memories of the days when they were "the under dog" they want to retaliate and so they choose what they think, the under god. It is said that "they feared that close contact between the Chinese and the white children might be detrimental to the future citizenship of the latter."

Why the Word "Negress"?

The press recently carried the story of a woman who won a case for racial discrimination in a matter of service at one of the public stores. The story stated that "she had been refused service because of her color, and after several court hearings the highest court of the State had given her a verdict for damage. The headline of the paper stated that "A Negress" had won a case and received a verdict for being refused service on account of color. But, why Negress? GORDON
VS.
County Supervisors

FOLKS: This case was fought out last Monday, for the purpose of deciding whether or not the U. S. Court has the right to try this case.

It was very ably argued by Robert Young, who presented a most unusual, though powerful brief, which completely upset the County Representatives.

It is rumored through channels that the county will never be able to get a dismissal of our case in that court which will mean a preliminary victory for us. We are indeed satisfied with the results.

It will be about 20 days before the Judge will render his decision.

Next week we will elaborate on this whole affair.

DR. RUTH J. TEMPLE

NOTE: To those who so seriously regret having lost or destroyed some of the papers containing 'Plain Facts' articles, I am glad to say it is not too late yet for you to have practically all of the information previously given out through the column, if you will religiously save every article from this date on. For we find that the women, men and young people are seriously interested in learning every aspect of this solemnly important subject on Motherhood, and truly we are more than anxious for you to understand it. For broadly speaking "Motherhood" considered in all of its aspects, from the standpoint of the mother of the child, the father of the child and the child itself really embraces all of the large physiologic and moral problems which confront us as human beings. And because of the large importance of the subject we shall endeavor to cover the entire field in this new series of talks even though this does necessitate repitition in some instances. Each article will be numbered and thus you will be able to file accurately and to refer easily to a desired subject. Some mothers and readers are planning to index the articles so that they can readily refer to any desired subject. I think it a good plan. Address questions to Dr. Ruth Temple, 3556 So. Western, Phones UN. 1265, VA. 1221, EM. 9981.

MOTHERHOOD---ARTICLE I.

The Changes in the Mother's Body Due To Pregnancy

Mauricean called pregnancy a "disease of nine months duration," and there is much truth in that statement. Generally the pregnant state and labor are looked upon as physiologic and in perfectly healthy women they may be so. But as a matter of fact, due to the weakness of the human body and due especially to the low vitality of this generation—no other function of the body is attended with such dangerous possibilities. For during pregnancy, especially in this devitalized generation, the border line between health and disease is greatly diminished.

On the other hand with proper medical care there is no class of patients who yield more successful results and more happy returns to patients and physician than the average pregnant woman who does have proper medical care. And because it may make the difference between life or death to you and yours I do urge, and will continue to urge through this column every pregnant woman to delay not, but go at once to your physician or to the honest and efficient doctor and be examined and put yourself under his care, not at the 9th month, but at as soon as you even suspect that you are pregnant. Because at the very inception of pregnancy—changes in the mother begin. Whether she will relate herself properly or improperly to these changes depends largely upon her knowledge. And even though she has had one dozen children, still no woman is able to give herself the proper medical examination and care during her pregnancy. And the more intelligent the woman, the earlier will she seek medical advice and care.

Skin Changes in the Pregnant Woman—The Pregnant Mask

Because our eyes first rest on the skin we will start here and go from the external to the internal changes.

In many pregnant women the skin presents very striking and characteristic changes.

Today we shall discuss the Mask of Pregnancy. Pigment is deposited in many parts of the body—the valva, naval, nipples and linea alba. But on the face occurs the typical brown stains, of the cheeks, nose and forehead which are so typical.

What is the significance of this dark mask? Anthonisties have discussed the subject a great deal and all agree that it is due to circulatory changes, in the spleen, the supsarenals (pigment making organs) or the liver or in all three together. Also that the mask is most often seen on women who are suffering from some form of uterive disease and who are therefore very nervous. Brunettes are more often affected than blondes. And those who have sluggish bowels and poorly eliminating skin more often than those whose bewels and skin are normal.

These facts show that the mask of Pregnancy though generally considered normal, truly is not so but may and ofter does indicate some grave disease of liver, spleen or other internal organ and therefore should never be allowed to go uncorrected.

Changes in the mother's body during pregnancy will be continued next week.

TO WRITE HISTORY OF CONGO

(By A. N. P.)

Liege, Belgium, Oct. 5.—A commission instituted by M. Carton while he was minister of colonies was charged with the writing, in collaboration of the history of the Congo, from the political and economic as well as the juridic and diplomatic point of view.

The plan of this important work which will be completed for 1980, has been definitely worked out. The work will consist of three parts:

1. The Congo since the discovery of the mouth of river by the Portuguese (1842) up to the creation of the Congo Free State in 1885.
2. The Congo from 1885 until the annexation in 1908.
3. The Congo since 1908.

Labor Agent Killeld

(By A. N. P.)

DeKalo, Texas., Oct. 5.—Thomas Hill, a labor agent who came here to recruit cotton pickers for a Dallas syndicate, was shot and fatally wounded here Sunday in an altercation with Calvin Johnson, a well known white farmer. The white man complained that Hill had sought to entice laborers from his plantation. After Hill had been shot, he in turn shot Johnson, wounding him twice, but not fatally. Johnson was released after a preliminary hearing to await trial on a charge of murder.

Conference Closes

The Southern California Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church closed its fiftieth Session, at the First M. E. Church, Pasadena, on Monday night.

It was a fine session and proved of great interest and ispiration under the efficient presidency of Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, of San Francisco.

The appointments were read on Monday evening at the close of the service, following the Anniversary of the Federation of churches and the Anti-Saloon League. Rev. A. P. Shaw was returned to Wesley for his tenth year and Rev. S. M. Beane came back to Hamilton for his eighth year. A newcomer in the conference and this section is Rev. G. W. Carter, who comes to Shaw Mission in Watts. Mrs. Carter comes well prepared for the task in hand. It was a great conference. One of the features of chief interest was an exchange of Fraternal Greetings between this conference and the Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

On Friday, Dr. Shaw of Wesley bore the greetings from the Methodists to the A. M. E. Conference and on Saturday, Dr. Miller of First A. M. E. Church, returned the greetings on Saturday. These fraternal greetings breathed the spirit of bacholar.

HEAT CHANGES WHITE MAN'S COLOR

(By A. N. P.)

Liege, Belgium, Oct. 5.—According to M. L. W. Lyde, the acclimatization of the white man in the tropics has the effect of changing the color of his skin. The darker shades, he writes, are favorable, because they afford protection against the stronger rays of the sun. It can be said also that there in general the skin is pigmental according to the necessity for resisting heat Thus the black skin is found in the tropics, the yellow in regions not quite so hot.

Moreover, concludes M. Lyde, while the white man finds excessive temperatures inconvenient, the black suffers very little in cold countries.

There is, therefore, a real advantage in being black.

Hear Lt. O'Neal of the Fire Commission

There are a few Negroes of Los Angeles who are trying to benefit themselves educationally by attending the Civic Classes every Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock at the 28th and San Pedro Sts. School.

Last Tuesday night Mr. Burdette Moody, secretary of the Boulder Dam Association was the speaker and accompanied his talk with stereoptican views, it was not only interesting but educational as well.

We don't want you to miss one of these meetings, and on next Tuesday evening, Lieut. O'Neal of the Fire Commission, has a very interesting subject to impart to every citizen of this city. Let everyone be out in numbers and show our brothers of the other race that "In Unity There is Strength." Don't forget, October 12th, 1926, 8 o'clock at the 28th and San Pedro Sts. School. Our class lasts from 8 to 9:30 P. M.

MRS. JOHNSON.

A. C. Harris Billbrew has taken over the directorship of Phillips Temple C. M. E. Church choir, at 42nd and Wadsworth Streets. She will present the choir in a sacred concert Sunday evening, October 17th, at 8 P. M. They will be assisted by some of the city's best talent. A missionary playlet entitled, "The Journey of Life", will be one of the outstanding features. Mrs. Bilbrew promises to have the choir at their best on this occasion. You are invited.

Dudley, 'True Fit Tailor' In Wake Of Progress

In taking stock of business enterprises of real worth and merit, the steady, but sure progress of one of our fellow citizens must be noted and especially is this true of Mr. J. O. Dudley, known as the "True Fit Tailor."

Mr. Dudley has been in our midst for a period of only about seven years, starting with practically nothing, in that period he has built up a business in his line of efforts which takes second place for no other. He started humbly on East 12th Street and by strict attention to business and true representations to his patrons he has steadily progressed to his present situation.

On October 4th, he opened up in his own brand new building at 2812 Central Avenue, with new fixtures and spacious room, a modern and up to date establishment which is not only a credit to Mr. Dudley, but to the entire community as well.

We bespeak for all men of the progressive type as exemplified by Mr. Dudley, a strong and healthy support.

BILL WHEAT OPENS MODERN GARAGE

Wm. Wheat, well known as an expert automobile mechanic, a promoter and who formerly conducted a large garage on 9th at Central Avenue, has leased the large and commodius garage at 1018 Central Avenue, where he has opened up and again put our group on the map as conducting a worth while automobile repair shop.

EXPERT IN CHARGE

Mr. Wheat has secured the services of Mr. Harry Parker who is recognized as one of the best mechanics on the coast. He severed his business relations with the Parker and Jackson Garage to accept this position.

The firm invites your presence and inspection to their new, large and commodious garage, where a guarantee for first class service and reasonable prices and work turned out with neatness and dispatch.

Through Efforts of Noah D. Thompson Girl Enters School

Dr. S. S. Turner, 3506 Central Avenue, informs this office that she is greatly indebted to the Hon. Noah D. Thompson for his genuine services in removing the color bar which had been raised and allowed her daughter, Dorothy, to attend the school of her own faith in her own neighborhood and she wants the public to know that Mr. Thompson was responsible fo rthe removal of this embarrassing situation.

It seems that although Dorothy had attended this school for several terms without question, an element of prejudice had sifted in and wanted the school to be 100 per cent white. When Dorothy applied she was denied, they told her there was no room and to go elsewhere with her own kind. No appeals that her mother made would be listened to.

The doctor then appealed to Mr. Thompson, who took the matter up with Bishop Cantrell and very soon the Mother Superior found a way to admit the doctor's daughter to this school. Thereby demonstrating that as we have always claimed the hydra-headed monster of prejudice only comes from the understrappers for the really big persons are too big to bow their knees to the small, petty prejudices which are so unjust and unkind.

Miss Inez Hunter was entertained with a lovely dinner dance Tuesday night. Honoring her return from a 4 week's vacation from Lake Elsinore.

JOLLY ANGELENOS
By: Harold Lloyd

Mrs. H. Brooks and Mr. R. Lewis entertained the Jolly Angelenos with one of the smartest affairs that has ever been given in the city of Watts. It was a real treat for us to again be honored with a party of this nature in the garden spot of the Golden West. Everyone seems to have had a wonderful time. Miss Willie Jones has returned to the city after spending several weeks in the East. We are very glad to have her with us again.

We realize the impossibility of enrolling all of our friends as members of the Jolly Angelenos, therefore we have decided to stage an affair in order that you may come and enjoy real California pleasure with us, details will be given in these columns in the near future.

THE FORUM

The attendance at the Forum Sunday was very good. Many new members were enrolled.

Everyone enjoyed very much Mr. Garland Anderson's talk on the Psychology of Prejudice. It seemed a pleasure to him to answer the many questions asked.

Christian Tavern was the scene of a beautiful appointed social affair on Friday evening, Sept. 24th when the Iroquois Friday Morning Club entertained four of its members who were elected to responsible offices during the State Federation.

The club was honoring Mrs. J. M. Edward, third vice-president of state and founder of the club.

Mrs. Edna Steward, vice-president-at-large, Mrs. J. J. Christian, chairman of Ways and Means and Mrs. R. E. Banks, chairman of Domestic Science.

A well-arranged program was carried out which was as follows:

Contralto Solo, Mrs. Naomi Pharr; Reading, Mrs. A. C. Bilbrew; Solo, Mrs. Bertha Spruill; Mrs. M. G. Patton the newly elected president gave a beautiful talk on the past, present and future activities of the club. Mrs. Steward in her forceful and intelligent way responded. Mrs. M. H. Broyles in her own sweet way acted as Mistress of Ceremonies. Delicious refreshments were served and everybody expressed themselves as having spent an enjoyable evening. Much credit is due the chairman, Mrs. Bell Johnson for the success of the entertainment.

GOLDEN STATE CLUB

The Golden State Club held their regular meeting at their club house, 4621 Compton Avenue, Thursday, September 30, 1926. This was social night, a little business was transacted, then dancing was the feature of the evening. The music was furnished by the Golden State Club Jazz Orchestra. Refreshments were served and everybody had a good time.

Dances, alternating with literary program and whist teas, will be held throughout the year. Next meeting which will be business meeting, will be interesting in itself as plans for the year will be disclosed and some important reports made. Several fine objectives will be striven for by Mr. Randolph Foote, president of the club, and equally fine programs are being planned by the chairman of that committee, Mr. Charles R. Baker, Jr.

Several new names were added to the membership roll during the last two weeks.

The success of the Golden State Club is due largely to the faithful leader and director, Mrs. Ada B. Williams of 1175 East 46th street.

LAFAYETTE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The beginning English class for adults is growing nicely. We have ten members now who come for one hour three days a week. As soon as we can get an enrollment of fifteen, we can extend the time of the class to two hours a day. The class meets Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings from 9:15 to 10:15; Room 16, near 12th and Naomi.

The Vocational Cooking Class for adults was organized Thursday and had a very interesting demonstration. The class will next have a demonstration by Miss Martin of the Home Economics Department of the Sperry Flour Mills. She will demonstrate inexpensive desserts made from a plain cake base. The recipe she will use will be a master recipe and she will explain different ways to vary it so as to make several interesting and easy desserts. Credit for this course will be based partly on the attendance at the class so early enrollment is important. Mrs. Murdoch, WEstmore 3464, will be glad to answer any questions. The school is between 12th and 14th streets and between Naomi ad Hooper aveues. Take "U" car to 14th ad Central and walk East to the school or take "B" car to 12th and Naomi which is at one corner of the school grounds. The cooking class meets in Room 6 which is on the ground floor near 14th and Naomi.

CONFUSED

The McPherson case goes merrily on and new witnesses bob up from everywhere until it really looks like a frame up and all hands have been, and are confused.

LOWEST CASUALTY LIST

Prejudiced white folks down at Miami would not allow colored folks to live in the city to any great extent. This fact therefore is the answer to the small casualty list among our group. In other words in this instance the "white folks had to walk that lonesome valley, and walk it by themselves."

WANTS TO COME TO LOS ANGELES

It is surprising strange how, at this lats date, so many persons come forth with the information that they saw Mrs. McPherson in so many dfferent places and they are willing to come forth and so testify. To a person way off looking on, somebody wants to get in on all this fuss and flurry or they want a trip to Los Angeles at the expense of Los Angeles County.

CLUBS ON THE TABOO

Until such time as the promoters of beach, country, town, or any other sort of club for its successful conclusion the backers thereof must certainly have enough capital at hand to erect and put in operation the same, if they are to receive any substantal support from the people.

They have been stung to the quick on these propositions where the promoters are speculating with the situation and this escrow business. We are truly of the opinion that the State Corporation Commission should scrutinize all these applications and put their O. K. on nothing except they are backed up with the necessary finances.

BETTER SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

We claim that thus far the Better Suffrage League has kept itself on an even keel and bids fair to become a real force for political advancement in this bailiwick. There are more who stand for our political advancement that could for one moment depreciate the movement, for we had no active political organization worthy of the name as such before this recent formation.

The Better Suffrage League elected as its first objective to wage war against the bonds. In this battle they lost, what of it? No organization has got any guarantee on wnning its first battle and the League could have been wrong in waging this particular fight. We thought then and now that they were on the wrong track, but they were trying at this price to help out a ragged situation. This club went through its first battle and it remains intact with plenty of enthusiasm, hope and inspiration. With this spirit manifest we verily believe that it is in the realm of possibilities for this organization to lead us out of the wilderness and get the people together as never before upon the vital question of a political nature which appears before us from time to time.

We want to see the Better Suffrage League proceed cautiously, but surely along the lines of supporting the measures and men who stand for all the people and not for cerain groups.

With the approachng election of a School Board which is reputed to have wrought a leaning toward the propaganda as set forth by the hooded knights of the Ku Klux Klan in our school affairs and other equally as pernicious propositions in public affairs, makes it very necessary that the Better Suffrage League should be eternally on the job.

TREAT ALL ALIKE

Speaking of the situation on the Eastsde and the police activities wherein it seemed to be a policy where numbers count, while other sections get winked at for trivial offenses: we find a strong sentiment against such activities and that this situation will be fully investigated, all for the just and equitable treatment of all citizens alik.e

We note where the good people of the Episcopal Church think that the Rector of Philip's Chapel, Father W. T. Cleghorn, should have a better and larger church and are even now engaged in a campaign to raise funds for this purpose.

Now what we want to know i who is it that would not subscribe to this fund, if for no other reason than out of the goodness of their heart and appreciation of Father W. T. Cleghorn. We have, for this pastor, the highest and greatest respect for the great service which he has rendered as a Christian minister in our midst. He has always been for everybody and against nobody. He is a high credit to the cloth and with our many outstanding divines we class Father Cleghorn shoulder to shoulder with any and though humble as a lowly scribe is wont to be, we will gladly contribute to a new church home for the worth while pastor, Father Cleghorn. Who wouldn't?

POWERFUL DEFENSE OF JAZZ

The composers of jazz music recently received a severe castigation at the hands of the eminent music critic, Ernest Newman, of the London Times, England. He did not stop at criticism, he went further and said that jazz composers were far lacking as intellectual beings. We are sure that the vast majority of people think different from this eminent critic.

We quote here from the Dearborn Independent wihch is a strong defense of jazz. Speaking of the powerful defense, we speak it advisedly when it comes from this source.

"In Defense Of Jazz

"Jazz composers of this country are righteously indignant over the caustic and uncalled-for comments on their art voiced by Ernest Newman, the music critic of the London Sunday Times. They are deeply wounded at his implication that the 'typical jazz composer is merely a musical illiterate who is absurdely pleased with little things because he does not know how little they are'. Nor is their pride assuaged by his comparision of their product to the singsong of a nursery rhyme, or his assertion that 'the thing is dead from the neck up.

But what tries their souls, what rocks their patriotism to its very foundation, is his contention that 'the brains of the lot of them put together would not fill the lining of Johann Strauss's hat. What does this English Johnny think he is doing? Is not jazz an American art, to be defended no matter what the cost in ink or dictionaries? 'I have never claimed any distinction for jazz,' plaintively retorts Paul Whiteman, one of its principal proponents, 'other than it is the true expression of a nation's song'. But isn't that enough to claim? The heart of a great country tenderly laid open for all to see!

" 'Red Hot Mamma', 'Yes, We Have No Bananas', 'So's Your Old Lady'—the true expression of a nation's song. What more could Mr. Whiteman add?"

BIBLE IN THE SCHOOL

Who would have believed that tho time would ever arrive when it would become an issue at the polls as to whether or not the Holy Bible would have a place in the public school room. The book is the foundation and cap-stone of the Christians' religion and yet its fondest admirers and believers must do battle on November second to insure its presence in public schools of our great and mighty commonwealth. Take it as you will from the beginning of the Christian era the Bible has had a rocky road to travel. The following is an excerp from the Los Angeles California Voice which gives an illuminating insight into the question at issue:

"One argument used with more or less apparent reasonableness by those opposing the Bible amendment is based on the constitutional "bill of rights" which guarantees religious liberty, freedom of the press and fredom of speech. This argument is in no sense, even remotely applicable to the question of permitting the Bible in the public schools. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press and religious liberty are found only in the countries where the Bible is permitted in the schools and in the homes. Go back to 1898 to the land discovered by Columbus, the island of Cuba. For four hundred years it was formally and ceremonially most religious. Before the excavation of the Spaniards, and the Spanish priests, all forms of religion, except the Roman Catholic were forbiddedn.

"Neither Protestant nor Jewish nor any other faith was tolerated. No marriages were legitimate except where the ceremony was performed by a Roman Catholic priest; none but Catholics could be buried in the cemetery, until the destruction of the Maine, when all the bodies that were recovered were laid in consecrated ground. The importation of Bibles was prohibited by book-sellers and by the public, and the British government was refused permission to biuld a chapel for the Church of England in connection with the consulate. The same prohibition prevailed throughout the island, and no Protestant churches existed or were allowed to exist at the time of the American intervention in 1898.

"Parallel with religious intolerance, was the densest ignorance on the part of nine-tenths of the population. Public schools were unknown. Scarcely ten per cent of the people could read, and these few were Spaniards of the more prosperous class, who could afford to patronize private schools. William E. Curtis, the well-known newspaper correspondent, writing from Havana, says that for centuries the common people of Cuba had the worst instruction and the worst example in the world. They have been taught dishonesty, duplicity, and deception, without encouragement or even hope of better things.

"And so it has been in every country where the Bible was not permitted in the public schools.

"Those who oppose the amendment on the ground of religious liberty, do so for personal and ecclesiastical reasons only and not for reasons of religious tolerance or motives of Christian charity. The plea is wholly and entirely on selfish grounds. One man in Selma opposed the reading of the Bible in the public schools because it interferred with his religious liberty. A thousand people wanted the Bible read in the schools, and to rob them of it interferred with their religious liberty.

"The one man, Roman Catholic, swore out an injunction against allowing the thousand to enjoy their pellate Court and this court gave the decision which gave to this one Roman Catholic his religious liberty by taking away the Bible from every public school in the state and thus by giving one man what he claimed his right, the court took from a million American citizens the right to enjoy their religous liberty. It resolves itself into this: When you are in Rome you must do as Rome does and when Rome is in America a million Americans must do, by edict of the Appellate Court, what one Roman desires them to do, and the court upheld the one Roman against every man, woman and child in California who believed that the Bible was worthy of a place in the life, education and training of good citizenship."

Johnny will be training at the Main Street Club all wek.

The Tunney Question

By: WILLIAM PICKENS

The manner in which Dempsey fought, or rather didn't fight, might make suspicious people think that maybe the thing was a bargain rather than a battle. Dempsey floundered and faulted and halted. If he had an opponent like Harry Wills he would probably have been knocked cold in the first few rounds.

Tuney could clear the atmosphere and make himself a worthy champion in all eyes, and not a mere pretense, like Jess Willard if he would agree that in the next six months he will fight the best boxer that can be gotten of any race or color from anywhere. There is so much corrupting money in this too rotten game now that a "world champion" cannot be like Cæsar's wife, "above suspicion" just because he is champion in name. Tunney's attitude in this matter will immediately gain or lose for him the respect of the more decent portion of mankind. He has already been reported to be in sympathy with the cowardly business of dodging Negro contenders. But now that he is champion, in name at least, what will he say about it?

Perhaps, we shall soon hear. If he "draws the color line" the doubt will become a conviction that he was put up and put over for that reason.

WILLS TO MEET SHARKEY OCTOBER 12

(By A. N. P.)

New York, N. Y., Oct. 6.—According to an announcement made by Humbert Fugazym, promoter, Ebbetts' Field, Harry Wills and Jack Sharkey, Boston heavyweight, will meet at Ebbetts Field, October 12, in a 15-round bout, as last outdoor bout of the season.

Wills, who was denied the opportunity to meet Dempsey and whom Tunney the newly crowned "Richard heavyweights. His opponent, Sharkey, fied that he would not fight, is beginning a rampage to prove to the world that he is the real champion of the heavyweights. is opponent, Sharkey, is no set-up and has been designated by Hype Igoe of the New York World as a logical challenger of Tunney. Igoe in a recent article declared: "Jack Sharkey looms as a dangerous contender for Gene right now. I mentioned him at the outset and I come back to him as being particularly capable. Cautious but capable just the same. Sharkey has beaten C orge Godfrey, Eddie Huffman, Jack McMave and Jim Malone this year. He conceded forty pounds to Godfrey."

That McLarnin Boy Will Have To Fight

...We don't know whether Sammy McLarnin caught to knock that chip off Tony Cruz's shoulder or not for Tony is a tough baby and Saturday night, October 9th at the Main St. A. C. he has promised to make Jimmy ashamed of his brother Sammy. They had a hard scrap not long ago but Sammy claims this one will be easy for him. So there you are. But in six rounds or less we shall see.

Did you see Patsy Flannigan fight a week or so ago. Say, that boy can go. He will probably trim Herman Ritterhouse in the 8 round special event. Here is the whole card and too join the crowds that thereat there on Saturday night will be in for some good scraps:

Main Event, Sammy McLarnin vs. Tony Cruz, 135 Lbs.; Semi-Wind: Frankie Flores vs. Chick Garrison, 130 Lbs.; Special 4 rounds Herman Ritterhouse vs. Patsy Flannigan, 130 Lbs.: 4 Rounds, Billy Aguayo vs. Sandy Garrison, 135 Lbs.; 4 rounds Frank Abalano vs. Lbs.: 4 rounds. Tony Cazeza, 135 Lbs.

Imagine a ball player already the world's greatest hitter bringing in four tabs, three of them real home-runs in one game. That is what the great Babe did on Wednesday last in th nsational game of the World Series in which the Yanks beat the Cards, 10 to 5. His record is the first and will perhaps remain the last for a long tme.

Young Stribbling Fights in Big Outdoor Show

That game persevering boxing impressario Dick Donald, after hard trying and many difficulties has at last landed a real stunt in a triple ten-round event either for the 23rd or 30th of this month. As we go to press the only learned of yet is Young Stribbling against some other top-notcher but suffice to say it will be an all-star card.

La Barba Signs To Meet Nationalista At Olympic

Fidel La Barba, world's flyweight champion, accepted terms to meet young Nationalista in a 10-round fight at the Olympic auditorium on the night of October 29th. Nationalista put a feather in his crown by his recent defeat of Teddy Silva at the same club.

Rain Nearly Beat The Cards in Tuesday's World Series Game

Tuesday, October 5th.—With the score standing 3 to 0 in the third inning with Saint Louis on bat, old Jupiter Pluvius sprinted up and the rain came pouring down. It looked as if it would have to be a "no contest." A postponement of both games was held in the Cards' favor as to whether or not the third game was to be played in Cleveland or Sunday. It was left to the

JOHNNY RISKO TO APPEAR AT OLYMPIC

Johnny Risko is gong to show the Los Angeles fans Tuesday night next just why he has been called the most feared man the light heavyweight division. On that night he meets Eddie Huffman, the perspicity and tenacity to thank for getting them the shot. Joe spent a lot of time on the telephone and in the telegraph offices on this match, and he had a deal of local competition to contend wth, but knowing the right party to talk to in the light heavyweight division. On that night he meets Eddie next light heavyweight champion of the world to meet the erstwhile gob. This should be a great match. Huffman is a great card here, because he has not been fully developed. He shows better every time, and he is given a great chance to wallop this "Baker Boy of Cleveland" when they hook up. Eddie can punch, and can box, and gets around the ring like a lightweight.

With Risko it's a matter of wallop. He never pretends to be a boxer, but the "dooks" he has. The folks out Cleveland way say that all Johnny ever had to do was squeeze a sack of flour n one hand and the end flew open, but that cannot be believed altogether.

The rest of Levy's brilliant card is composed of Johnny Walker and Eddie Barrett, heavyweights, six rounds; Jimmy Lucas and Benny Marks, six rounds; Joe Porras and Joe Bell, four rounds, and Bobby Herman and Casoer Sorio, four rounds.

What's the matter with the boxing game in Chicago? They can't seem to make it a real boxing centre in spite of the efforts of Mullen, Irvin, Jack Johnson and others who are promoting there.

Coach Howard Jones in The Making of U.S.C.'s Football Greatness

Surprising to say, the great Howard Jones whose leadership as coach has shown already in the two games the Trojans have played already this season and will show further in their first Conference game, of the season against Washington State, Saturday, October 9th was once a professor in the academic department. When he changed he took all his powers of reasoning and close application with him, combined with a fighting spirit that is hardly equalled by any who ever stood upon the football field.

Scipio Jones, Ark. Political Leader Girds For Battle

LAUNCHES ANOTHER BATTLE IN DEFENSE OF HIS RACE

(By A. N. P.)

Little Rock, Ark.—Spurred on by the aparent "double crossing" handed the "Old Guard" by a group of Negro Republicans who compromised with the "Lily Whites" and accepted seats in the recent convention, Honorable Scipio Jones, political leader of this section, has girded for battle and according to those who know Attorney Jones knows no defeat.

HIS RECORD INSPIRES CONFIDENCE

The belief and confidence that the people of Arkansas have in Scipio A. Jones is well founded in a record of accomplishment that is known by practically every school boy and girl, as well as by the "Lily Whites" of the Republican party. A few years ago when the Republican State Convention of Arkansas refused to go on record in opposition to the iniquitous "Grand Father Clause" which had for its purpose the disfranchisement of Negro voters of Arkansas, Mr. Jones assembled his forces and defeated the proposition.

Two years ago when the "Lily Whites" refused to recognize the Negro members of the Republican Party and used policemen to exclude them from the Pulaski County Convention, Judge Jones as he is municipal court judge, went to the mat with them at the Cleveland Convention and again emerged from the fray victorious.

REFUSES SEAT IN LILY WHITE CONVENTION

Realizing his strength, the "Lily Whites" at their "runup convention" held July 15th, tendered the judge a seat which he refused. Now comes the tacit endorsement of "Lily Whites" by a group of Negroes which was repudiated by all fair-minded and thinking Negroes and again Judge Jonse is marshalling his forces for battle.

HOLDS RESPECT FOR BOTH RACES

The esteem and respect for Judge Jones on the part of his own people are shared by the whites, as is indicated by his election to the Municipal Court bench and as chancellor of the Little Rock district by the Little Rock Bar Association of which a large number of the members were and are white democrats.

In this capacity Judge Jones has served in a manner which reflects credit upon the bar and the bench has gained a reputation of being a lover of equality, a believer in justice to all and a fearless judge.

Judge Jones attained national fame when he successfully defended eighty-four victims of the Elaint Riot in 1919 when after a legal battle which extended over a period of five years and was waged in the highest courts of the land, ending in a glorious victory for justice—with the acquittal of his clients.

This, however, is not the only time Judge Jones has championed the cause of justice for little or no compensation. Citizens of Arkansas, colored and white, are yet eulogizing him for his victory which resulted in breaking up the convict lease system which was virtually slavery for Negroes and poor whites.

HAS HELD BUT ONE PUBLIC OFFICE

Despite the fact that he is nationally known and is recognized as a courageous leader in fraternal, legal and political circles, Judge Jones has held but one public office. During the Great World War, the Judge was appointed by the late Woodrow Wilson, then President of the United States, a member of the Legal Bar and served his country without pay until the close of the war. Judge William H. Taft, however, during his Administration as President, offered to appoint him Governor of Devis by the District of Columbia, but Judge Jones declined the honor, stating as his reason, "I am the man

That reason, however, would not hold water today as the Judge has amassed a fortune, and is now promoting two sub-divisions—one for colored and one for white, and is the moving force in the Mosaic Templars, one of the strongest fraternal organizations in the country.

the growing demands of your membership, I hasten to assure you of our institution's interest in your effort.

"I believe the citizens in general will be glad to have a part in contributing both morally and financially to your building campaign.

"Your church, with its strategic situation and varied program will be a challenge to old and young alike who are clamoring for larger and broader church activities.

"Believe me to be,
"Sincerely yours,
"T. A. GREENE,
Executive Secy."

Mr. Norman O. Houston, Secretary-Treasurer of the Golden State Insurance Company, wrote as follows:

"Dear Father Cleghorn:

"It has been brought to our attention that you are about to enter upon a building program for a larger St. Philip's Church. We appreciate your valuable work in this community during the past sixteen years in which you started with practically nothing and now your service to God and humanity forces you to seek larger quarters.

"Wishing you the best of success in your drive to accomplish a greater center of advancement for all people, I am,

"Very truly yours,
"NORMAN O. HOUSTON
Secretary-Treasurer."

Mrs. Katherine J. Barr, Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles Urban League, commended the building project as follows:

"Dear Rev. Cleghorn:

"This is just a line or two to express a sincere hope that the drive you are launching for a larger church will be successful.

"For the past sixteen years we have watched the progress of your work in this community and we are not at all surprised that your congregation has outgrown its present quarters.

"Your church is a great asset to the city of Los Angeles and every citizen should deem it a privilege to subscribe to the funds you are raising to build a bigger and better edifice.

"Sincerely yours,
"KATHERINE J. BARR,
"Executive Secretary."

"Secretary A. Hartley Jones of the Liberty Building Loan Association, believes the campaign project is a step in community progress. In his letter to Father Cleghorn Mr. Jones says:

"Dear Father Cleghorn::

"In view of the excellent work that you have been doing in the community for the past sixteen years and the fact that your congregation has outgrown its present quarters, I believe the idea of building a new church large enough to accommodate you congregation quite timely and very essential for continued progress.

"We heartily endorse this movement and extend to you our best wishes for success.

"Very truly yours,
"A HARTLEY JONES,
"Secretary."

TANGIBLE JIM CROW REMOVAL

Demanded Of Pres. Coolidge With Immediate Start By National Equal Rights League and Boston Branch On 64th Anniversary of Emancipation Proclamation Chairman Butler Asked To Aid Issue in Campaign Convention In Phila.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 3, 1926.—Rev. S. W. Swain, vice-president at large of the National Equal Rights League, speaking at the 64th Anniversary of the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation in the Twelfth Baptist Church, declared dissatisfaction with the President's response to the Sesqui-Centennial Anti-Segregation Petitioners, for he could not see the segregation "Already removed", nor any "Gradually" removed since they could be wiped out.

J. E. Hagan saw no relief from Coolidge or Senator Butler, now up for re-election, but a sorry blow of a Jim Crow Result Law, nor had Butler, after promising, ever mentioned any specific interview he had with the President on the segregation. Secretary A. G. Wolf, presiding, called up an end of political chitlinisms; Mrs. M. Cravath Simpson, seconding all this, memorialized Rev. R. Shaw, and Wm. Monroe Trotter, in agreement, memorialized Emery T. Morris and then presented resolutions to Pres. Coolidge and Senator Butler were adopted.

It said in part; President Coolidge hereby called upon to make now a tangible removal of federal employee segregation of the race freed sixty-four years ago to save the country from disruption by the white South who are the authors of this segregation, in recognition of this saving by soldier freedmen, and to make this sesqui-centential year of Independence the time and occasion of the abolition of proscription of any race of loyal Americans under the Federal government.

Rev. Swain announced the 19th Annual meeting of the League in the Varick A. M. E. Zion Church in Philadelphia, October 20-24, as a sesqui rights convention for rights at Sesqui City during Sesi Observance, to which every city is asked to send delegates.

fort possible in raising funds. We held two meetings in West Palm Beach last night. The Club Women and Civic Organizations are working night and day. We are sad and sorrowful, but not discouraged. Our God is able to lift the cloud from us. May the appeal to our friends everywhere to SEND MONEY TO FLORIDA, be answered. MONEY is what is needed. We are not asking for separate contributions for our people, but for contributions for the people of Florida. WHITES SECURE CONTROL KNIGHTS OF TABOR

(By A. N. P.)

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 6.—Special. The race lost another business enterprise, when the Knights and Daughters of Tabor was taken over lock, stock and barrel by the Standard Life Insurance Company of Eureka Springs, Ark. This deal was kept secret by the officials of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor from the public and it was not until Monday, when the information concerning the deal became known, although the papers in the matter had been approved by the Insurance Department of Arkansas on September 7th.

The consideration was not made public but nevertheless, as far as is able to determine by the delegates who attended the Grand Session of Pine Bluff, the matter had never been authorized by the Grand Session. When the Grand Session met in regular convention in Pine Bluff on July 20, no mention was made of the fact that the order was in such a rocky condition and that it would be necessary to sell the order's insurance department and buildings to some other concern the following week. Although, there was current rumor about the state that the order was insolvent and owed more than $55,000 worth of death claims, the officers denied this, stating that a real estate loan on the building at Ninth and State Streets known as Taborian Hall for $25,000 would put the order in a "very good shape."

Negotiations have been under way, for several weeks between the officials of the Standard Life Insurance Company and the Knights and Daughters of Tabor.

Papers filed with the State Insurance Department show that the Standard Life Insurance Company has undertaken to underwrite the insurance business of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor. The agreement was signed by W. E. Patterson, President and W. G. Ignalls, Secretary of the Standard Life Insurance Company and Scipio A. Jordan, Chief Grand Mentor and J. H. Hammonds, Grand Secretary of the Knights of Tabor. The Standard Life Insurance Company is the Arkansas Company organized by white men which now owns the former Standard Life of Georgia. The Knights and Daughters of Tabor until about five years ago was considered one of the strongest colored fraternal societies in Arkansas. It has been operating its insurance department for about twenty years and has a membership of 14,250 members. The department records at the State House show that the Tabors was the first colored society to begin insurance business in Arkansas. The written agreement transfers the Taborian Hall at Ninth and State and 118 acres of country property owned by the Knights of Tabor to the Standard Life. The property listed about has an estimated value of $125,000 with an encumbrance of $25,000.

P. P. B. A. ELECTION IN FULL SWAY

A heavy vote was polled last week in the primary election of the P. P. B. A. of this district, at this writing over half the porters had cast their vote for the different officers to head Local No. 1 during the ensuing year. The delegate to the Grand Association, however, has been the main issue and up to the present writing has brought about a complete change in P. P. B. A. politics in this district. T. A. Sims who has always been a strong candidate for the office of delegate to the Grand Association, was nominated at a meeting of the local held last week and aparently had no opposition up until a late hour last week, when the tide was overwhelmingly turned in favor of a dark horse, whom it was rumored later as S. A. Hopgood. This came as a complete surprise to the Sims factions, who were unaware of any move of this kind. But a great rally was looked forward to and a hot battle is now certain. A check up of votes out of town is expected to bring the two candidates running neck and neck, as they are both very popular leaders in this district. R. J. Murray was nominated for Chairman; C. H. Levy, Vice-Chm.; C. A. Crain, Secy.; S. A. Hopgood, Treas.; the election committee was the primary was: S. H. Burnette, Chm.; J. L. Hill and J. Ponder. The same committee will be appointd for the final election with the possible exception of J. Ponder, O. Soares will be appointed in his place if available. The very, very charming Miss Tasmama Dersien of San Francisco is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Asia Steward and Mrs. Australia McCarty. Armstrong is a wise old owl and never tells his business. Alright, Harry, make things pleasant for her but watch your step and remember she's a Miss.

There will be about four hundred foreign men in the city next week with the different bankers specials. Treat 'em right, and make 'em welcome.

Railroad news is always welcome in the Railroad Clatter. Address Chas. L. Upton, 2130 W. 30th St., or phone Rochester 4762.

The new uniforms are here now. Did you get yours?

H. B. Wilson fell heir to the San Diego tourist car run months before the races. If he wise or dumb?

C. SMITH NO. 2 GETS MARRIED

Porter C. Smith No. 2 put one over on the gang and got married to a charming young Miss last week. I have been keeping tab on Smith for some time as he was one of the men I mentioned in The Matrimonial Chart. On my last visit with Mr. Smith he told me that he was engaged. I called around later to see if he was in the same frame of mind and he was married, so this speedy romance must have surely been a strong case of love at first sight. Evidently some of these girls have been following my advice in that series of articles entitled The Matrimonial Chart. However, my old friend S. A. Hopgood says up to the present time he is still safe. The Railroad Clatter extends Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith congratulations.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Mr. G. Milette, Commissary Chef for the S. P. is enjoying a vacation in Victorville, Bakersfield and San Francisco.

S. Fillmore, S. P. meat cutter is taking his vacation in Nevada where he will go deer hunting. A deer arrived at the commissary the other day and it was rumored about that Fillmore sent it.

The Southern Pacific still has the three famous Colored stewards in their employ—J. H. Hicks, A. F. Nunn and J. B. Tanner and what's more they are all making percentage. In fact since the Hon. Mr. J. H. Hicks got married and moved away from the Bronx. He is batting a hundred per cent.

Traveling chef T. Harrison is holding the job down while the different commissary chefs are on their vacations.

Richard Burns the S. P. sheik and Ed. Johnson went hunting. They both took their guns along in search of big game. After walking both night and day trailing what they thought to be bear tracks. They pitched their tents in an ideal spot for a little rest. The sheik lost the map which he had brought with him, so he inquired from a settler who happened to be passing by of their whereabouts, and said the settler, "My friends, you are now in Echo Park, can't you hear Aimee - McPherson broadcasting?

The Golden State trains were all 36 to 48 hours late last week and old man Kendal told the crews it was every tub; so they doubled and doubled.

Mr. Percy Buck has been hitting the hot towns all week on account of the washouts.

It has been rumored around town that the S. P. will have a head waiter with each crew on the new De Luxe Train.

Traveling Chef T. Harrison is all that his title implies. The writer called around to pay him a call and lo and behold they were moving his house right off the lot. Now that's what I call Traveling Chef.

They say that J. L. Hill was looking for a certain party's house last week on the East, and got into Sugar Davis' house by mistake. Now, Sugar Davis happened to be sick and when he looked up and seen an undertaker, LORD!

MENTAL INDIGESTION

By: OSCAR POLK

Would you rather have a White or Colored man for your "boss?" Now, tell yourself the truth. I don't know is my answer. I am admitting that a large number of colored men I have at times served under have been too small for the job. I say too small and mean, they never had my interest at heart as a true leader should. They would delight in the opportunity of razzing me when I was at fault, they were untrue to me and that untruth always happened when I needed truth most. I have at the same time come in contact wth some Negroes who were too large for their positions. I know of at this very moment three, and strange in all my rolling around this globe they were found in Los Angeles. The first is Mr. Mathews, the elevator starter at the Broadway Dept. Store. I say this, he is the Prince of Good Fellows. He is a young man, however, and that covers a multitude of faults. The next one is Mr. Easton, Custodian of the State offices here is a bit of work that calls for experience, will, ability and and a lot of strength. This work must be done right. Mr. Easton is fully responsible for it being satisfactory. He is not the man to nag his men, he requires satisfactory work, no more, no less. He is the King of Good Fellows. I have not been with my present colored boss, Mr. Will Johnson, long enough to form any conclusion as to his type. He knows his work. He is cheerful always willing to help you out a jam, he does not load anything against you and I only want to see what he does in a pinch, I believe he will hold his own, like a Prince of Good Fellows should.

My wife spends a lot of money each week for goods needed to run the house, yet outside of the names of wearing apparel she rarely knows the names of even reputable brands of food. She is no worse than the average housewife, so few of our women believe in names. What is a name? Experience is a great teacher—the older and wiser we grow the greater becomes our respect for character and reputation—we learn, sometimes to our sorrow, that things are not always what they seem. The Stranger is not to be entrusted with the same confidence we place in an old and proven friend. We feel more secure if our funds are deposited in a rock-ribbed and reliable bank. If we buy a diamond we feel safer in the hands of a jeweler of good repute. What's in a name? Why, security, satisfaction, peace of mind. A good reputation is more precious than rubies.

We went to church again Sunday. Why? Not because the wife made the mistake of using the Sports sheet to tie a package in; only wanting to give the old soul some needed exercise. It got it good and plenty too. Every time I go to Hamilton M. E. Church I come home feeling sort of dizzy. Psychologists call it inspiration. I keep calling it a chronic case of inability to digest the mental ability of the pastor Dr. Beane. I can't see how it is folks are not out to get his message in the same manner they show for the "Four Squares Gospel!"

Observers of the social order of the day are convinced that in all relations of life there is a strong tendency toward complexity, and that, in consequence, simplicity in thought and habit is becoming more difficult to maintain. This condition arises from the involvement of the ages in materiality; that is to say, from the general acceptance of life as material, as having its source in matter, as inherent in matter, and as supported by it. While the avenues for expressions by the individual have been vastly increased in number, his mental and spiritual freedom has not been enhanced thereby. We believe that the shortest way to simplicity is knowledge. In all thing it will go a long ways.

On our way to the Re. Lycer's Air Port, Sunday, we stopped by our old friend at the Rogers Field; we got our first glimpse of the much-talked of Police Officer, Sheffield—I mean the one of the 'every tub' and Blues fame. Of all the many things I have heard among our group concerning his methods of seeing and attending his duties, even the part about his having a 'cruel streak' I must refute. Why? Mr. Sheffield is a student aviator and I never saw an aviator in all my life but whose personality was far above the average. The best of luck Sheffield. In both your endeavors enforcing the law and flying. Remember! watch your step. There are those who would delight in your getting a "crack."

Ready To Launch Third Annual Drive

Actual preliminary preparations for the Community Chest's third annual appeal for funds have just been completed.

This is the advice received from Joseph Scott, campaign chairman in the forthcoming campaign, November 9 to 23. According to Scott, the personnel of the executive staff has been appointed and comprehensive details are now being worked out.

With the 143 agency members under the wing of the Chest signifying their intention of participating in the Chest for the coming year, with men and women of local prominence volunteering their assistance; and with 15,000 workers rapidly enlisting to form a great army, a successful culmination of the appeal is anticipated by Chest Officials.

The Community Chest, which collects and distributes maintenance funds for 143 social, welfare, charity and relief agencies has proved, after three years of successful operation, that it is a dominant factor in the social welfare work of Great Los Angeles, Chest officials declare. Ninety-four cents out of every dollar collected in the annual appeals is actually being sent to charity and but six cents out of every dollar is being used for year-round administration of the Chest and campaign expenses.

Operating with the financial maintenance of the Chest is every type of agency necessary to meet the needs of the city's sick, needy and unfortunate men, women and children. There are orphanages, homes for the aged, hospitals, clinics, dry nurseries, corrective and protective institutions, preventive agencies, homes for dependent children and various other types of agency.

Instead of hundreds of drives, campaigns, "tag days" and appeals, the Chest has come with a new solution; one appeal once a year to take care of all necessary charities. The purposes of the Chest are: to act as a central bureau through which all funds for charitable, relief and welfare work may be solicited, collected and disbursed; to promote studies and plans whereby the social service problems of the city may be thoroughly understood, efficiently and economically dealt with and adequately met; to develop a spirit of co-operation among the institutions devoted to those problems and needs, and to co-ordinate their activities.

From point of geographical area to be covered and from number of agency members, the Los Angeles Community Chest is the largest in the United States, according to Scott. The area covered by the operations of the local Chest includes Los Angeles proper, Hollywood, the San Fernando Valley, Sherman, Beverly Hills, Westwood, Sawtelle, Brentwood, Westgate, Pacific Palisades, Palms, Cerson, Huntington Park, Maywood, Bell Cudahy, Walnut Park, Southgate, Home Gardens, Watts, Wilmington, San Pedro and Venice.

REDLANDS

All services at the Second Baptist Church of Redlands were well attended on Sunday, Sept. 26th. Rev. W. D. Carter, D. D., pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church of Pasadena was the distinguished guest and honored speaker of the day. This man of God proved himself to be a most fervent, forceful and eloquent deliverer of the Word. His morning subject was Loyalty to God and Its Results in which the speaker extoled David's loyalty, obedience and faithfulness to his Master. He enumerated the principles by which the present day followers of the lowly Nazarene might prove their worth to the Great Cause.

Keep our Soul on Top was the subject of the powerful, fiery, message delivered Sunday night. He emphasized the fact that Men's Souls must be kept on top regardless of prevalent fashion conditions, social and political conditions or the various pitfalls of Satan. The speaker was heartily congratulated by the pastor Rev. F. W. Cooper and his congregation after both of his inspiring sermons, and Dr. Carter and his congregation were extended a cordial welcome to worship at the Second Baptist Church at any time through the courtesy of the pastor.

Emmett Scott's Daughter to wed Bishop's Son

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—Miss Clarissa Mae Scott, daughter if Doctor and Mrs. Emmett J. Scott, will be married to Hubert Thomas Delaney, New York City, son of Bishop H. B. Delaney, of the Episcopal Church, Saturday evening, October 9th, at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The ceremony will be performed by Bishop Delaney and Reverend O. L. Mitchell, rector of St. Mary's and will followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Scott is a graduate of Wellesley College and was admitted to the Phi Beta Kappa Society at the latter school the year of her graduation in 1922.

Mr. Delaney is a graduate of the College of the City of New York, and of the Law School of New York University.

Mrs. J. W. Kendall of 1251 E. 49th street who is visiting in Bishop Mrs. C. W. Brown's in Philadelphia, Pa., will return home in October to resume her duties.

Prominent Pastor is Removed

(By A. N. P.)

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The Rev. C. S. Tanner, brother of the artist, and son of the late Bishop Tanner, has been removed from the pastorate of Bethel A. M. E. Church here, to a small charge in Milwaukee, Wis. The action was taken because of a demand made by a group of his parishioners, and in spite of the fact that he carried more "dollar money" to the conference than any minister had ever brought before. The church under Rev. Tanner was burned a few years ago and much dissatisfaction arose over his failure to put the congregation in another home, and the further failure of the famous church choir. Dr. Tanner leaves Chicago in some what the same cloud which followed him in Baltimore and Washington.

Henry Louis Mencken, Titanic Book Master

BY: LOUIS MICHEL

Real object for November journey, not search for rest, nor glories from Whites, but to gather information, mostly inspiration, from Blacks to write the crowning book of his life—the world emancipation of the Negro. Mencken is the greatest living writer of America and also the deepest literary giant America ever had and a much superior literary man than any President this country sent to the White ouse. His forthcoming book on the Negro will rock the world, change its map, and in a few years, perhaps only months after its appearance, bring complete deliverance and justice to the Black man. Reception Committee of 1000 and more Negroes is forming to heed the deep wish of Henry Louis Mencken: "Needless to say I'd be delighted to meet the intellectual Negroes of Los Angeles!"

The greatest living literary genius of the Caucasian race in America, the only literary epoch-marking mastermind of letters, books, poetry and unceasing polemics and subtlest and most original criticisms of mastermen and masterwritings of mastermen of this age, Henry Louis Mencken of Baltimore, will be a visitor and thousandfold guest in innumerable places and intellectual haunts in Los Angeles early in November, 1926.

Who he is and what he does and his noblest work that he is to do yet, Negroes shall know and are called upon to prepare and receive him as befits him and this finest opportunity to see the most distinguished White man since Lloyd Garrison was stoned and almost killed in the streets of liberty-loving Boston!

WHAT MENCKEN IS!

Henry Louis Mencken is a more distinguished sage than ever sat in the White House as the President of this nation. As the erudite and unparalleled Editor of the "American Mercury," he displays far more discerning intellect and finer literary abilities than all of the most scholarly President we have ever had, than George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Alexander Hamilton, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Howard Taft and the calamitous and unfortunate Woodrow Wilson—a fair man and true lady will class Mr. Henry Louis Mencken as a grander literary intellectual giant than any of the mentioned Presidents of the United States.

But the Mencken greatness is not only found in the almost uncanny and superlative stunning inborn diplomacy and deepest reasoing brilliancy in his articles and his books, but fully as decisive and rare in his sterling honesty and genuine sincerity that he always maintained in his splendid crusades for mankind's rights and the same square justice for the downtrodden ones.

Mencken was never bought by any corporation, nor any millionaire of our land; he always stood with the masses and never forsook the tortured Negro, for the White man's Ku Klux gold never had any charm for this admirable and most celebrated Titan of America's best penmen. At every movement directed against the Negro, Henry Louis Mencken fought bravely and defiantly for the Black brother's rights, and from this honorable literary pathway all the combined hellhounds of America's Lily-White discrimination leagues and clubs could not dislodge or silence the doughty and peerless Henry Louis Mencken. Born in Southernized Baltimore, soon, even as a very young man, Mr. Mencken discovered and hurled his powerful shafts of earnest logic and Heinrich Heine-like wit and sarcasm against the White man's imaginary superi-

THE MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN IN CELEBRATION OF THE FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE JULIUS ROSENWALD DONATION OF $25,000 TO ANY CITY IN THE NATION THAT WOULD PROVIDE A MODERN Y. M. C. A. BUILDING FOR COLORED MEN AND BOYS

OUR NEW TWENTY-EIGHTH ST. BRANCH Y. M. C. A.

The building contains a standard gymnasium, swimming pool, locker rooms, shower baths, separate club rooms for boys and young men, and dormitory accomodations for 65 men. There is a private dining room, and club rooms for classes and small group meetings. The gymnasium has a balcony so arranged that it can be used as an auditorium for the use of larger groups. In the rear of the building will be located handball courts.

Architecture Spanish Adoption

The architecture of the building is a California adopton of the Spanish style. The exterior of the building is ornamental white stone on the first story then reinforced concrete and a red Granada tile roof. In the interior, the men's lobby presents a very pleasing affect with irregular plastered walls, and an overhead of concrete decorated to imitate an old wooden ceiling. The fireplace in the lobby is of stone similar in color to the side walls, and the entire room has the effect of a Spanish lounging room. The swimming pool is unusually interesting from an architectural standpoint, inasmuch as the ceiling is highly decorative wth color and design rather severe, simple walls, and have a tile wainscoting around the lower portion. The runway around the pool is of Spanish tile.

Paul R. Williams, a member of the Ninth St. Branch of the Y. M. C. A. since childhood, is the architect.

WHAT THE Y. M. C. A. MEANS TO A BOY

(By Clayton Russell)

In London, England, in the year 1844, the first Y. M. C. A. was founded by George Williams for the purpose of furnishing his fellow clerks with a place to hold religious services and social and discusion groups. From this small start there has grown and spread throughout the world an organization having many branches of work such as for college students, railriad men, industries and county.

Times have changed since 1944. The Y means a great deal more today than it did then and particularly to a boy. It means wholesome pleasure in the presence of good companionship.

If a boy joins the Y. M. C. A. and is active in it, he will be led to believe in God thru Jesus Christ. It will promote his growth into the fulness if a good Christian character.

There is no place better for a boy to start seeking his place in life than in the Y. Valuable personal help ran be given to him if he needs advice and encouragement. If a boy should get on the wrong track, feel disgusted and give up hope he can receive an inspiration to start anew if he goes to the Y with a spirit to learn and to be helped.

If a boy does not benefit by his contact with the Y. M. C. A., he is not taking advantage of the opportunities offered by it. It means the promotiin of spiritual, inellectual, social and physical welfare of his life. It offers a building wherein rooms, wholesome games, gymnasium, hygiene and swimming classes—all these tending to build up the spiritual, intellectual, social and physical sides of a boy's life.

In a sentence, it may be said, that to a boy the Y. M. C. A. means proper training for his great journey through life enabling him to fill his place efficiently.

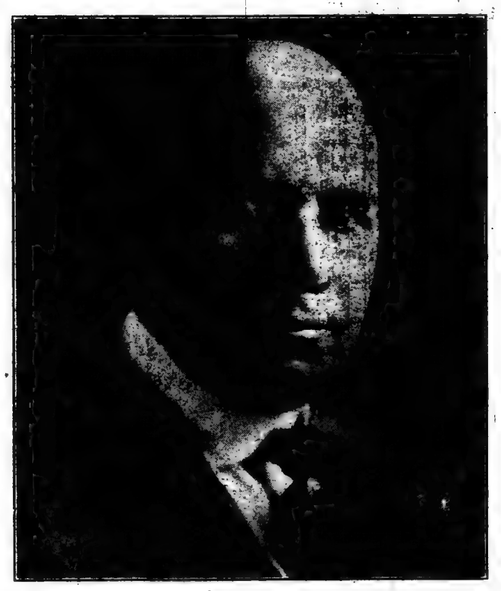
THE COMMUNITY AND THE Y. M. C. A.

By: CHAS. L. EASON



Once upon a time, a narrow-minded Roman matron boasted of her jewels in the presence of the mother of the Gracchi. This wise mother called her two sons, stalwart, alert, clear-eyed, and said, "There are my jewels." In the lapse of the ages the jewels of the thoughtless women are crumbled and lost but the lives of those noble boys still enrich the world. Even today short-sighted communities boast of their coal, oil, and pig iron. In the

The group is standing on the steps of the cottage in which the Branch was organized in 1906. Of the twelve faces here shown, six have passed to the beyond—a great contrast between the birthplace and the new home into which they shall move in a few days.

Sir Titus Alexander, political war horse and well known exponent of Jeffersonian principles, who stands high with his party, in the VERY FIRST ONE to announce his candidacy for the Assembly from the 72nd Assembly district. Titus says he wants votes and for that reason he is right out in front and wants The Eagle readers to know just how much he will appreciate their support.

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID BY NOTED SOUTHERNER TO "APPEARNCES"

GARLAND ANDERSON, THE AUTHOR SCORES AGAIN

The following article is a clipping from the "Houston Chronicle" Metropolitan Daily of Houston, Texas, from the pen of M. E. Foster, who but recently sold the Chronicle for One Million Dollars.

Mr. Foster was visiting in Los Angeles and through wealthy friends was invited to attend a private reading of Appearances and the following is what he says about it in the issue of October 6th of the Houston Chronicle:

MEFO GETS PLEASANT SURPRISE: 'APPEARANCES' BY GARLAND ANDERSON

By M. E. Foster

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—I went to this particular reading with many misgivings. It was about a play written by a Negro. He was to appear in person, and a woman of the same race was scheduled to assist in telling the story of their experiences in presenting the drama on Broadway. I accepted the invitation as a duty, but I went in a rather disturbed, dubious frame of mind. In some way I pictured in advance a spoiled, New York-petted Negro, with an air of inferiority and a feeling that he had a message for my special enlightenment. They take up so many queer folks out here that I am always prepared in advance mentally for any character of a shock. So you see I started out with something of a prejudice, which is always wrong.

Am glad to say I was disillusioned. It was one of the most pleasurable evenings I have yet spent in this city. I was given a literary and a dramatic treat, and the two Negroes were as modest, as humble and as willing to serve as if they were servants. Not once did they strive to secure any special recognition, but when they had finished their recital we acclaimed the author as one who had done something really worthwhile for his race, surmounting obstacles that would have deterred many a Caucassistant we recognized as a clever actress with a voice that was clear, calm and convincing.

Probably you read about this Negro author last year. He was a bell hop in a San Francisco apartment. While answering telephone calls, delivering packages and waiting upon the guests he wrote a play. He did it without any knowledge of the technique of the drama, and without any training. His schooling had been very little, the greater part being the education of himself by reading and studying as he waited at the switchboard. Between telephone calls he outlined and then wrote his play. His name is Garland Anderson and he is black—a true Negro, not a mulatto.

The play he wrote has the title of "Appearances." I think a better title might be "The Bell Hop," for it is mainly the story of a Negro bell-boy who tried to do something for his race, and who when brought before the courts on a charge of criminal assault secured an acquittal by the intervention of white people who knew him and who had faith in him. The bell hop's greatest victory, however, was from his own faith and his belief in the right. In some respects the play is on the style of "The Fool," although in no case an imitation. It is similar in that it carries the same message of charity for mankind, and of right living and right thinking. The drama is not all "preaching," however. There is much real Negro humor in it, there is a plot and frequently there is a thrill in the de-

San Francisco

Hardly had the echoes of the Bell which proclaimed the birth of a new nation died away, when there was born on the far western shore a scrawney, but bustling assemblage of shacks and adobes that was destined to become a shining jewel in the diadem of a great and powerful nation.

October the 9th, 1776, is the official birthdate of San Francisco, and beginning with that date one hundred and fifty years after she celebrates her Sesqui-Centennial anniversary. From a straggling village of adventurers, Monks, Franciscan priests who carried with them that symbol of Christian progress, the Cross: searchers for hidden wealth of gold, San Francisco from her Seven ills, today, beacons to the nations of the earth and ships pour their wealth at her feet.

No city in the world is more replete with romance than is San Francisco. The old Missions are redolent with the sacrifices made by the bearers of the cross. Every nook and cranny breathes of the loves and hates, struggles and successes of the pioneers who laid its foundation. The very fogs which at times hide the face of the city as the bridal veil half conceals, half reveals the beauty of the bride. The Spanish influence is seen in the architecture of the city. No residence, scarcely a business block, which does not reveal its outlines. In fact, it was the two dominant forces of Spain—the church and profession of arms—that created a city far from the beaten path of the civilization of that period.

To read the story of how the little band of Spanish soldiers, under the command of Captain Jose Joachim Moraga, and a small number of Franciscan friars under Fra Palou, won an empire, is like reading a story replete with adventure. The trials of the Franciscan fathers in converting the Indians to civilization and religion; teaching them to raise their sustenance from the earth, learning them the craft of building and skillful artistry, has no parallel in the history of the nation. The celebration will center around the old Mission Dolores Church one of the few remaining buildings of the old Spanish regime that has defied the city's march of progress.

South Carolina is still living up to her reputation. Damon Loman, his sister, Bertha Loman, and their cousin, Clarence Loman, all Negroes, were taken from the jail at Aiken by a mob and lynched. The trio was convicted of the murder of a sheriff. There was ho possible chance for them to escape the death sentence but the blood thirst of the mob was too great to await the decree of justice.

The custom has been that wherever the Federation of Labor convened they have had access to the pulpits of the various denominations and the rostrums of institutions. In Detroit invitations had been extended to the outstanding leaders to voice their views and the invitations had been accepted. When the time came to deliver their message the churches and the Young Men's Christian Association withdrew their invitations. For what reason?

0—00—0

The fight is on to defeat Initiative Number Seventeen, which is a proposal to force the reading of the Bible in the public schools. Many of the church organizations are against the measure, claiming that it is against religious freedom. Between Fundamentalism and Modernism it is a sign of the dawn of tolerance when the churches recognize the sanctity of the individual will. It seems to be the dawn of a new religious era. And it is well.

The N. A. A. C. P. Presents JOHN A. GRAY, Pianist and SINCLAIR WHITE MURDOCK, Violinist

In Joint Recital

TUESDAY, 8:30 P. M., OCTOBER 26, 1926

AT SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH, 24th and Griffith ADMISSION 50 CENTS

I have been asked by Mrs. A. C. Richardson, to contribute some space for a very rare and unusual treat and a most worthy cause, namely the presentation of MADAM SINCLAIR WHITE MURDOCK, whose charming personality and exceptional ability as a Violinist put her in the rank of the very few outstanding artists of the race, and our MR. GRAY, who by concentrated effort and diligent application, through sacrifice and hardship, has reached the point of recognition as an artist because of his technique at the piano and as a teacher of same. We all love JOHN GRAY and MADAM MURDOCK because of what they mean to the community. Both have character and are devoting their life's work helping our little ones along the line of musical education, which aids so materially in character building, and as for the N. A. A. C. P., the work of the organization speaks for itself, and I sincerely urge that all of you who read this announcement will not only go yourselves, but will tell a friend or acquaintance to do likewise that these two young artists and our great association will be encouraged to do even more.

I am thankful for the opportunity of donating some space for this occasion.

Wilbur C. Gordon M.D.

NOTE:—MOST UNUSUAL CAREER FOR MADAM MURDOCK

At the age of six she entered the Chicago Musical College under the joint tutorship of Alexander Sebald and Anatol Melzakowski, at the age of eight, her genius recognized, was taken by Melzakowski to Warsaw Russian Polland, studied there until she was fourteen years of age, gave 48 chamber music recitals through Russia, eight and fourteen years, returned to Unit, eght and fourteen years, returned to United States, re-entered the Chicago musical college under the same tutors, through post graduation. Won three gold medals and one diamond medal, was the youngest competitor for four consecutive years, had the honor of representing the Violin Department of the college at their commencement exercises, at which time she rendered Max Bruch's Concerto in G-Minor with full Thomas Orchestra, which was led by Carl Reckex. At age of nineteen was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts which meant the completion of the required curriculum of the institution in Violin, Harmony, Pedagogy, Canon, Fuque Composition and history of music.

Madam Murdock accompanied Madam Anita Patti Brown through the West Indies and South America, returned and resumed studies under Felix Witernitz for one year, gave joint recital with the now famous Roland Hayes, was for a year violin instructor at the American Conservatory in Chicago, being the first woman of Negro blood to hold such position, also personal violiniste for Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle for three years. She enjoyed two successful seasons of the Orpheum Circuit, as soloist for Rienee Davis. After making one tour of the Pantages Circuit, arrived in Los Angeles and falling in love with the beautiful climate and lovely people, she decided to go no further, continuing her studies with Alexander Roman of the Philharmonic Orchestra, and has taught among us for five years. We shall be honored by hearing Madam Murdock play the concerto that won her the diamond medal, and she says that she will play it on a very rare old Amati violin, which she was able to purchase through her teacher, Alexander Roman. I'll say this is some career, and I don't see how anyone can afford to not hear this unusually talented woman.

NOTE:—SHOULD ANYONE ASK US ABOUT MR. GRAY, WE TAKE PRIDE IN POINTING OUT THE FOLLOWING WHICH SPEAKS OF HIS CAREER:—

Mr. Gray started his musical career under the tutorship of his father, a choir director of a Norfolk Virginia Church. Dad taught him the fundamental principles and rudiments of music. Then came the hardships known to so many of us who perchance might achieve success in life, and our John was largely self taught until he was able to reach Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and he had a real teacher for the first time. After coming to Los Angeles in 1909 he entered the Von Stein Academy, under the tutorship of Herr Von Stein, then Piano harmony under Dr. Eugene Davis, of the Davis Music College. Then for two years he took harmony, counterpoint and composition with N. L. Ridderhof. At the same time Mr. Gray was studying Pipe Organ with Bruce Gordon Kinsley, French and German with Karl Muhlenfield, and Italian with Frank Tortorelli, went to Polytechnic two years in piano with Joseph Riccard.

Then came the war which put him back. After the war, he resumed his studies for the first seven years with the same French teacher; also taking up theory and counterpoint with A. J. Gantvoort of U. C. Southern Branch. This young man has also studied the Alchin System of harmony with Vincent Jones at the U. S. C., and for the past two winters has been studying German and Italian at the U. C. Extension Departments. He is one of the affiliated teachers of the University Extension Conservatory of Chicago, has done much pioneer work here with us, and we well remember the two-piano recital with Mrs. Bessie Williams Bones and the other two-piano recital with Mrs. Lorenza Jordan Cole. He was the founder of the Bridge Tower Trio, the only Chamber music organization of the race on the coast.

He had the pleasure of serving as an accompanist to our great artists, Roland Hayes and Florence Cole Talbert. Mrs. Talbert, by the way, is now studying in Italy and we believe she has been engaged to sing Aida. The coming program will reveal Mr. Gray as a soloist, accompanist and ensemble player, the three divisions of piano-playing, indeed rather versatile, we should say.

I assure you that we have no other two people in these parts with a musical career which will excel these two people, Sinclair W. Murdock, and John A. Gray.

wild West rush to develop their material resources and build bigger profits they crush human souls in mill, mine and factory. They spend lavishly to build prisons and curtail appropriations for the support of institutions that build up the minds, health and character of the young people.

Far sighted, progressive communities boast of the wealth inherent in human resources. Their primary concern is in the conservation of their boys and girls. To this end they pour our their treasures unstintedly to provide facilitise for their education that they may be better citizens and better able to advance the welfare of the community.

Los Angeles, our lovely city, belongs to this latter group. Schools, churches, and Y. M. C. A's. are everywhere available. As Negro citizens we are extremely fortunate that our lines have fallen in such a pleasant place where our every interest is taken care of and where our boys and girls are subjected to the finest influences of civilization. Now, the big suestion is: Do we arpreciate our opportunities? Are we truly interested in our own development along moral and spiritual lines? Our answers to these questions will be found in our response to the appeal for memberships in the new branch of the Y. M. C. A.

On the corner of 28th and Paloma, Los Angeles has built one of the most beautiful edifices in America and dedicated it to the preparation of Negro men and boys to meet ably and confidently the new problems so sure to arise in our changing social and physical conditions. Has this money been wasted? Let a thousand new members be our answer to this question.

This picture shows some of the Captains, Lieutenants and Sergeants who will carry our Membership Contest to victory over the rest of the Associatons of the country. The photograph is taken in front of the great and imposing entrance to the Men's lobby.

The Young Men's Christian Associatiin shows here in the above cut that it stands for Clear Eyed Manhood without regard of race.

What other National and International organizaton delights to send out such Clear Eyed cuts of Negroes? Most of them like Uncle Toms. The Y. M. C. A. likes young men like the above cut, hundreds of whom we have in our city and need to come under the influence of the Association.

All out for not less than 1000 members.

COLLEGE MEN AND THE "Y"

By: S. B. D.

Marcus Aurelius, the old philosopher, at one time averred that "Livig is passing from one social act to another." In truth, we become socialized through contact. College men in the routine of college life have very few opportunities for healthy and wholesome social contacts. This is due to the present day college system. The majority of contacts must be made outside of the university activities. Hence, some agency or organization must furnish them. The Y. M. C. A. serves this end as good as if not better than any other organization.

College men, as a rule, are prone to neglect some of the more serious onsiderations of life. There are problems of health, problems of religious beliefs and sentiments, and problems of recreation and amusements which they have no definite ines as to to the relative importance. We find that their scale of values is oft times twisted. The Y. M. C. A. will stabilize those students who have been confused and are suffering from mental complications. It offers stimulation for physical growth and development. It furnishes a time and place for regular social release for a group of men who think, feel and act alike. It encourages leadership and offers opportunities for self-expression. In short, the Y. M. C. A. is a weather vane pointing out to the college men the paths which lead to the development of the highest type of manhood.

WILL MILLIONS NOW LIVING NEVER DIE!

Such will be the subject of the sermon at the Big Gospel Tent, at 20th and Central Avenue, Sunday night, October 17th at 7:45 P. M.

Will the wicked dead come to life to have a second probation and will the Gospel be preached to the Sodomites and the men who lived before the flood? What about the Millenium and where will the righteous spend these 1000 years? Evangelist P. G. Rodgers, the fearlessly outspoken defender of the Faith of the Bible will carry the big crowd straight thru this subject according to the "Thus Saith The Lord", and everyone anxious to know the truth of the Millenium cannot fail to be on hand.

Every night in the week, Monday and Saturday nights excepted, Mr. Rodgers present a thrilling, interesting, yet deeply spiritual discourse our of the ordinary, but straight from the scriptures, every sermon educational and soul reviving. Everyone is made welcome at the BIG TENT.

COURT SOLMON MARCHES EVER ONWARD

By: M. DENTON, JR.

Court Solomon No. 8677, Ancient Order of Forresters, is keeping with its progressive spirit of upbuilding and uplifting, is ever adding to its already large membership.

Without neglecting the parent organization, every effort is being put forth to fully develop the auxiliaries of the court, namely the Drill Corp and the "Forresters Wonder Band." The latter, under Prof. John C. Spikes the well known music master is making unbelievable progress.

In their effort to make this aggregation of players the greatest of the great, concerts and other social festivities are being held from time to time, with the added hope that this time will soon be realized.

While the Drill Corp doesn't appear to be as active as the band, it is understood that secret maneuvers are being made that will make all sit up and take notice. We hope the rumors are true.

Chief Ranger, Monroe L. Elgin and other officials are sparing no efforts in placing Court Solomon in the position that they say it should occupy, namely, number one. Judging from the manner in which they say it should occupy, number one. Judging from the manner in which the officials are working and the jubilant spirit with which the members are co-operating, it will not be very long ere Court Solomon will have attained the exalted position to which it aspires.

MRS. B. A. JOHNSON PASSES TO BEYOND

BY: E. L. DORSEY

Mrs. B. A. Johnson, esteemed and beloved wife of B. A. Johnson of Sacramento passed to the great beyond on last Friday. Her passing, while somewhat sudden to her many friends was not altogether unexpected as Mrs. Johnson had been in declining halth for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were married over 53 years ago and journeyed together over life's highway with its many ups and downs.

Mrs. Johnson was a true wife, a loving mother and a stern and staunch character in the community.

Especially during her life time was she interested in the young people and the church.

She was the mother of the first Negro to be graduated from a university in this state in the person of the late Ernest Johnson who graduated in Law from the University of California in the early ninities.

Mrs. Johnson leaves to mourn her loss her husband, B. A. Johnson; a married son, Harry Johnson; 2 married daughters, Mrs. Lena Harper and Mrs. Geo. McCard and six grand children and a legion of friends.

A Harvest Festival—A Real Industrial Exposition

Destined to be one of the greatest two-in-one events ever presented to our group will be the affair planned to be held on the corner of 14th and Compton, October 25th to October 30th. It is a great Harvest Festival to be held annually by the Macedonia Baptist Church of South Los Angeles (formerly Watts).

By way of amusement and recreation an interesting program will be presented each night together with movie features and athletic contests but absolutely no games of chance or any feature which will offend the morals of the people or lower it to the cheapening standard of a Carnival. The Exposition features will be in the nature of a real Exposition presenting for display and judgment for their merits products of home, farm and factories of our people. This will bring together our leading Negro salesmen and manufacturers. Among those who will bring the attention of the public to their products by occupying a booth will be the California Eagle, Golden State Life Insurance Co., Overland Auto Co., Sanders Lamp Co., Y. M.
